STATIONS, MISSIONARIES, AND OTHER LABOURERS, MAY 1, 1875.

 A STATION is the place at which a Missionary or European Catechist is stationed, or at which Native Christians are located under Native pastoral superintendence in connexion with the Society. The letter (m) means Married. —Wives of Missionaries, &c., though not named, except when engaged in some specific employment, are always expected by the Society to lay themselves out to do good, in every practicable way, among Native Females; such as cultivating familiar intercourse with them, educating children, and instructing Female Adults.

The figures after the Names of the European Labourers show the date of their first connexion with the Society's Missions.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR AFRICA AND THE EAST.

(As revised at a Special Meeting of Members of the Society, held April 20, 1875.)

I. THIS Institution shall be designated "The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East;" and shall be conducted by a Patron or Patrons, a Vice-Patron, a President, Vice-Presidents, a Committee, and such Officers as may be deemed necessary, all being Members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland.

II. The office of PATRON of the Society shall be reserved for Members of the Royal Family; and that of VICE-PATRON for His Grace the Primate of all England, if, being a Member of the Society, he shall accept the office. The PRESIDENT shall be such Temporal Peer or Commoner as may be appointed to that office; and VICE-PRESIDENTS shall consist of all Archbishops and Bishops of the Churches of England and Ireland, who, being Members of the Society, shall accept the office; and of such other persons as, being also Members, shall be appointed thereto.

OF MEMBERS AND GOVERNORS.

III. Annual Subscribers of One Guinea and upward, and if Clergymen, Half-a-Guinea, with Collectors of Fifty-two Shillings and upward per annum, shall be Members of the Society during the continuance of such Subscriptions or Collections. Benefactors of Ten Guineas, or upward, and Clergymen making Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas, shall be Members for Life.

IV. Annual Subscribers of Five Guineas shall be Governors during the continuance of such Subscription; and Benefactors of Fifty Pounds and upward shall be Governors for Life.

V. Members and Governors of Auxiliaries and of Associations who contribute the above sums shall be considered as Members and Governors of the Parent Society.

VI. The Committee shall have the power of appointing such persons as have rendered essential services to the Society, either Honorary Members for Life, or Honorary Governors for Life.

OF GENERAL MEETINGS.

VII. An Annual Meeting of the Members of the Society shall be held in London, on the First Tuesday in May; unless that day shall fall on the 7th of May, in which case the Annual Meeting shall be held, for that year, on Tuesday the 30th of April; when the Proceedings of the foregoing year shall be reported, the Accounts presented, and a Treasurer and Committee chosen.

VIII. The Committee may summon a Special General Meeting of the Members of the Society [at which not less than Thirty shall constitute a Quorum] at any time, and they shall do so on receipt of a requisition in writing, addressed to the Secretaries, and signed by not less than Fifty Members of the Society, and specifying the object of the Meeting. Ten days' notice shall be given in Three public Newspapers, of any such intended Meeting, and of the purpose for which it is called; which shall be deemed sufficient publicity.

IX. None of the Laws and Regulations of the Society shall be repealed or altered, nor any new ones made, but at the Annual Meeting, or at a Special General Meeting called for that purpose.

X. An Anniversary Sermon shall be preached at some Church in London, by a Clergyman appointed by the Committee. An Annual Report of the Society shall be printed, for the use of its Members.

OF THE COMMITTEE.

XI. The Committee shall consist of Twenty-four Lay Members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland; and of all Clergymen who are Members of the Society and have been so for not less than one year. Of the Twenty-four Lay Members, Eighteen shall be re-appointed each year from the existing Committee, and Six shall be elected from the General Body of the Society.

XII. The Committee shall elect, at their First Meeting in every year, either from among themselves, or from the other Members of the Society (being Members of the Established Church of England or of the Church of Ireland), a Committee of Patronage, a Committee of Funds, a Committee of Correspondence, a Committee of Finance, and a Committee of Estimates, and shall have power to fill up vacancies. Each of the said Committees shall keep Minutes of its Proceedings, and shall report the same for confirmation to the Committee.

XIII. The office of the Committee of Patronage is, to procure patronage and support to the Society; and to nominate to the Committee, proper persons as Patrons, President, Vice-Presidents, Honorary Life Governors, Honorary Life Members of the Society, and preachers of the Anniversary Sermons.

XIV. The office of the Committee of Funds is, to circulate information respecting the Society; to adopt means of obtaining Subscriptions, Benefactions, and Collections in Churches, Chapels, and at Meetings; to take a general oversight of the Associations; and to nominate, from time to time, to the Committee, suitable persons to act as Agents and Representatives of the Society for these objects.

XV. The office of the Committe of Correspondence is, to seek for proper Missionaries, to nominate them to the Committee, to superintend their instruction, to recommend their location, and to correspond with them when sent out, and generally to direct the foreign work of the Society.

XVI. The office of the Committee of Finance is, generally to superintend the accounts and financial affairs of the Society.

XVII. The office of the Committe of Estimates is, to prepare and submit to the Committee an Estimate of the probable expenditure of the Society, and from time to time to note and to report to the Committee how far the expenditure corresponds with the sanctioned Estimate.

XVIII. The Committee of Correspondence shall elect from among themselves, at their first Meeting in every year, a Clerical Sub-Committee, for the examination of Missionary Candidates.

XIX. The Committee shall receive and deal with the Reports of the other Committees, shall decide upon the countries where Missions shall be carried on, and shall superintend and control the affairs of the Society in general.

XX. The Committee shall have power to appoint such Officers and Assistants as they shall deem necessary for the well-conducting of the affairs of the Society, subject, in the case of the appointment of Secretaries, to the approbation of the next Annual Meeting. One, at least, of the Secretaries shall be a layman.

XXI. The Committee shall meet on the Second Monday in every Month, and oftener if needful; but should the second Monday be a Bank Holiday the Meeting shall be held on the day following. The other Committees shall meet as often, and at such places, as shall be by them agreed on. All Committee Meetings shall be opened with reading a Form of Prayer composed for that purpose, or one or more suitable Prayers selected from the Liturgy.

XXII. The Patrons, Vice-Patron, President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Secretaries, shall be considered, ex officio, Members of all Committees. Governors, being Members of the Established Church of England, or of the Church of Ireland, shall be entitled to attend and vote at all Meetings of the Committee.

XXIII. Five Members shall be necessary to form a Quorum of the Committee; and Three of each of the Committees provided for in Law XII.; in each case exclusive of the Secretaries. In cases of equality of votes, the Chairman shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

XXIV. All payments on account of the Society shall be signed by Three Members of the Committee, in Committee, and the Lay Secretary, or in his absence by one of the other Secretaries.

XXV. Five Auditors shall be appointed by the Committee, annually, for the purpose of auditing the Accounts of the Society, of whom not more than two shall be Members of the Committee. Three shall be a Quorum.

OF MISSIONARIES.

XXVI. In the selection of Candidates for the Missionary office the following course shall be pursued. The cases of Candidates who are already in Holy Orders, or who are University Graduates, or whom it is proposed to send out without further training, shall be considered by the Committee of Correspondence, the Candidate having (as a rule) appeared in person before them, and a report having been given, after a personal interview, by one or more members of the Clerical Sub-Committee. If any Member of the Committee of Correspondence shall show reason for requiring further information, the consideration shall be deferred till a subsequent Meeting of that Committee. Other Candidates shall be examined by the Clerical Sub-Committee, which shall report to the Committee of Correspondence.

XXVII. A Candidate nominated by the Committee of Correspondence, and accepted by the Committee, shall receive instruction in such parts of knowledge, and be prepared in such a manner for his future employment, as the Committee of Correspondence shall judge expedient.

XXVIII. Each Candidate shall consider himself engaged to go to any part of the world, and at any time that the Committee shall decide, and be subject to such Regulations as may be established by the Committee for the direction of Missionary Candidates: respect, however, being had to his personal circumstances, or to any previous stipulation made by him with the Society.

XXIX. Each Candidate, after due preparation, shall be sent out, either ordained or unordained, at the discretion of the Committee*.

XXX. The Missionaries who go out under the direction of this Society shall be allowed to visit home, permission having been previously obtained from the Committee: and after having laboured in the cause of the Society, to the satisfaction of the Committee, at the Stations committed to their care, until age or infirmity prevent further exertion, such provision shall be made to render their remaining days comfortable as in the judgment of the Committee is suitable. The Committee shall have the power to assist also, in particular cases, the dependent Relatives of those Missionaries, who, by devoting themselves to the service of the Society, are prevented from contributing to their support. The Committee shall be further empowered in special cases to make such arrangements with those employed by them as they may think fit.

GENERAL.

XXXI. A friendly intercourse shall be maintained with other Protestant Societies engaged in the same benevolent design of propagating the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

XXXII. All questions relating to matters of Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, respecting which a difference shall arise between any Colonial Bishop and a Committee of the Society, shall be referred to the Archbishops and Bishops of the Church of England, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

XXXIII. The object of the preceding Law being only to provide a mode of settling questions relating to Ecclesiastical Order and Discipline, as to which no provision has yet been made by the Society, it is not to be so construed, as in any other respect to alter the principles and practices of the Society, as they are contained in its Laws and Regulations, and explained in Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Report.

The proposed reference shall be made, through His Grace the Primate, by the Committee, accompanied by such explanations and statements as the Committee may deem advisable; and the Committee will be bound so to refer all questions, falling within the scope of the Rule so understood as aforesaid, which the Colonial Bishop shall require them to refer.

While all decisions of the Bench of Bishops on questions so referred will be considered by the Committee as binding on them and their agents or representatives, the Colonial Bishops or other Ecclesiastical Authorities, unless concurring in the reference, cannot properly be considered as so bound.

XXXIV. It is recommended to every Member of the Society to pray to Almighty God for a blessing upon its designs; under the full conviction, that, unless He "prevent us, in all our doings, with His most gracious favour, and further us with His continual help," we cannot reasonably hope to meet with persons of a proper spirit and qualifications to be Missionaries, or expect their endeavours to be crowned with success.

* The following passage, from Appendix II. to the Thirty-ninth Annual Report, illustrates the practice of the Society in reference to this Rule:—

"The Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth [ecclesiastically speaking] our Missionaries: these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same Colony. The Services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church."

APPENDIX II. TO THE THIRTY-NINTH REPORT

REFERRED TO IN THE NOTE TO LAW XXIX.

REMARKS ON THE CONSTITUTION AND PRACTICE OF THE CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY, WITH REFERENCE TO ITS ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONS.

It is the object of the following Remarks to show, that the constitution and practice of the Church Missionary Society are in strict conformity with Ecclesiastical principles, as they are recognized in the constitution and practice of the Church of England.

Throughout the system of the Church of England there is a recognized co-operation of temporal and spiritual functions in MATTERS ECCLESIASTICAL; that is, the Laity and Clergy have not only their separate and distinct provinces, but, in many important respects, they unite their agency for the accomplishing of Ecclesiastical acts.

For instance, in supplying a vacant Church, a Lay-patron selects and presents "his Clerk"—as the Clergyman is technically called—to the Bishop; who thereupon invests him with authority to minister in that Church. So, also, there are certain Lay-officers appointed to every Church—the Churchwardens or Sidesmen—whose duty it is, not only to guard, in conjunction with the Minister, the temporalities of the Church, but also to watch over the due performance of Divine Service, the morals of the parishioners, and the conduct of the Minister; and to report, from time to time, on each of these matters, to the Ecclesiastical Authorities. The duty of these officers is implied in the old appellation, "Sidesmen," or "Synodsmen"—men summoned to attend and give information at Synods and Visitations.

The distinction and co-operation of lay and spiritual functions in the Church of England might be further illustrated in the case of Ecclesiastical Courts, and various relations which arise out of the principle, that the Sovereign is the Supreme Ruler of the Church.

Keeping the foregoing distinction in view, the Church Missionary Society may be regarded as an Institution for discharging the temporal and lay offices necessary for the preaching of the Gospel among the Heathen. It is strictly a Lay Institution: it exercises, as a Society, no spiritual functions whatsoever.

Such being the constitution of the Society in theory—are its proceedings conducted in conformity with this theory, and with the Ecclesiastical principles of the Church of England?

In order to review these proceedings, they may be conveniently arranged under the FOUR following Heads:—

I. THE COLLECTION OF THE HOME REVENUE, and THE DISBURSEMENT OF IT ABROAD.

These acts are altogether within the province of Laymen.

II. THE SELECTING AND EDUCATING CANDIDATES FOR MISSIONARY EMPLOYMENT.

In this department there is no necessary encroachment upon spiritual functions. The Colleges in our Universities are Lay-Corporations, and may, in many cases, be administered and presided over by Laymen.

Yet it may be urged that in this department there is an approach to the peculiar province of Clergymen; because spiritual persons seem the more proper judges of a Candidate's fitness for Missionary employment; and it is generally admitted, that a Bishop may exercise a control over the education and training of Candidates to be advanced by himself to Holy Orders. Now, in both these particulars the Church Missionary Society has carefully guarded its proceedings. The examination of Missionary Candidates is referred to a Clerical Sub-Committee; and the General Committee consult and act upon the report of this Clerical trial and judgment. In respect of the other point, the education and training of Candidates for Holy Orders, the Church Missionary College at Islington has the sanction and approbation of the Bishop of London; who, in this country, admits to Holy Orders all the Society's Candidates; and his Lordship has repeatedly expressed his satisfaction at the results of the system of instruction, as they have been manifested in his examinations for Holy Orders.

III. The Third general head of the Society's proceedings is, THE SENDING FORTH, TO PARTICULAR STATIONS, THE MISSIONARIES THUS ORDAINED, OR OTHER CLERGYMEN WHO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY ORDAINED.

Now, here an objection against the Society has been founded on the use of the term "sending forth:"—it sounds like an exercise of Ecclesiastical power. But, Ecclesiastically speaking, the Bishop of London "sends forth" every Missionary ordained by him. The Law of the land has sanctioned the Two Archbishops, and the Bishop of London, in ordaining persons to officiate abroad. The Secretary of the Church Missionary Society requests, by Letter, the Bishop of London to ordain, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of Parliament, such and such persons, whom the Society is willing to support in some Foreign Station. The Bishop, by the imposition of hands, gives them authority to preach the Gospel, with a view to their Foreign location.—In the case of persons already in Holy Orders, who may join the Society, they may be said to go forth by their own voluntary act; but their Letters of Orders, given by a Bishop of our Church, are their mission and commission, Ecclesiastically speaking.

Hence, to call the acts of the Church Missionary Society—in selecting the station, paying the passage-money, and agreeing to provide the Missionary's salary—to call these acts a SENDING FORTH of Preachers, in an Ecclesiastical sense, is to confound names with things, and to lose sight of all true Church principles.

IV. The Fourth general head under which the proceedings of the Church Missionary Society may be arranged, is, THE SUPERINTENDENCE OF MISSIONARIES IN THEIR LABOURS AMONG THE HEATHEN.

Here a distinction must be made between the case of those Foreign Stations which lie within the jurisdiction of a Colonial Bishop, and other stations, which are not so situated, and may therefore be termed Extra-diocesan.

In the first case, the Church Missionary Society has expressly determined, that all its ordained Missionaries shall be submitted for licence to the Bishop of the diocese in which they may be stationed; and that no Missionary shall exercise his spiritual functions in such diocese without a licence. The Society has further recognized the uncontrolled discretion of the Bishop to grant or withhold his licence, and the propriety of specifying in such licence a particular district as the field of labour so that a Missionary cannot be removed from one district to another without the sanction of the Bishop.

These principles were stated in a Letter from the Society to the Bishop of Calcutta, signed by the Right Honourable the President—December 17, 1835—in a manner so satisfactory to the Bishop, that he embodied them in the four following Rules, expressed for the most part in the words of the Society's Letter: which were, at the Bishop's request, entered upon the minutes of the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, as the recognized Rules of their practice:—

"1. The Bishop expresses—by granting or withholding his licence, in which the sphere of the Missionary's labour is mentioned—his approbation, or otherwise, of that location.

"2. The Bishop superintends the Missionaries afterward, as the other Clergy, in the discharge of their Ecclesiastical duties.

"3. The Bishop receives from those—the Committee and Secretary—who still stand in the relation of Lay-patrons to the Missionary, such communications respecting his Ecclesiastical duties as may enable the Bishop to discharge that paternal superintendence to the best advantage.—The Archdeacon of Calcutta or Bombay acting under the Bishop's immediate directions when he happens to be absent.

"4. If the Bishop* or Archdeacon fills, at the request of the Society, the offices of Patron, President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, &c., he receives, further, all such confidential information, on all topics, as the Bishops officially neither could wish nor properly ask [to receive]."

The Bishop also wrote to the Parent Society in the following terms: "You seem to me to lay down the principle most correctly.....This is to me perfectly satisfactory; as I shall instantly inform the Archbishop of Canterbury, to whom I report all the proceedings of the diocese."—9th June, 1836.

It will be perceived, that the Missionaries, thus licensed, stand toward the Bishop in the relation rather of Stipendiary Curates, than of Beneficed Clergymen. For a Bishop in England cannot refuse a licence, or institution to a benefice, without assigning a reason which will bear investigation before a Court of Common Law; nor can he deprive a Clergyman of his benefice without a judicial process. But no law has provided any such check in the case of Missionaries; the Bishop has the power of withholding a licence, or of withdrawing it, at his sole discretion, without assigning any cause, as in the case of Stipendiary Curates in this country.

If it be asked, What are the checks and safeguards against the undue exercise of this discretionary power of the Bishop?—it may be replied, in the words of the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Parent Society, April 12, 1837,—

"We are not to take for granted, that discretionary power will be abused; but, on the contrary, to provide, by a cheerful and friendly spirit and conduct, against the likelihood of such an occurrence. If the event of arbitrary conduct should arise, or be supposed to arise, the remedies are—public opinion—an appeal to the Archbishop—and the Society's refusing to make other appointments and locations than those unreasonably objected to. Nothing is the least likely—and probability is the guide of life—to arise to impede or cramp the Committee; since they unquestionably and avowedly possess, The choice of men—The appointment of spheres of labour—The Temporal power, including pecuniary support."

* The Three Bishops of India, and the Bishop of Australia, are the Presidents of the Corresponding Committees in their respective dioceses.

But though the Bishop's licence is at once the pledge and proof that the Society's Missionaries are under Episcopal superintendence and jurisdiction, and that the spiritual oversight rests altogether with the Bishop; yet the Society may seem, to some persons, to keep up a kind of spiritual jurisdiction and oversight, by requiring accounts from the Missionaries of all their proceedings, and by giving them directions, from time to time, which may bear upon their spiritual duties. But it must be remembered, that the Society stands towards its Missionaries in the relation of Trustees of the fund out of which their salaries are paid. In the case of a Beneficed Clergyman in this country, the Minister is the guardian and possessor of the temporalities of the benefice, because the benefice is an endowment; and the Patron has no further connexion with the Minister whom he has once presented to the Bishop. In our case, the office of Patron is, in a sense, perpetuated by the payment of the salary, and the possession of all the temporalities of the Mission.

This matter has been well explained by the Bishop of Calcutta, in a Letter to the Calcutta Corresponding Committee, May 26, 1837:—"The Missionary Committees," says his Lordship, "have a far greater latitude in India than any Lay-patrons at home. Upon presenting his Clerk to the Bishop, the Patron at home is functus officio. The Clergyman is removed, on being once instituted and licensed, totally and for ever from the Patron, and is transferred to the superintendency of the Bishop. The Patron has nothing whatever more to do with him. But in India, the Committee is (1) the continued paymaster of the Missionary after he is duly licensed;—for institution and induction there are none. (2) They correspond with him. (3) They supply him with Catechists. (4) They report his chief proceedings home. (5) They propose removals and changes of Station to the Bishop. (6) They exercise, unavoidably, an influence which does not belong to the mere Lay-patron; and are aiding, in a variety of ways, to the comfortable and honourable discharge of the Missionary's most exalted and most spiritual duties."

It remains to consider the case of those Stations which are Extra-diocesan; i. e. where there is no Colonial Bishop of the Church of England having jurisdiction over them.

In these cases, the Society has endeavoured to procure for such Stations the benefits of the Episcopal office from the nearest Bishop of the Church of England. Application was made by the Committee both to the late and to the present Bishop of Madras to extend, as far as circumstances would admit, these benefits to the Mission of Travancore; which as an independent state, not forming part of the British Dominions, was not included in the diocese of Madras. A similar application was made, on behalf of the New Zealand Mission, to the Bishop of Australia, who at once acceded to the request, and kindly promised to visit New Zealand as soon as his other duties would permit; stating, in a Letter to the Society's representatives at Sydney, "It is highly satisfactory to me that our friends at home are taking a view of these things which proves them to belong, not only to a MISSIONARY, but also to a CHURCH Society." (See Annual Report, 1838.)

Such is a General View of the Constitution and Proceedings of the Church Missionary Society.

It is not intended to assert that errors are not sometimes committed in the application of these principles to matters of detail. It must be remembered that Missionary operations are, alas! new and anomalous in the system of the Church of England; and that it is not always easy to draw a definite line between the two provinces which belong respectively to the Bishop and the Committee. It has been observed by the Bishop of Calcutta—Letter, May 26, 1837: "The boundaries of the power of Committees, as they approach to those of the Bishop, can be ascertained, in many points, only by time and observation." Perplexities have consequently occurred; and, unhappily, misunderstandings have sometimes arisen between the Representatives of the Society abroad and Ecclesiastical Authorities. But these are the principles by which the Home Committee have endeavoured to guide the proceedings of the Society; and they confidently respond to a sentiment expressed by the Bishop of Calcutta—"The principles of our new relations are now fully recognized: the details will soon find their level."—Letter, 9th June, 1836.

In reviewing the Ecclesiastical relations of the Church Missionary Society, there are two or three points which it seems very important to notice.

1. Missionary operations, as they are conducted by the Church Missionary Society, though apparently anomalous in the system of the Church of England, are yet in strict conformity with its constitution and principles: they are analogous to many other instances of voluntary exertion for the extension of true religion within the Church, in which Ecclesiastical authority and Lay co-operation unite for the accomplishment of the same end: so that these operations may be regarded as the acts of the Church of England, putting forth its energy for the Conversion of the Heathen World. For it has been shown, that the Bishops of the Church, under the authority of the law of the land, ordain and send forth our Missionaries—that these Missionaries are licensed and superintended abroad, in every case where it is practicable, by Colonial Bishops of the Church of England; as are the other Clergymen of the Church officiating in the same colony. The services which the Missionaries perform are in strict conformity with the Ritual and Discipline of the Church. Even in the few cases in which Lutheran Clergymen are employed, this rule is observed; and all the congregations which are gathered into the fold of Christ are trained up as Members of the Church established in this land.

And here it may be observed, that nothing less than the sanction of a duly-assembled Convocation can more fully identify the acts of any Missionary Society, within the Church of England, with the Church *. Without such sanction, all associations of Churchmen must stand in the same position. Still further, not to notice the present abeyance of Convocations, it may be asserted, that even if the Church were to assemble in her provincial Convocations, and to decree and to regulate Missionary operations, such proceedings could not essentially add to, or alter, those important particulars which, under present circumstances, entitle the operations of the Church Missionary Society to be regarded as Missionary operations of the United Church of England and Ireland.

2. It must be ever borne in mind, that Missionary operations are, in their very nature, temporary and preparative;—that they are to be gradually but eventually superseded by a different order of things, when the Heathen Nations shall have become Christianized. In some cases, as in the West Indies, this change is further advanced than in others. Now, it must be expected, that in proportion as this change advances, difficulties and perplexities will arise in our Ecclesiastical relations, peculiar to this TRANSITION STATE—from Missionary operations, to that happy consummation when there shall be an endowed and established system of Christian Instruction, and a territorial division of Ministerial labour. This consummation the Church Missionary Society has ever kept in view, and devoutly desired; and, as far as possible, has prepared for its approach. In an interview with the Bishop of Barbadoes—April, 1835—this point was expressly alluded to; and it was stated by the Committee to his Lordship, "that whenever a district should be brought into the state of an organized Christian community, it should assume entirely the Parochial form, and cease to be occupied as a Missionary Station.—The Bishop entirely acquiesced in this view; and only expressed his anxiety that it should not be so acted upon as prematurely to deprive a district of the Missionary's services."—(Extracts from Committee's Minute.)

3. Lastly, it must be evident, from a review of the whole subject, that our Ecclesiastical relations depend, in many important respects, upon a mutual confidence and good understanding between the Committee and its representatives, and the Ecclesiastical Authorities both at home and abroad. This must be the case, to argue upon no higher grounds, while those relations are governed by Ecclesiastical laws and canons made without reference to Missionary operations, for an Established Church in a Christian country; and where so much is also necessarily left to the discretion of both parties. If we look to our Home operations, the Committee places confidence in the Bishop of London, that he will continue to ordain the Missionary Candidates introduced to his Lordship by the Society, according to the provisions of the Act: and the Lord Bishop of London relies upon the Committee's using every means to select, train, and duly qualify proper Candidates to be thus introduced to him.

So, also, in its Foreign operations, the Society places confidence in the Colonial Bishops—as it has been already shown, in a quotation from the Letter of Bishop Wilson—that they will not exercise an unreasonable or arbitrary discretion, in withholding or withdrawing licences from our Missionaries, or in refusing ordination to our Candidates. And the Bishops, by granting licences and ordination to the Missionaries of a voluntary Society, whose income is liable to fluctuations, and whose agents are constantly changing, manifestly place confidence in the Committees, that they will use every endeavour to keep up the Missions once established; and that they will not, on their part, act in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner, or withdraw the salary from a licensed Missionary, without reason sufficient to prove to the licensing Bishop the necessity of the proceedings.

It seems impossible to supersede this conventional understanding—as it may be termed—till Missions are supported by endowments, or till a code of Missionary canons be established by competent authority.

This mutual confidence and good understanding now exists, it may be thankfully asserted, between the Committee of the Society and the Ecclesiastical Authorities of every Colonial Diocese in which Missionaries are labouring. And may He, who is the God, not of confusion, but of peace, and "the great Shepherd and Bishop of Souls," unite together the hearts and hands of those who are labouring in this Holy Cause—"that all and every of these may, IN THEIR SEVERAL CALLINGS, serve truly and faithfully, to the glory of His name!"

* The American Episcopal Church has, in Convention, thus identified itself with a Missionary Society.

At the Annual Meeting of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, held in Exeter Hall, Strand, on Tuesday, May 4, 1875, being the Seventy-sixth Anniversary—

The Right Hon. the EARL OF CHICHESTER, President, in the Chair,

AFTER PRAYER AND THE READING OF A PORTION OF HOLY SCRIPTURE,

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE HAVING BEEN READ BY THE REV. H. WRIGHT, M.A., Honorary Secretary;

On the Motion of the LORD BISHOP OF DURHAM, V.P., seconded by the Rev. T. VALPY FRENCH, M.A., Missionary from the Punjab, and supported by JAMES MADEN HOLT, ESQ., M.P., it was

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the Report, of which an Abstract has now been read, be received, and printed under the direction of the Committee; that the thanks of the Meeting be given to the Lord Bishop of London for his Sermon before the Society last evening; to His Grace the Vice-Patron; to the Right Hon. the President and the Vice-Presidents; and to all those friends who, during the past year, have exerted themselves in its behalf; and that the following Gentlemen be appointed the Committee for the ensuing year, with power to fill up vacancies.—[See List, p. iv.]

On the Motion of the LORD BISHOP OF BALLARAT, V.P., seconded by the REV. DAVID FENN, M.A., Missionary from South India, and supported by the RIGHT REV. THE LORD BISHOP OF GLOUCESTER AND BRISTOL, V.P.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY,

That the multiplied providential openings for the preaching of the Gospel in heathen countries constitute a loud call from the Lord of the harvest to his Church not to hold back her sons and daughters, even the ablest among them, from fear of home necessities being thereby left unsupplied, but to press forward in the discharge of the manifest duty of preaching the Gospel among the nations of the earth, in the full confidence that the Lord will not allow the Church at home to be a loser through the desire to do his will in this matter.

At a Second Meeting, held in Exeter Hall, on the Evening of the same Day—

THE RT. HON. THE LORD BISHOP OF RIPON, V.P., in the Chair,

Addresses were delivered by the Rev. J. VAUGHAN, Missionary from Calcutta; Mr. E. DOWNES, Missionary from India; the Rev. GEORGE ENSOR, Missionary from Japan; and the Rev. ROWLAND BATEMAN, Missionary from the Punjab.

SERMON,

Col. iv. 13.

"For I bear him record that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis."

The person to whom this honourable testimony is borne, is Epaphras, a member, and possibly the founder, of the Church at Colosse, but, who was now, as we learn from the contemporaneous Epistle to Philemon [1], sharing, either by compulsion or voluntarily, the imprisonment of St. Paul at Rome. The Apostle commends him for always striving for his countrymen in his prayers that they may "stand perfect, and complete in all the will of God," and for his great zeal or toil, not only for them, but also for the converts in the neighbouring cities of Laodicea and Hierapolis. And it is not without its interest, especially when we bear in mind that the epistle was to be read also in the Church of Laodicea [2], to observe the various readings in existing manuscripts, some of which have with our version, "zeal," others "wearisome labour," others of more authority "toil [3]." They show how readily in the mind of early Christian copyists—(and in this case it is just possible that the variations may be due to contemporary transcribers of the letter for the other Church),—the ideas of fervent zeal, of exertion even to weariness, and of the wrestling earnestness of prayer and effort passed into each other, and were unconsciously interchangeable, as forming together the complex of the Missionary character.

[1] Ver. 23. [2] Ver. 16.

[3] ζῆλον, κόπον, πόνον. Professor Lightfoot, in his edition of the Epistle to the Colossians which has been published since this sermon was preached, observes that the correct reading πολὺν πόνον signifies much toil, both inward and outward, while of the two variations which transcribers have substituted for it, ζῆλον emphasizes the former idea, and κόπον the latter.

My object, however, at present is merely to draw from the Apostle's commendation of Epaphras, the easy inference that zeal for the salvation and spiritual well-being of others,—a zeal which not only feels, but labours, and strives in prayer for them,—in brief, a Missionary zeal,—is an essential element of true Christianity. The proposition indeed sounds like a common-place; one of the earliest lessons to be gathered from the pages of the Gospel. But facts seem to show that the lesson is far from thoroughly learnt; that very many cannot know it at all. The revenues of our Societies increase indeed; but slowly and intermittently compared with the full tide of national wealth which swells higher every year. There are men, thank God, who offer themselves for Missionary work, and some who have talents of no ordinary worth to dedicate to God who bestowed them; but how few, after all, when measured by the field to be covered and the harvest to be gathered in! Each Mission, each Society, has its friends, some of whom are lavish of their time, counsel and money: but the bulk of our parishes and even of our congregations, know little of the peaceful warfare of the Gospel in the unconquered lands of heathendom, care little for its successes, and contribute little towards its cost. And many a minister has found it easier to engage the interest of at least the better educated and wealthier of his flock in any project for improving the temporal condition of men either at home or abroad, than in the great work which the Saviour of mankind committed so solemnly to the Church, and consequently to every member of it in his degree, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature."

And there are no doubt influences abroad in the intellectual and social atmosphere in which we live, that tend to engender indifference to the duty of extending the Gospel, to relax Missionary effort, and to chill Missionary zeal. Such obviously is the spirit of infidelity and of scepticism, which seeks now, rather than shuns, observation, obtruding itself in the lessons of science, the results of criticism and the pages of popular literature; now finding its root in materialism, which needs no God; now in pantheism, which has no God because all is God; now in positivism, which knows no God because it is not possible that God should be known. But I am alluding rather to influences which do not lie so much without, as within the apparent sphere of Christianity, and which may affect those who do not disbelieve.

Not that even believers are altogether unaffected by the disintegrating action of a sceptical spirit. It may, indeed, even while shaking at times, tend by that very shaking to deepen and invigorate the roots of their own personal faith, and may drive them to cling closer to the Saviour, the support of whose arm they have felt slipping, as it were, from their grasp. But with respect to their duty to others the effect is different. They know men, the faith of whose childhood has broken down under the pressure of doubts engendered by the prevalent philosophy, or of difficulties imposed by the supposed necessities of science, or whose trust in a personal Saviour has been sublimed into a vague and dubious religion of sentiment, who yet retain purity of life, amiability of temper, and even some of the habits of devotion; and their hope for such men (and nowhere are we forbidden to hope) leads them unconsciously to widen the terms of God's covenant, to make exceptions to its conditions (which God in His mercy may make, but has never permitted man to make), and to advance very near to the tenet, which our Church faithfully condemns, "that every man shall be saved by the law or sect which he professeth, so that he be diligent to frame his life according to that law and the light of nature[4]." With such sentiments (for such they are rather than well-weighed deductions of reason), they approach the duty of the propagation of the Gospel and of labour for the conversion of the heathen; and remembering the language of St. Paul, and isolating it for the time from the general tenor of the missionary epistle in which it occurs, that "when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves: which show the work of the law written in their hearts[5]," they feel no constraining obligation to make known to men, thus placed, the fuller revelation of the Gospel; which, if it brings greater blessings, brings also more perilous responsibilities: and they even doubt whether it may not be right to await the slow but sure workings of Divine Providence, and to leave the heathen meanwhile to "the uncovenanted mercies of God."

At the same time, and in a parallel channel, has been running another current of thought, which has its source in the study of the history of religions:—a study which some would dignify, prematurely at any rate, with the name of a science. It has, however, its uses as well as its deep interest: and the most devout and faithful Christian may delight in tracing the particles of truth, which he believes to be fragments of primæval revelation, as they appear imbedded in the fantastic strata of mythologies and superstitions that were carried hither and thither and deposited over the earth by the great successive waves of human emigration. The seeds of religious belief appear ofttimes identical, although the upgrowth has been distorted into even hideous forms, and the fruit has drawn poison from the pestiferous soil. The result of the comparison, however, has been to surprise many by the discovery in religions, which they had justly deemed false, of more truth than they had expected, and among the varied pollutions of heathendom of more good than they could have hoped. They had forgotten, what however has been often proved, that no error can survive or prevail, excepting by virtue of some truth of which it is the perversion or the illicit deduction. But the tendency of most minds is to exaggerate the magnitude or importance of unexpected discoveries: and the effect of a more intimate acquaintance with the principal religions of the heathen world has undoubtedly been to exhibit them in colours which are really not their own. And we are told loudly of the pure creed of Buddhism, and the holy life of its founder, and faintly only that its God is but the universe, its heaven annihilation, its sanctity a dreamy and useless mysticism, and its religion for the multitude an immoral and debasing superstition. The vast system of Hinduism has been traced up to the primæval conception of one great and omnipresent God, while some have fancied in it adumbrations of the Trinity, and others have imagined traces of the incarnation and the atonement; and the attention has been thus drawn away from the actual development of this earlier creed—a polytheism of innumerable deities; a mythology which affords precedents and examples of every vice; a worship the spirit of which is cruelty, and its rites pollution. We are asked to admire the wisdom of the sage of China, and to place some of his maxims by the side of the precepts of the Gospel: and we are allowed to forget that his morality, such as it is, is that of a philosophy, not of a religion, without a God, and without a motive, inoperative for the most part in this life, and without any reference to, or consciousness of another. And there are laid before us Gospel-like precepts and sayings gathered out of that strange amorphous religion which the ill-bestowed labour of the later Jews accumulated round the revelation of the Old Testament; and we are not told, when we admit their beauty and truth, how painfully they were picked out (themselves possibly having been previously borrowed from Christianity) from that vast mass of erudite trifling, puerile fable and distorted tradition, which fills the voluminous pages of the Talmud. In each case, the newly found and unexpected truths are paraded by the natural partiality of the discoverer. The unbeliever catches them up eagerly, magnifies their importance, and exhibits the systems in which they lay hid, as rival religions to the Gospel. The echo of such pretensions is repeated in popular literature, and thus reaches the ears of multitudes who do not study infidel books. They believe Christianity and do not enter into the controversy. But a vague feeling remains that the religions which enshrine such truths cannot be so wholly false as they had thought, nor the condition of those who live under them so desperate as they had supposed. Their privileges are fewer than ours no doubt, and their light less: but it is exaggeration to call them "the perishing heathen," or to consider them as "brands to be plucked out of the burning." And so the tension of Missionary zeal is relaxed.

A similar effect is resulting at the same time from an entirely different course, which acts, however, not so much on men's sense of the obligation to Missionary exertion, or on their willingness and, in a certain sense, on their power, to make it. This is the growth of selfishness in the national character, under the forms of advancing civilization. No one can deny that there is a greater and an increasing appreciation, in all classes of society, of comfort, luxury, refinement, art; that such tastes have been acquired, within the life-time of many of us, by whole classes to whom they were little known before, and are cultivated in others with greater care and relish; and that a much larger proportion of men's means and earnings are spent on them than formerly. I am very far from pointing to this change as an unmixed evil. Such tastes often save from the grosser forms of vice. They raise to purer pleasures than those of man's animal life. Their tendency is to peace and courtesy. In a word they civilize. But they are selfish notwithstanding. Their enjoyments are by self and for self: a refined selfishness, but selfishness still. And the gratification of such tastes is for the most part costly, or at least has an unlimited capacity of becoming so: and thus it is that, together with a keener appreciation of the comforts, elegancies, and arts of life, there is rising on all sides the rate of domestic expenditure, and a greater value and competition for the means of supplying it. And this change tells in two ways on the vigour of Missionary exertion. The more we indulge self, even in our most innocent and refined tastes, the less sensible we become to the wants and welfare of others. The more we expend on self, the less we have to bestow on the wants and welfare of others.

But there is a less obvious and less suspected form of the prevalent æsthetic selfishness which at least threatens to weaken interest and effort for the Missionary cause; I mean the developing taste and the lavish expenditure for the architecture and adornment of our churches, and the accessories of public worship. I would allude to this subject, at present, entirely apart from questions as to the legality or illegality of ornaments and rites or of their compatibility with the teaching of God's word, and with the doctrine and discipline of our Reformed Church. And I would be understood as speaking in no language but that of devout thankfulness of the impulse which in our days has not only, with God's blessing, multiplied churches over our land in the midst of neglected thousands or in remote and forgotten hamlets, but has rescued the house of God from squalor and decay, has restored them to their original beauty, and fitted them for their holy purpose; and which at the same time has replaced the undervalued duty and privilege of worship by the side of the ordinance of preaching and the Offices of Common Prayer. And I admit that a burning zeal for God's glory and love for the Saviour will justify, when they exist (as when Mary broke the alabaster box of spikenard), a lavish expenditure at which prudence might cavil, and which even piety might wish bestowed elsewhere. But the danger is—and it is a very real and pressing danger—that when artistic tastes are common, and there is a kind of enthusiasm in many minds for music and colour and form and ceremony, we mistake the instinct for indulging such tastes for a desire to honour God and His house; the awe of solemn architecture for the realization of God's presence; the emotions which music excites and harmonious colour sustains for the fervour of true devotion; and gifts towards procuring or maintaining such aids to self-indulgence for self-denying offerings in the service of God. This is not the time or place to warn against this epidemic error which is deceiving multitudes who believe themselves religious; but its bearing is obvious on the decay of Missionary zeal and Missionary exertion. Not only is the interest and effort and money which might have been employed in the great cause of evangelizing the dark places of God's world, bestowed on the costly accessories of public worship; but they are so bestowed under the belief that they are thus dedicated to God's service: and it is forgotten that far more precious in His sight than sculptured shafts and glowing glass and the sweetest strains of choral song, is the salvation of even one undying soul, which He created and for whom Christ died.

But this thought recalls us from an attempt to indicate some of the influences which in our own day appear to me to be weakening the spring and energy of Missionary exertion, and brings us back to the proposition suggested by the text, that zeal for the salvation and spiritual well-being of others is an essential element of true Christianity. It springs, and it must spring, from a cordial reception of the Gospel in its simplicity and fulness.

For, first, the Gospel believed enables us to realize the worth of a soul. That mystery of our own being, that living principle within, which thinks but is not thought, and feels but is not sensation, and wills but is not the energy of willing, that which, while all the particles of matter which make up the man, are ever-changing in perpetual flux, remains the I myself of each one of us; that which is conscious of capacities which can never develop fully here, of good, of knowledge, of happiness; that which is never, therefore, satisfied here, but which yearns for something more and something better, and by its yearnings presages immortality: what is it? Not the mere product of the bodily organization which lives while the machinery of matter works, but expires with the body, like the lamp when the oil is spent, or the music when the lyre is broken. Not an efflux of the universal Spirit, inhabiting and informing for a brief space a material form and re-absorbed after a few years into the Deity of which it and all things are parts. Not thus teaches the Gospel; but a living soul, a personal being, created indeed by God, but created for eternity; closely and mysteriously united during its period of probation with a mortal body, but to exist in the completeness of its personal identity, with all its capacities for good and evil, for enjoyment or for suffering, through the illimitable and incalculable future. And when man's soul had become a sinful soul; when having chosen evil it fell under the dominion of evil, and "so judgment came upon all men to condemnation," the price paid for the redemption of lost souls was nothing less than that unspeakable gift of divine love, the incarnation, life, passion, aud death of the co-equal and co-eternal Son of God. Such is the worth of a soul. And souls are of equal worth in their Creator's sight, whether their probation-lot is cast in the realms of civilization and amidst the broad light of Gospel truth, or whether in the darkness of heathendom, and the debasement of savage life. They are souls; and earth has nothing so priceless as a human soul.

2. But again; the Gospel, and the Gospel alone, teaches the deep evil and wretchedness of sin. And it teaches in the most effective way, by our own experience. The Gospel, indeed, is the divine remedy for sin. The Saviour came to "save His people from their sins," and to "call not the righteous but sinners to repentance." And so in proportion as sin is felt to be exceeding sinful,—the contradiction to divine holiness, rebellion against our Creator, filial disobedience, ingratitude to the Redeemer who died for us, the grieving of the Holy Spirit, the degradation of our true selves, the debasement aud ruin of our souls,—only as sorrow for sin and hatred for sin is thus ingrained in us, do we with our whole hearts accept the Saviour, cling to His Cross, and know the "joy and peace of believing." And together with the sinfulness of sin we learn something of the worthlessness of sin. We are taught that while its promised pleasures are cheats, its disappointments and remorse, and craving appetites, and uneasy conscience, are terrible realities. And thus we can apprehend somewhat of the awful foreshadowings which Scripture draws of the eternal future of sin. We are not misled by the questions how a God of love can for ever punish His creatures, or visit with never-ending consequences the failure of a few years' probation. These, we know, are false issues. Suffering is not merely the consequence of sin. Sin is suffering. And although in this life the pleasures of sin can madden or intoxicate or distract, till its pains are well-nigh forgotten; and although many of its results are suspended or mitigated by the presence and influence of good in a world where God's smile is felt, and His grace is given, and His saints are its leaven and its salt; yet hereafter, when evil is completely and finally separated from good, and the sinner who has died an unrepentant and unpardoned sinner, has his sin only for his portion and sinners like himself for his partners, then must sin be its own unspeakable torment; and we have in that one fact the demonstration of the tremendous problem, sin plus eternity is hell. Then can we know and believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Saviour of sinners, without yearning to make it known to those who are yet the slaves of sin?

3. And the Gospel reveals but one Saviour and one way of salvation. How a God of justice and mercy may deal with those to whom His name has not been known, nor His offer made, we are not informed. The Judge of all the earth will do right. "But the secret things belong unto the Lord our God[6]." What is revealed, not only bounds our knowledge, but defines our duty. And this duty is clear. "The wages of sin is death[7]." "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God." The heathen are "walking in darkness, and dwell in the land of the shadow of death[8]." "There is none other name under heaven, given among men whereby we must be saved[9]," but that of Jesus Christ. "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned[1]." And therefore the command of the Saviour to His Church is, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature[2]:" and every member of that Church is bound, if not himself to be a preacher of the Word, at least to bear his part in the Church's united efforts that his Lord's command may be obeyed.

4. For again: a saving reception of the Gospel in the heart is evidenced by a life of active and passive conformity to the will of God. "Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of My Father which is in heaven[3]." But it is the will of God our Saviour that all men should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth, nor does He wish that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. It is His pleasure, however, that this will should be worked out, not immediately by the irresistible display of divine light, or the energy of divine power, but mediately by human instrumentality, by prophets, apostles, evangelists, and preachers of the Word; so that the argument of the Apostle expresses the law of the propagation of the Gospel: "Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord

[7] Rom. vi. 23.
[8] Isaiah ix. 2.
[9] Acts iv. 12.
[1] Mark xvi. 16.
[2] Mark xv. 15.
[3] Matt. vii. 21.

shall be saved. How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God[4]." When therefore the Gospel lives and burns in the believer's heart and constrains him to endeavour to do the will of his Father which is in heaven, he is impelled, if not himself to carry the word of truth to those who have not heard, at least to speed the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things.

5. I will stay now to gather but one more of the incitements to Missionary exertion which spring up on all sides as we follow the track of the Gospel: and it is one of much power on the loving heart. The salvation of souls was the object and end of the incarnation and death of the Redeemer.

It was for this that the eternal and coequal Son emptied Himself of His glory, was made in the likeness of man—a poor despised and persecuted man—a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief—humbled Himself and became obedient unto death, even the accursed death of the cross. "The joy that was set before Him," was the sanctification and salvation of sinners; and when many are justified by the knowledge of Him, He on whom God laid the iniquity of us all, "sees of the travail of his soul and is satisfied[6]." A soul saved—let us speak reverently as before a mystery, yet boldly, for it is a revealed mystery,—a soul saved is the Saviour's reward. And can we believe this, brethren, and not feel constrained by the love of Him, who has so loved us, to do all He enables and permits us to do for the salvation of souls? If He saved us, and we would show our gratitude, what more acceptable thankoffering, what more in accordance with God's will, and in harmony with our own happy experience, than to seek and find as many as we may of our untaught, unsaved brethren in this dark world, and to bring them also to Jesus.

The Gospel has other motives in its stores of loving wisdom to impel those who have received it in their hearts to Missionary exertion. But we have said enough. Scepticism may relax the tension of Missionary exertion, as it enfeebles the grasp of faith, and may inject the suspicion that, after all, sincerity in believing is everything, and the truth believed of little import. Philosophy may extract the few truths contained in false religions, and so range them in front that their deadly falsehood is almost hid, and we are bidden to let what is well alone. Selfishness, more and more engrossed in the comforts, elegances, and arts of advancing civilization, and sometimes mistaking indulgence of taste for earnestness and sacrifice for God's service, may feel less interest, and can spare less money for Missionary work. But he who has received the Gospel into his heart in its purity and entirety; who has learnt from it the priceless worth of a soul, the deep evil and wretchedness of sin, and that for sinful souls there is but one revealed way of salvation, one only name under is heaven by which they can be saved; he who believes it to be the will of God that all should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth, and his own plain duty to do and promote whatever is God's will; he who loves the Lord Jesus Christ, and knows that the reward of the Saviour's sufferings is the salvation of those for whom He suffered; feels an obligation upon him which no subtleties can slacken and before which self must submit to be denied, and can understand and adopt the Apostle's language, though circumstances may greatly modify its practical application,—"Necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the Gospel[7]!"

And if so, ought we not each to ask ourselves whether we bear the mark of a real and cordial reception of the Gospel? Our conscience ought to "bear us record," as St. Paul did of Epaphras—that we "have a great zeal"—not warmth of feeling only, remember, nor even earnestness of prayer, but labour, effort, self-sacrifice—both for those around us, heathens in a Christian land, and for those in foreign countries over which the shadow of death still hangs. What are we doing? Is it our duty to leave the land of our birth, the ties of kindred and the prospects of a home life, and to preach the Gospel to those who know it not? This is a question not to be answered hastily by many—by some, perhaps, who hear me now;—not to be put aside as inapplicable, and scarcely needing a serious thought. It may be their duty. If their path in life has not yet been marked out for them by what they may well believe the directing finger of God; if no ties have been knit here and no obligations incurred which could not be innocently broken; if the love of Christ glowing in the heart has kindled a desire to do something for their Redeemer, and for those whom He has redeemed; if uneasy thoughts are awakened by the invitation "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us[3]?" and conscience re-echoes the words again and again after they have put them by; it is God's call, brethren, and must be listened to. He is calling you to self-sacrifice, doubtless, and labour, and maybe suffering, but to the most honourable and happiest of lives. He is offering to inscribe your names in the roll of evangelists and apostles; to send you forth with the message of the everlasting Gospel as ambassadors of the King of kings; to accept your sacrifice of houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father or mother, or wife or children, or lands for His name's sake, but to give you an hundredfold, and the inheritance of everlasting life.

But for us who have our allotted work in life's vineyard, whose duties may not be deserted, nor the talents committed to us exchanged for others, there still will be required, if we are Christians indeed, "great zeal" for those who know not, or know but imperfectly, the word of life. Influence, example, fervent prayer, and such gifts from the means entrusted to us as will require and represent self-denial for God's sake,—these are the agencies by which our zeal must work: and as in such a cause individual or sporadic efforts avail little or nothing, we shall most thankfully accept the corporate action of the great Society whose anniversary we celebrate to day, as the instrument by which our duty may be performed and made effectual. If the prayerful persevering labour of six and seventy years; if unflinching fidelity through good report and evil to the principle that the one divinely appointed ordinance for the conversion and salvation of souls is the preaching of Christ crucified, the proclamation throughout the world that by faith in that crucified Saviour alone can sinful man be justified, and sanctified only by the grace of the Holy Ghost; if successive bands of saintly Missionaries, who have proved the power of the Gospel by the holiness of their lives, and sealed its truth by the constancy of their deaths; if not less than 154 native clergy among the 360 who are labouring among 108,000 converts; if the settled and flourishing Churches of Sierra Leone and Abeokuta, of Tinnevelly and Travancore, of New Zealand and Rupert's Land; if all this may be accepted, as with humble but undoubting confidence it surely may, as evidence of faithful labour and of the Divine blessing on it,—then may we unhesitatingly and thankfully entrust our alms to the Church Missionary Society, labour fervently for it in our prayers, and rejoice in the loving-kindness of our God who has owned its work as His and granted it success.

THE following system for spelling NATIVE NAMES is recommended to the Society's Missionaries generally for adoption in their letters and reports, unless any of them should prefer a still closer approximation to the more elaborate scheme of Professor Lepsius. This system should not be applied, of course, to those well-known places of which the spelling has become so fixed that it would be mere pedantry to disturb it; as, for instance, Tinnevelly and Mysore.

RULES FOR PRONUNCIATION.

The powers of the vowels are as follows:—

a as in '*a*bout.'
â usually as in '*fa*ther' (in North-Indian words as in '*a*ll').
e as in '*h*en.'
ê as in '*f*ête.'
i as in '*th*in.'
î as in '*p*ique.'
o as in '*n*ot,' or as in the French '*b*onne.'
ô as in '*n*ote.'
u as in '*f*ull.'
û as in '*tr*uly.'
ai as i in '*th*ine.'
au or ou or ow as in '*b*ough.'

It needs only to be noticed further that—

y always sounds as in '*y*ou.'
g ,, as in '*g*o.'
j ,, as in '*j*oin.'
gn as in 'poi*gn*ant,' 'Epa*gn*e.'
ng as in 'thi*ng*.'
ei as in 'vein.'

h has always a separate sound, except in ch as in '*ch*urch,' and sh as in '*sh*e.'

c whether for k or s, being superfluous, is not used.

Doubled letters should each be pronounced distinctly, as in Italian.

ae represents a sound intermediate between a in 'm*a*t' and e in 'm*e*t.'

THE reader's attention is called to the following errata :—

(1) On page 8, last line but one, the word ordained should be struck out.

(2) On page 18 omit (m) after the name of Rev. J. B. Wood.

(3) On page 64 omit (m) after the name of Rev. J. Vaughan.

(4) On page 169, in the list of names of the European Mission Establishment, Mr. Simmons's name should precede, and not follow, that of Mr. Wood.

REPORT,

ALTHOUGH the Committee cannot announce an income equal to that of last year, yet they are able to meet their friends in a spirit of happy thankfulness to Him whose work it is, and whose are the silver and the gold. Two years ago the Committee pointed out that the large increase in the Foreign Expenditure of the Society indicated a successful and expanding work, and they appealed to their Associations to enable them to keep pace with the growing requirements of the Mission-field. Feeling sure that this appeal would be cordially responded to, and encouraged by the unexampled liberality which placed in their hands a balance of £10,407 for the year 1873-74, the Committee, in directing or permitting expansion in their existing Missions, and also in entering on new fields of labour, undertook an estimated expenditure for the year just closed of between £172,000 and £173,000. With devout thankfulness to the Lord, the Committee can state that the whole of this expenditure has been more than met by the income of the year.

From Donations and Legacies the Committee have received £44,172 1*s.* 3*d.*; while their Associations, responding nobly to the call made in 1873, have exceeded all previous returns by nearly £4000, having sent in this year the unprecedented sum of £131,663 17*s.*, thus making the total income of the Society £175,835 18*s.* 3*d.*, and leaving in hand a small surplus of £1332 4*s.* 9*d.* Of the balance of £10,407 remaining on the previous year's account, the Committee have carried £10,000 to the Working or Capital Fund account, leaving £407 to be added to the surplus of the year just closed. It need hardly be explained, that the object of this Working Fund is, as far as possible, to obviate the necessity for borrowing, as the year goes on, which otherwise the Committee would be obliged to do on account of the funds of the Society coming in chiefly at the close of each year.

The Committee are specially thankful for this renewed indication, that the great spiritual principles which have, from the first, characterized this Society, and which they humbly trust, by the grace of God, will characterize it to the end, are still prized by so many members of the Church of England. They are thus assured, also, that their determination, under GOD, to take advantage of the openings that are presenting themselves, to make fresh inroads upon the strongholds of Satan, has met with the hearty approval of their friends, and that they may reckon on their continued support in seeking to pursue the same policy. They would, however, venture at the same time to remind their friends throughout the country—their clerical friends in particular—how much must depend upon their warm co-operation. As the interest in the work increases, the demand for Missionary Deputations naturally increases also. The Committee will do their best to meet this demand, and they believe that every Association Secretary will do the same. At the same time it will be evident that the supply must of necessity be limited, and often very limited, unless Missionaries are kept from the Mission-field for this purpose, which they feel sure none of their friends would for a moment advocate. There are not a few who render essential service of this kind, and for them the Committee are deeply thankful; but the number is not so great as it needs to be. They are well aware of the absorbing nature of home claims of different kinds. They would, however, venture to suggest that real help would be given if friends would give certain Sundays or weeks to this work, and communicate their willingness to do so in good time to the Association Secretary of their district. The Committee firmly believe that no loss to any parish would result from such a course on the part of its pastor, but rather increased spiritual life and blessing.

SPECIAL FUNDS.

Mention was made in last year's Report of the formation of the Walter Jones Fund, and of the Henry Venn Fund. The following grants have been made from these funds during the year just closed. From the Walter Jones Fund—for the salaries of eight Native agents in the Niger Mission, including those of two in holy orders, £361; and for the salaries of six Native agents in Palestine, £129 0*s.* 8*d.* Total £490 0*s.* 8*d.* Some agents have also more recently been placed on the same Fund in the Telugu Mission; and it is in contemplation to confer a similar benefit on the Panjâb Mission, in reference to one or two of the highly-educated alumni of the Lahore Divinity School. By carrying out these and similar proposals, opportunity will be found for usefully applying the whole of the interest of this valuable fund. From the Henry Venn Fund—for the Native Church at Bananas and Charlotte, Sierra Leone, £100; for the Niger, £100; for Gorakpur, Lahore, and the Ceylon Tamil Cooly Mission, on condition that one additional Native agent is employed in each case, £65; and for the Cotta Native Missionary Association, for salary of a second Itinerant Catechist, £60. Total £325.

PATRONAGE.

The names of the Bishops of St. David's, of Ossory, and of Ballarat, have been added to the list of Vice-Presidents. The Earl of Aberdeen has accepted the same post. The following, having rendered essential services to the Society, have been nominated as Honorary Governors for Life:—The Rev. Canon Arnold, M.A., Rector of Tinwell, Rutlandshire; the Rev. Prebendary Blenkin, M.A., Vicar of Boston, Lincolnshire; the Rev. George Blisset, M.A., Vicar of St. John's, Chichester; the Rev. W. A. Cartledge, M.A., Vicar of Biton, Harrogate; the Rev. Edwin Fox, M.A., late Incumbent of St. John's, York; the Ven. Archdeacon Hunter, M.A., Vicar of St. Matthew's, Bayswater; the Rev. William Milton, M.A., Vicar of St. Mark's, Broomhall, Sheffield; the Rev. Edward Newman, Vicar of Ecclesall, Sheffield; the Rev. John Bradford Whiting, M.A., Vicar of Broomfield, Essex; and Professor Balfour, of Edinburgh. The staff of the Home Secretariat has been strengthened by the appointment of the Rev. William Gray, M.A., for several years Corresponding Secretary of the Society at Madras, and lately Association Secretary in the Midland District.

The Committee have to record with deep sorrow the loss of two valued members, removed to their heavenly rest, P. F. O'Malley, Esq., and J. Gurney Hoare, Esq., whose fidelity to Evangelical truth and special personal qualifications were often of great service to the Society in the work in which it is engaged.

ISLINGTON INSTITUTION.

The Principalship of the Institution has been accepted by the Rev. William Hagger Barlow, M.A., Rector of St. Ebbe's, Oxford, a tried friend of the Society, who has just entered upon his responsible duties.

MISSIONARY CANDIDATES.

Out of forty-nine candidates whose cases have been considered by the Committee, during the year, twenty-two have been accepted. Twenty-five approved students have been under training during the same period—eight at the preparatory class at Reading, and seventeen at the Islington Institution. This unusually small number is mainly due to the fewness of the entries three years ago. From the same cause only three regular students are available this year from the Institution for the Mission-field. Meanwhile the promise given the previous year of an increased number of University men has not at present been realized. Only two such have offered themselves—one already in Holy Orders belonging to the University of Cambridge—the other, a graduate in double honours, from Trinity College, Dublin.

The Committee would place in the forefront of their Report their profound conviction that never since the Lord Jesus ascended to His Father's throne have there been throughout the world such indications of the presence of His hand who openeth, and no man shutteth. "Speak to the children of Israel that they go forward," is the word that rings in their ears continually from all parts of the Mission-field. So far as it has been possible with the scanty supply of labourers at their disposal, they have responded to the call; but how inadequately their Missionaries on the field know too well. The Committee can but wait reluctantly and longingly till the Church at home hears the call more distinctly and obeys it; till devoted hearts in larger numbers answer, "Here am I, send me;" till fathers, mothers, and sisters are willing to say, for their Saviour's sake, "Go, and the Lord prosper thee."

Scanty supply of Missionary Candidates.

ORDINATION OF MISSIONARIES.

Twenty of the Society's Candidates have been admitted to Holy Orders; viz. five Europeans by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of London and the Bishop of Madras, and fifteen Natives by the Bishops of Calcutta, Madras and Auckland, and by Bishops Gobat and Crowther. Thirteen of the Society's Missionaries also have received Priests' orders during the year.

DECEASE OF LABOURERS.

The following labourers have been removed by death during the past year:—

West-Africa Mission.—The Rev. R. Palmer, Native Missionary, died on May 10, 1874—The Rev. H. Boston, Native Missionary, died at Bullom, on July 16, 1874—The Rev. C. Knödler died at Steinenberg, Germany, on October 22nd, 1874.

China Mission.—The Rev. J. G. Mahood died at sea on March 15th, 1875, on his way home to England from Fuh Chow.

the Rev. J. Williams arrived at Southampton from Mombasa on April 12th, 1875.

NUMBER OF LABOURERS.

Seven European Clergymen, eight laymen (three of whom were subsequently ordained in the Mission-field), and one female teacher, have been sent forth from Europe or received into the Mission during the year; and six European Clergymen have been removed by death; nine ordained labourers, on account of health and other causes, have ceased to be connected with the Society. The number of European labourers in connexion with the Society at present is as follows:—

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Abroad— | | |
| Ordained European Missionaries | 160 | |
| Unordained European Labourers | 24 | |
| European Female Teachers | 11 | |
| | | 195 |
| At Home— | | |
| Ordained European Missionaries | 41 | |
| Unordained European Labourers | 4 | |
| European Female Teachers | 1 | |
| | | 241 |

Of the Native ordained labourers, four have died during the year, and one has been transferred to the Native Church of Sierra Leone. Their number at present is 154—an increase of twelve on the year preceding. There are also five country-born ordained Clergymen engaged in the Society's foreign Missions.

SIERRA LEONE.

The Bishop of Sierra Leone and Mrs. Cheetham reached the Colony on the 1st of February, 1875. The former had spent seven months in England, where his presence was of great benefit for the purpose of concerting with the Committee fresh plans and arrangements for the development of the Church and the Mission, both in Sierra Leone and in the Yoruba country. There are but two European Missionaries now at work in the Mission, the Rev. L. Nicholson and the Rev. A. Menzies. Mr. Nicholson is the valued Secretary of the Mission, and Mr. Menzies has with true Missionary devotedness offered to take charge of the work in the adjoining Sherbro country.

I. Native Church within the Colony.

The Native Christians of Sierra Leone exhibit increasing ability to provide men and means for the Pastorate, and increasing liberality in support of Missionary effort. The Committee, therefore, propose that the Parent Society should henceforth retain in connexion with itself one congregation only in the colony (that of Trinity Church, Kissy Road), and should devote the resources thus set free to evangelistic work in the neighbouring heathen countries. The Society has accordingly withdrawn from Banânas during the year just concluded. It has also been arranged that the church of Sierra Leone, aided by the guidance of its energetic Bishop, should initiate and carry forward similar Missionary effort at its own charges. The income for 1874 of the local Church Missionary Association was £572—the largest sum yet raised. The contributions to this Association have hitherto aided the work of the Parent Society; but will now probably be expended on the more independent missionary enterprise just referred to.—The day of intercession for Missions (30th Nov., 1874) was well observed, more than a thousand worshippers assembling at the Cathedral.

It must not be supposed, however, that either the friends or the members of the Sierra Leone Church are so satisfied with the present state of things as not to long for further indications of a spirit of self-denying devotedness in the Lord's work. The latest Report of the Association just referred to, the Sierra Leone Auxiliary, for 1874, makes an urgent appeal to the Native Christians, especially the wealthier and more influential among them, to dedicate their own sons to Missionary and ministerial work, and laments that hitherto there has been less of this self-consecration than might have been looked for. The Annual Sermon preached before the Auxiliary by an African clergyman, the Rev. J. Quaker, contains the following stirring passages on the same subject—

Result of GOD'S blessing on the Society's labours, as described by an African Clergyman.

> Through her instrumentality [i.e. the instrumentality of the Church Missionary Society], under God, West Africa (not reckoning the successful labours of other Protestant Missionary Societies) can now boast of its almost self-supporting Native Church in Sierra Leone—its 32 Gospel-light-bearing Stations—5 Superior Educational Establishments, 63 Primary Schools, 110 Lay-Teachers, 5429 Scholars, 20,000 Professed Members of the Church of England; 6400 Communicants, and 40 Native Clergymen—not reckoning the six who have now gone to their eternal rest,—and a Native Bishop, officiating in that capacity acceptably alike to foreigners and their own countrymen. In consideration of such wonderful achievements, well may we exclaim, "What hath God wrought?" Of these 40 Clergyman, 15 are this day labouring in connexion with this Settlement and its Dependencies; of whom 11 are Native Pastors, 2 Chaplains, 2 Assistant Missionaries, and 2 at Sherbro and Mendi.

We, brethren, in Sierra Leone, are by far richer than the inhabitants of the adjacent and outlying countries both in temporal and spiritual advantages. We enjoy the blessings of peace and security arising from a Christian Government, while they are ever in mutual feuds and battles. We enjoy the glorious light of the Gospel, feeding on its rich provisions, even the feast of fat things which the Lord has made for all nations, while they are shut out. Shall we remain unconcerned? They are longing for the crumbs of the Bread of life—the Word of God; shall we ignore their state? Is it not our duty to endeavour by every legitimate means possible to ameliorate their wretched condition? They are even now as it were lying at our gates, full of wounds and bruises, and putrefying sores, which have not been bound up nor mollified with ointment. From the sole of their foot even unto the head, there is no soundness. In other words, although lying near to us, they are still as a nation without any saving religion, and full of guilt and corruption arising from the fall. Shall we make no attempt for their reformation? These nations—the Timnehs, Bulloms, Susus, Sherbros, and Mendis—have contributed in no small degree to the present temporal prosperity of the Colony. From them we have our yearly supply of rice, cassada, palm-oil, beniseed, ground-nuts, kolanuts, palm-kernels, gum-copal, camwood, teak-timber, hides, cattle, and various other products. But what have we, as Christians, given them in return? Having reaped their carnal things, is it not compensation far more ample than any other, if by our instrumentality they are made partakers with us of our spiritual blessings? Hitherto we, as merchants and traders, have not been true to our own religion, consequently these heathens around see nothing in us worthy of their imitation. British philanthropists and British Christians made no vain excuse why they should not help us when Sierra Leone lay in similar condition, although they are thousands of miles distant from our coast. They said not, Behold, we knew not your state, or how you came into it; but flew at once, as it were, to our rescue, at a great sacrifice of their own lives.

II. Congregations still connected with the Society in the Colony.

The Rev. L. Nicholson, who with a Native Curate, the Rev. J. E. Taylor, watches over the congregation of Trinity Church, Kissy Road, deplores the sad indifference of many among the Christian professors, though he is encouraged by observing a spirit of prayer, as well as a spirit of forgiveness and love, among some who had been living in malice and uncharitableness. The members of the congregation number 1260, of whom 532 are Communicants. The attendance at public worship has of late been increasing, averaging at present, 830. This necessitates an enlargement of the church, to meet the expenses of which the congregation have promised £500. The following interesting passage occurs in Mr. Taylor's Annual Letter:—

Female Helpers.

I should not omit to mention the lay Helpers, who have been very useful. The female members of the congregation are divided into classes, which meet after morning service on Sundays in the houses of the Helpers. At such meetings a hymn is sung, prayer offered, the presiding female Helper gives a short address, after which there is singing and prayer again. This over, if any one is absent from sickness, all the members go to visit her. Besides this, the female Helpers on stated days go about visiting and admonishing the careless, quarrelsome, &c.; all difficult cases they report to the Curate. The male members have not as yet been thus divided, but they will soon be. Those who will take them in classes have for some months past been in the habit of assembling together in my house, every Tuesday evening, for a little training.

Mr. Taylor was preceded in the post he now holds by the Rev. R. Palmer, who was removed by death on the 10th of May, 1874. His health had long been feeble, but up to the extent of his bodily strength he had been a laborious and faithful minister. In a funeral service, the Rev. J. E. Taylor thus speaks of Mr. Palmer's dying hours:—

Last words of an African Clergyman.

That he was a true disciple of Jesus let his own words tell. When told on his dying bed to place his trust in Christ, he said, "Any way I am ready—ready to live, for to live is Christ—ready to die, for to die is gain." To the question, "Where is your hope?" he replied, "I hope in God. I know He will never leave me; for He has promised, My sheep shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of My hand. I know in whom I have believed, and I know He will never suffer me to perish. I cannot boast of any good works, for I have none. I depend on God's saving mercies. I know I have my own infirmities, but God has pardoned them all. I know I am saved, but not by my own power. By grace are ye saved, through faith, and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." Romans viii. was one of his favourite chapters. In the midst of the sobs and sighs of his surrounding friends, one could hear him repeating just a few minutes before his death, "I am now ready to be offered; the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing." Five minutes to ten last Sabbath night he entered on that eternal Sabbath which remaineth for the people of God.

The Committee have for some time had it in contemplation to transfer the district of Pademba Road to the pecuniary support of the Native Church; and there is every reason to believe that this step will very shortly be carried into effect. The Native Curate now in charge (Rev. Moses Pearce, late of the Sherbro,) thus writes:—

A Sierra Leone congregation.

Pademba Road was the scene of my childhood, I was taught in its day-school, I was both a scholar and subsequently a teacher in its Sabbath school, and now in the good providence of God I am appointed to occupy the pulpit once occupied, and to minister to the congregation gathered by my spiritual Father in Christ, the Rev. Jas. Beale, of blessed memory, who nineteen years ago first directed my mind to the Christian Ministry. I feel as if the voice of the Lord truly said to me by this appointment, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord has done for thee, and has had compassion on thee. I must with grief of heart say, Satan has been very busy, especially amongst the younger members of our congregation. Yet there has been a shaking amongst those who were spiritually asleep, and earnest inquiries are being made after the way of salvation. To God be all the praise! Our Sunday services are well attended both morning and evening; the congregation numbers between 500 and 600 on either occasion. There has been some improvement in our Sabbath School, both as to number and interest; though, I must say, it is not the Sabbath school of 1855 and 1856, the days of Mr. Beale. The present number of attendants is 175. The children in the day-schools need all possible attention; here, as in the Sabbath-school, is a broad margin for improvement. They number 572 scholars. The attendance at the Communicant classes held every Friday morning and evening is very encouraging. I have many a time returned home from them spiritually refreshed. [The whole number of Communicants, including those at the out-stations is 452.]

I had the pleasure of presenting for baptism six adults—four from the out-stations Brookfields and Krootown—their answers at the examination were very good, their simple faith in the Saviour was truly astonishing. "Jesus lived and died for me" was with each a practical belief. At Krootown the work I believe is steadily progressing in spite of opposition. At Brookfields, through ill health, the hardworking Catechist has not been able to do much, but yet his labours were blessed. I give an extract from his own journal, dated August 24th, 1874:—"Some time last week Lamo became sensible of the folly of idolatry; she left her house after having collected and thrown away her idols, and went to two of our female Communicants and expressed herself as a guilty, condemned, and foolish woman. These women were a little backward to believe her, knowing what a staunch idolatress and a bitter opposer to Christianity she had been. One of these women brought me the joyful news. I hastened to the house, and as I was going Lamo met me, and with a hearty welcome she invited me into her house, showing me her bedroom and other rooms and corners, declaring, 'There is nothing here or there. Search for yourself. I threw away all those foolish things, they make me poor, friendless, and unreasonable. I am done with them.' I then asked, 'What do you mean to do now?' She joyfully replied, 'To give my heart to God, and to follow His people.'"

Conversion of a well-known Idolatress.

III. Education.

The principal of the Fourah Bay College, the Rev. M. Sunter, who is now in England, gives the following account of its condition during the year:—

Previous to my departure for England, the total number of students under training—resident and non-resident—amounted to twenty-one, twelve of whom have since been located. Eight joined the Niger Mission, and left Sierra Leone for their several stations in June 1874; of the remaining four, three are engaged in educational work, and the fourth is appointed Catechist at Bendu, British Sherbro. At present six students are in residence, three having been transferred to the Grammar School. The instruction of these has during the past year been provided for by two Native Pastors, who have acted under the supervision of the Society's Secretary, the Rev. L. Nicholson. The Rev. G. Nicol, Acting Colonial Chaplain during the absence of the Bishop, has also rendered valuable assistance in teaching, having kindly volunteered his services for that purpose. The conduct of the students during the past year has been reported as on the whole highly satisfactory, and their spiritual and moral tone give cause for thankfulness, and is I trust indicative of future usefulness. Their progress in their several studies has also been praiseworthy; also the efficient manner in which they have carried on evangelistic work, in connexion with their senior tutor, Mr. J. B. Bowen. On the whole, there is every reason to hope that Fourah Bay College will continue to supply, from time to time, men of true piety and godly zeal, good men and true, for the work of the kingdom.

Mr. Sunter has recently received the honorary degree of M.A. from the University of Durham.

In the GRAMMAR SCHOOL under the charge of the Rev. J. Quaker, about 100 pupils are receiving instruction in Holy Scripture, Latin, Greek, Algebra, Mensuration, Book-keeping, and similar subjects. Mr. Quaker laments the absence of improvement in the moral and spiritual tone of the school.

In the latter half of 1874, two European ladies were connected with the FEMALE INSTITUTION, Miss Caspari and Miss Shoard, Miss Shoard, however, who left England on the 2nd of May, was after a time laid aside by fever. By Feb. 1874, Miss Shoard's health had been restored; and an additional lady, Miss Williams, arrived at the same time from England on a temporary engagement. There are sixty pupils on the books, of whom twenty-four are boarders. In one or two of them Miss Caspari sees decided proofs that they "have given their hearts to Jesus."

IV. Missionary efforts in the adjoining Countries.

At the commencement of 1874, the BULLOM Mission was under the care of the Rev. H. Boston. To the great grief of the Committee, the Mission, and the Native Church, he was shortly after removed by death. His son gives the following account of the closing weeks of his life:—

In March he was suddenly seized with a very strong attack of fever and pains in the back, which was thought to have been occasioned by his frequent exposure to wind and weather during his Missionary itinerancies through the swamps and marshes of the Bullom country. He came over to Sierra Leone for a change, and spent about three weeks at the mountain village of Regent, which did him some good. At the end of this time he proposed to return to Bullom. Many of his friends and relatives tried to dissuade him from returning so soon, as the change was too short to do him much good; but he determined to go, as he had just begun to rebuild his church at Yongro, and, as he said, "the progress of the work necessarily required his presence." When they saw that he would not be persuaded, like the disciples of Cæsarea, they ceased, saying, "The will of the Lord be done." Accordingly, on Friday, the 22nd of May, he left Freetown and returned to Bullom. He there continued gradually to recover, although he had now and then a relapse, until the two weeks previous to his death, when he grew worse, and suffered much. He breathed his last at noon of the 15th July. On the day of his death, having called his only sister to his bedside, he said, "I am going home to-day; I advise you to work while it is day, for when the night of death comes you will never be able to work." When asked, "Are you praying?" he replied, "O yes! that Saviour whom I have preached to others—that Jesus whom I have pointed out to others—on Him alone is my every hope and trust." He then called for bread and wine, but as wine could not be got there, he took water instead, and himself partook of a last memory of Christ's death. After this he said, "I want to go home; I am going home to-day. Come, Lord Jesus, come quickly, and take my spirit home!" Having said this, without a struggle or a groan, his immortal spirit left its earthly tenement, and winged its flight to the realms of the blest.

Dying bed of a Native Missionary.

Mr. Nicholson, in his capacity of Secretary, visited Bullom in October last, and gives the following account of what he saw:—

It was very pleasing to see the congregations at Yongro and Robenkia. At Yongro the little church was crowded; the king was present, and seemed to manifest a desire to walk in the narrow way. Fifty-six came to the Lord's Table. At Robenkia, five adults were baptized. The case of two was interesting—a mother and her son. The husband and father was a Christian; but the mother and son would not serve his God; he often entreated them, but to no purpose. Death came and took him away; then the mother and son came forward and desired Christian instruction; and after two years' probation, it was my great pleasure to baptize them into the Christian faith.

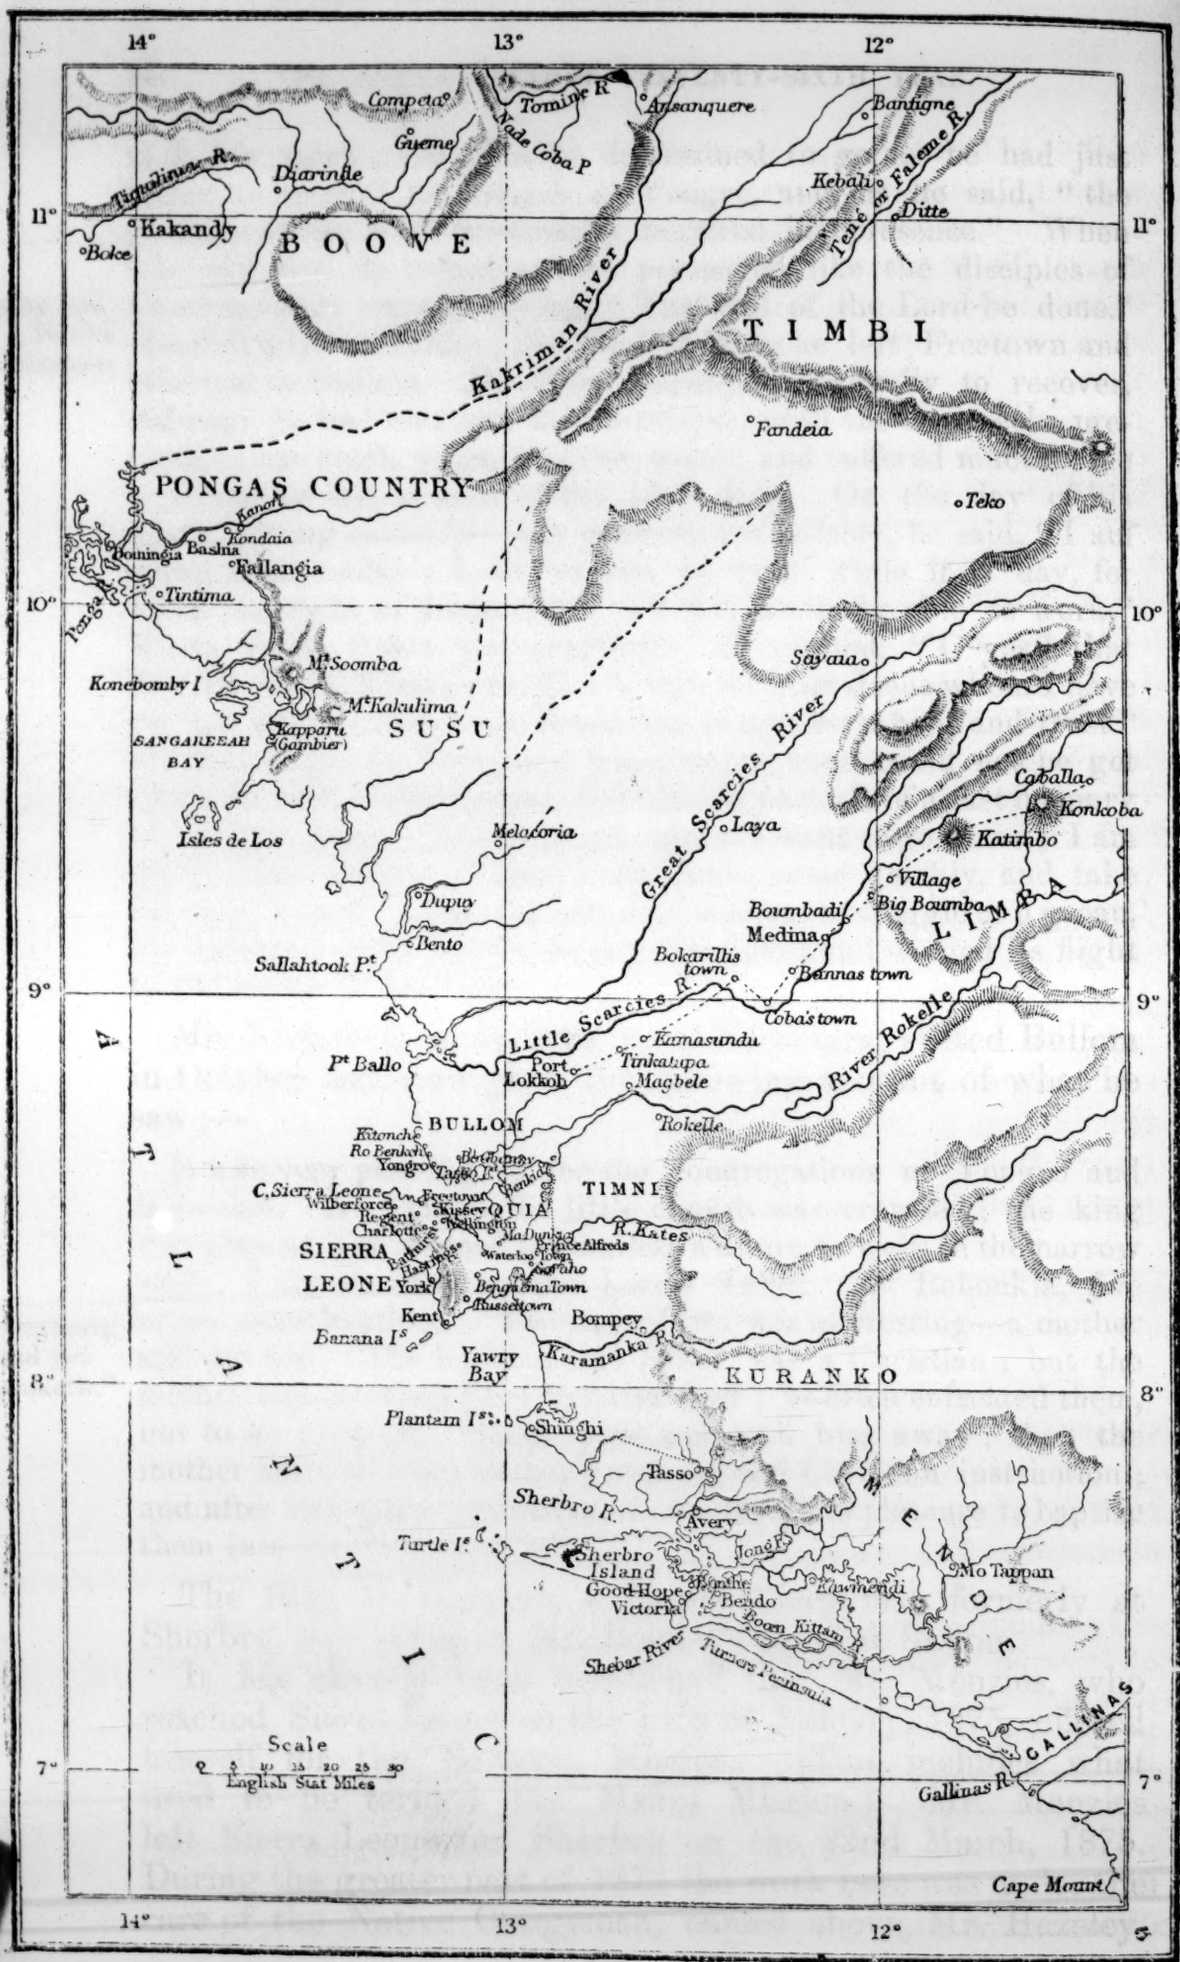

"He being dead yet speaketh."

The Rev. G. Hazeley, a Native Clergyman formerly at Sherbro, now occupies Mr. Boston's place at Bullom.

It has already been mentioned that Mr. Menzies, who reached Sierra Leone on the 14th of January, 1875, offered himself for the SHERBRO Mission. (This includes what used to be termed the MENDI Mission.) Mr. Menzies left Sierra Leone for Sherbro on the 22nd March, 1875. During the greater part of 1874 the work here was under the care of the Native Clergyman, named above, Mr. Hazeley.

SIERRA LEONE & ADJOINING TERRITORY

SIERRA LEONE & ADJOINING TERRITORY

Stanford's Geographical Est.

At Bendu, where Mr. Hazeley himself resided, the attendants at public worship varied from seventy-two to eighty-four; and there were thirty-five Communicants. Mr. Hazeley speaks of the members as "united by the bonds of brotherly love, and endeavouring to edify one another." They appear to be all of them immigrants from Sierra Leone, and were already (at least nominal) Christians before coming to Bendu. The Day School contains seventy pupils, the majority of whom were children of heathen parents. At Bonthe the Catechist reports steady increase in the congregation, which numbers nearly one hundred and fifty, among whom there are eighty-six Communicants. At open air services of a more directly evangelistic character many of the heathen are now regular attendants. The Native police Commandant, who has been vigorous and successful in repressing tribal hostilities, is also a consistent Communicant and a liberal contributor to the expenses of the church. No adults have been baptized from among the heathens, but there are several inquirers. At Victoria a new church has been erected, and the congregation averages 150; these also being mostly Native settlers from Sierra Leone. Two heathen chiefs were at one time regular attendants. Their heathen superstitions, however, which they did not altogether abandon, subsequently led them into practices which exposed them to punishment at the hands of the police authorities. This has not only separated them from the Missionaries, but gives rise to fears of further disturbance.

The Rev. C. Knödler was compelled by the state of his health to leave the QUIAH Mission in May, 1874. The change, however, humanly speaking, was too late, and on the 25th of October at Steinenberg, in Germany, this devoted brother was called to his rest. The Native Catechist on whom the work now devolves is labouring diligently, and has visited many of the towns in the vicinity. By the latest accounts, ten adult heathen were under his instruction for baptism.—Among these towns is Port Lokkoh, occupied by the Society some forty-five years ago, but abandoned after twenty-five years in consequence of intestine wars. The resident chief is anxious for the return of the Society's Missionaries, and has on this account refused to allow the Roman Catholic Mission to settle there. This opening has not been neglected. An experienced Native Catechist left for Port Lokkoh on the 22nd of March in the present year, to be followed in the autumn, if God permit, by two European brethren already assigned to the work. Port Lokkoh is on the high road to Falaba, Koranko, and Sûlima, and is described by Mr. Nicholson as "a glorious field in which to sow the good seed of the Word of God."

The Sierra Leone Church Missionary Society.

By resolution of the Parent Committee on February 16th of the present year, after previous consultation with the Bishop and with the representatives of the Society and the Native Church in Sierra Leone, it was decided that the Sierra Leone Auxiliary should be developed into a Sierra Leone Church Missionary Society, and that it should support and conduct the Bullom and Quiah Missions, the Sherbro Mission being still connected with the Parent Society.

General.

THIS Mission has been strengthened by the return of the two faithful veterans, Henry Townsend and David Hinderer, who reached Lagos in November, 1874, and of the Rev. J. B. Wood, who arrived a month later. Mr. Townsend, who returned after an absence of two years, was appointed to watch over the organization of the Native Church in Abeokuta; while Mr. Hinderer, who had been five years in England, opens up new ground eastward of Lagos, in the districts which had been visited in the December previous by Messrs. Maser and Roper.

LAGOS.

Mr. Mann, on whom devolved, in the weakened condition of the European force, the pastoral care of two of the principal churches, points out that the yearly gain from heathenism is comparatively speaking extremely small. This he attributes (partly) to there being scarcely any agents set apart exclusively for evangelistic work. He thinks also that voluntary unpaid headmen in conjunction with church members, might act as evangelists among the heathen. Mr. Mann has no doubt that suitable members of the churches could be found for this branch of the Lord's work, if a proper organization were instituted.

An interesting testimony to the change wrought in Lagos during the last twenty-five years is thus given by a native African clergyman, the Rev. James Johnson :—

Change in Lagos as described by an African Clergyman.

No one that knows what this place, till but recently, was—a slave market over which heathenism, idolatry, and a cruel superstition reigned, where several slave barracoons were erected by foreign slave dealers, whose superstition was rendered more fierce by such a commerce, whose river, the Ossa, was worshipped periodically with human victims, where to be rich was a crime for which one might be killed, and a slave population lived in continual dread of their masters—can fail to admire the grace of God when he contrasts the present with the past, and thank and praise Him for what His servants have been enabled to accomplish. The slave-market is now a free settlement; the many thousands who had been slaves are now free; the odium of slave no more attaches itself to them or their children; no man may sell them or use their services against their will; the Ossa river has no more human sacrifices offered to it to appease its wrath;

little crafts ride upon its waters in the cause of legitimate commerce; a happy people are seen everywhere; but above all, many heathens have been converted to Christianity; the voice of Christian praises from many has succeeded that of those which were offered to devils, and the sad wail of oppressed and enchained slaves, and even, sometimes, on those spots which they had wet with tears for much cruelty; and a Christian church has been established.

In the Faji congregation there are 500 Christians, of whom 196 are Communicants. Eleven adults were baptized during the year, and seven persons received from the Roman Catholic Church. Mr. Wright, the Native Curate, joins with others in deploring the slow extension of the Christian Church in Lagos. This is certainly humbling to the Native Christians of the place, and the Committee trust they will be stirred up to more prayer and effort.

The Rev. James Johnson, late of Sierra Leone, an African clergyman well known in this country, has been the Society's Missionary at Bread Fruit. His ministrations are conducted both in English and in Yoruba. Though of Yoruba descent, and accustomed from childhood frequently to use that dialect for colloquial purposes, English is really his own language, and he has had to study the Yoruba since coming to Lagos. There are 800 Christians attached to this congregation, of whom 308 are Communicants. Ten adults were baptized during the year. Of the three Sunday services, the morning (with an attendance of 500) and the afternoon are in Yoruba, and the evening, with an attendance of over 400, is in English. Inconsistencies among Christian Communicants are lamentably frequent everywhere; but the form which they assume in Lagos is sometimes gross and startling. Eleven Communicants have been excluded by the exercise of discipline during the year, but the whole number has increased by twenty notwithstanding. Mr. Johnson has set on foot a scheme for systematic evangelistic work among the heathen. The agents employed are "taking up the work gladly," several of them being unpaid volunteers.

What Mr. Johnson describes in the following paragraph shows how a national sentiment may be sanctified for the Lord's service. The movement will, however, need careful watching, lest it should foster tribal animosities. African Christians must remember those words, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free, but Christ is all and in all." Mr. Johnson writes:—

"The Ijesa Association."

There is in my district an Association formed by the Ijesa people, having for its object the promotion of the welfare of the Ijesa land. This people, of all whom I have met with here, are remarkably patriotic; they grieve much over the misery which has fallen upon their country; its capital has been conquered by the Ibadans, and a man of some authority appointed by Ibadan resides in it. An old heathen, one of the people, a woman who has been here for about thirty years, speaking to me the other day of her native home, its present subjection to the Ibadans, and the independence and happiness of past days, moved me with her words and tears: the fact that her country is a subject country, cuts like a dagger into her soul, and would, if it were possible, place her at the head of an army. "Lagos," she said, "with all its good things, has not to me the value that my country has; I earnestly long for the return of past days; home is home, however humble." The Association thus sets forth its object, and one of the means whereby it believes it may be attained:—"It shall have for its object the promotion of the welfare of the Ijesa country, in its social, commercial, and political condition; and for effectually carrying it out endeavours must be made to show the Chiefs of the entire country the benefits it will derive from their showing a willingness to receive missionaries who may be willing to reside and establish Churches and schools in the country." Its members meet weekly for prayer to God on behalf of their country. The mover and leader is an exemplary Christian man, P—— J——, noticed in the Society's last Annual Report; funds are raised for the furtherance of their object: heathen and Mohammedan countrymen have been invited to attach themselves to this Association of Christian people, and in order to induce them to do so, the Association has also been made a sort of relief Society as well. J—— hopes by this to have opportunities to read and explain the Scriptures to his heathen and Mohammedan friends. At every meeting a portion of the Word of God is read and explained. I met with them once in July, to see how they conducted their business, and was delighted with the spirit manifested by all.

On Mr. Maser leaving Lagos for Europe in April, 1874, the care of Aroloya, or Palm Church, devolved on Mr. Mann. Its registered members (including children) scarcely exceed one hundred, but of these, fifty-five are Communicants. Three adults were baptized during the year. Mr. Mann rightly regards this last number as less than might be humbly expected through God's blessing, if greater and more systematic efforts were made for the evangelization of the heathen in the district. He has lately set apart a Native Catechist to labour exclusively in this work.

The Rev. V. Faulkner, who has superintendence of the work at Ebute Meta, was prevented from residing there until the last three months of the year, reviewed in his Annual Letter. Even then he was frequently absent, on the work of itinerating. Yet the Native Christians have increased from 225 in 1873 to 298 in 1874. In 1869 they were but 95. Of the present number no less than 152 are Communicants. The nucleus of this congregation was formed by refugees from Abeokuta at the outbreak of 1867. The annual increase has partly arisen from the arrival of additional Christian emigrants from Abeokuta. But there are also accessions from heathenism, twelve adults having been baptized during the year. One of Mr. Faulkner's two Native Assistants is the veteran Doherty, so long a captive in Dahomey. Preparations are making for the erection of a new church, the foundation stone having been brought from Abeokuta. The members of the congregation are mostly agriculturists, cultivating farms eight or nine miles distant from the station, so that attendance at weekly Bible classes is difficult. As in many other African congregations, the great difficulty to be contended against is the sin of unchastity. Mr. Faulkner is able to report an improvement in this respect, and hopes for good effects from a Bible class for young women which Mrs. Faulkner conducts.

In the year 1869, some of the members of the Ebute Meta congregation began to preach the Gospel in a neighbouring island called Ido. The native chief was baptized, and a few inquirers were gathered together. There have been some further accessions since. The Communicants are still only five in number, but there is prospect of increase. This little congregation is remarkable as being the only one that consists mainly of persons belonging to the original tribes bordering the lagoon. A full and detailed account of the commencement of the work was given by the present Bishop of Sierra Leone in the Appendix to his Primary Charge.

Education.

The Committee have received no details of the present condition of the Training Institution. It has been conducted chiefly by Native agency during the greater part of the year, only two European Missionaries being at that time in Lagos. Of all departments of Missionary effort, there is none where the Committee regard the presence and leadership of Europeans as more important than in theological colleges and training institutions. They earnestly trust that the English Church will provide the Lagos Mission with a constant supply of men suitable for the work. They are thankful, however, that at present this post is adequately filled by the Rev. J. B. Wood, whose return in December 1874, has been already mentioned.

The Female Institution has been under the care of Mr. and Mrs. Mann. It contains forty-five pupils. Its utility cannot be questioned; but the progress of the pupils would be greater, if the pupils entered it better prepared.

Proposed Organization of the Native Church.

Though the old ruling families of Lagos are still heathen, the rising energies of the place are in its Christian population, which now amounts to 4000 persons, and whose material prosperity and growing intelligence have suggested that the time has now come for the self-support and distinct organization of the Lagos Church. Accordingly, at a meeting of the Missionary Conference, held at Lagos in February last, the question of placing the Church at Lagos on an independent footing was discussed. The Conference was unanimously of opinion that the time had fully come for taking this step, that regulations similar to those adopted in the Church of Sierra Leone would be most suitable for the purpose, and that as soon as Native Pastors in full orders were forthcoming, the congregations of Breadfruit, Ebute Ero, Badagry, Aroloya, and Ebute Meta might be embraced in the pastorate. The Parent Committee have, in concert with the Bishop of Sierra Leone, carefully considered the articles for the regulation of the Church of Sierra Leone, and such modifications have been introduced into them as the experience gained in Sierra Leone and the different condition of things in Lagos seemed to point out as desirable. The Bishop is now prepared to take measures at once for giving effect to the articles, and has agreed that the districts around Breadfruit and Ebute Ero should at once be formed into parishes, with the Rev. J. Johnson and Rev. W. Morgan as Native Pastors; that to these Aroloya and Badagry should be added as soon as the Rev. J. B. Wright and Rev. S. Pearse were admitted to priests' orders; and that Ebute Meta may follow as soon as a Native Pastor was found to whom it might be entrusted.

Organization of the Lagos Church.

A proposal of the Lagos Conference for the formation of a School Board, for the regulation of educational matters, has also been sanctioned, and the Rev. J. B. Wood is appointed chairman.

Extension of the Work.

Mr. Hinderer's appointment (accepted by himself with true Missionary self-sacrifice) to open up new ground eastward of Lagos has already been mentioned. The head-quarters are at a town called Leke, about forty miles east of Lagos, where there is an English Commandant and two or three European mercantile establishments. Mr. Hinderer reached Leke in the early part of December. From thence he hopes to visit the Ondo country, and also his old station IBADAN, which is not far distant. The African population of Leke is a mixture of Ijebus, Haussas, and fugitive slaves. From the last of these three sections a small congregation has been already gathered together. The Commandant, Captain Bryton, showed himself very friendly to the Mission party; and much kindness was also received from the resident agents of a European mercantile house. Mr. Hinderer will be upheld by much earnest prayer from the many who have felt interested in his former labours.

BADAGRY.

At this station there are 122 Christians, of whom 31 are Communicants. Very few of these, however, belong to the native (Popo) population of the place. Three adults have been baptized during the year, but these also are strangers. The Popos manifest a bitter hatred against the Gospel; and Mr. Pearse, the Native Minister, is often much grieved with their stubborn opposition. That he has not been, however, without some cheering indications of the Divine presence and favour will be seen by the following very interesting extract from his Annual Letter:—

> Maria Ekidan, a most zealous and devoted sister, left us rather abruptly for the world above, as if saying still to us, "Thus a Christian ought to live, and thus to die." She was an Egba, converted by the ministry of the late Rev. Thomas King, at Abeokuta. She came here some time before the outbreak in Abeokuta of 1867, and though she paid two or three visits to her relations in that place, yet she returned again as if to spend her remaining life here. She had often signified to me how strongly the incredulity of Badagry resembled her's in her heathen state, and that nothing short of infinite mercy could save her: that as a heathen she was so much bigoted and fierce that nobody dared to speak a word to her about God: and that she did much to hurt the cause of God, hated and persecuted all who abandoned their idols and became Christians. Therefore after her conversion she exclusively appropriated the term "Elese" to her Christian name Maria, and thus was commonly known as "Maria Elese," i. e. Maria the sinner, and as an object of mercy she was also called "Omo Manu," i. e. a child of the Merciful, which latter name she applied to all Christians. She lived with us here as a petty trader, and was a blessed example to our little flock of how to "be diligent in business, serving the Lord." We were always indebted to her for wise counsels in adjusting cases that may arise among the converts. She was a staunch reprover of sin wherever it was found, and a great lover of truth and holiness, and had ample opportunity by her vocation of testifying of the love of God in Christ to all classes in the streets of Badagry; and as if this was her sole object, whilst she travelled about to sell, she went from house to house, so that in the heart and outskirts of the town she was known not so much as a trader as "Mammy Oniwasu," i. e. Mammy the preacher; so intent was she on her Master's work. She was particularly endowed with uncommon graces, love, wisdom, patience, liberality, humility, &c. On a Friday night she complained of earache. She was missed at early prayers next morning, quite an unusual thing, and when we felt it our duty to force open her door and awake her, she was quite unconscious of all we said or did, but every time we disturbed her she would bow and kneel in a praying posture, and then quietly lay down to sleep again; and thus she never spoke one word more to man, as if she was ordered to be silent, after having spoken so much during her lifetime. On Sunday night, November 16, 1873, which was the third day of her illness, she breathed her last. Her remains were interred in the Christian burial-ground, in the afternoon of the following day, in the midst of bitter lamentations from a large concourse of people, Christians, Mohammedans, and heathens.

Maria, the sinner.

Subsequently Mr. Pearse met with further proofs of Divine blessing on his labours. In a later communication he thus writes:—

On January 2nd this year private baptism was administered to Sarah Adenike, who has since fallen asleep in Jesus, actually rejoicing in the pardoning mercy of God through Christ. She was a Mohammedan by profession, and was of a notoriously bad character. But she found mercy of the Lord during her protracted and painful illness. The visits of myself and the members of this Church were blessed to her soul. She was brought to a sense of the evil of sin, and was in great trouble of mind, and most strenuously clung to Jesus and the atonement wrought by Him. Her Mohammedan friends fled away from her, but from the day of her baptism the Church members took particular care of her, and two of our leading female converts abandoned their own work to attend her, until her joyous spirit quitted its earthly and worn-out tenement on the 13th inst. The faith of our beloved sisters, who made it their voluntary business to tend her to the last, was more confirmed as to the reality of the invisible world and of Christ as the all-sufficient Saviour of sinners from what they had heard of the sovereign grace of God vouchsafed to this woman. The heathens also observed the attention paid by the members to her when all her friends and relations abandoned her, and it is to them an insoluble problem.

Voluntary Evangelists at Badagry.

After the week of prayer this year, one of our converts, a Popo, waited on me and begged permission to introduce an important subject—that if it seem good to me, the brethren should be asked by turns to visit the surrounding villages every Lord's day. I at once approved of the proposition, and laid it the same day before the members, and it was unanimously decided that the male communicants should go, two and two by turns, every Lord's day, to tell to the villagers immediately bordering on Badagry, of what the Lord has done for their souls. The plan was at once set on foot on Sunday, the 17th inst., in defiance of discouragements. These places are to be visited by me on weekdays as often as occasion will permit.

ABEOKUTA.

An Infant Native Church upheld in the absence of European Missionaries.

Mr. Townsend once more reached Abeokuta on the 23rd of December, 1874. His last visit it will be remembered was in January, 1871. That visit, however, was a very brief one; and though kindly received, he was stopped en route when he attempted to repeat it. With this exception, and that of two other short visits in January and July, 1874, the congregations connected with the Society in Abeokuta had been without the presence of a European Missionary for more than seven years. The Schools have suffered, being in want both of efficient teachers and of school materials; but in almost every other respect there has been uninterrupted advance. During the seven years' isolation a meeting was held at Abeokuta every month to pray that GOD would bring back the European Missionaries. Mr. Townsend writes under date Christmas Day, 1874:—

We left Lagos on Monday, and on Wednesday evening we were here. No one opposed, no one objected, we passed without being questioned. We have been kept in a state of perpetual excitement ever since. This morning, since leaving our bedroom, I had scarcely time to eat; at one time I counted nearly a hundred persons in the piazza of our house, heathens and Christians, old and young persons of note, and children, all glad to see us. The chiefs of Ake came to us in the morning. Ulado, the head of the civil government, sent his son to salute us also this morning. Yesterday the nominal chief war-captain was sent to salute us. He threatened to kill me the last time I was here. There was a splendid congregation at church this morning, the service was well conducted by Mr. Williams. There is a great improvement in the outward conduct of the congregation very visible to me.

Reception of Mr. Townsend at Abeokuta.

Again, a fortnight later:—

Many visitors have called upon me whilst I have been writing this, some Christians, some heathens. The burden of our conversation is, "White man, do make the country good, we trust you, you know us, and we know you." "I will do what I can with God's help if the people don't drive me away again." "No, they cannot do that again, the doers of it are mostly dead." I had a prayer meeting every morning last week, to ask the Lord to revive His work and make His people holy. The week of prayer (this week) is also observed, meetings being held in various parts of the town. On Sunday next we shall have Communion, to which I have invited the Communicants of the various Churches in Abeokuta and Oshielle, that we may at least once have a general gathering from our various congregations as one Church.

The Native Christians of AKE are reckoned at 1000. Of these 284 are Communicants. Twenty-six adults have been baptized during the year, and there are ninety-two inquirers. The Pastor (a Native African) is the Rev. D. Williams. At the outbreak of 1867, 200 Native Christians left Ake and settled at Ebute Meta. This loss has been more than counterbalanced by accessions that have taken place since that date.

The Rev. W. Allen, the Native Minister at IGBORE, has been very much incapacitated from work by ill-health during the year. Much prayer has been offered on his behalf. The following extract from his letter, dated Dec. 9th, 1874, will be read with interest:—

Of late all the great Babalawos went to their sacred grove to consult their Ifas as to what steps they might take towards ameliorating the present condition of the country, because the mortality in this country since this two years has been very great from the smallpox, and even sudden deaths so often, scarcity of cowries, &c. The Babalawos returned from their grove after consulting the Ifa by saying that the country can never be better as formerly again if they do not send to call back Shodeke's white white man (meaning Mr. Townsend). For, say they, Shodeke's man's entering first in the country brought good things, viz. money, prosperity, happiness, and peace, but his being shut out of the country brings poverty, misery, and all sorts of evils. The Mohammedan high priest (Lemomu) said that the Christian's worship was the true one.

At the farm villages, some of the Native Christian settlers belonging to Abeokuta, have made persevering efforts for the evangelization and conversion of their heathen countrymen, which in several instances GOD has graciously blessed with success. Native Catechists, also, starting from Abeokuta have not only visited these villages, but have carried the Gospel message to several small towns, in one or two of which they have been welcomed by the local chiefs. At Iseyin, about four days journey from Abeokuta, the king and other leading men have placed their sons with the Catechist for education. The Native Christians of Abeokuta have been so much interested with this movement that they have contributed £12 in order to erect at Iseyin a small school chapel.

Dahomian invasion of Abeokuta.

With all that is so cheering it is painful to add that the bloodthirsty Dahomian monarch has again invaded the Egba country, pillaging and burning the farms, and killing or carrying off all whom he met with in the open country. On Good Friday of this present year he erected a camp in sight of Abeokuta. The Native Christian warriors sallied forth to drive the enemy away, but not being supported by the population generally, they were compelled to fall back, though without loss to themselves. Much prayer has been doubtless offered to GOD, in whom alone His people can trust [While these sheets were passing through the press, the cheering intelligence arrived that on the 29th of April the Dahomians retreated to their own country after having been repulsed with great loss in an attack upon Oba, a town about ten miles to the south of Abeokuta. Meanwhile, to prevent the repetition of these invasions, a deputation from the Parent Committee waited on the Earl of Carnarvon on the 8th of June, to ask for the friendly intervention of H. M. Government. His Lordship, in reply, could hold out no definite promise, but expressed the hope that effectual remonstrances might be made with the King of Dahomey.]

IBADAN.

The Native Christians connected with this Station number 372, of whom 148 are Communicants. Ten adults have been baptized during the year. The Christians are distributed, as last year, among the three congregations of Kudete, Aremo, and Ogunpa. These are ministered to by a Native Pastor, the Rev. Daniel Olubi, who is assisted by Native Catechists and Schoolmasters. Through GOD'S mercy the way is again open for European Missionaries to visit the place, and Mr. Hinderer hopes shortly to be able to do so. The two churches that had been blown down by a tornado have been rebuilt; the Christians showing much earnestness in the work, which attracted the attention and surprise of the heathen. Several inquirers have come forward; and through the friendly mediation of the head chief (a Mohammedan), persecution in one instance has been checked; a Christian girl, who had been ill-treated by heathen kinsmen, having been allowed to live unmolested with other relations who are converts. Attempts have been made by Mr. Olubi, not without success, to introduce among his flock some regular methods of giving of their substance to the Lord's work. His Annual Letter breathes a devout spirit of prayer and praise.

Vigorous advance of a Native Church in the absence of the Missionaries.

OTTA.

Mr. White, the Native Missionary, is again unable to report any increase in the number of adherents. The Native Christians, rather less than 100 in number, have shown some activity in rebuilding their church; but Mr. White gives no details respecting their spiritual condition. The following passage, however, from his Annual Letter shows that, by the grace of GOD, he has not lost his hopefulness and perseverance :—

Solemn remonstrance of a Native Missionary with heathen chiefs.

A few months ago, taking into consideration the length of time I have been here—this being my twentieth year—and comparing our labours and the expenses of the Society with the scanty results produced during this period of time, I resolved to call for a meeting of the whole town, to direct their attention to the length of time I have been among them, and seriously and faithfully to point out to them their unwillingness in general to accept the Gospel, though they have applied for it themselves, and their duplicity in failing to fulfil the promise made us year after year of sending their children to school, and of coming to the house of God on Sundays; and to propose for their consideration whether another Missionary should be sent them, and I be removed to another field of labour, or whether they will totally reject the Gospel, that I may write and inform the Society that sent me among them. Accordingly, I called on the King, accompanied by Mr. Cole, our Scripture Reader, and laid the subject before him. He declared that I am certainly right to be angry, begged me to be patient, and promised to refer the matter to his chiefs. At my request also, the elders of the four divisions of the town met together, when I brought the subject before them. They made the same acknowledgment as the king, begged me to be patient and declared that it is not their wish to reject the Gospel, nor to exchange me for any other person. They appealed to my knowledge of the fact that nearly all the former chiefs have died away; but they promised that, as their successors, they will endeavour to bring about a better state of things. It was proposed that a public meeting of the whole town should be held, and that the authorities should lay before the public the importance of making the house of God a matter of their concern. This, however, has not yet been done; but several of the elders to whom I spoke have since been regular attendants at church every Lord's day.

NIGER MISSION.

NIGER.

THE districts in which Bishop Crowther and his coadjutors are labouring, are not only, for the most part, in the gross darkness of heathenism, but are in a condition of constant political disturbance, often accompanied by bloodshed. It is, however, a matter of devout thanksgiving to God that in many places, at least, the Mission agents are regarded as friends to whom the different contending parties may alike apply for counsel and sympathy. The Christian influence thus brought to bear on many of the leading chiefs, especially in the interior, is such that many of them are almost persuaded to become Christians, and probably would do so but that they cannot make up their minds to abandon certain sinful practices connected with polygamy and slave-holding. The dignity of a chief in these countries is often estimated by the number of wives and slaves that he possesses. Faith in idolatry, however, is certainly fast losing ground. There are many who conform to it simply from fear of relatives and neighbours, or from a persuasion that their influence in their own families is connected with the performance of idolatrous ceremonies. Such persons will often attend Divine service, and listen with apparent interest to the preaching of the Gospel. It is observable also that in this part of Africa Mohammedans readily receive Christian instruction, and manifest at present no bitter opposition against the Gospel. This may arise from their scanty knowledge of the Koran, or from their perception of the higher tone of Christian morality, or from that manifest excellence of the Gospel which commends itself to every man's conscience in the sight of God. The Arabic Holy Scriptures are much reverenced by those who can read and understand them.—An ordination was held on the 9th of August, at Christ Church, Onitsha, when four Candidates, Messrs. E. Phillips, W. E. Carew, Solomon Perry and John Buck, were admitted to Deacons' Orders. Messrs. Phillips and Carew were the two Senior Catechists; Messrs. Perry and Buck were, three years ago, students at the Fourah Bay College. The African clergymen in the Niger Mission are now twelve in number. On the 11th October following, three of the newly-ordained Deacons received Priests' Orders. In the June previous, at Bonny, the Bishop had delivered solemn instructions to each of these brethren, as well as to ten others who were appointed to subordinate positions. From these instructions the following interesting passage is extracted:—

Bishop Crowther's caution to youthful labourers.

Those of you who have just come out for the first time must be sober-minded. Young students, just from school, often imagine they can carry everything before them; like James and John, surnamed Boanerges, the sons of thunder, they are ready to ask for command to call for fire to come down, as Elias did, and consume those who will not receive their Lord and Master; but we are told that they knew not what spirit they were of. To sober down this fiery spirit and zeal without prudence, the Lord sent them out two by two, to preach the Gospel, that one might be a check as well as a support to the other. You can have no better yoke-fellows in this respect than your elder brethren of many years' standing in Mission work; in this way each one will be trained and prepared to occupy a new station in his turn.

The four newly-ordained are stationed respectively as follows:—Mr. Phillips at Asaba, an outstation attached to Onitsha; Mr. Carew at New Calabar; Mr. Perry at Ijawo, another outstation near Onitsha; while Mr. Buck for the present is placed at Onitsha itself.

AKASSA, BRASS, AND BONNY.

At Akassa there has been no improvement since last year. A further trial is made by a change in the Catechist, and by the establishment of a boarding school. The results of these plans will finally decide whether the station should be continued, or abandoned for a time as an unfruitful field.

The Mission Station for Brass is situated within easy walking distance of a town called Tuwon at the mouth of the river. The Missionary is the Rev. Thomas Johnson. The persecution that raged here in 1871 and 1872 had entirely passed away by September in the latter of these two years. It, however, broke out afresh in January, 1874. King Okiya, who before had been friendly, and seemed to be so until the very day of the new outburst, was now induced to countenance, or at least acquiesce in, the hostile movement. At Nembe, the capital, several converts were severely beaten. A plot was also laid to set fire to the town of Tuwon, and to kidnap or kill those chiefs and other persons who had joined the Mission. The intended victims, however, received a timely warning from some friendly party; and the detection of the plot, together with expressions of sympathy with the Missionary and the Native Christians on the part of the European supercargoes on the coast, caused the project to be abandoned. A meeting was subsequently held at Tuwon, attended by the king and nearly all the supercargoes, to inquire into the matter. Okiya denied the charge, and at the same time refused to continue his protection of the converts. Some of the converts were heavily fined. But Brass, as the Bishop observes, "is a much more free country than Bonny:" the converts rallied again, and the church (the material building) had to be enlarged, to accommodate the still increasing congregation. In fact the church is now better attended than at any former time. Yet Chief Spiff, mentioned in last year's Report as having joined himself to the Mission, has not ventured to return to his own house, but carries on his business at the shipping from the Mission premises. Neither has the number of school children recovered from the effects of the fine imposed in 1872 on parents whose children received instruction from the Mission Agents. The converts are now, however, allowed to attend church, and to send their children to school, without molestation. The enlarging of the church (referred to above) was effected partly at the expense of the converts.—The Communicants at Brass number twenty-eight; and there are no fewer than 156 candidates for baptism.

The population of Bonny consists mainly of chiefs and their slaves. The King, George Pepple, is by profession a Christian, and supports the Mission as far as he is able, but his control over the chiefs is little more than nominal. At the close of the year 1873 the Missionary prospects of this place were very promising. The congregations were large, and the candidates for baptism were numerous. At the close of 1874 a spirit of persecution began to manifest itself. Some of the chiefs prohibited their slaves and other dependants (school children excepted) from attending church on pain of heavy fines and severe punishment. On arriving here in July last, the Bishop proceeded to Bonny Town, and got a meeting of the king and chiefs convened to know the reason that had led to the adoption of these severe measures. It was then alleged that some of the slaves who had attended church were becoming independent and disobedient, refusing to do any work on Sunday, even work of absolute necessity. The last of these accusations the Bishop denied, telling the chiefs that the converts were taught to make a wide distinction between works of necessity on the Lord's day and mere ordinary business. He then added that though they were the owners of the slaves they owned the body only, but that God claimed both body and soul. He asked them whether when God sends His messenger Death to take away the soul of a slave, the owner could prevent obedience to the summons. After this point had been insisted on at some length, the meeting was brought to a close, when the chiefs promised to consider what he had said, and to give him a definite answer on his return from the Niger. Bishop Crowther's more recent communication states that he has hitherto been unable to procure a general meeting of the king and chiefs for a final decision on the subject. The truth of the case is, he observes, that Christianity is gaining influence among the mass of the population, and Juju worship is declining. The chiefs are indignant that their slaves should despise what they themselves worship. The baptism of 36 persons, and the preparation of 30 more candidates, alarmed them. For the present the sad result is that the congregation has been reduced from 250 to 50. "Thus these people," observes the Bishop, "take counsel together against the Lord and against His anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. May God change their hearts!" The church for English services referred to in the Report for 1872-3, p. 25, now called St. Clement's, was opened in June of the latter of those two years. In July, 1874, the usual attendance had risen to 108, of whom about ten were Europeans.

OSAMARE, ONITSHA, AND LOKOJA.

The work at OSAMARE is gradually assuming a settled form. Mr. During has put up a temporary chapel for Divine service, the verandah of his house having become too small to accommodate the worshippers.

ONITSHA is still in an unsettled condition for want of a king. The chiefs by whom it is governed have appointed one of their number as president; but his authority is merely nominal, and the town and neighbourhood are in constant disturbance through the strife of the opposing factions. All, however, are on good terms with the Mission agents; and the Mission premises are neutral ground, where all can meet in quiet. The ordination which took place at Onitsha has been mentioned already; as also the occupation of two new out-stations, Ijawo and Asaba, and the appointment to them respectively of Messrs. Perry and Phillips. Ijawo is in a very disturbed state. Strife between the opposing factions has in some cases led to bloodshed. The few converts residing at the place were gathered through the efforts of the late Mr. Langley. After his death several of them lapsed into irreligion and immorality. Mr. Perry's efforts to bring about a better state of things among them have been partially successful, and one or two of them appear to value spiritual converse with their young pastor.

The Rev. J. C. John and the Rev. C. Paul are the Missionaries at LOKOJA. On the 26th of July, twelve adults were admitted by baptism into the visible Church. They had been under instruction for two or three years, and were from four different tribes—Nupe, Bunu, Gbari, and Igbira. The Bunu chapel is about to be enlarged for the third time. Lokoja is in a less disturbed state than in the time of King Masaba, though even Umoru's soldiers are charged with extortion, and confidence is not yet wholly restored During the year, however, many of the soldiers have attended public worship at the Mission Chapel. Mr. John also mentions that in consequence of Umoru's edicts forbidding any molestation of his subjects by the soldiery, "the industrious portion of the community, especially the converts, have given all due attention to the cultivation of the soil, and the hills around are quite green with corn, yams, and cotton." Divine service is conducted by Mr. John and Mr. Paul alternately, using the Hausa and Nupe languages. The Schools are still merely a commencement. The number of children has, however, increased from twenty-one to thirty-nine. The chiefs of the towns in the Tshadda, or eastern branch of the Niger, have invited the West African Company to establish factories amongst them as on the western branch. The invitation has been accepted, and a mercantile settlement has been formed at a town called Yimaha, about eighty miles from Lokoja. The inhabitants speak Hausa, and Mr. John has sent a copy of the Gospel of St. John in that language to their head priest. Mr. John continues his own Arabic studies, and is helping forward his junior associates in similar efforts, as even a slight knowledge of Arabic is found to be of great service in conversing with Mohammedans.

On the 24th of December the factory of the West African Company at Lokoja was burnt to the ground, and all the stores contained in it destroyed. Through GOD'S mercy the fire did not spread beyond the Company's premises; but considerable alarm was occasioned at the time and still continues; the more so because the calamity is ascribed to incendiaries connected with a hostile party at Gbebe, and is supposed to indicate the design of destroying (if possible) the whole town.

Further steps have been taken with reference to the proposed station at Egan, though it is not yet brought into full working order. The Bishop and Mr. Paul visited the place in September, and had an interview with Umoru, the King of Bida, or, as Bishop Crowther now styles him, the Emir of Nupe; and succeeded in obtaining from him the conveyance of the site for the Mission House. It is on the north bank of the river opposite Egan, on the slope of Kipo Hill, a dry and healthy spot commanding an extensive view of the river, which in this part of its course has a width of two miles. Though only five minutes' walk from the regular landing-place for passengers between Egan and Bida, it is at the same time sufficiently isolated to allow of Mohammedan inquirers escaping observation when seeking private instruction. On this occasion Bishop Crowther placed in the hands of the Emir a splendidly-bound Arabic Bible as a present from the Committee. Umoru could not disguise his delight at the gift. A similar copy was delivered to his care to be sent to the King of Ilorin. One of his leading courtiers expressed an earnest wish to purchase a similar edition in cheaper binding. It may here be observed that at Lokoja the Bishop presented an Arabic Bible to an old priest who has for many years kept an Arabic school. He received the Sacred Book with every mark of reverence and thankfulness. He had long wished for a copy, but for some time the Bishop declined his request, fearing he would use the Sacred Book for writing charms. He seems, however, lately to have been deeply and seriously impressed by his frequent intercourse with the Mission agents at Lokoja, and has promised to read the book through with care, a task which the Bishop told him would occupy about three years.

Arabic Bibles joyfully received by Mohammedans.

NEW CALABAR.

This station is now fairly occupied; and the Rev. W. E. Carew, one of the newly ordained, is its first Missionary. The king and chief have forwarded £200 as their share of the expenses of the Mission buildings. The Boarding School was to be opened in January of the present year.

EAST-AFRICA MISSION.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. John Rebmann, 1846, at home.
Rev. Thomas Henry Sparshott (m), 1867.
Rev. William Salter Price (m), 1849.
Rev. John Williams, 1874, at home.
Mr. David S. Remington (m), 1874.
Mr. Joseph T. Last, 1874.
Mr. John G. Pearson (m), 1874.

THE Committee have endeavoured to take up the great Missionary enterprise opening before them on this coast with adequate strength of men and means, and above all, with prayer and faith and hope. Large pecuniary assistance has been received through the Special Fund for East Africa. Mr. Chancellor returned home in 1874, and has since been appointed to a Chaplaincy at Seychelles, where, however, he will still be connected with the Society's work. Mr. Rebmann has at length consented to return to Europe, and reached this country on the 12th of April. The Committee trust that his health and eyesight may be restored to him, and that he may yet do further service for his Lord in making available for other labourers the fruits of many years of pains-taking linguistic toil.

Mr. Price's Missionary devotion in accepting the post of leader to the new effort was mentioned in the last Report. With him have been associated Messrs. Williams, Remington, Last, and Pearson. Mr. Price left England in October, and reached Mombasa on the 15th of November. Leaving three of his party there, he proceeded immediately to Zanzibar, had an interview with the Sultan on the 18th, and returned to Mombasa again on the 20th. The accommodation at Mombasa being insufficient, Mr. Price and Mr. Remington removed after a few days to KISULIDINI, the old Mission Station where Mr. Rebmann was then still residing. Kisulidini is about thirteen miles from Mombasa, and is a small district in a larger tract which bears the name of Rabbai. Mr. Price was warmly welcomed by the Native Christians living there, some of whom had been his pupils at Sharanpur. With their help and with the aid of Wanika labourers, an improvement was soon effected in the Mission station and its surroundings, the buildings of which in Mr. Rebmann's physically prostrated condition had fallen into dilapidation. The Wanikas are in a state of great degradation, temporally as well as spiritually. There is, however, no reason to suppose they will be unwilling to receive religious instruction. Their elders at a public meeting assured Mr. Price of their friendly feeling towards him; and subsequently even admitted him among their own number, giving him a staff as a badge of office. Native Christian East Africans, almost all of them formerly inmates of the Sharanpur Asylum, have come over in several parties from Bombay, and are now settled to the number of one hundred, either at Mombasa or Kisulidini. The European Mission party has subsequently suffered severely from fever. Mr. Price himself has been more than once at death's door; and Mr. Williams has been compelled to return to this country. The Committee have more recently been enabled still further to strengthen the East African Mission, by sending thither Dr. Forster, a Medical Missionary, and Mr. Harris, who has had varied experience, both as an engineer in the Royal Navy, and also as a Scripture Reader in this country.

The following extract from a letter of Mr. Price, dated February 17th, will be read with interest, showing how he was supported spiritually, when "heart and flesh" were almost "failing" under the severity of the fever:—

I began to feel seriously that I might be nearing the end of my journey, and thought it right, whilst I was in sound mind, to prepare my dear wife for the worst. I gave her a few necessary directions in regard to Mission affairs, as far as strength would permit. I have too often seen people put off doing this till too late. It is a solemn thing to stand, as it were, face to face with the "last enemy," and to see the hand uplifted which is to strike one low. Nor is it easy, when the dark shadow has passed away, to recall exactly the impressions it produced. There was, I know, one bitter pang from the thought that I was leaving my work unfinished, and that there were some who would be ready to say, "Ah! did we not tell you as much? did we not predict that your Mission would fail?" But neither this nor any other thoughts were suffered much to trouble me. I felt I could safely leave all in the hands of my covenant God and Saviour—the vindication of our undertaking, should that be necessary—the carrying on of the work, though I and all my companions should be removed—and the protection of my beloved wife and children. More than all, I felt, as never before, how naked and helpless I was in myself, and had such a view, as never before, of the preciousness and cleansing power of the blood of Jesus; and this, in the midst of bodily pain, gave my soul such a sense of confidence of peace, for which I can only say, "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless His Holy Name!"

A Missionary face to face with death.

Missionary labours among the free population will also be carried on; and a promising opening has been graciously vouchsafed.—Some years ago a Native Christian, domestic servant to Mr. Rebmann, had in a moment of irritation severely wounded his wife, and thus caused her death. He was subsequently so filled with remorse that he went to his native place—Giriama, about fifteen miles from Kisulidini—and there built a hut in two trees, where he lived alone. One day he met a man who was gathering wood, and spoke to him of God. This man brought another, and the two persuaded the Native Christian to come and live with them, and be their instructor. Eleven inquirers are now gathered together. They have copies, in their own languages, of St. Matthew and St. Luke, the Prayer-book, and some hymns; and, on a recent visit from one of the Society's Missionaries, they showed real earnestness in seeking after God and searching into the meaning of His Word. Giriama is an extensive village, containing several hamlets, one of which where the inquirers reside, is called Godoma. Neighbouring hamlets are also asking for a teacher, though their predominant motive may be (as almost confessed by themselves) the desire that traders in cloth, knives, &c., may settle among them. The soil is productive, and the situation healthy.

MEDITERRANEAN MISSION.

(Commenced at Malta in 1815.)

I. Turkish Mission.—II. Greece.—III. Asia Minor.—IV. Palestine.

General.

The attention of the Christian public has been drawn, within the last few months, to various acts on the part of the Turkish civil authorities, that seem to intimate disfavour to Native Christians, and hostility to Protestant Missionary effort. Difficulties were raised as to the opening and maintenance of one or two of the Society's Schools, and some converts connected with the American Mission have been molested. There is no doubt that any extensive conversions of Moslems to Christianity would be viewed with alarm by the Ottoman Government, as it would seriously interfere with the maintenance of the army, which is still regarded as the army of Islam. So heavily does the burden of personal military service fall on the Moslem population, that if conversion were made perfectly easy, many would doubtless become Christians simply for the purpose of avoiding conscription. There has been a revival in some quarters of Mohammedan fanaticism. A pamphlet has been published by an official of the Marine Court in Constantinople, calling on Mohammedans throughout the world to trust the Sultan by recognizing him as their supreme Khalif, and to repair to Mecca for the purpose of ratifying there a solemn alliance, against Christians and idolaters, for the propagation of Islam. It should be borne in mind that no book can be published at Constantinople without the permission of the Government. It is impossible to suppose, however, that so wild a scheme can meet with any support from the worldly-wise statesmen who preside over the Sultan's administration, to whose personal interests it would be diametrically opposed. That on the whole some progress has been made in the direction of religious liberty, will be seen from the following extract from a letter of Dr. Koelle of Constantinople:—

Our two Native Agents, converts from Mohammedanism, have been permitted to resume their work as in former years, without any one interfering with them. One of them is personally known to the [late] Grand Vizier, and to the Minister of Instruction. Only about a month ago he was summoned by an unworthy Armenian son-in-law, on account of a private affair, before the Minister of Police, where his whole past history had to be made known; and yet he was suffered to depart in peace, and the Minister declared that the case ought not to have been brought before him at all. This is a fact of great importance in a country like Turkey, for had they wished to punish him as a renegade their opportunity could hardly have been more favourable. But he causes no loss to the army, being an old soldier who has served his full time; and, moreover, persecution and imprisonment have been tried upon him ineffectually ten years ago.

The social hindrances, however, in the way of the reception of the Gospel are undeniable and exceedingly powerful. One of the Society's Missionaries mentions four inquirers who he believes would have openly confessed Christ but for the loss of all means of subsistence which seemed certain to follow. Among them was a man of learning, position, and influence. He solemnly confessed to the Missionary "his faith in the Divine Saviour;" and on one occasion, during a dangerous illness and in the prospect of eternity, earnestly requested to be baptized.

CONSTANTINOPLE.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Sigismund Wilhelm Koelle, Ph.D. (m.), to West Africa, 1847; to Palestine, 1856; to Constantinople, 1862.

Dr. Koelle, the Society's erudite and devoted Missionary in this city, thus reports the work of the year:—

Divine Service in Turkish has been continued every Sunday, as in former years, the portion of Holy Scripture expounded being the first twelve chapters of St. John's Gospels. Although this service is intended only for Mohammedan converts and inquirers, yet some Native Christians always came, and occasionally quite crowded the room. Of unbaptized Mohammedans, there generally attended two or three, sometimes five or six, and it was very rare indeed that we had none. Our two Native Readers, the one an Osmanli, the other a Persian, have been permitted, I am happy to say, to continue their humble efforts amongst their countrymen, in their usual quiet, unostentatious way, without any interference from the authorities. They go about day by day as private individuals, seeking to enter into conversation as opportunities may offer, in order to introduce the subject of a divinely-appointed Saviour and the way of life, and to circulate our publications for Mohammedans, both uncontroversial and controversial. Selling the books at very low prices they have been able to dispose of them at the rate of about twenty copies a month. One afternoon each week I meet them at the Mission House, to hear the account of what they have been doing, helping them to solve difficulties with which they have met, consulting with them about future efforts, and seeking the Lord's guidance and blessing by prayer.

Dr. Koelle has not been altogether without encouragement. There have been several inquirers, some of them apparently sincere, but their baptism has been prevented by such causes as those already referred to. The daughter of the Reader mentioned in last year's Report as having been tempted to become the inmate of a Turkish harem, has since been married to a Turkish military officer, with her own consent, but to the great grief of her parents. The marriage was celebrated with great pomp from the house of the Minister of Instruction, under the special auspices of the Grand Vizier, her own father and mother being entirely ignored in the matter. It is not stated, however, that she has abjured her faith.

II. Greece.

SYRA.

(Commenced in 1828, while Greece was a part of the Turkish Empire.)

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. Frederick A. Hildner (m), 1829.

Mr. Hildner has 140 children under instruction in his school, many of whom will probably (like their predecessors in past years) become at some future time teachers in educational institutes connected with the Government. He has also circulated a large number of Christian books in Greece, Crete, and other places; and has carried through the press an edition of 2000 copies of Barth's Scripture History.

The Society's connexion with Syra will cease with Mr. Hildner's personal services.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. John Theophilus Wolters (m), to Persia, 1832; to Syra, 1837; to Smyrna, 1842.
Rev. Robert Henry Weakley (m), to Constantinople, 1860; to Smyrna, 1869.
Rev. Theodore Frederic Wolters (m), 1860.

The Rev. J. T. Wolters, who has now spent forty-one years in the Mission field, has been without any coadjutor during the larger part of the year under review; his son being absent on the Society's business in Palestine; and Mr. Weakley being engaged (chiefly in Constantinople) in revising the Turkish version of the Holy Scriptures. The Native agents, Montesanto at Cassaba, and Belisarius at Aidin, have uninterrupted intercourse with the people, and "are zealous," Mr. Wolters testifies, "in making known the way of salvation." The bookshops connected with the Mission attract people of various nationalities, and give opportunity of setting before them the power and love of the Saviour. Mr. Wolters concurs with many other Missionaries in thinking that a great effort is now going forward in influential quarters throughout the Turkish Empire, "to put down all efforts made by Bible and Missionary Societies to give to the Mussulmans the Word of God and to teach them the way of salvation." As yet, however, there has been no open interference with the work at Smyrna.

IV. Palestine.

European Mission Establishment:

Rev. F. Augustus Klein (m), 1851.

JERUSALEM.

As mentioned in the last Report, the Society's Missionary at Jerusalem, the Rev. F. A. Klein, returned to this place from Europe in March, 1874. Having accidentally fractured his leg on the journey, he was for a time partially incapacitated from work; but through God's mercy has now recovered. The Native Christians connected with Mr. Klein number 132, of whom forty-six are communicants. This number is exclusive of the non-Protestant children attending the schools. The ordination of a Native brother, Mr. Khalîl Jamal (mentioned below), is regarded both by Mr. Klein and by the Committee as an encouraging fact. Mr. Klein writes:—

In our Native Arab Congregations, I have still to deplore that, though here and there there is a little addition in numbers, there is no encouraging growth in spiritual life. I am happy to say that we have at last, after many difficulties and troubles, been able to open our new church in Jerusalem, and solemnly to dedicate it to the worship of God. This took place on the first Sunday of Advent (November 29th), on which occasion our Native Catechist, Mr. Khalîl Jamal, was admitted to Deacon's orders by Bishop Gobat. At our out-stations (Ramallah, Beit Sahûr, and Tayyibeh), the schoolmasters act at the same time as Scripture Readers, and regularly conduct Divine-Service on the Lord's Day and explain a portion of the Word of God to those who assemble. This can now be done, as we have at each of them pupils of our Preparandi Class. With the old type of schoolmasters this would have been impossible. A travelling Catechist regularly visiting the stations and going about in the towns and villages of this province is, however, still urgently required.

Our Bible depôt and bookshop continues to be a most important branch of our work here, helping us to disseminate the Word of God far and wide, not only among the Natives of this country, but among the hundreds of pilgrims—Greeks, Armenians, Bulgarians, Russians, &c.—who annually flock to this city. Not only Christians, ecclesiastics and laymen, but also Moslems continue to visit our bookshop in order to buy copies of the Word of God or religious and educational books, or quietly to sit down and read our publications or engage in religious conversation. Mohammedans of the more influential class frequently come to our bookshop, or to read books bearing on Christianity and Islam. Several of them have bought copies of the Holy Scriptures in Arabic and Turkish. Copies of the Mizan also have been asked for, but I have no supply of the same, nor should I be allowed to keep them at our bookshop. Lately a Sheikh came to me, and so much pressed me for a copy of the "Mizan ul Haqq," that on being told that I only possessed one copy which I could not give away he begged to be allowed to copy it, which he is now doing. There is evidently among the Mohammedans a greater spirit of inquiry on the subject of Christianity than there was formerly; but it is checked by the open opposition of Government to our work, and by the danger to which Mohammedan inquirers are exposed without any possibility of our giving them any protection.

Spirit of inquiry among Moslems in Palestine.

There are five Schools in Jerusalem and the out-stations, containing 192 children. One of these schools at least is attended by Moslem children of influential families. The girls' school at Jerusalem has lost its teacher in consequence of her marriage. The present arrangements are only temporary and imperfect. Forty girls were, however, in regular attendance at the date of the most recent intelligence, of whom eighteen were Moslems; and it is believed that the number will rapidly increase as soon as an efficient teacher can be procured. A distinguishing feature of this school as compared with other Protestant girls' schools in Jerusalem, is that the pupils are carefully taught their own language, Arabic. Mr. Klein rightly feels the great importance of their being able to read intelligently the Arabic Bible.

The Preparandi Class is suspended for the present; but it has done good service, and Mr. Klein will reopen it as soon as he can find properly qualified pupils and an efficient teacher.

NAZARETH AND SALT.

In the year 1855, at the close of the Crimean war, the general impression among the Native population of Palestine was that the quasi protectorate of the Native Christians, previously assumed by Russia, had now devolved upon England. This belief led many to attach themselves to the Society's Missions. That impression has now passed away, and it is fully understood that the Protestant Christians can expect at least no special favour from the Ottoman Government. At Nazareth, in particular, the Society's agents have for several years been continually troubled with what appears to them to be vexatious interference on the part of the local authorities. Yet Mr. Zeller, the Society's Missionary at this station, has been by no means without encouragement. He writes, reviewing the work, during the whole period referred to, as well as for the year just closed:—

Effects of the Society's labours at Nazareth.

The Word of God has been spread over the country; Protestant Communities under Native Pastors have been established; individuals have been brought to the knowledge of their Saviour; and a desire for better education has been called forth. Here, at Nazareth, the material changes are very marked. The old despotism of the Sheikhs has disappeared, and the old power of the clergy has been much limited. Compared with other places Nazareth is prosperous, and from year to year the houses of the Natives are extending further upwards towards the top of the hill on which the city stands. Our Society has thus been the means not only of promoting material prosperity, but also of bringing back the light of an open Bible to the place which was once the home of the Lord.

Mr. Zeller is able to preach the Gospel in a conversational way both to Moslems and to non-Protestant Christians. His schools, containing 264 children, are generally attended by children from all denominations, and continue to be, as he observes, "very valuable means of spreading the truth as it is in Jesus."

Since the return of the Rev. F. A. Bellamy to England the work at SALT has been also superintended by Mr. Zeller. Mr. Bûrazan, the Native Agent there, has met with many and varied difficulties, but still remains at his post. In February of the present year he made a tour northwards from Salt, crossing the river Jabbok, and traversing portions of the districts formerly occupied by the tribes of Gad and Manasseh. He was everywhere kindly treated, had many opportunities of preaching the Gospel, and in several places received requests from some of the inhabitants that a Protestant teacher might be settled among them.

The whole number of the Native Christians which Mr. Zeller watches over, including those at Salt, is 600, of whom seventy-six are Communicants. Mr. Zeller's two ordained Native fellow-labourers, Mr. S. Bontaji, at Shefamer, and Mr. M. Kawar, whose head-quarters are at Nazareth, continue to labour with fidelity and diligence; but there is nothing specially noteworthy in the reports of their work. The importance of establishing schools, especially for girls, is dwelt upon by both of them.

BOMBAY AND WESTERN-INDIA MISSION.

(European Missionaries first arrived in 1820.)

I. Bombay.—II. Deccan.—III. Sindh.

I. Bombay.

European Missionary Establishment :

Rev. John Stuart Struan Robertson (m), 1838, Secretary.
Rev. Trenham King Weatherhead, S.C.L. (m), 1860.
Rev. John Gottfried Deimler (m), to East Africa, 1854; to Bombay, 1858.
Rev. Thomas Carss, M.A., 1862.
Rev. Henry Charles Squires, B.A., 1870.
Mr. Joseph Jackson (m), 1867.
Miss E. Morris, joined in India.

The Society's Missionaries at Bombay are the Rev. J. S. S. Robertson, Secretary; the Rev. T. K. Weatherhead, Minister of the Girgaum Mission Church; the Rev. T. Carss, who, with Mr. Joseph Jackson, has charge of the Robert Money School; the Rev. J. G. Deimler, whose main work is the Hindustani Mission among the Mohammedans; and the Rev. H. C. Squires, who being relieved of the Money School by the return of Mr. Carss, will now devote himself to Missionary work among the adult population. The Rev. Appaji Bapuji, a Native brother, has charge of the Native Christian congregation, to which duties he adds evangelistic labours among the heathen so far as opportunity allows.

Native Congregation.

The Lord has been graciously pleased to add four adult converts to this congregation during the year; and its latest statistics give 84 Native Christians, and 37 Communicants. The following extracts from Mr. Appaji's Annual Letter will be read with interest:—

Dying bed of a Native Christian in Western India.

During the year two men died belonging to the congregation. One of them was my brother-in-law, Bhasker Hari. He was a promising lad, and I expected to see him a highly-educated Christian Minister of our beloved Church. He died in peace, having full assurance of faith in the Saviour of sinners. Another interesting case was that of Philip Sinday, who originally belonged to our Mission Station at Malligaum. He also died of consumption, but before his death he had great consolation and peace of mind. On one of my visits to him I said, "Philip, you seem to be very ill, and there seems to be no hope of your recovery." He answered, "No." I said, "Then you are prepared for death." Before he answered me, there appeared a brightness and cheerfulness on his countenance, and he said, "Yes: the Lord Jesus has washed away my sins. I am sure of going to heaven." "What makes you think so?" He replied, "Jesus never refuses a penitent sinner. I know what a wicked fellow I was; but of late I have put the burden of my sin upon Him, and I am assured I shall be saved. I am not afraid to die, thank God." "What will your wife and children do?" He answered, "The Lord Jesus will never forsake them. He is a father of the fatherless, and the husband of the widow."

The Rev. J. G. Deimler reports of the Work among the Mohammedans as follows:—

The regular course of the work in the Hindustani Mission has been considerably interrupted by the ill-health from which the Catechist, David Mokkam, has suffered since he was stabbed in the back, and by duties devolving on us all in connexion with the Africa Mission. However, reading and preaching before the hospital in the town and in the shop, visits and conversations with individuals in the city hospital, in shops and in houses, have been carried on whenever strength and time permitted. Our Tract and Bible shop in the Bhendi Bazaar has proved useful. We hope to use it as a preaching-place. Scarcely had I found in my last year's Report a description of the condition and character of the Mussulmans in Western India, with a special reference to the Khankans in Bombay, when the Mussulman riots broke out. This prevented our public preaching for a time, and also proved to the very letter the accuracy of my statements. (See Report for 1874, p. 45.)

Zenana visits have been made regularly by Mrs. Deimler, though almost exclusively among the Chojas and Memons; on which occasions Bible stories and portions of Scripture have been read, and needlework, &c., has been taught. Mrs. Deimler has made over some of the houses she could not well attend to other Zenana ladies, and has introduced a doctoress of the American Mission to several families, by whom her services are highly esteemed. She has made the acquaintance of a remarkable Mussulman woman of the Memon caste, a widow of advanced age, and a female Mûnshī. It seems that she received her first impressions of the truth of Christianity at Karachi some years ago from a lady, and that these impressions have gradually ripened in her to a full belief in the Lord Jesus Christ as the only Saviour. A Bible woman used to visit her in Bombay, and introduced Mrs. Deimler to her. Whenever Mrs. Deimler visited her, she found her surrounded by a number of Memon women to whom she spoke freely of the Saviour Jesus. Her own wish coincided with that of Mrs. Deimler to establish a Mohammedan girls' school, to conduct which she herself seemed well fitted, both by her profession being that of a teacher, and by her knowledge of Kachi, Sindhi, Guzerati, Marathi, Hindustani, Persian, Arabic, and some English. The school was commenced, and in a short time between 20 and 30 girls attended. Then an antagonistic feeling took hold of the leading members of the Memon community. After a consultation with their Samaat (the body of the leading members) a deputation was sent to the woman; and when she avowed her belief in Jesus Christ, they rang the death-bell in their mosque, close by her hired school-room, put her out of her caste, and informed her that all intercourse with her on the part of Memons was prohibited. These proceedings brought the school to an untimely end. As to herself, deeply harassed in mind and fearing for her life, she has been shutting herself up in her room for a couple of weeks. In the height of her difficulties she wrote a few lines to us asking for protection, which at our request was readily granted to her by the police authorities; though it appears to me no violence was intended her. We gave her Christian counsel, and prayed with her. She expressed her desire to confess the Lord Jesus by baptism, but wished first to await the arrival of her son. We are afraid that she is not yet prepared to give up everything for Christ. I commend this case to your prayers.

A Mohammedan inquirer.

Preaching to the heathen has been mainly carried on by Mr. Appaji Bapuji. His work in this department has been of two kinds, in the bazaar in Bombay itself, and itineration in the country districts. In the former Mr. Appaji has been impeded by weakness of health, and also laments the want of coadjutors. Two members of his congregation, however, have often rendered voluntary assistance. The description of his itinerating efforts is more hopeful. Mr. Appaji writes under date Jan. 20, 1875:—

Reception of a Native Evangelist.

My last Annual Letter was written from Bûldana, whilst I was on a preaching tour in Berar and the central provinces, during January last. From Bombay to Bûldana we had several opportunities of preaching the Gospel in Marathi, Hindustani, and Guzerati, to our fellow passengers. From Bûldana to Kamgaum, Brother Lucas Maloba accompanied us; we travelled slowly, and preached and distributed tracts almost in every village on our way. We had also a Colporteur with us, who exposed his books for sale immediately after our addresses. I believe he sold a good many tracts and books in a few days. We had everywhere large and attentive audiences, as the people of Berar are very simple, and willing to listen. From Kamgaum, Lucas and his Colporteur returned to Bûldana, while we proceeded towards Akola, where also we had a very large and attentive congregation. From there we went to Nagpore, and from thence to Bhundara, where we stayed nine days. On two Sundays I preached in English and in Marathi to the Christian brethren, and to a few heathen friends who also attended the English services. During the week we made a small tour in the surrounding villages. On the second Sunday I was requested by the Clerk of the Court of Bhundara to give an address to the leading men of the town, in the Library, where the Honorary Magistrate, the Mamlukdar, and some other Native Government officials, as well as the leading men of the town were present. So many people came that the room was overcrowded; even the doors and windows were full of men, who listened very attentively to me for an hour and a half.

Mr. Appaji concludes the same letter with the following encouraging words:—

In conclusion allow me to assure you that the Gospel is making some progress among the people of this great land. Though there are very few signs outwardly, yet imperceptibly the truth is gaining ground. The attendance at the public preaching is steady and the people are attentive. The spirit of hostility is less than before. Native Christians are not only tolerated but respected, and their society is sought by the heathen. The spirit of inquiry is daily increasing. I have witnessed persons buying Bibles and portions of it simply to search the truth for themselves, and I know such books are read. There is also a movement in the Christian church in this land to do good. It seems to me that the Lord is preparing His people for a great conquest.

Work among the East Africans.

All the East Africans formerly connected with the Mission in Bombay have been shipped off to Mombasa, to form part of the Mission colony on that coast. They were solemnly dismissed, and committed to God in prayer, on the 15th Jan., 1875, in the little church in Mr. Deimler's compound. Mr. Deimler and his African assistant are now turning their attention to a party of forty Africans on the Government Model Farm. Should they place themselves under Christian instruction, Mr. Deimler will recommend them also to join themselves to the colony at Mombasa.

II. Deccan.

Nasik commenced 1832; Junir, 1846; Malligam, 1848; Aurangabad, 1860; Bûldana 1868.

European Missionary Establishment:

Rev. Cæsar Sutton Cooke (m), 1865: at home.
Rev. William Aylesbury Roberts (m), 1869.
Rev. Robert Alfred Squires, B.A., 1870.
Rev. Frederick Graham Macartney, 1874.

NASIK AND SHARANPUR.

The Rev. C. F. Schwarz and the Rev. R. A. Squires carry on the Society's work at this station. A new Missionary, the Rev. F. G. Macartney, arrived from England towards the close of 1874. Mr. Carapit, an able and devoted agent of Armenian origin, who laboured zealously here in past years, being head-master of the High School, and superintending the boys' schools generally, removed in 1874 to Ispahan. (He now renders valuable assistance to the Rev. R. Bruce, formerly of the Derajat Mission, who, having obtained the Committee's sanction for visiting that metropolis, in order to perfect himself in the knowledge of Persian in that metropolis, has found there many opportunities of preaching the Gospel both to Armenians and Mohammedans.) Nine adults have been added by baptism during the year to the Native Church; and the infant baptisms have been twenty-four. Seventy-two Native Christians were confirmed by the Bishop at his biennial visitation to Nasik, in December, 1874. At the close of the year 1873, the numerical strength of the community, including 37 agents and students, 87 orphans, and 42 inmates of the African Asylum, amounted to 465. Twenty-four have left from the African Asylum; and there have been probably other emigrations and immigrations, which, however, are not specified in the Reports received. Two of the adult converts, a man and his wife, belong to the little flock at Makhma- labad. The Native Christians of Nasik have shown their sympathy for the Makhmalabad congregation by subscribing for it Rs. 100, to erect a building which may serve both as a church and a school-house.

Of one other case Mr. Squires writes:—

A convert brought in by a Christian fellow-servant.

Among the adult converts was a young Maratha who had been employed in the household of a gentleman, whose head-servant was a Native Christian. It was this Christian fellow-servant who first directed his attention to religion, and who after having himself taught him for a while, brought him to us for further instruction and baptism. Nor did his care for his young friend end even then. He has since been supporting him in his own family, and has thus given him an opportunity of improving himself by enabling him to attend school. Since he has been here this young man's conduct has uniformly been such as to make us hope that he is sincere in his profession.

The number of boys in the High School has fallen off, none coming in from Nasik. The other schools have gone on as before, the whole number of children under instruction being 266. In reference to the students under training to become teachers, Mr. Squires reports:—

The higher divinity classes have been carried on as well as circumstances would permit. The more advanced division has been studying the Greek Testament. the Miracles, the Church History of the first three Centuries, Butler's Analogy, and Bacon's Essays; while the students in the lower division, besides their ordinary secular subjects, have been learning the Book of Exodus, the Acts of the Apostles, the History of the first three Centuries, the Articles, and Dr. Mitchell's Letters to Indian Youth.

Mr. Schwarz gives the following report of Missionary itineration and street-preaching:—

I have been able to carry on itineration with two evangelists from January to May with but little interruption. During this time I also visited a celebrated pilgrimage to the shrine of Bharwani, a goddess, which afforded good opportunities for the preaching of the Gospel to multitudes from distant parts of the country. It is a matter of interest to see on such occasions that the Name of Jesus, or the Saviour of the World, becomes more and more familiar to the people of the land, who begin to feel that the Word we preach is a truth, and therefore a power whose influence they often find inconvenient, and hence, opposition in individual cases. The opposition preaching at Nasik, a novelty of the last year, has been carried on by the two Nasik champions. These, however, stand quite unsupported by men of any position, and it is only the mob in the streets which give help by lustily shouting applause, when they say offensive things against Christianity.

JUNIR.

For twenty-five years or more after its occupation, Junir seemed to be an absolutely barren field, and at one time its abandonment was seriously contemplated. It is no longer, indeed, the residence of a European Missionary; and the work connected with this station is superintended by Mr. Schwarz from Nasik. In the year 1872, however, a little group of inquirers made their appearance near a neighbouring town, Alkoti. Shortly after, two young men of some intelligence were baptized in Junir itself; and in the Report for 1873-4 an interesting account was given of a shoemaker's wife who was baptized, and who was subsequently ejected from his house by her husband, rather against his own wishes, but under strong pressure from his fellow-craftsmen, and from the Brahmins of the place. Thanks be to God, the husband has now followed his wife's example in seeking and receiving baptism. They are now, of course, again united, and appear to be sincere as well as very simple-minded persons. At Alkoti a Native agent, who acts both as Schoolmaster and Evangelist, exercises a good influence, and the inquirers are increasing in number. The Brahmins, however, and village authorities are very hostile; and the inquirers, being dependent on them for support, are still deterred from asking for baptism.

MALLIGAM.

The Rev. W. Roberts is the European Missionary at this Station. The Native Christians number about 75 persons, of whom 32 are Communicants. They are under the pastoral care of the Rev. Shankar Balawant, who, in the much-to-be-regretted absence of any local or provincial Native Church Council, is under the superintendence of Mr. Roberts. Mr. Shankar Balawant has been much impeded in his work by feebleness of health. One adult has been baptized, respecting whom no details are given beyond the fact that he is "an orphan youth." Mr. Roberts with his Native helpers is conducting Missionary itineration in the neighbourhood on a systematic plan. In the cold season of 1873-4, he worked the villages within a radius of forty miles to the north and west; in 1874-5, he did the same towards the south and east, while the head Catechist went over the ground that the Missionary had traversed in the year previous. Patient listeners can be obtained in good numbers; but what is admitted by many of them is generally true of all, that their "belly is their god, and they mind earthly things." One obstacle, the slavish adherence to ancestral customs, will probably be weakened by the present rapid spread of education; and Mr. Roberts observes, "the battle about Christ's kingdom will rage fiercer, if not with more success, every ensuing year." The Catechists receive daily instruction from Mr. Roberts, and are punctual in their work.

AURANGABAD.

The Society's work here is carried on by a Native clergyman, the Rev. Ruttonji Nowroji. The Christians, who are mostly poor in the good things of this world, number 257, of whom 100 are Communicants. One adult convert only has been baptized during the year. The following are extracts from Mr. Ruttonji's Annual Letter:—

Preaching in the Cantonment Bazaar has been carried on, day by day, by my Evangelists, who continue to receive encouragement and assistance from Mr. Andrew Cornelius. Much cannot be said of the ultimate result of this trying work; but it is worthy of notice that while the rude and ignorant members of the community offer resistance in a variety of ways, persons belonging to the higher classes have often been heard to declare that Christian preachers possess, in face of bitter opposition, that meekness and patience which the most eminent of their own people do not at all possess.—Village preaching forms at once the most important and the most delightful branch of the Missionary work. Remote from large towns and cities, and unfettered, to a great extent, by Brahminical influence, the villagers are invariably the most willing and attentive hearers of the Gospel message. I can tell from personal observations and experience that twelve years ago there were few, if any, who knew, in this part of the country, what the Christian religion was; but I am thankful to state that there are not only hundreds but thousands who now know what it is. In connexion with this work we have been able to dispose of a large number of religious tracts and portions of the Sacred Scriptures. As a general rule we do not give books gratis, but sell them at fixed prices. In December last I paid my yearly visit to Bûldana. I will only here add that, in a Missionary point of view, our journey to and fro was remarkably delightful in spite of rough roads. I was accompanied by my Evangelists who can all, more or less, sing Christian hymns, and play upon native musical instruments, so that wherever we stopped we were successful in gathering large and attentive audiences. If a preacher can but keep his mouth open, and if his heart is warm with love to Christ and perishing souls, he can never lack opportunity of doing good. At first the villagers are, as a general rule, timid and incommunicative, not knowing whether their visitors are friends or foes; but let them once perceive that we are peaceably disposed towards them, it is not long before we can collect a number of men, women, and children around us. It does one's soul good to see these simple-hearted people listening to and admiring the sweet story of redeeming love for hours together. The marvellous love of God in reconciling the guilty world unto Himself by the suffering and death of His own dear Son; the parables conveying heavenly instruction in telling illustrations; and the miracles prefiguring the spiritual cleansing of the sin-burdened and sin-defiled soul—have never failed to excite their wonder and admiration.

BÛLDANA.

The little flock of forty-one Christians at this place is under the care of a Native Pastor, the Rev. Lucas Maloba. They have enjoyed the means of grace without intermission; and their Pastor, aided by two Scripture Readers, has published the good news of peace through the blood of the Cross in about 150 neighbouring villages, as well as at a large religious fair where many thousands of persons were present. At the last place the attention of the people was attracted to the message by a band of Christian musicians belonging to the flock of the Rev. Narayan Sheshadri. It is, however, sad to state that not a single adult was added to the Church at this station during the year. The School at Gûmî opened last year has had to be closed from the opposition of some resident Brahmins. Mr. Lucas, who is assisted by the counsel and occasional visits of Mr. Ruttonji from Aurangabad, appears to enjoy the esteem of the Bûldana community, both European and Native.

III. Sindh.

Karâchi, 1850; Hydrabad, 1856.

Rev. James Sheldon (m), 1854: at home.
Rev. George Shirt (m), 1866.
Rev. Alfred Yarnold (m), 1871.
Rev. Alfred Edmeads Cowley, 1872.

KARÂCHI.

The Rev. J. Sheldon and the Rev. A. E. Cowley were the Missionaries at this station. Early in 1875, Mr. Sheldon was compelled by the state of his health to return to England, his place being taken at Karâchi by the Rev. G. Shirt, formerly of the Hydrabad Mission.

Progress at Karâchi.

A substantial church has been built. Schools have been established for instruction, both in the Vernaculars and in English. Pupils passed through them are now to be found in every part of Sindh, and are almost invariably favourable to our work of evangelizing the people. A Native Church consisting in all of seventy baptized Christians has been gathered; one which, as it is now drawing its members from families long resident in the town, will, we may reasonably hope, rapidly spread. The last year has also been fruitful in bringing the educated classes nearer to us. Some of them have repeatedly assured us, not only of an awakened interest in our work, but also of their earnest searching for truth. The number of members of the Native Church would have been higher, were it not for the constant changes inseparable from a seaport like Karâchi. Many who have been taught and baptized here are now to be found in other parts of India. Some few have found homes beyond our territories in Persia and Bagdad, and two are supposed to be in Herat. It is a proof of the power of the Gospel, and of its suitability to all that it has been proclaimed here amongst so many nationalities, and has been accepted by men of such varying races and creeds.

Candidates for baptism, some steadfast, some falling back.

During the year, besides infant children of Christians, eleven persons have been admitted into the Church by baptism. Of these five were adults, and the rest were old enough to answer for themselves when baptized. All of them have been pecuniarily independent of the Mission, and so far have been steadfast to their Christian faith. Two were leaders in their respective Hindu castes, and on embracing Christianity had to make a sacrifice, not only of their position, but also of the temporal advantages attaching to it. One of them came out bravely with all his family, notwithstanding a good deal of persecution at the time; and has since, as he had expected, suffered loss in his business. Candidates for baptism from among both the Hindus and Mohammedans have been instructed. Some of them we fully hoped would have followed out their convictions, but they failed to face persecution when it set in against them. One candidate who was under instruction for many months remained firm till the morning appointed for his baptism. All arrangements had been made for it; the congregation had actually assembled, the sponsors were present, and all was full of hope that the step would be taken; but at the last moment the influence of his family and Hindu friends prevailed, and he withdrew. There are also hopeful signs in the congregation. Far more spiritual life has been shown by some than in previous years. A weekly prayer meeting has been started and maintained by themselves, and a Sunday school for their young people has been begun which promises to be very useful. Their Native fund has yielded Rs. 158. Several Native Christian families have left the station during the year; amongst them that of Catechist Ishaq, who had been connected with the Mission since his baptism in 1864. He has accepted service in the Amritsar Mission, where we hope he will be faithful and useful.

There is ample room in Karâchi for girls' schools. The people —Sindhis, Guzeratis, and Parsis—entreat us to establish them, and had we suitable teachers we would most gladly comply with their wishes.—For some years past the Guzerati Boys' School has been held in an inconvenient and badly-ventilated building, in which the boys have been literally huddled together for want of room. After many delays the necessary arrangements for building a new school have been made. The site has been given to us by the municipality and is in an excellent situation, being in the heart of the town. The building, which will be of stone, and have accommodation for 250 boys, will cost Rs. 8000. Towards this we have raised from various sources 7500, and hope to secure the balance from Government. This school will be a great addition to the Mission. It will serve as a feeder to our Anglo-Vernacular School, and will bring a large number of boys under Scriptural instruction. A book-shop at the most prominent corner of the building will be useful for the sale of our religious books; immediately in front of it our preachers can always stand to proclaim their message without let or hindrance, and the large centre room can be used both for services in the Vernacular on Sundays, and for classes and lectures during the week.

The evangelistic work of the Mission has given us in many respects encouragement. Our Native Preachers have increasingly declared their message. As long as Catechist Ishaq remained with us two companies were out almost daily, sometimes morning and evening. Everywhere the Gospel has been preached—in the bazaars and in the highway. This year the sale of religious books more than the preaching has stirred up opposition. Amongst others was a tract giving reasons for forsaking Islam and embracing Christianity. It has been in circulation here for more than twenty years, and no one has raised objections to its sale. At an annual fair held at Munora all the copies we had were bought, and for some days following Mohammedans assembled at our book-shop in Karâchi using threatening language. Meetings in the mosque followed, and at length on application to the city magistrate an order was issued to discontinue the sale of the tract. On our appeal to the collector this order was rescinded, but for some time our work was hindered. All, however, has been overruled for good. Every copy we had was sold and read, and the support given to us by the Government has strengthened our position, so much so that ever since we have preached the Gospel, no man daring to molest us. Most of the Affghans in the town have been friendly with me personally, and as soon as the excitement had subsided some of them expressed sympathy with us. Of the books circulated during the year, a little over 700 have been sold. Copies of the Mizan ul Haqq and of the New Testament have been presented to travellers passing through.—Another interesting feature of this part of the work has been the delivery of lectures to the educated classes ; at first weekly and subsequently, as the subjects required care and research in their preparation, fortnightly. Large audiences assembled to listen to lectures on the various religions of India. Each system in order was examined and compared with Christianity, and further inquiry invited. The result has been most encouraging. Great interest in religion has been excited, and many have been stimulated to pursue their inquiries by quiet reading in their own homes and by direct instruction from the Missionary. Several have acknowledged to me that they never knew so much of their own religions before, and had never thought Christianity was so much superior to them. Lectures have been delivered on the Brahmo Samâj, Sikhism, natural religion, Mohammedanism, and the Life of Christ, and have led to a good deal of inquiry. New ground has thus been broken amongst a class we had not before reached, and the encouragement given has been very great.

Lectures to educated heathen.

In a subsequent communication Mr. Sheldon adds:

It is singular how varied our experience is in this Mission. The natural sky is almost always bright, but the aspect of the Mission is very varying. I tried to believe the bad feeling of the Mohammedans towards us had subsided, and in my Report I have given them credit for some sympathy with us. When I gave my lecture on Mohammed I had the consent of their leading men, and some of them were present at the lecture. Now I regret to say we have had another outburst of fanaticism. Two of my native helpers were out preaching this week in the bazaar. They stood in the place allotted, and where they had for months been accustomed to stand. The sermon they were preaching I had prepared for them myself, and it was mild and conciliating. Before they had been preaching five minutes they were attacked by some twenty Belooch soldiers, who tore off their turbans, bound their hands behind them, and thrusting them with violence out of the bazaar, beat them so severely that one of my men began to spit blood. A friendly Affghan rescued them, or the result might have been serious. I have reported the case to the colonel of the regiment, and I have no doubt he will punish the offenders.

HYDRABAD.

This is one of the Stations that has suffered from the lamentable fewness of Missionary candidates in England. Two European Missionaries are absolutely required properly to keep up existing work; but for two years Mr. Yarnold has been without any European brother to help him. He has lately had the further trial of being compelled to send Mrs. Yarnold home on account of her health. Mr. Yarnold writes:—

The number of Native Christians is at present, owing to various changes, smaller than usual. In a small community like ours the removal of one family often makes a serious difference in the numbers. There has been one addition to the Church by baptism during the year. The new convert appears first to have been attracted by hearing Christian hymns sung by a stranger passing through the village in which he lived. In conversation with this stranger he was advised to come to the Mission for instruction. He found his way here, and after a probation of about five months was baptized.

The work of the Mission is, in a great measure, of an educational character, and in this, from a religious point of view, we are slowly but surely making our influence felt. The fact that opposition shows itself again and again is in itself a proof of this. It is not an uncommon thing for those who attend our schools, and especially those who attend our various classes and services to be attacked with sneers and scoffs in the bazaar, and sometimes such attacks prevent the attendance of those who would otherwise come to us. Occasionally, too, we lose pupils from our schools, because their friends fear that they will become Christians. Not long ago one of the most promising of our senior pupils was taken away for this reason. "His mind has quite changed of late," said this youth's father, "and if he remains at the school, he will very soon become a Christian." So determined was the old man that his son should be saved from the impending danger, that he declared vehemently, that he would rather beg for money in the street to pay the fee at another school, than allow his son to attend the Mission School free. It was a great disappointment; but we must trust to the providence of God to bring good out of seeming evil.

CALCUTTA AND NORTH-INDIA MISSION.

(European Missionaries first arrived, 1816.)

General View of the Society's Missions in India.

As in some former years, the Committee commence their Report of the Society's North-India Missions by a review of the comprehensive work in India generally.

The changes which recent years have witnessed in the general social and religious aspect of British India advance with accelerated speed. Education is rapidly spreading amongst all classes, and the women are no longer excluded from it. The peasantry in many districts are now asking for schools, and the active exertions in this direction of the British Government seem likely in some measure to awaken this class from their intellectual torpor. The decline of idolatrous festivals is noticed in several places, being specially mentioned, for instance, by European Missionaries in Bengal, and Native Pastors in Tinnevelly. Indian Mohammedanism is no longer unaffected by the political and social movements of the day. There is considerable energy of thought amongst the Mohammedans of the Panjâb and Oude; and some of its leading votaries in Northern India are vainly endeavouring to liberalize the Korân, and to prove its conformity with European ideas of philanthropy and religious liberty. This activity is as yet by no means universal; but it may be expected to spread to other provinces, where the Mohammedans are still in an apathetic condition. The Brahmo Samâj, or Indian Deist movement, displays much activity, though the number of its avowed adherents is exceedingly small, and does not perceptibly increase. The leading organ of this sect has commenced a vigorous attack on those atheistic and materialistic theories which have lately attracted attention. Its writers zealously declare and ably defend their belief in the existence of a personal God, and maintain, to use their own language, that "the essence of religion is prayer." The first prince of the independent state of Travancore has recently delivered in English a public lecture, in which the following passage occurs:—"Marvellous has been the effect of Christianity in the moral moulding and leavening of Europe. I am not a Christian; I do not accept the cardinal tenets of Christianity as they concern man in the next world; but I accept Christian ethics in their entirety. I have the highest admiration for them. Speaking of Christianity as it concerns this world, I repeat that it has effected a wonderful moral revolution in Europe." On the other hand, the works of rationalist and atheist European authors are widely circulated. The pantheistic ideas of Hinduism, and even the grosser Hindu superstitions have a deep hold, not only on the masses, but upon many who have received an English education. This does not appear when first conversing with them on religion; but continued intercourse with them reveals it. Their early associations cleave to them; and although, during their secular school course, they seem indifferent to many of their superstitions, yet, as they settle down to married life, they easily slide back into the old groove. Hinduism, though not aggressive, is probably at the present time the strongest passive obstacle by which the progress of the Gospel of Christ is anywhere impeded. Its strength in Northern and Western India is immense; in the Southern Presidency it was perhaps always less universally powerful, and has certainly been assailed by Christian Missionaries for a longer time and with greater results.

In reporting the Evangelistic efforts made in India during the year under review, the Committee deeply regret that the Church at home has not enabled them perceptibly to strengthen the Society's European staff.—The Divinity School at Lahore has, however, begun to send out promising Native labourers; and the development of the Tamil Church in Tinnevelly, where six recent ordinations have raised the number of Native Pastors to thirty-seven, has rendered it possible to set apart for work among the heathen two European Missionaries (with competent Native helpers) who were previously engaged in the pastoral care of Christians. A zealous Medical Missionary has taken Dr. Elmslie's place at Kashmir.

To reach the educated and influential portion of society, special means are found necessary. Natives of these classes are seldom to be met with among the audience of the open-air preacher. Higher English education is generally regarded as the best mode of access, and many hundreds of Indian youth are thus receiving religious instruction from the Society's agents. On several occasions during the year just concluded, former and present students of higher schools connected with Missionary Societies, though still making no open profession of Christianity, have assisted or countenanced the Missionaries in their public preaching of the Gospel; and some pupils of these schools have during the year openly confessed Christ and received baptism, notwithstanding vehement opposition. (Various instances will be found recorded in the pages that follow.) Lectures in English or in the vernacular have also, under God's blessing, been instrumental in conveying Gospel truth to the same class of the population. Natives, though still unbaptized, will often invite large audiences to meet the Missionary for this purpose. Mr. Stern mentions one who has aided him in this way, who was formerly an enthusiastic Brahmist preacher, but who has now become a diligent and prayerful student of the New Testament. Mr. Sheldon has addressed large similar meetings in Karâchi, and many of his hearers acknowledged to him that they were convinced of the immense superiority of Christianity to their own religions. Mr. Hughes, in his itinerations near Peshâwar, has been welcomed to religious discussions with Mohammedan chiefs and Maulavis, and has also had interesting conversations with Affghan visitors at the Mission guest-house near his own residence. —In the city of Lucknow Missionary bookstalls have been very successful; and such works as Butler's "Analogy," Paley's "Evidences," and Liddon's "Bampton Lectures" have been readily bought up by educated Natives. A still more remarkable movement of the same kind has recently arisen in Amritsar. In one month of the present year Rs. 1800 worth of books in various languages have been sold from the Mission depôt in that city, twice the amount sold in a whole year in 1870. In fact, the sale of Christian books is increasing in all parts of India; and the Colporteurs of the Roxburgh Fund (in particular), now five in number, have not only thus disseminated the truth, but have been again instrumental in bringing one or two converts into the Christian Church.—Zenana teachers and Missionary Girls' Schools are reaching the women of the upper classes. They have received the express approval of Government; and, though the results vary, many of the pupils are deeply interested in what they hear of the words and works of the Saviour.

As regards the mass of the population, in no country are they more powerfully influenced by the leading classes than in India. This fact, which gives special importance to the efforts just described, is well illustrated by Mr. Honiss, of Tinnevelly, in describing his arrangements for court-yard meetings. He applies to the heads of the village, obtains the consent of some influential man, and has a printed notice placed on the walls of his house. By this means he finds everything prepared for his accommodation, and a large proportion of every class in the village gathered to hear him, Otherwise none but a small portion of the lowest would have listened to him—these too with frequent interruptions, and with the probability of being at any moment called away by their suspicious and offended superiors. Sometimes, however, the lower classes live in villages or quarters by themselves; and it is amongst those thus circumstanced that it has pleased God especially to grant an open door, to bring thousands under Christian instruction, and to gather into His fold little flocks of true believers. Such has been mainly the character of the work in Tinnevelly. Of the same kind is the work now going forward amongst the slaves in Travancore, and the Mâlas and Madigas in the Telugu country. The Native Christians in this last-mentioned Mission, of whom but twenty years ago there were not more than one hundred, are now numbered by thousands.

Perhaps the chief instrumentality which it has pleased God to use, in the extension of the work where it has once begun, is the example and persuasion of those who have already embraced the faith, and who, without being paid agents of the Mission, voluntarily endeavour to bring kinsmen and neighbours under Christian instruction. Among the agencies more directly maintained by the Society, one of the most successful is the location in a heathen village of a zealous and pious Native Christian, who combines the duties of a school-teacher for the young and an evangelist to their parents. This plan has been tried with good effect in the Telugu district and in the neighbourhood of Madras.

As regards the Native Christians, there are one or two parts of Northern India where spiritual life, corporate and individual, seems to be vigorous. In South India the work is further advanced. In Madras, Tinnevelly, and Travancore, the organization of the Native Church is advancing satisfactorily; though (in the two latter cases, at least) it still needs, to all human appearance, as it also still enjoys, the presence and advice of European Missionaries. The Madras Native Church conducts Missionary efforts by open-air preaching, and by lectures to the educated classes. In Tinnevelly, the Native Ministers, thrown more on their own resources, have gained the growing confidence of Dr. Sargent for their integrity and their general capabilities. In the rising Telugu Church the Native Christians are active Evangelists among their countrymen, and the Church Councils and Committees are girding themselves for the work and burden of Native Church self-support.—In Travancore, where heathen, as already mentioned, are gathered in by hundreds, many of the Native Christians take an active and intelligent part in this work, and show a practical interest in the maintenance and support of their Church. In those parts which were the scene of the late Revival, though the excitement has in some cases subsided, the good fruit is left behind in the increased circulation and study of GOD'S Word, and, among the Syrian Christians, in the relinquishment of several superstitious practices.

The Government Blue Book, published in 1874, reprints from the Blue Book of the previous year a very interesting review of the progress and present condition of Missionary work in India. An extract from the official record was marked for insertion in the Society's Report for 1873-4, but was inadvertently omitted. Let it now suffice to state, that in that document the Indian Government acknowledges the great obligation under which it is laid by the benevolent exertions of "six hundred Missionaries (of every Protestant denomination), whose blameless example and self-denying labours are infusing new vigour into the stereotyped life of the great populations placed under English rule, and are preparing them to be in every way better men and better citizens of the great Empire in which they dwell."

CALCUTTA.

Native Christians

Very little information has reached the Committee this year respecting the Native Christians connected with the Society in Calcutta and its suburbs. They number about 1150, forming the six congregations of Trinity Church, Christ Church, KIDDERPUR, Thakurpukur, Kistopur-cum-Terulia, and AGARPÂRA.

The Rev. C. Bomwetsch (who labours among both Native Christians and heathen, and who is engaged also in a new Bengali translation of portions of Holy Scripture) thus speaks of a new attempt made by himself for the benefit of his Native brethren:—

I have employed part of my time in writing "the Bengali Christian," a monthly journal in the Bengali language, containing purely Christian subjects, such as Church History, George Müller's Life and Work, Biblical Philology or Exegetical Commentary; Essays on Biblical subjects, European Evangelistic operations, true narratives of Conversions, &c. My Catechist, who was anxious to impart all his valuable treasures to his brethren, started the paper without letting me know anything about it, fearing (and justly so) I would dissuade him from such an undertaking. But although I knew his stock of information would soon be exhausted, and that those who promised to help him were much poorer than he himself and would soon enough leave him in the lurch, I could not help admiring his courage, and felt thankful to the Lord for having put the desire into his heart to do good to his brethren; and secretly made up my mind to step in at the time of need: for it at once struck me that this was a God-sent opportunity for doing good to our non-English speaking brethren, who are "perishing for lack of knowledge." Eighteen months ago I began writing two thirds of it, and for the last year I have been writing it quite alone. My Catechist assists me in every way, and I am thankful to say my Missionary brethren, privately, and as a Conference, have encouraged and assisted me every way, and we are greatly indebted to the Tract Society for a grant of paper. But the greatest cause of thankfulness is, that many of our Native brethren so highly appreciate it, and constantly express their gratefulness for having it. Some eight or nine well-inclined Hindu gentlemen take the paper in and read it with much interest, especially George Müller's Life and Work. It astonished them, and Christianity rises in their estimation very highly.

Evangelistic Work.

It has been noticed above that Mr. Bomwetsch labours among the heathen as well as among the Christians. God has graciously granted some fruit to his labours. Mr. Bomwetsch writes :—

Two baptisms in Calcutta.

Two baptisms took place in October last, both of English-educated Native gentlemen. The one, forty years of age with wife and child, was a very interesting case indeed. A Babu (to whom I have preached the Gospel for the last twenty-five years; who, I hope, will yet become a Christian—I continue praying for him) said the other day: "This is a most marvellous case;" and so it is; but I must say no more. Glory be to God, and to our Lord Jesus Christ! The other, about thirty-six years old, was baptized without his family, but in the hope that they will soon follow him. He is a Government official and very superior man, and fearlessly professes Christ in spite of the petty persecutions he is subjected to, and exercises a great influence on all around him. The glory be to God, and to our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Rev. J. A. L. Stern, who resides at Calcutta, conducts Evangelistic work, chiefly among the educated classes, over a somewhat wide tract of country extending from Calcutta itself to Bankura (150 miles to the N.W.) and Pubna (125 miles to the N.N.E.). The nature and results of his efforts will be seen by the following extracts from his Annual Letter:—

Lectures to educated Bengalis.

I have again delivered lectures both in English and in Bengali at different out-stations. During my late visit to Bankura, I invited educated Bengalis to two Lectures. One I delivered in English, on "The Distinctive Features of Man." My object was to refute the views of Materialism and Positivism which are now prevalent among many educated Natives. The subject of the second discourse was, "Reflections on the Birth of Christ." This was in Bengali. On both occasions a respectable audience was assembled at the house of the Government-aided Vernacular School. The teachers themselves had made all the preparations, had supplied the lights, and had invited the people. Lately, again at Mankur, a Deputy School Inspector offered to invite the people to his own house. He sent invitations to the surrounding neighbourhood; he had benches carried from the school (which had to be dismissed before the usual hour) to his compound; and when I came to his house at the appointed time, there was a good audience collected in the open compound in front of the raised verandah, where a table and chair were placed in readiness for use.

A Mohammedan convinced, but afraid to confess Christ.

In my last Report I mentioned the case of a young Mohammedan at ————, who had become a believer in Christ, and who was resolved to be baptized, but was prevented from taking the decisive step by the opposition of a Mohammedan Deputy Magistrate under whose care he had been placed by his father. At an interview which I then had with this official I had told him that if the youth's faith in Christ was not genuine, he might be able to prevent him from becoming a Christian; but if it was genuine, he would not be able to hinder the work of God in his heart. Now a year has passed, and the youth is still a believer in Christ. He has since been attending the family prayers of our Catechists; as before, he has continued also to give expression to his faith in Christ in hymns of his own production, some of which have appeared in print in a Christian periodical in Calcutta. May the Lord give him grace to hold out against the opposition which he has to encounter, and to glorify Him by being baptized in His Name.

Mr. Stern has also been encouraged by direct spiritual fruit granted to a Native Evangelist who is associated with him. He writes:—

Conversion at an outstation in Bengal.

I am glad to record that at Shanamukhi, one of our out-stations, which has recently been taken up, a firstfruit has been gathered into the Church of Christ. A low-caste man has, through intercourse with our Catechists, been drawn to Christ. He, together with his wife and children, have forsaken heathenism, and are now believers in Christ their Saviour. Since his baptism this man has shown such interest in the Word of God and such energy in his endeavours to learn to read it, that though he was ignorant of the Alphabet before, he is now able to read his Bible. Also both he and his wife have been exerting a good influence upon their heathen relatives, and several of them have now a desire to be instructed in the Word of God.—Our Evangelists are now going to open a night school, that those men who have to work for their bread in the day may be taught in the evening.

Mr. S. T. Leupolt, one of the Missionary professors in the College, gives the following testimony to the efficiency of the Native Evangelists:—

Native Evangelists at Calcutta.

It has also been my lot during the past year (since the Rev. J. Vaughan's absence) to attend the preaching at the preaching chapel, Amherst Street. The attendance was usually very good, both in and outside the chapel. I was forcibly struck by the diversities of gifts of the several preachers and Catechists. Some excelled in the simple preaching of the Gospel, some in adapting it to the hearing of the Hindus, some to that of Mohammedans. One excels in setting forth the holiness of Christianity, and the beneficent character of the duties of daily life it imposes on those embracing it. Another's forte lies in the evidences of Christianity. The striking way in which they complemented one another, one supplying by the grace and gift given him what the others lacked, was to me always a cause for deep thankfulness and great rejoicing.

Education.

The British Universities, and the Church at home generally, have not supplied the Society with men ready and qualified for college work, in such numbers as to maintain the CATHEDRAL MISSION COLLEGE in proper efficiency. Neither has much help in this direction been as yet received from the Indian Native Church. During the year 1874, indeed, the European college staff, consisting of the Rev. S. Dyson, Principal, the Rev. Dr. Baumann of the University of Berlin, and the Rev. S. T. Leupolt, a Cambridge graduate, surpassed in strength what was supposed to be necessary at the first formation of the college. But that estimate has proved to be far too low. Mr. Dyson has laboured with ability and energy, and has been well supported by his associates. Subsequently, Mr. Leupolt was transferred to Benares, and Mr. Bell was brought from Agra to take his place. The subjoined extracts from Mr. Dyson's Annual Letter will illustrate the encouragements, the difficulties, and the prospects of the work :—

Agency relied upon in Missionary English Colleges.

The agency we are applying and placing our dependence upon is immediately God's own inspired truth; and though the efficiency of that agency to quicken to a new life is derived from the energy of the Holy Spirit working in and through that truth, yet the responsibility of communicating it lies with us,—that is, His Church.

I mentioned in my last Report, that the encouragement given by Government to the physical science side of the new B.A. Curriculum had had the effect of reducing the attendance in the third-year class to such small proportions, that its continuance for the fourth year was not deemed advisable ; consequently, during the current year we have not had our full complement of four college classes. The highest class has been in abeyance. Several students from other colleges, and more from our own, urgently requested us at the beginning of the year to reconsider our decision. But as we had made all arrangements for the reduction both in diminishing the staff and the Government grant in aid, we thought it better not to reopen the question. Next session there is every prospect of the college reassuming its full proportion. The permission accorded by Government to students enrolled on our registers of attending the physical science lectures in the adjoining Presidency College, came into operation in January, and has yielded satisfactory results. The third-year class, which next year will constitute the B.A. class, at present contains eighteen students; of whom ten are physical science students and receive, excepting the Scriptural teaching, half their instruction in the Presidency College; the rest, who take up the history and philosophy course, are lectured entirely in this college. The Principal of the Presidency College has very kindly and most readily lent his efforts to facilitate the arrangements. All our students, irrespective of the particular branch of the B.A. curriculum they elect, are present at the Scriptural teaching and the Saturday religious addresses, and equally amenable to the college rules and discipline.

There was nothing remarkable in the results of the University Examinations of 1873-74 as regards the lower department of this college. The number of candidates was nineteen. Of these, ten passed, one in the first grade (who in consequence secured a Government scholarship of 20 rs. a month), four in the second, and five in the third. The successful Government scholar, I am glad to say, is a Christian, the son of a respectable native Christian employed as Teacher in the Amherst-street Anglo-Vernacular Mission School. He passed the matriculation examination from that school with credit, and after remaining with us two years, and gaining our respect by his excellent orderly conduct and quiet diligence, passed the First Arts Examination with great credit. Our hopes of his future success as a university student, sad to relate, have been almost entirely blighted. He evidently does not possess a vigorous constitution, and this year his health has completely given way. He is imperatively forbidden, under risk of losing his eye-sight, to pursue his studies. . . . . The advancement in life of our promising Christian young men is a subject of great interest and anxiety to us; and I am more than ever satisfied with the wisdom of our resolution to reserve a considerable portion of our endowment for scholarships, for the purpose of providing, at small or no cost to their parents, a liberal education for the more intelligent sons of our Native Christians, especially of our Native Pastors, Catechists, and Readers. Our funds for this purpose, are at present in excess of the requirements, and they are steadily accumulating, and I have no doubt that in the course of a few years they will be eminently serviceable, and will not be more than sufficient for the end proposed.

Native Christian Students at Missionary English Colleges.

After stating that the great majority of the students of the Cathedral Mission College are ex-pupils of Government Schools, and therefore (on their first coming under his care) extremely ignorant of the Gospel; and after giving some interesting particulars (not desirable to be published here) respecting certain individuals amongst them, Mr. Dyson adds the following touching words:—

How many of our students, like the two disciples, take the journey to Emmaus in company with our Lord, and as they become acquainted with His life and teaching, their hearts burn within them! But afterwards, when the Lord makes as though He would go further, they, unlike the disciples, do not press Him to lodge with them. They let Him go on His way, and they go on theirs, and from that critical point they seem to diverge further and further from each other, and the last end is worse than the first.

The village schools in Thakurpukur and other villages in the neighbourhood of Calcutta, have been under the care of the Rev. E. K. Blumhardt. Upwards of 1200 children are under instruction, and all these, from the eldest to the youngest, learn some portion of Bible truth; and the story of the Saviour's love is familiar to them.

At Agarpâra, a class of seven young women is under the care of Miss Neele in training to be Zenana teachers. The same lady also superintends several Girls' Schools, in one of which, termed the Upper School, education is given of a higher character. In addition to these duties Miss Neele herself, also, occasionally visits the Zenanas. The following extract from her account of this work will be read with painful interest, and will doubtless call forth some earnest prayers:—

Zenâna teaching —hopes raised and disappointed.

A few months ago I was asked by a Zenana visitor to accompany her to one of her houses, as she, not having been long in the country, was unable fully to understand some wish expressed by two of her pupils, except that they desired to be baptized. We were only able to see one of the ladies (the other being from home). With her I was much pleased, for with very few opportunities of learning she seemed to have grasped, and to have believingly received, the truth of the way of salvation. She begged us to take her away with us that she might be baptized; this I explained we could not do, but urged her to confess her faith to her relatives, and at least to refuse joining in their family "pujahs" (religious offerings): she promised to try to get courage to do this, and we prayed with her before leaving. Some little time after we went again; but it was a disappointing visit. They were delighted to see us; but to gain further instruction in some new sort of fancy-work seemed now to have absorbed the interest which was formerly shown in better and all important things; and though after a time I gained their attention, I felt it was like sowing by the wayside. I fear not one grain fell where it could take root. Still we must not despair, some seed had evidently previously taken root in some measure, and that, please God, may not all be choked or scorched.—Again, after seeing the story of a Saviour's love listened to with rapt attention, an earnest appeal may be made, as, "Why will not you receive and love such a precious Saviour?" Often have I received the answer, even with tears, "I do love Him and believe on Him as my Saviour." But alas! the hopes thus raised in the teacher's heart are often saddened, when on asking, "but do you also believe in Durga, Siva, and Krishna?" the ready answer is, "Oh yes! of course I do." Our only comfort then is to know that we can but sow the seed, and pray that God may give the increase.

Another more pleasing extract is subjoined from the same letter:—

A Brahmini Bible-woman.

One new work commenced this year is that of a Bible-woman for this neighbourhood; she is supported by a lady in England. Her history is interesting and encouraging. She is a Brahmini from Orissa. At the time of the famine there, when she was about seventeen years of age, her family suffered very severely. Shortly after, partly through her own fault, she fell into the greatest distress, from which she was rescued by the magistrate of Midnapur, where she resided. He sent her and her babe to the Almshouse in Calcutta. Soon after their arrival, Mr. Vaughan arranged with Mr. Sandys to receive them as inmates of the Agarpâra orphanage. They had been here about four months, I believe, when I took charge. None would have imagined that in comparatively so short a time N—— would have become a useful agent of the Mission; her quarrelsome disposition and discontent caused daily trouble, and she was in many ways a constant source of anxiety and care. Ere long, however, the Bible-teaching began to reach her heart: she was naturally of a religious temperament, and had from infancy practised the daily devotions of strict Hindus. The Spirit's work began in her heart by a deep conviction of sin; but by degrees the whole way of salvation became plain to her, and was received with a simple, trusting faith. It was a real delight to watch the rapid development of her Christian character, and how evil habits and dispositions gave place to a conscience so tender that the smallest sin in thought or deed caused her uneasiness till forgiveness had been prayed for. This tender conscience and deep conviction of sin are the more striking, as they are characteristics in which the Christians of Bengal generally are lamentably deficient as far as my own experience has gone. After the requisite preparation N—— was baptized, and afterwards confirmed; she is now a regular communicant, and never fails to attend every means of grace. Of course she still has her defects. . . . Oh that she may with God's blessing have the joy of bringing others to the Saviour!

KRISHNAGAR.

Sudder Station.

The pastoral supervision of the 400 Christians of this station still devolves upon the Rev. C. H. Blumhardt, no Native brother having been found who is suitable to undertake this duty. Mr. Blumhardt has been tried by the prevalence of sickness among his flock, and still more by the unsatisfactory conduct of some of them. Native Christians seem to be sought after for the police force; and though this may be regarded as bearing testimony to the reputation in which they are held, yet the employment itself, involving as it does frequent absence from regular means of grace, does not seem to be beneficial in its moral and spiritual results. On the other hand, the pecuniary contributions have been fairly liberal; and the weekly prayer-meetings which have been regularly held, Mr. Blumhardt believes to have been a comfort to many. One adult has been added to the visible Church by baptism; and there are four Catechumens. The Committee regret that by an error in last year's Report, it was stated that "no mention was made" by Mr. Blumhardt of adult baptisms. Four adult baptisms had been specified by him. Bazaar and street preaching have been carried on without intermission by Mr. Blumhardt himself, a Catechist, and two Readers. A large crowd is almost always collected; and the Missionary reports himself as often coming home from such occasions quite refreshed in mind; "feeling sure that the seed of the truth will bring forth some fruit." In the Schools 110 boys and 50 girls are receiving daily instruction. Zenana work is carried on by Miss Blumhardt.

The District.

The Christians of the district as distinguished from those of the central station are in number nearly the same as last year, 5125. Of these only 300 are Communicants; and there have been no conversions from heathenism during the year. These are unfavourable symptoms, yet the faithful Missionary (Rev. A. P. Neele) and the two Native Pastors are not left without encouragement. Since the commencement of 1874 Mr. Neele has taken up his residence at CHAPRA, which is conveniently situated for visiting the other villages. His time has been much taken up with the repairs of churches, for which work he has received liberal help from friends in this country, in particular from the congregation of St. Peter's, Eaton Square, London. Mr. Neele was encouraged at the Annual Meeting of the Native Church as well by its general tone and the interest in Church affairs shown by its members, as by the fact which then came out, that, in spite of the distress caused by the famine and some other adverse circumstances, there was no appreciable falling off in the pecuniary contributions of the people. Other points of interest will be found in the following extracts from Mr. Neele's Letters :—

Among our large community it cannot be matter of surprise that cases have occurred of moral delinquency ; and I have not been a little tried by having to investigate charges on my rounds of duty. I have, however, adopted the plan of not interfering in these matters except where an Agent of the Society may be concerned ; other cases are left to the local panchayat, or assembly of village headmen. In this as in every other respect we make it an endeavour to foster a spirit of healthy independence ; and there can be no doubt that when a comparison is made of the present state of things with what our brethren had to contend with twenty years ago, a considerable improvement is to be traced.

Instruction of Native Agents.

The Catechists and the two Native Pastors, together with several of the Readers, including the Native Evangelists, have come in for five days in each month. They have read with me the Epistle to the Hebrews, the first Epistle to the Corinthians, and half of Isaiah ; they have also taken down full notes on the Mosaic rites and ceremonies and some other subjects. I thought that a course of reading, together with some Christian intercourse might be so beneficial to the Native brethren that it would compensate for the temporary withdrawal of them from their posts of duty.

Extension of the work at Krishnagar.

My work at head-quarters is varied by constant expeditions to the other stations or outposts. In each journey of four or five days, some six or seven places, including the outposts, are visited. The outposts are of two kinds, (1) villages containing colonies of Native Christians, with a Reader located amongst them, and (2) non-Christian villages, where a school supported by the Society exists, intended to be also an evangelistic agency among old as well as young. There are in the district thirty schools of this kind ; of this number eight have been recently opened in connexion with the special fund subscribed for by the congregation of St. Peter's, Eaton Square. The formerly existing schools of this description are in the same portion of the district in which the Christian villages are, and are at distances accessible from them ; but the new schools are all in the north part of the district, and are in territory previously not much reached by the Gospel.

The schools for Native Christians are not so largely attended as might be wished, though the teachers are well-trained men. For the majority of the children nothing more is required than an ability to read and write, and do simple accounts ; while, for those who show special aptitude the means of further progress is provided in the pupil teacher system, by which, selected pupils can go on to the Training Institution and afterwards, with Krishnagar a help to other Missions.

God's blessing, may become fit for higher posts in the Native Church. Christian workers in Bengal are much indebted for a good deal of aid to Krishnagar. It has been a sort of quarry, whence have been obtained materials for work in many other places. The Zenana work now going on to such an extent in Calcutta and in the N.W. provinces would be suddenly reduced to very small proportions, were the Christian Teachers withdrawn who have been obtained from this district. In the same way the Santâl country is much indebted to us for male Teachers and other Agents.

I received the sum of £50 from the Society's Famine Relief Fund, and this was doubled by the Local Committee. With this money I was able to give employment in some useful works, particularly by the excavation of two tanks, during a time when many able-bodied men were out of employment in consequence of the drought.

Education.

The Rev. F. Gmelin, whose labours are mainly in the educational branch, and who, like Mr. Blumhardt, resides in the town of Krishnagar, reports as follows :—

Visit of Sir Richard Temple to the Krishnagar Training Institution.

Ten Students have finished their course of studies in the Training Institution. Nearly all of them have already received appointments in the Mission field. The seventeen lads who have been in the Preparatory Class for eighteen months will now be received into the Training Institution. Most of them are very promising. In September we received a visit from Sir Richard Temple, the Lieut.-Governor of Bengal. This visit was quite an unexpected one, but none the less welcome. His Honour inspected everything carefully, and expressed himself highly gratified with all that he saw and heard. The students sang in parts before him, and he stated that he had never heard such good singing by Natives before. The following morning I received from his Secretary a cheque for £10, with a note requesting me to spend it in a treat for the students of the Training Institution and Christian pupils of the Model School.

Mr. Gmelin has also charge of some Vernacular Schools at Santipur (including a night school), and an English school at Naddia, presided over by a Native Christian Headmaster. Some students from the Government College at Krishnagar have regularly come to the Missionary's house on Sunday to read the Bible with him.

BURDWAN.

This station, the scene of the labours of that eminent Missionary the sainted Weitbrecht, has been now for several years visited with a succession of severe and remarkable trials. It is still thought advisable that the Missionary in charge, Mr. E. K. Blumhardt, should reside at Calcutta. Mr. Blumhardt, who, besides assisting in the Cathedral Mission College, has also had charge of several village schools in the neighbourhood of Calcutta, writes as follows:—

If "Poor Burdwan" has taken a larger share of my attention than any other portion of my work, it is but because thinking it to be the weakest point, I considered that it was less capable of standing by itself. Each Sunday has seen me there, except one or two, when some Missionary brother has relieved me. The earlier part of the year, indeed, had been comparatively healthy, the fever not appearing except in some few cases. The famine that threw its dark shadow over many districts north of us, did indeed hover for a time over the Burdwan district, but yet ample provision was made for their wants. There seemed to me to be a tone of cheerfulness, and tokens of renewed energy amongst the people. They worked together, and seemed less careworn than in former times. Then too I held Bible classes on the Sunday for the men, and had a small class of candidates for Confirmation, at whose earnestness I had every reason to be thankful. But in one night all the cheerfulness was gone and the old despondent look and tone returned. Early in October, 1874, the College at Calcutta closed for the fortnight's autumn vacation; and I thought to myself that I would stay in Burdwan, and go out with the Catechists into the bazaar, preaching, &c. I went out with them twice, and we had audiences of 70 people each time. They listened with attention. They wondered perhaps at seeing a Missionary once more in the streets preaching. I well remember the first day trying to draw a lesson from the judgments of God as seen in the desolation caused by the fever and the anxiety for the crops resulting from the want of rain; and as I read from the 26th chapter of Leviticus that the burning ague was one of God's ways of chastising men, and how He had threatened that the land should not yield her increase, neither the trees of the land their fruits to the people, if they kept not His statutes, I could hear one and another repeat the words over to themselves, nodding their heads at the same time to signify their assent. But I only went out twice, for on the 15th the cyclone came upon us, and brought ruin and desolation with it. The houses of the Native Christians were all injured; and the injury done to the church was very considerable. But the worst effect of all was that produced on the Native Christians themselves. The old despondency came over them again. . . . . It is no light task in the midst of all the troubles that God has sent upon the few Native Christians in Burdwan, to hold themselves steadfastly to God; but in the case of one or two, at least, I have cause to believe that a true work of God is going on in their hearts. The Bible women of whom I wrote last year have continued throughout this year also working amongst the people; they have worked hard and most conscientiously.

The Committee, however, do not doubt that He who is Love has purposes of mercy in these mysterious dispensations, and that the work at Burdwan will yet again revive.

BHAGALPUR.

The Rev. E. Drœse continues his faithful labours at this Station, but has not met with much visible encouragement. At Bhagalpur itself the Native Christians number 237, of whom 82 are adults. More than half of these are children in the orphanage; and many of the adults were inmates of the orphanage in their childhood. Of their spiritual life Mr. Drœse finds it difficult to form an estimate, and he deplores their want of zeal for the evangelization of their countrymen. Their moral conduct, however, he can pronounce without hesitation to be decidedly superior to that of the heathens and Mohammedans around them; and two-thirds of the adults are communicants. The Jamalpur congregation consisting of 74 persons, of whom 20 are communicants, is ministered to by a resident Catechist, who is under the superintendence of the Rev. J. C. Love, the English chaplain at the place. They have improved during the year in religious knowledge and in attention to religious advantages. It has not been found possible to make any satisfactory arrangements for the instruction of the Native Christian Pahâris or hill-men; and their present religious condition is much to be deplored.—Preaching to the heathen and Mohammedans has been regularly continued; and in the schools, which are satisfactorily conducted, 305 children are under regular instruction.

SANTÂL MISSION.

The Rev. James Brown and the Rev. F. T. Cole are the Missionaries at TALJHÂRI. The pastoral and evangelistic work is under the care of the former, who with the help of Native Catechists watches over five congregations, comprising 900 Christians. Mr. Brown entertains the hope that before long one or more of these Catechists may be admitted to holy orders. The Native Christians commend the Gospel to their heathen countrymen by word and example, and thirty-six adults were baptized in this district during the year.

Mr. Cole, in his Annual Letter, gives an interesting sketch of the present condition of the Santals of the Taljhari district. He thinks it probable that large numbers of them if they do not embrace Christianity will become a low caste among the Hindus. Mr. Cole writes:—

'These Santals are certainly a loveable people. The Christians are I believe true. Not highly educated in the arts and sciences of this world, but I feel persuaded that many of them are deeply taught of the Spirit of God. Lately we have had cause for anxiety, owing to rebellious ideas being freely circulated about throughout the country. Our Christians hardly felt themselves safe, and numbers of Hindus who were living amongst the Santals packed up their goods and left the country. Government has, however, looked into the matter, imprisoned the ringleaders, and awed the people by placing strong bodies of armed police through the district. I have hitherto only touched on the political side of the question. There is another side to it which affects our work amongst these people. The conspiracy was concealed by giving the movement a religious covering. These false men gave out that their own "bongas," or demons, were not powerful enough to protect them from the evils of famine, &c. They said we must try some other being more powerful. They chose the Hindoo God "Mahadêva" (Siva). Having set up a temple they went in large numbers to offer worship to it. Just now the Santals are in a transition state. Numbers are fully convinced of the truth of Christianity, but they are waiting to see which way their brethren take. Clannish feeling is very strong in the hearts of these people. It can in the present case work either immense harm or good. Tell our brethren not to forget us and our people at this crisis in their prayers.

Of the Schools, Mr. Cole writes as follows:—

Numbers of those who have been trained in our schools have, during their course of instruction, turned to the Saviour, and have been taught of Him. They are now showing by their life and conversation that they have turned from darkness to light. Not a fourth of those who enter the boarding-schools as heathen leave it as such. Some of our brightest Christians were once admitted into these schools as heathen. With regard to the village schools, they have not been so useful in a Missionary point of view, but I think that they are doing a vast deal in removing the prejudices of the people. I am trying to introduce Roman Santâli into our village school, and for this purpose have prepared a few Santali books. We hope by the introduction of Roman Sântali to prepare the way for the circulation of the Word of God in their own language.

Missionary utility of boarding-schools.

Fresh openings for work have been taken up among the Pahâris, or hill-people, of the neighbourhood. These are also aborigines, but of a different stock from the Santals. Mr. Coles writes:—

Fresh opening among Aboriginal tribes.

During the famine I undertook the charge of a district of hill-people, and made advance of grain just as I thought they required it. For the purpose of seeing what the state of the people really was, I made several excursions into the hills, and thus got to know the people more intimately. I could make myself understood to them in business matters through the medium of Hindi, but I am afraid that they did not understand much else. However some of our Christian Pahâris addressed them, and we hope that some of them are hungering and thirsting after the water of life. Yesterday I examined seven of these people who are candidates for baptism, and found them very earnest. I hope to baptize them in about three weeks' time. Also four boys from the hills have been baptized just lately. They entered the school as heathens, and came forward to ask for baptism entirely of their own accord. I have established several schools amongst these hill-people, and there seems a great spirit of awakening going on amongst them. I hope some day to learn their language. It is totally different from Santali. It appears to belong to the Dravidian stock, whereas Santali is a branch of the Kolarian family.

The Rev. Henry Davis is the Missionary of HIRAMPUR. The Native Christians number 174; of these 49 are communicants. During the year ending Sept. 30th, 1874, nine adults were baptized. Many more would in all probability become catechumens, could any means be devised for giving them instruction. The people of Bhim's village (see Report for 1873-4, page 80), are especially anxious to be taught, and many of them are candidates for baptism. There are similar hopeful movements in other parts of the district.

The Missionary at GODDA is the Rev. A. Stark. The failure of the harvest caused at one time much anxiety and distress; and though the active aid rendered by the Government prevented any disastrous consequences, an accidental delay on the part of the local authorities in fulfilling promises to advance rice to the Santal cultivators produced discontent, which at one time, through the arts of a designing Native adventurer, seemed likely to result in serious disturbances. These dangers, however, have now passed away. The Native Christians (163 in number) were thoroughly loyal throughout the whole crisis, though at one time they seemed to be alarmed. Eight adults, however, were baptized during the year.

BENARES.

The Missionaries at this station are the Rev. J. Fuchs, the Rev. H. D. Hubbard, Mr. J. Treusch, and (recently removed hither from Calcutta) the Rev. S. T. Leupolt. There are also two Native pastors, the Rev. Dâri Solomon and the Rev. S. Nand. Several faithful unordained Native Christian Agents give valuable help, among whom may be particularized Babu Timothy Luther, Head Master of the Jay Narain's School.

Of the Pastoral and Evangelistic department Mr. Fuchs reports:—

The congregation of St. Thomas in the city under the ministry of the Rev. S. Nand is well conducted, but very small. Some of the members have left Benares and one died; but the Native pastor has been lately cheered by the accession of three adults, who with four children have been admitted by baptism into the Church. The first of these is a Brahmini woman with her three boys. She attended for years Mrs. Smith's girls' school at Kudal ki Chauki, and two years since that of Miss Hull as soon as it was opened. On her asking for further instruction in the truth of the Gospel, Miss Hull gladly complied with her wishes, and prepared her for baptism, to which her husband offered no opposition. The other adults are a Native doctor, a middle-aged man, by caste a Brahman, and his wife, with their girl of six years of age. The Rev. S. Nand writes regarding them :—"Bishan, a medical man, of the Brahman caste, began eighteen months ago to attend the services in my church. I gave him a Bible and Prayer-book to read. After he had read part of it he came to ask me for explanation. I gave him an account of the state of mankind from the creation of the world to the appearance of Christ and His work on earth, and pointed out to him that man was, because of the power of sin, unable to save himself by any works that he could do ; to which he replied, 'What, shall we, who believe our sacred books, and Ram and Krishna, the incarnations of the Supreme God, and follow their precepts, not obtain salvation?' Whereupon I showed him that these books contained no real revelations from God, and that Ram, Krishna, were no incarnations of God, because they, as he himself could see, were no better than other men. He then began to ponder on the matter ; and Mr. Hooper becoming acquainted with him about that time, set more fully and clearly from the New Testament the way of salvation before him, which convinced him of Jesus Christ being the true and only Saviour of sinful men. But his wife would not believe this new doctrine. I therefore applied to Miss Hull to visit her, who was happy to hear of a new opening to a Zenana and paid her a visit. She was so well received that she could at once make a beginning of instructing her in the same truths, of which her husband had become convinced. The instruction given with much love had also soon upon her the desired effect of producing faith in Christ." These three individuals, as far as men can see and judge, are sincere persons, who I trust will continue to grow in grace and in the knowledge of Christ their Saviour, and become the means of drawing others after them.

Conversions at Benâres.

The strictly speaking pastoral duties of Sigra (the Christian village) devolve upon the Rev. D. Solomon, the Native pastor ; in which I assist him by conducting as a rule the morning service on Sunday, and in the management of the Christian village in cases of disputes and various other matters. I have established a Municipal Committee, one member from each row of houses, which has to watch over order and cleanliness. The Church Council established by Mr. Shackell has also met once a month. The subscriptions to the pastoral fund have much fallen off in consequence of several members having died or left Benares that were in a position to subscribe more largely than the others, and had also the mind to do so. The attendance at church on Sunday is good; but there is a great lack in the congregation of spiritual life and of mutual efforts to excite one another to earnestness and zeal as followers of Christ.

Mr. Hooper, until his removal to Lahore, devoted his whole time and strength to Evangelistic work in the city. On his departure there was no European to take his place; but the Rev. S. Nand, assisted by a Catechist, has steadily and faithfully continued to invite his countrymen to come to Jesus, their true and only Saviour. The large terrace in front of the city church is the best of our preaching places. The people often sit with the preacher till late in the evening. The Rev. D. Solomon also has regularly gone four times in the week to the city to preach; two teachers as volunteers assist him twice in the afternoon; and on Sunday several of our Sigra young men go of their own accord to the villages near Sigra as witnesses of the Christian faith which they confess.

Education.

The Rev. H. D. Hubbard had charge of JAY NARAIN'S COLLEGE during the year 1874. The number of students still amounts to upwards of 500, though the attendance has been injuriously affected by the lowering of the fees at the Local Government Institution. Here, as in several other parts of North India, the action of the Local Government appears to be altogether at variance with the celebrated Education Despatch of 1854, in which it was laid down as a principle of action that the Government should gradually delegate the higher English education to independent and aided institutions. Mr. Hubbard mentions the following interesting incident connected with the College:—

Effect of Teaching in a Mission School.

In one of our classes last year there was a student, whom in our daily readings of the scriptures I regarded as the least hopeful of the class, owing to his manner of objecting to, and at times even sneering at, almost everything we read. Suddenly he left, and I have not seen him since; but a few days after his departure, I heard accidentally from a lady engaged in Zenana work, that she had just lost one of her most promising pupils who was anxious for baptism, but had been removed by her friends, ostensibly on the ground of ill-health. She told the lady that she had first heard of Christianity from her husband, who was a student in the College, and that he was in the habit of reading the Bible to her of an evening at home. On inquiry he turned out to be the person mentioned above.

The Female Normal School under the care of Mrs. Low has had during the year forty-three students, and has been favourably noticed by the Government Inspectress. The number of those whose relatives and friends pay the whole or in part for their education has gradually increased. "It has not been forgotten," writes Mrs. Low, "that the paramount object of the Institution is that each girl should for herself become decided on the Lord's side, and thus be the means of spreading light abroad." All but two of the girls are boarders, which of course implies that they are (at least nominally) Native Christians.—Of the other schools, comprising upwards of 700 scholars, including those at Chunar, nothing specially noteworthy is reported.

Out-Stations.

At Chunar the Sunday Services are conducted by the head master of the Mission School. His congregation consists mainly of the wives of military pensioners, amongst whom Mr. Fuchs observes many indications of "real piety." Mr. Fuchs describes the head master and the other Christian teacher in the school as steady and good men, highly respected by the congregation, and exercising a good influence on all with whom they come in contact. The School, which contains 170 scholars, is well reported of, as regards secular instruction, by the Government Inspector.

The out-stations of Gharwah, Ahraumah (called Araurat in the Report for 1872-3), which were partly taken up as industrial settlements for the adult orphans, have not been successful for that purpose; but in the latter of these two places a gosain (Hindu devotee) was baptized last July, of whom Mr. Fuchs gives the following interesting account:—

Conversion of a Brahmin Musician.

He is of Brahman parentage. His father, a musician and singer in idol temples and at the courts of Rajahs, was engaged by a Rajah at Calcutta to instruct his dancing girls in singing. They remained about eight years in Calcutta, after which they departed for the N. W. Provinces. On the road near Burdwan a gosain joined them as travelling companion. They had not proceeded far on their way when the father died. The son was adopted by the gosain, and became consequently a member of that "holy" brotherhood. His new father was also a musician, with whom he became more proficient in his profession. The two gosains were slowly moving up the country, till they arrived a year ago at Gharwah, and lodged with the gosain residing there, where the elder one died. All that he left as heritage to his adopted son was a little pony; but a richer inheritance was there in store for him, for he became acquainted with the "housefather" of our farmer boys there, from whom he for the first time in his life heard of Christ. In spite of all the efforts of the Gharwah gosain and his people to draw him away from the Christians by kind and threatening words, he firmly resolved never to forsake them, and to become a follower of Christ. But what could he sing and play now on his violin? No longer the impure heathen songs, which he wished to forget entirely. He was therefore very glad to learn Christian hymns and tunes, especially those set after the native style of music, which our people were delighted to hear him play. The boys told him that he must be called Dâûd, which new name (having been informed who Dâûd, i. e. David, was) pleased him exceedingly, and he was baptized by that name accordingly. He has been lately removed to Sigra, where he is very happy, and beloved by all that see and know him.

GORAKPUR.

The Rev. H. Stern has been the Missionary of Gorakpur for twenty-two years. The Native Christians now number 518 persons. When Mr. Stern began his labours the number was just over 250. This little community has gradually grown up, partly by conversions, and partly as the result of the orphanages, ever since the first occupying of the station in 1823. During the last four or five years the conversions have been but few, though the Gospel is preached as faithfully as in former times, and Mr. Stern in his Report expressly thanks GOD for giving him able and willing Native helpers. The prayers of GOD'S people are earnestly asked for, that there may be in this station a mightier putting forth of the power of the Holy Ghost. The outward conduct of the Native Christians has been satisfactory; and a Native Church Missionary Association, which will in future be aided by the Henry Venn Fund, supports an Evangelist, who preaches in the neighbourhood. Only one adult, however, has been baptized during the year; and the Missionary wishes that the Native Christians showed more zeal for the salvation of their countrymen. Mr. Stern is also disappointed at not having yet found a suitable Native Pastor. He is assisted, however, by a Native Church Committee in the exercise of discipline and the collection of pecuniary contributions. The Bishop of Calcutta visited the Mission on April 10, 1874, and confirmed 67 candidates. Mr. Stern speaks of this occasion as a time of refreshment.

Mr. Stern writes:—

The preaching of the Gospel in the town and in the bazaars is carried on chiefly by the Native brethren. Preaching tours in the district are annually made in the cold season; but for this kind of work, where there is one Catechist now, there ought to be a hundred. Every larger village or town in the district ought to have two Catechists, who might also each superintend a circle of schools. But where are the means and the men to carry out such a work? We have one such out-station about fourteen miles from here. There a native Christian has been located, and placed in charge of three Vernacular Schools, in which he gives Scripture lessons, besides preaching regularly in the bazaars. On a recent visit, I found, to my great satisfaction, that he had gained considerable influence with the people among whom he lives, who often consult him and accept his advice in their little difficulties. Many such could be located, here and there, in the district.

Respecting the Schools, which have made good progress, Mr. Stern writes:—

I was fortunate in obtaining the services of a truly qualified and pious head-master. Mr. Gomez, B.A., of the Calcutta University and late of Bishop's College, joined this Mission in February last. He has laboured hard, and has his heart in the work. The number of our Schools is seventeen, and the number of pupils on the rolls is 792 boys and 169 girls, making a total of 961, of whom 231 are Christian children, including orphans. All these schools are regularly visited and examined and reported upon by the Government School Inspectors, who have reported favourably on each. The Girls' School was visited by the wife of the Director of Public Instruction, as well as by the Government School Inspectress, who gave it as her opinion, that the Orphan Girls' School is second best among all the girls' schools in her whole circle of inspection, the Sigra Normal School being the first.

An Anglo-Vernacular School has been opened at Basti, a town forty miles to the west of Gorakpur. It is attended by 100 pupils, and exercises, Mr. Stern thinks, a beneficial influence on the place. Zenana work has been commenced by a Native Christian woman, who has access to eight or nine respectable houses; but Mr. Stern would be glad to have the assistance of a European lady.

Gorakpur is one of the few stations of the Society that are within the territory affected by the late famine. Mr. Stern makes the following interesting remarks on the subject:—

Never, in all my life, have I experienced, in such a wonderful manner, the good hand of our gracious God, who knows our wants before we ask Him, as during the last year, when help came flowing in at the very time when it was most wanted, and often from quarters, both in this country and England, wholly unknown to me and unasked for. Hardly a mail arrived which did not carry with it some letter of sympathy, or a more substantial proof of God's care for His people, in a cheque or money order, so that we were never in want, and we could truly say, "The Lord is our Shepherd, we shall not want." This active liberality, on the part of so many Christian friends, near and far, and this Christian sympathy, on the part of so many unknown servants of God, had a most beneficial influence upon our Native Christians, as well as upon all those non-Christians who were made acquainted with the circumstances, proving to them what Christian benevolence and sympathy consist in. The people generally are truly thankful for all the aid and assistance which a benevolent Government afforded the country in its distress, by creating extra work and by erecting feeding-houses and workshops and hospitals, thus saving hundreds and thousands from a miserable end. During a late tour through some of the distressed portions of this and the Basti districts, I found the people were unanimous in their praises of the Government and in their grateful acknowledgments of the timely assistance given them. And this greatly helped us in preaching the Gospel, and in obtaining a kind hearing for Him, who is the best friend of the poor.

Good impression produced by the benevolence of Christian friends and of the Government during the famine.

ALLAHABAD.

At this station there is a Christian village and community under the pastoral care of a Native Minister, the Rev. D. Mohun. It was originally a colony from the Christian village near Agra, the product of an orphanage. A large proportion of its members are employed in the Government press. The statistics for 1874 give 443 Native Christians, and 130 Communicants. The Rev. B. Davis, who is the Society's Missionary at the station, states that the Native flock has on the whole given him satisfaction, though he was "much grieved at two instances of theft perpetrated by two youths belonging to it a short time since." There was one adult baptism during the year ending October, and it is hoped that two or three others will be baptized shortly. The new church was opened for the first time on the 12th of March in the present year. The Mela (idolatrous festival) in January, 1875, afforded as usual many opportunities for preaching the Gospel to the heathen; though it was not so well attended as in some previous years. Both there and in the regular preaching in the city the audiences are attentive, and there is but little opposition.

The present policy of the Government, in lowering the fees and strengthening the staff at their own colleges in Allahabad and other places, renders it increasingly difficult for Missionary schools and colleges to maintain their own position; and certainly does not seem to accord with the Educational Despatch of 1854. The Mission English School at Allahabad has, however, fairly prospered, in a secular point of view. By means of this and the other (lower) Schools connected with the Allahabad station, 400 pupils (mostly of heathen parentage) are made acquainted with the Gospel.

An out-station has been taken up at Jusy, a village with a population of 2000, on the other side of the junction of the Ganges and Jumna. A Native Christian has been placed there to act as Schoolmaster and Evangelist. He was formerly a pupil at the Mission English School, and having subsequently taken secular employment under Government, had on several occasions voluntarily preached the Gospel to his countrymen while travelling with the Lieut.-Governor's Camp.

JAUNPUR AND AZIMGARH.

These two stations were under the superintendence of the Rev. H. D. Hubbard, of Benares. The head local Agents at the time when Mr. Hubbard wrote his Annual Letter for 1874, were at Jaunpur, Mr. W. Baumann (subsequently transferred to Faizabad), and at Azimgarh, Maulavi Cossim Masih, formerly a student at the Lahore Divinity School. These two brethren carried on the preaching with vigour, the former being assisted by a staff of Catechists. There are several inquirers at both places; but no baptisms took place during the year. At both places also the schools were in a prosperous condition at the date of the most recent account. The Native Christians and Communicants number respectively at the two places, Jaunpur, 35 and 12; Azimgarh, 25 and 11. Early in the present year the Rev. B. H. Skelton was appointed to Azimgarh, and reached that place on the 2nd of February.

JABALPUR.

The Missionaries of this station are the Rev. E. Champion, and the Rev. G. M. Grime. During the year under review, however, Mr. Champion had been without a European associate, Mr. Grime having been temporarily removed to Agra. Mr. Champion has nothing special to report of the general condition of the 110 Christians under his pastoral care. The very interesting particulars of the conversion and subsequent baptism of a young Brahman, which were inadvertently omitted in last year's Annual Report, were inserted at length in the Record for September, 1874. Both with this youthful convert and with Aman Singh, baptized in 1874,

Mr. Champion has had many trials and disappointments, indicating the need in which Indian converts stand of the prayers of their Christian brethren and of the special grace of God. There are several inquirers, but Mr. Champion is unable at present to speak with certainty of their sincerity. Nearly 810 children are under instruction in the schools.

Of the work among the Gonds, Mr. Champion speaks as follows:—

In the case of those Gonds with whom we are most brought in contact, I hope I perceive not only increasing regard for us, but some indications of lessening superstition. Their little mud altars are not repaired and whitened as they used to be, and their idols' huts are not kept in decent order. Our one school among them, which it was reported to me they had agreed that they would not send their children to, languished for a time, but has now begun to display signs of real vitality, and the parents seem to take a pleasing interest in it. It numbers indeed only thirteen, but when this has firmly taken root in the esteem of the people we shall be able to add to it others here and there with a certainty of success.—The Gonds are not easily moved, and do not take in new ideas at once. Naturally, they are still slower to take in religious ideas, especially when they differ from their own so widely as Christian ideas do. To make way among them we must be much among them, must teach them a little at a time, but often; and must be content to adapt ourselves to their small comprehensions, and to submit to the constant repetition of the same lesson. I cannot think as some do, that they are an effete race, which is doomed to speedy extinction. The mortality indeed among their children is sometimes very great. I have heard of a clean sweep that has just been made of a village. The whole of its children, 60 in number, have been carried off by small-pox! In another village the same disease has been fatal to 13 children out of 17, and of the four remaining, three are suffering from it; occasionally, cholera too falls with terrible effect upon them. Still as a race they display great stamina and are very enduring, and when fair inducements are offered show themselves to be good farmers. Prosperity and consequent better living will doubtless have an improving effect upon them; and vaccination, which those I know best and have been able to recommend it to, eagerly seek, will lessen the terrible mortality, which "the great Mother" (as they call small-pox) causes. In common with all the lower classes of India they doubtless indulge freely in spirits at their marriage, and other feasts; but I do not think them a drunken race. Indeed, I have seen in all my intercourse with them only one drunken Gond. Now that my brother Missionary, Mr. Grime, is about to return to his permanent post in Jabalpur, I trust to be relieved of some of the numerous and multifarious cases of the Central Prospects of the work among the Gonds.

Station, and to be able to spend more time in itinerating among them even into the hot weather.

LUCKNOW.

The Missionaries at this station are the Rev. C. G. Daüble and the Rev. J. P. Ellwood. The Native Christians here (immigrants mostly from other parts of India) are 307 in number, of whom no fewer than 118 are Communicants. Two adults were baptized during the year. Much to his regret Mr. Daüble has not yet been able to obtain for this congregation a suitable Native Pastor. He had, however, the pleasure of presenting to the Bishop forty candidates for Confirmation at his lordship's recent visit to Lucknow. Our special services," Mr. Daüble writes, "held in the first week of January, Easter week, and the week before Pentecost, were well attended and blessed by the Lord."—Preaching in the streets and bazaars has been regularly carried on with the aid of three Native helpers in seven places in the city. The Mahommedans have begun to oppose this effort by means of regularly paid preachers from their own body. Through the favourable impression produced by the Zenana teachers, some houses among the non-Christian families of the upper classes are now open to the Missionary for domiciliary visitation. Mr. Daüble has also itinerated in the neighbouring districts; where the novelty of the Gospel message seems to render it welcome, and where the people give him a friendly reception.

The Educational branch is under the care of the Rev. J. P. Ellwood. He feels assured that many of the boys "are intellectually convinced of the truth of Christianity," though "they lack spirituality and moral courage to declare themselves on the Lord's side." The following extracts from Mr. Ellwood's Annual Letter will be read with much interest:—

Sunday Schools in Lucknow.

The friends of Sunday schools in England will be glad to hear that this noble institution is becoming more and more popular in India. In addition to its religious tendency it has also its social aspect, binding teachers and scholars together in Christian love. Hinduism has so wormed itself into the social life of the people that we must be ready to offer them something in its place. During the year the numbers in our Sunday school have increased. We have 187 names on the books, with an average during the year of 115 scholars. I am glad to say that the scholars are really becoming attached to the school, and show great interest in everything connected with it. Every boy who comes to school knows very well that only a Scripture lesson will be given and Christian hymns sung; nevertheless they seldom absent themselves.

The Book department is still growing in usefulness. The sales at the bookstall in the Railway Station continue to increase. Native travellers now make it a practice to call and buy some book for the journey. A little boy is employed to carry books from carriage to carriage, like the newspaper boys in the railway stations in England, with this difference, that instead of carrying about for sale the news of this world, he presents for sale the news of the glorious Gospel of God. The style of the stall is so as to show every book to the best advantage. In the two depôts the sales of the year amounted to Rs. 1200, one fourth of which was received for purely vernacular books, and many of which were very small, and sold for a few cowries. All our books are of a religious character, and it is our invariable custom never to give, but sell. Such books as "Butler's Analogy," "Paley's Evidences," "Liddon's Bampton Lectures," have been readily bought up by the Natives; and a considerable number of Bengali books have found ready sale. I feel more and more the importance of keeping up this part of our work, as men from all parts of India, in this way, willingly buy the Word of God. The work is altogether self-supporting.

Sale of Books at Lucknow.

The Zenana teachers meet with much encouragement. The result of their efforts in opening more houses to the Missionary himself has been already mentioned. Mr. Ellwood writes:—

Mrs. Ellwood still continues to visit the Zenanas as often as possible. The women as a rule are willing to receive her into their houses. Some of them are intelligent, and ready to enter upon a lively conversation about Christianity. Most of them, however, are very ignorant, and scarcely know anything beyond their own narrow sphere, and when the Word of God is read seem to comprehend little of what they hear. Yet it becomes more evident to the women each day that the Bible appeals to the heart, and offers them a Saviour of which their own religion teaches nothing. To show the importance of this work I send a slip cut out of the Educational Report for Oude, in which we have the testimony of the Chief Commissioner to the value of Zenana work. "The Chief Commissioner hardly thinks that you give the women of this country credit for as much influence over the men as they really possess. Secluded though they be, there is many a matter in which their voice carries much weight, and in the case of children it makes a great difference whether the mothers have received any education; and to this extent at least the State may be said to have an interest in the matter. Still, on the whole, the Chief Commissioner agrees in your conclusions. Female education is far more expensive than that of boys, and the results are less. We should, therefore, principally devote ourselves to male education. Girls' schools are seldom considered preferable to home tuition in England; and in this country there are still more reasons why they should not become popular, and therefore why we should hold our hand until public opinion is with us rather than against us. On the whole, the Chief Commissioner believes that the labours of the ladies of the Zenana Mission will do more for the cause of female education than all our schools.

FAIZABAD.

The following account is compiled from the local Report and the Rev. C. F. Reuther's Annual Letter:—

The Faizabad Mission has been in existence for the last ten years, but the work has met with constant interruptions. The Rev. Mr. Ball, who opened it, shortly after became ill, and had to go to England. Mr. Reuther, the present Missionary, succeeded him. He too was soon compelled by ill-health to leave the station. The Mission was then left in charge of a Catechist, superintended by the Lucknow Missionaries. Last year Mr. Reuther was again transferred to this place.—The Christian congregation is at present very small. Some years ago there were upwards of sixty members. But as most of these belonged to a native regiment stationed here, they have gone away with their corps. Thus there are now scarcely twenty-five members left, and most of these are located in the out-stations. Only ten or twelve souls assemble at present with the Missionary for Divine Service on Sunday, or for Bible and prayer meetings during the week.—At the out-stations (which are four in number), as well as at Faizabad itself, Catechists or local preachers have been stationed, and evangelistic labours have been carried on daily throughout the year. In the mornings we have carried the Gospel message from house to house by domiciliary visits; and in the afternoons, we have had bazaar and street preaching. All the labourers have repeatedly been out itinerating round about their respective localities, and I have spent the whole cold season at the out-stations. We have often had quiet and thoughtful hearers in the bazaars, and in our domiciliary visits we have had delightful conversations with high and low. Everywhere the people have been friendly and have asked us to come again. As yet the labourers have not seen much fruit, though at every place there are inquirers.—At Faizabad, however, four persons have been baptized, two children and two adults. The adults are a Mohammedan and his wife. He is a Cabul man, and has been serving our Government in the army; he took his discharge at Faizabad and settled down there. His wife is a descendant from the Royal family that reigned here a century ago. She gets a pension from Government. She was first made acquainted with Christianity in one of Mrs. Reuther's girls' schools, where some years ago she was a pupil. Her husband heard the Gospel in the bazaar at Faizabad. When he first offered himself as an inquirer, he said he wanted to become a Christian because his wife wished to be baptized. Now he has overstepped his wife in Christian zeal. He is a diligent student of the Bible, and a faithful Christian.—As Faizabad is chiefly a Mohammedan town, so is Ajodhiya chiefly occupied by Hindus. It is full of idol temples, and of religious mendicants of all descriptions. These mendicants are wholly given to the practice of vice and wickedness, and yet they are revered. Like Benares, Ajodhiya is by the Hindus considered a sacred spot, and many come to spend their last days here. If the worshippers die here, they think to go straight to heaven. The place is important on account of its being a great resort for pilgrims, and on account of its annual melas. The Gospel is here preached, and Scriptures and Tracts are sold, to many thousands, who otherwise never could be reached by the Christian Missionary. At mela times all our native helpers come from their out-stations, to assist in ministering the Word of life to the perishing crowds. We have at present one native labourer here. He is a Christian Pandit of much experience. He has one inquirer.—Akbarpur, our second out-station, forty miles south-east of Fyzabad, is close to Shahzadpur, and at three hours' distance there is Tânda. All these places are large and important for making known the Gospel; but we have hitherto been able to afford only one native labourer for them. He resides at Akbarpùr, from whence he visits also the neighbouring towns. There are earnest Bible-readers at these places; one of them is rendering the history of Christ into Urdû verse, in which he confesses our Lord to be the Son of God and the Saviour of the world, and on account of which he is not a little persecuted by the Mohammedans. He is a well-educated Mohammedan himself.—Sultânpur comes next in the number of out-stations. It is forty miles south of Fyzabad, and has two native helpers, whose evangelistic labours seem to be appreciated. There are some inquirers here; one of them preaches the Gospel, though as yet a heathen outwardly. Pratabgarh, sixty miles south of Faizabad, is our last out-station. This too is a cluster of three large places, but we have here only one native helper. He complains that his field is barren, and his exertions fruitless; but still there are inquirers, and thoughtful Bible-readers; there are a few who attend our Christian worship on Sundays, and use the Common Prayer-book in their private devotions.—For all these stations we have a Christian colporteur partly paid by the North India Bible Society. He supplies our Readers with Christian books. His work becomes more and more important every year; for Oude is well supplied with Government schools, and these bring out fresh readers in great numbers. The colporteur sells a great many books to the scholars of these schools, and thus the Bible finds an entrance into them, from which it is otherwise excluded.

Zenana work was carried on regularly by Mrs. and Miss Reuther. There were three girls' schools and four zenanas open, the pupils of which were regularly instructed.

Early in the present year Mr. Reuther was transferred to Kangra, being succeeded at Faizabad by Mr. W. Baumann.

AGRA.

Full accounts of this Mission have not been received for the year under review. The Native flock has lost its faithful pastor, the Rev. J. Jacob, who was removed to the immediate presence of his Lord and Saviour, in September, 1874. Mr. R. J. Bell, who was at that time in charge of St. John's College, thus writes of this (to survivors) sad event under date September 8th :—

Death of a Native Pastor.

You will be grieved to learn that we have been deprived by death of the services of our Native Pastor, Joseph Jacob. If it had been the will of God to restore him again, I feel sure his future ministrations would have been eminently blessed; but the great Head of the Church Who rules in heaven and earth, has seen fit to take our dear brother to Himself, has called him to a higher ministry in the courts of above—a ministry of praise. He told me that he longed to see Jesus Whom he had loved on earth —to see the dear saints who had departed this life in good faith and fear. He longed to enter the mansions prepared for the Lord's people—to mingle his song of praise with those who stand before the throne of God and before the Lamb, and who sing the new song of redeeming love—people redeemed by the precious blood of the Lamb, gathered from every people, every kindred and tongue and nations.

At Sekandra, six miles distant from the central portion of the city of Agra, there is an orphanage not supported by the funds of the Society, but under Mr. Erhardt's superintendence, containing 370 children. There is also at the same place a Christian village, most of the adult inhabitants of which were formerly inmates of the orphanage, and which supplies a congregation of fifty-six grown-up persons. Mr. Erhardt describes them as "growing in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ," and as taking an interest in Missionary work.

As regards Evangelistic work, Mr. Erhardt's Native Agents make regular Missionary tours in various "preaching circles" in the neighbourhood of Agra, which the Missionary thus describes under date February 22, 1875 :—

I have returned only a few days ago from an itinerating tour. I was anxious this cold weather to go over one of the circles so as to see for myself where the Native Agents had been at work, and how the people receive the Christian preacher. The circle I visited was viâ Mattra to Binderaban, west of Sekandra, then north and east by Hattras. Krishna is the only idol venerated here. People come from all parts of India, and in such numbers, that thousands of Mattra Brahmins flourish in idleness; and all Binderaban with its 40,000 inhabitants, mostly monks and temple servants, gets rich from the offerings of visitors. Yet my Catechists and Readers always like to go to these localities. And I do not wonder; for priests and monks, pilgrims and residents, are most friendly and patient in hearing, and enter with the greatest readiness into conversation. There is a Native Christian in Government employ at Binderaban, one who avows the doctrine of Christ, and I believe it is partly owing to his consistent life that people are so favourable. But it is heart-rending to see the dove-worship. Thakur, a golden idol, was carried out of a temple whilst we were there, and the people prostrated themselves right and left, and rubbed their faces actually in the mud. Such worship I had never seen, not even at Benares.—The other preaching circles are those of Bhartpur, Morar, Jeypur, and the one close to Sekandra. The late convert from Bhartpur [brought in through the instrumentality of the Roxburgh Colporteurs] has joined the preachers, and in time I trust he may become a faithful witness for Christ. In connexion with preaching I may mention that Rankatta, the old station of Sekandra, has been occupied again, after it had been two years without a resident reader or catechist. The villagers entreated me to send Matthias the Catechist to them. Formerly he had gained much influence in the village.

St. John's College is once again under the care of the Rev. C. E. Vines, who returned to India in March, 1875. It has had to encounter fresh difficulties from the withdrawing of the Government grant, and the lowering of the fees in the rival Government Institution—a policy which it seems hard to reconcile with the Educational Despatch of 1854.

ALIGARH.

The Society's work at this station has been under the charge of the Rev. J. D. F. Hoernle. He is not able to report any advance in the Native Church, either external or internal. It comprises thirty-six souls, and has received during the year no accession from heathenism. Nearly the same account has to be given of the out-station of Bulandshahar (with its twenty-nine Native Christians), except that here there has been one adult baptism, mentioned below.

Of the work among the heathen Mr. Hoernle speaks as follows:—

The preaching to the heathen and Mohammedans has been kept up without much interruption by myself, my Catechists and Reader, in the bazaar and districts of Aligarh and Bulandshahar, especially in the latter district, where the Catechists spend regularly one week in every month on short preaching tours. Many instances have been mentioned, some by Catechists, of men who have openly confessed their faith, yet cannot make up their mind to be baptized; still I am thankful to say that one of them has at last done so. He is a Sonar or goldsmith, and an inhabitant of Bulandshahar, and has been first an inquirer, and then a believer in Christ, for many years. When I first visited Bulandshahar in 1864, he was already fully convinced of the truth of Christianity, but only this year (in May) I have been able to persuade him to take the last and important step.

MÎRAT, IKLA, AND DEHRA DHÛN.

An out-station formerly attached to this district (Bulandshahar) is now attached to ALIGARH. The remainder of the district is divided into two parts: (1) Annfield, or DEHRA DHÛN, which is under the care of the Rev. C. T. Hoernle; and (2) MÎRAT and IKLA, under the care of Mr. Hoernle's son, the Rev. Hermann Hoernle.

Annfield is the name of a Christian settlement formed in the years 1857-58 by the late Major Rind, in conjunction with Mr. Sloggett, then Chaplain at Mîrat, and Mr. Lamb, the Society's Missionary at that station. It is situated in the DEHRA DHÛN, a valley between the Ganges and the Jumna, near the Himalayas, not far from the town of Hardwar. The Native Christians here are under the care of a Native Pastor, the Rev. J. Richards, ordained at Mussoorie by the Bishop of Calcutta, on the 4th of August, 1874. Mr. Hoernle, sen., still watches over the flock, and combines with this duty the superintendence of evangelistic work in the neighbourhood, particularly in a small territory to the westward, governed by a Native Raja, and among the Pahâris (hill tribes) near Landour and Mussoorie.

In the Rev. H. Hoernle's district the Native Christians consist chiefly of congregations ministered to by Native Pastors, the Rev. F. Abel at MÎRAT and the Rev. D. Jeremy at IKLA. These two brethren are connected with a Church Council, of which Mr. H. Hoernle is Chairman. For the benefit of the rising generation in the Native Church,

Mr. H. Hoernle has wisely resolved to have a boarding house at Mîrat, where, for a moderate charge, children of leading Native Christians from different parts of the district may be properly cared for while attending the Mission Day School.—Preaching to the heathen has been regularly carried on. In this branch the prospects seem to Mr. Hoernle more favourable in the villages than in the towns. Three Catechists have been specially set apart for village work. Mr. Hoernle, and (in vacation time) Mr. Zenker, the European schoolmaster, take their part in it.—In the Schools nearly 400 children are under instruction, of whom one-fourth are of Christian parentage. Government aid is bestowed less liberally than in former years.

KÔTGUR.

The Rev. W. Rebsch is still the Missionary at this Station. The new church lately opened "has made a good impression," Mr. Rebsch observes, both upon the Native Christians and upon the heathen. Of the latter some always drop in while service is going on. Mr. Rebsch has frequently had the happiness to see the truths of the Gospel "eagerly listened to" by both Christians and heathen. The Schools, seven in number, go on quietly, and sow the good seed in the hearts and memories of nearly 145 children, the majority of whom are of heathen parentage.

The well-known sanatorium, Simla, is a Missionary out-station from Kôtgur. Mr. Rebsch's account of his work there, contains the following interesting passages :—

In Simla I became acquainted with some educated Hindus who have been reading our Scriptures and other Christian books of Fletcher &c., with evident delight. They visited me several times for advice and explanations of what they had read. The doctrines and parables of our Saviour pleased them much ; but to accept free pardon of their sin on account of the offering of Christ for us was too hard as yet for them to believe, especially to one of their party. They also could not overcome the fear of man to join our Sunday services at church, although they promised to come. None of them, however, appears to have any faith in idolatry. I advised them to pray to God through Christ for light and grace to serve Him in sincerity and truth.—We found here the words of our blessed Redeemer verified, Matt. xi. 25, 26, and St. Paul's to the Corinthians (i. 26). These hung back, but others came forward and received baptism. The latter are not persons of much learning, but appear to be sincere, and did not find so much difficulty in believing, as their more learned brethren mentioned above. Our Simla congregation has now increased to some forty souls. They feel the want of a Native Pastor, especially during our absence ; till now one of the members has kindly undertaken to read the service on Sunday, and visit the Christians in their houses ; he has also arranged prayer-meetings in different families by turns, and has made collections for Mission purposes. Occasionally, too, he takes part in preaching to the heathen. This he has been doing quietly for some years, and all gratuitously, as he enjoys a good salary for his services in a large business house in Simla. Very encouraging it is that Archdeacon Baly has taken great interest during his stay in Simla in this congregation by giving them regularly a service on Sunday, and looking after the welfare of the Christians in different ways.

The statistics for Kôtgur and Simla combined are, Native Christians 53, Communicants 24, Adult Baptisms 6.

KANGRA.

The Annual Letter from Kangra for 1874 was written by Mrs. Merk. Its opening sentences, which will be read with mingled feelings of sorrow and thankfulness, explain why this is the case. Mrs. Merk writes:—

You know, probably, that he to whom your letter of September 11th is addressed, and who ought to have filled this sheet, has been called from and in the midst of his labours to enter into the joy of his Heavenly Master. Having been faithful over little, he has no doubt been set over much, and I feel sure he is now allowed to rejoice over many a precious fruit of the good seed he so patiently and faithfully sowed for twenty years in this district. During his illness heathens and Mohammedans came from near and far to inquire after him, and to be allowed to look on his face once more. The civil engineer of this district, who was marching about at that time, told me that never had he seen such concern and regret shown by Natives as they expressed for him, who had visited them regularly year after year, and won their hearts by his earnest words and kindly manner. "He was a righteous man, a man of God; we shall never see another Sahib like him," are some of their expressions. The highest Native official of Kangra, a Hindu, told my daughter that the peaceful, happy expression on her dead father's face was caused by the Spirit of God, Who had dwelt in him, shedding His glory on it! Our Native Christians mourned and wept for him like children for a father; they had frequently come up to Dharmsala to be near him and to help me to nurse him; and when he was dead, they did not leave his remains until they could accompany them to their last resting-place. When I came down, they begged me to accept £5 5*s*. (a large sum for the few families, who have not much) as their contribution towards a monument to be put on my dear husband's grave. Some English friends here wish to bear the rest of the expense as a sign of their regard for him. I cannot but feel grateful to our Native Christians for the affectionate kindness with which they try to lighten my burden in every way; and they work earnestly and faithfully at their different posts.

Affection and respect of heathen and Native Christians for a departed Missionary.

The Native Christians at Kangra number forty; of whom twenty-three are Communicants. No adults were baptized during the year.

AMRITSAR.

The Missionaries at this Station during the year reported of were the Rev. Robert Clark, the Rev. R. Bateman, the Rev. F. H. Baring, and during part of the year the Rev. B. H. Skelton, subsequently transferred to Azimghar. To these may be added Mrs. Elmslie, and two other ladies connected with the Indian Female Instruction Society, whose expenses are borne by the C.M.S. There are also two Native Clergymen, the Rev. Imad-ud-Dîn, and the Rev. Dâûd Singh. The Native Christians are 250 in number; 82 of these are Communicants. The local printed Report of this Mission gives its history during the year ending Sept. 30, 1874. Extracts from that Report are subjoined :—

In the Amritsar congregation the past year has been one of sifting. Two families who were discontented with a decision which had been given by the Local Church Council, respecting a point of morality in one of their members, left the Church of Christ, and the Saviour whom they had long owned with their lips, and became Mohammedans. Another family, baptized in Amritsar, in January, 1868, and of whom at one time good hopes were entertained, have also severed themselves from Christ, and have apostatized. The sifting process has been going on in the Amritsar Church in many other ways. There has been a manifestation and conviction of weakness in many minds ; and temptations to disunion and estrangement of heart amongst brethren, have been frequently experienced. The amount collected during the year from Natives in connexion with the Local Church Fund, which in 1860 was Rs. 37, has in 1874, reached to Rs.832.—The Church services have been carried on during the year as usual both in the church and in the Mission room. These services still continue to be well attended by a number of Native Hindu and Mohammedan visitors, some of whom appear to be regular in their attendance, and to listen to God's Word with much reverence and attention. One of them once told the writer that he could never hear the church bell, without feeling in his heart, that he must at once leave his work, whatever it was that he was engaged in, and go to church, to worship God and hear His Holy Word.

There have been thirty-one baptisms during the past year in Amritsar and its branch stations, of which fourteen have been of adults. One of these baptisms is that of a Sikh Lambardar (or village fiscal headman), who, in his village of Uddoki, five miles beyond Batala, has been for some twelve years earnestly seeking God's way of truth. He is known in the whole country around as an honest, earnest man who is seeking after God. Another is that of a Native lady, the wife of a Christian of independent circumstances, who by his own talents, and by means of the excellent education which he received in the Local Mission School from which he was baptized, has risen to the influential position of a Native Christian Pleader in the courts. Few Englishmen have any idea of what our native brethren give up, or of the dangers and trials which they incur, when they embrace Christianity. In the present case, the usual troubles immediately followed the Christian man's baptism. There were long weeks and months of trial and anguish. At last the dim light of earthly hope appeared, which grew brighter and brighter till it became absorbed into day. Short interviews between husband and wife were followed by longer ones. The barrier was then burst through, and wife and children were again seen in the husband's and father's home. The earthly light grew gradually into heavenly light, and after years of patient and prayerful waiting, God's blessing has this year crowned the work with a perfect union of hearts, as well as of lives, for the next world, we trust, as well as this. The wife by her own desire has become a Christian, and is now a light and a blessing in a Christian home.

A convert regains his lost wife.

Notwithstanding every trial and anxiety, there, perhaps, has never been known in Amritsar a time when there has been such great encouragement as during the past year. A change is evidently coming over many minds. Many thoughtful and well-educated men are carefully considering their religious position as Hindus and Mohammedans and Sikhs, which is now a very different one to what it was in the days of their ignorance. Amongst the leaders of the old religions, there is arising a dread of the new religion of Jesus Christ; the arguments of which none can answer; and which, in spite of every opposition and difficulty still marches silently and steadily on. There is no stagnation in religious matters in Amritsar now as there was a few years ago. Christianity is beginning to be recognized as a power in the country, a power which they can see is working; and the results of the influences of which they feel that only time can tell.

Encouraging prospects at Amritsar.

The Nârowâl Mission, a branch from Amritsar, has been conducted by Mr. Bateman, who, reporting from the same period, October, 1873, to 30th September, 1874, has written a most interesting Report, from which the following are illustrative extracts:—

From November to February I was itinerating pretty regularly. Since March I have been mainly in Nârowâl, running off once a month or oftener to Ambala and Amritsar or Madhopore. My itinerations, in fact, generally consisted of marching from one Mission point to another, preaching in the towns and villages on the way. I tried to spend Sunday with Christians or inquirers, and thus to combine something of the pastoral with my evangelistic work. In one town which I frequently visit several leading men welcome me, and hear and read a good deal. One of them, pointing to a Catechist I had with me, said, "I turned that man out of the town ten years ago, and insulted the Missionary (Mr. Brown) with whom he came, but now I wish a Missionary lived here. You don't come often enough. We are very rough, and your company has the same effect on us as emery powder on steel."

As stated above, most of my time has been spent at Nârowâl this year—at first, because the head master was away on three months' leave, studying at the Divinity School at Lahore, and afterwards, because I was superintending the building of a church. But I was most tightly tied to the place by my anxiety about the young inquirers whom I mentioned in my last Report. Of these, four have been baptized during the year.—The baptism of the first took place on Advent Sunday, earlier than it would otherwise have done, in consequence of the death of his mother. Though he was of full age (sixteen), I was willing that he should be further tried by her threats and entreaties ; but when she was gone, and the lad left to the brutal violence of an elder brother, I saw no cause for further delay. He is now a domestic servant to the head master, and goes to school.—The second was that of a boy who used to come to this school from a village on the Ravi. Early last year a boy was baptized who lived in a village through which he had to pass daily. When we went to preach there we were soon surrounded by an angry crowd. Other inquiring lads forsook us and fled. He stood by us. In consequence, he was forbidden to pass through the village, and soon after was removed from school, and so all connexion with Nârowâl cut off, and he could only see me by managing to be in the boat when I crossed the river at his village ferry. In this way he was strengthened from time to time. At the end of six months he got his parents' consent to go to Amritsar. He got plenty of teaching there, and was baptized at Easter. He is a very simple, strong believer, and frequently visits his parents and friends, and tries to show them what he has found. The villagers are very angry with me, as the boy was a favourite.—The third is a young Hindu of good family who nearly two years ago was taken away from the top of the school because he showed signs of becoming a Christian. Soon after this his father died. He promised his mother to perform the funeral rites; these lasted for a year; the year ended, and he shook himself free. I sent him as a teacher to Ambala, and there, leaving mother, wife, and child, he was baptized in June. Two months later he came to Nârowâl on a visit, and was persuaded to remain in his village and to refrain from eating with Christians. I tried in every way to see him and get him back, but in vain. He seemed spell-bound, and wrote to say he was crazy, warning me at the same time not to go to his village, as the people meant mischief. I went at once, but was again unable to see him. I took an early opportunity of calling the clan together, and asked them why they forcibly kept a young Christian among them? They said they intended to receive him again into caste, as he had not eaten or drunk with Christians. I said, "Call him up and ask him." So the question was put. He said he had eaten with Christians, and had told them so before. Throwing up their hands they exclaimed, "Enough! it is all over with him then;" and surrendered him to my care.—The fourth is one of the two boys mentioned in the last Report as wishing to be baptized, but forcibly carried off from the Mission compound by a Mohammedan mob. I will briefly repeat the story. In 1872, H. and J., aged fifteen or fifteen and a half, were notable among the rest as confessors of Christ. They took every opportunity of meeting their teacher for reading and prayer. They were removed from school in consequence in June, 1873. In July they wrote to me, asking me to receive and baptize them. I was ill in Madhopore at the time, and could not go to the scene of action, but I wrote to them to wait till they were sixteen, and on further pressure I promised to baptize them in October if they still wished it. The hope of baptism so elated them that their parents, taking fright, began to try and beat Christianity out of them. In consequence, they unadvisedly took refuge with their teacher. When threats and promises, prayers and curses, had failed to rouse cupidity or fear, they were violently carried away with the connivance of the police. On inquiry by the Tahsildar it was proved to his satisfaction that no violence had occurred, and that the boys were Mohammedans of their own free will, and to declare this they were sent to the Deputy-Commissioner of Sialkot. Up to the door of his house they were pursued by the threats of their parents, who both happen to be very violent men. Sitting down there they held a final consultation. J. was for confessing and claiming protection. H. urged delay, asking what was the use of having bloodshed. So they told the Deputy-Commissioner that they would remain Mohammedans for the present, and returned to Nârowâl. H., who suffered far the most, has never spoken to me or looked me in the face since, and is admitted on all hands to have lost the purity and truth which had long characterized him. J. at once sent me word that he would come out as soon as I came to help him. I met him in November, and told him that he must be tried for a year, as so soon after his denial before the Deputy Commissioner no magistrate would believe that he knew his own mind. The year passed very slowly with him. . . . . On the morning of the appointed day, he came to my room, and told me quite quietly he was ready to leave everything in order to gain the salvation which Christianity offered. He then declared before everybody that he had for two years wished to be a Christian, and now claimed the right to take his own course. His father at once disowned him, and told him never to darken his door again. I told his parents that they were at liberty to use all means, violence excepted, to alter his determination, and that I would not hurry the case. But they said, "We have been trying for a year and he has not listened to us, what can we do in two or three days?" This took place on the same day and the same occasion as the rescue of No. 3 mentioned above. Then those who had houses to go to went to them, but these two youths, who half an hour before had parents, wives, children, brothers, sisters, houses and lands, stayed behind as houseless outcasts, choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season, and late into the night I heard them with the other Christians singing and giving thanks to God for their deliverance. Thus ended August 20th, 1874, a day to which I had long anxiously looked forward, and on which many friends in India and England were praying for the young confessor. I took him before the officiating Deputy-Commissioner of Sialkot, who declared him of sufficient age and understanding to choose his own religion. On the 26th he was baptized in Nârowâl. To the question, "Wilt thou be baptized in this faith?" he said, "For two years past this has been my desire."

Mrs. Elmslie, whose husband's memory will ever be fresh in the Pânjab Mission, has charge of the Amritsar Orphanage. Institutions of this kind are not supported by the Society, though the services of its agents are willingly lent to watch over the children and give them religious instruction. Mrs. Elmslie translates for the use of the elder boys and girls Mr. Eugene Stock's "Lessons from the Life of Our Lord." The Native Christian women also receive her aid and sympathy.

LAHORE.

The Native Christian Congregations are three in number, one at Lahore itself, another at Shadra, on the other side of the river Ravi, and the third of Native Christian soldiers at Mian Mir. They comprise altogether 253 Native Christians. The congregation in the Lahore bazaar has for its pastor the Rev. James Kadshu, who in the absence of a Native Council is subordinated to the Rev. T. R. Wade. Mr. Wade speaks of the congregation, which numbers, on Sunday morning, about sixty persons, as presenting much encouragement. One Mohammedan, who has recently been much persecuted, was baptized by Mr. Kadshu towards the close of the year. Mr. Kadshu is also the President of a Native Christian Evangelistic Society, containing above 115 members. It embraces for the present the two objects of relieving pecuniary distress, and of preaching the Gospel to the heathen. There may be special reasons for this unusual combination; and, certainly it is matter for thanksgiving to God when Native Christians are drawn together, and when they acknowledge themselves as debtors to preach the Gospel to their heathen countrymen.

The Missionaries employed in the DIVINITY SCHOOL are at present, the Rev. William Hooper, the Rev. T. R. Wade, and the Rev. F. A. P. Shirreff. The number of students was by the latest intelligence 14, not including four medical students. The following is a compilation from an account given of the College by Mr. Hooper in the Calcutta Christian Intelligencer, for March, 1875:—

The course extends over three years; but students may be admitted for a less time, if circumstances render it necessary. The scholarships given to students are Rs. 8 if single, and Rs. 12 if married. Anything that students receive over and above this must come from other sources than the college. Students are allowed to make their own arrangements about this; and as a mere matter of convenience the Principal will transmit the money to them; but he is not in any degree responsible for it. In cases of large families or other exceptional necessity, the Mission which sends the student is recommended to make an additional allowance of three Rupees monthly; but a larger allowance than this is deprecated. There are three terms in the year, viz., from 1st October to just after New Year's Day; from about the 20th of January to about the middle of April; and from the end of April to the end of June. Students are at liberty to stay in the college during the two shorter vacations; but during the long vacation of July, August, and September, it is desired that they return to their respective stations. If this is impossible, the Principal makes the best arrangements he can for them, but he does not feel responsible for them then in the same way as he does during the other nine months. The college does not pay the travelling expenses of students in coming; but it undertakes to send them to their destinations when they finally leave, if they leave with the consent of the Principal. Every student is a probationer during his first term. Students are received at the beginning of any term, but it is preferred that they come first at the beginning of October if possible. Students must be able to read and write one vernacular well; must have a general acquaintance with Biblical history and doctrine; and must have a recommendation from a Missionary or Native Pastor, or some other trustworthy Christian. No one should think of sending a student unless he firmly believes him to be a partaker of the new life in Christ

Regulations for admission and residence at the Lahore Divinity School.

In Biblical Exegesis Mr. Wade has been teaching the minor Prophets and the two Epistles to the Corinthians and that to the Galatians, and I have been taking them in Leviticus and the Acts. To each of these four subjects three hours a week have been given. I have continued to give one hour a week besides to the Psalms, and this has been much appreciated. In the department of Pastoral Theology I felt the importance of a good foundation being laid in an accurate knowledge of the Pastoral Epistles of the New Testament, and therefore added this also to the Biblical Exegesis, one hour a week. The Church History taught this term has been the constitution, ceremonies, and life of the Church in Neander's first period, i. e. up to Constantine. It is pleasant sometimes to retire into the more inward life of the Church, away from the wranglings of opposite opinions, and even its contentions for the truth. In Dogmatics I thought we should be able to go through Martensen's work, but not much more than half has been accomplished. But I am not surprised at this: the thoughts, many of them at least, were so new and so profound, that it was necessary to allow the students to ask questions to a great extent, in order to be sure that they understood what was meant. But the thoughts are such as will, I believe, if really mastered, be of the greatest use to those who have to be advocates of Christ's truth to the rising generation of Indians. For the Pantheistic wave (with its Deistic tributary) which has swept over intellectual Europe, as it is mainly the offspring of the discovery by Europeans of the religious treasures of the East, so is it coming back again to India with all the prestige of European patronage and interpretation. And therefore our old English and American manuals of Christian doctrine, valuable though they are, yet fail, I think, to furnish the divinity student of the present day with the armour necessary for his new position. I have not forgotten, however, that Mr. French, while recording in the Logbook of the College that Bishop Ellicott recommended Martensen, added "cum grano salis;" and consequently the latter part, which chiefly deals with the Sacraments in a Lutheran sense, will not occupy us as long as the first has done. Mr. Wade has given two hours a week to teaching "Paley's Natural Theology" (which has very much interested the students), one hour to logic, and one to geography. Deuteronomy and St. Mark have been the subjects of exposition at ordinary morning prayers; and in weekday chapel, the parables and Psalm cxix. have been slowly proceeded with. We thus try in the course of time, and in one way or another, to bring before the students the whole of God's revealed Word. Every student writes a sermon once a fortnight, the looking over of which with him alone gives a good opportunity of private conversation; we have continued the two evening meetings in the week, one for conversation on Scripture, the other for Missionary information. At the latter I have been giving a history of the West Africa, and Mr. Wade of the British Columbia Mission. In order to stimulate them to take a lively interest in their brethren of other lands, and to provide a practical outlet for the emotions raised by the hearing of them, I am determined that the offertories in chapel shall, for some time at least, be accumulated for some distant object; and have fixed upon Bishop Crowther as the recipient of the first aggregate of Rs. 100 or 150. We have both also often taken them for walks singly, and this has given us an opportunity of becoming acquainted with their minds and hearts, which would otherwise be almost impossible. My general practice has been to take one with me to a village, which has given opportunity of a little work together as well. But when, as sometimes happens, the time does not allow us to reach a village (as they are so few and far between), we do not feel that we have come out in vain, for the conversation on the road has been our principal object. Besides this, we each as a rule take two students with us one day in the week to one of the gates of the city. This has often afforded occasion for correcting faults, whether of matter or of manner, which the students had adopted.

Mr. Hooper has prepared and printed a Hindi Greek Grammar, and is now contemplating an Urdu Hebrew Grammar. Mr. Wade writes:—

Interest felt by Indian Divinity Students in the work of Messrs. Moody and Sankey.

We have all been much interested out here with the accounts of the revival work going on at home, especially that in connexion with Messrs. Moody and Sankey. During one of our evening prayer-meetings I was giving some little account of this work in Scotland and Ireland, and I especially dwelt upon the wonderful power of prayer, and the way in which blessings always succeed prayer. The students afterwards held a meeting amongst themselves, and arranged that there should be a prayer-meeting every day at noon in the little room which has been set apart for that purpose, and a general prayer-meeting every Saturday night at 7.30 o'clock. At these meetings, which they manage entirely themselves, portions of Scripture are read, hymns sung, and prayers offered. They acknowledge themselves that these little gatherings for prayer have already helped to increase Christian fellowship and love amongst them. I trust also that greater blessings will follow.

The Rev. G. M. Gordon has sent a most interesting account of his work in the JHELUM ITINERANCY. Pind Dâdan Khan, its largest town, is his head-quarters. The district has not before been trodden by the Evangelist; and it will form a link between the Missions of Lahore, Mûltân, Derajat, and Peshâwar. "The villagers," writes Mr. Gordon, "are a great mixture of Hindus, Sikhs, and Mohammedans, bound together by sympathy of race, amid much diversity of creed." There is not much bigotry amongst them, and they show, at present, great willingness to listen to Christ's messengers. The Hindus here seem almost ashamed of their idolatry, and though the Missionary meets with opposition from some of the Mohammedan Maulavis, yet even among this class there are some whom he regards as "men of devout minds and true seekers after God."

In Mr. Hooper's Half-yearly Journal, dated April 20th, 1875, he speaks with much joy of several inquirers, one of whom was baptized on Easter Sunday. The details of two of these cases may (if it please GOD) fill some very interesting pages in the next year's Report.

DERA ISMAEL KHAN.

The Rev. W. Thwaites gives the following deeply interesting account of the work of God in the Mission English School:—

Remarkable conversions in a Mission English School.

In the beginning of the year some excitement began to show itself in the school about some boys who were interested more than usual in the Gospel: about seven or eight were inquiring very diligently and intelligently; this soon became known to their friends, and a course of opposition was entered upon. Early in February the protection of the Mission was sought by a Hindu boy named Khéma, aged about sixteen. He came here about four o'clock in the morning as a fugitive; he had been beaten with a stick, the marks of which were on his body; and to prevent his running off heated oil had been put on his feet. When this became known in the city there was great excitement, crowds collected about the school and boys were stopped on their way to it. No violence, however, was attempted. A complaint was made to the Deputy Commissioner, and I was summoned to appear in Court to show why I had taken the boy from the care of his lawful guardians. A local friend kindly sent me the following extract from the Civil code:—"When a child appears to be of mature and competent understanding and a free moral agent, then he is at liberty to make an election with regard to place of abode, mode of life, or religious persuasion, notwithstanding the opposition of parent or guardian." All that the judge, therefore, had to do, when the case came on for trial, was to find out whether the boy was a free moral agent, and capable of giving a reason for his change. When this was ascertained, he decided in favour of the boy. And on the 22nd of February Khêma was baptized. On the 28th of the same month two more boys escaped from their homes, for there had been men set to watch that they did not get away. This time I did not wait for the trial, but baptized them on the 8th of March, while Mr. Brodie was here on his way home, and Mr. Mayer also here on his way to take Mr. Brodie's place at Banu. I was summoned on account of both boys on the 27th of March, on a charge of kidnapping. About one of them there was no doubt; he was a youth of eighteen, and it was at once decided in his favour; the other was thirteen or fourteen, and the judge seemed to have some doubt as to his being a free moral agent. The boy was very earnest, and had learned to put his trust in God for help. He was enabled to answer boldly and without fear; indeed I think the youngest of the three seemed to give the best account of himself; his case was deferred to another day, but when he appeared in Court again there was no complainant, and the boy was given his freedom. Thus all three boys by the grace of God were enabled to give a reasonable account of themselves. Harder for them to bear than this trial in Court was the persuasion of their friends; for I allowed them free access to them, and let them try the full power of their persuasions and tears. The struggle between natural ties and spiritual was very painful. However, they stood firm, and have remained so ever since. One of them is at the Normal School in Amritsar, another is at Banu with Mr. Mayer learning to be a carpenter, and the third is with me still studying in the school. I hope, God willing, to be enabled to get the last educated as a Doctor, so that he may assist in the Tank Medical Mission. . . . . The opposition to the school still goes on. The numbers at the beginning of the year were 347 on the books, three Christians, 252 Hindus, and 92 Mahommedans; average daily attendance 227. Now (November) there are four Christians, 85 Hindus, and 117 Mahommedans, in all 206 on the books; average daily attendance 152. The rest of the boys who were searching after truth have been dispersed by being sent to villages at a distance; but I hope to meet with some of them in a preaching tour I intend to make in February. The prayers of the Church have been answered here, and I trust will be answered more abundantly.

Tank.

The Rev. J. Williams, a Native Minister, is the Society's Agent at this place. There being no Native Church Council with which he can be connected, he is subordinated to Mr. Thwaites, of Dera Ismael Khan, who speaks of him as a kind-hearted man and an earnest Christian Minister. No adult baptisms have taken place here; but there are many earnest inquirers.

BANU (BUNNOO).

The Rev. T. J. L. Mayer is the Missionary of this distant outpost. Mr. Mayer has been much distressed at the conduct of the nominal Christians, and has acted so decisively in cleansing the Church of spurious professors that the number on the list was diminished from ten to one. Of this (at one time solitary) Native brother (referred to above in the Report for Dera Ismael Khan) Mr. Mayer speaks with satisfaction. In a later Report Mr. Mayer speaks of the number of Native Christians at Banu as five, besides three in the district. No Native Christian agent was at that time associated with the Missionary. Being without a head-master, Mr. Mayer's time has been much absorbed with the school, where eighty boys are receiving instruction. Twenty-five of this number are Pathans (Affghans), who attend with regularity, and show considerable thirst for knowledge. This class of the population have hitherto been very indifferent about the education of their children. Several of the Maulavis and leading Native gentry now send their sons to the Mission School. The sale of Scriptures has also wonderfully increased. No adults have been baptized during the year, but Mr. Mayer believes the Mohammedan population will be accessible as soon as he has adequately mastered their vernacular (Pushtu). "There is among Mohammedans here," he writes, "a very kindly feeling towards true Christianity. In the midst of a population as bigoted and ignorant as it is possible for men to be, I can truly say I have met with much kindness, politeness, and attentive listening." Mr. Mayer has also received much kindness and help from British residents, both among the Civil Service and the military. The three Christians in the district are the household of Abdul Masih (mentioned in the Reports for 1871–2, and 1873–4), who resides in his own village of Esâ Kheyl. He has again been suffering persecution from his neighbours, which Mr. Mayer thus describes:—

Persecution, steadfastness, and preservation of a Native Christian household in the extreme north-west of India.

> They tried to wrest his fields from him, they cut off the water from his crops, and they lately burnt his house to the ground, but in the providence of God he escaped with his family unhurt. They lit his house from the front, and put thorns in front of his door; but this their pit was his safety, for the door, being dry, burnt fast, and he was enabled to break down the charred wood and get his people and his cattle out of the fire. He saved nothing but his bed and coverlets. All his Bibles and books were burnt. I have just sent him out a fresh stock. Thanks to the British Government and to the prompt measures of those who administer justice here, the village where he resides has been taught a lesson of religious toleration, and he has now as good, if not a better, house than he had before.

The Rev. G. M. Gordon, in his itinerations from Lahore, unexpectedly to himself, fell in with the same Christian household. He refers to the incident as follows:—

> Oh that there were more instances of a fearless, independent testimony such as I witnessed on a recent tour in which I was joined by Mr. Shirreff! We had wandered across the Indus, far beyond my usual limits; but we were well repaid by the surprise and pleasure of finding a Native Christian family far removed from all helpful influences, and yet maintaining a faithful witness before relatives and neighbours to the truth which they had embraced from the lips of an itinerant Missionary—thus furnishing the true solution of one of those questions which often cause us anxiety. For here was a man of good family and property, who in times of heaviest loss and persecution for conscience' sake had not left his village to take refuge in a Mission, but had manfully endured the malice of enemies and the scorn of kinsmen, and won the confidence and regard of inquirers, who were coming to him for instruction. His story is told in Mr. Brodie's Reports more fully than his own modesty would allow him to rehearse it to us. Our brief intercourse was a source of mutual help and refreshment.

MÛLTÂN.

Mr. W. Briggs (an unordained Agent) is the solitary European Missionary at this place. One adult has been baptized during the year, of whose conversion Mr. Briggs's Annual Letter gives no particulars. Mr. Briggs is assisted by six Native Christian teachers. In the schools there are 509 scholars, of whom 80 are girls. The following passage from Mr. Briggs's Annual Letter illustrates the reception given by Mohammedans to the public preaching of the Gospel:—

Bazaár preaching has been carried on daily during the year, for the most part in Mûltân itself. Most of the towns—and religious gatherings (melas) held near Mûltân—have been visited during the year, some of the towns several times over. There has been less opposition experienced than in previous years; nay, sometimes the Word has been heard gladly, especially in the neighbouring towns, though no visible results in the shape of professed inquirers have been seen. That the Word preached has not been without effect the following incident will show. While preaching in the city one evening last summer to a very quiet and attentive congregation, a Maulavi came up in a very excited state and said to the people, "For God's sake! leave this place." "Why?" said they. "He is not telling us anything bad; why should we go away?" More excited than ever, he said, "If you don't want to lose your faith, for God's sake go away! Several evenings I came here and heard the preaching till I began to doubt and feel uneasy in my mind, and at last my faith was nearly gone." Alas! it is only too true that many are convicted by the Word of God, and then succeed in stifling conviction.

A Maulavi fearing to be convinced.

Mr. Briggs also justly regards it as a hopeful sign that a larger number of Gospels and religious books and tracts have been sold this year than in any previous one.

PESHÂWAR.

The following succinct review of the year in this Mission is extracted from the Peshâwar Local Report:—

During the past year the Evangelistic operations have been directed by the Rev. T. P. Hughes, assisted by the Rev. Imâm Shah and the Affghan teacher, Syud Shah; and the Educational institutions have been superintended by the Rev. W. Jukes, assisted by the Christian head master, Babu U. C. Ghose. Babu Sohan Lall has also kindly continued his gratuitous services at Abbottabad as Honorary Catechist.

The Native Church consists of ninety-five souls, of whom sixty-eight are adults, and thirty-two are Communicants. During the year there have been two adult baptisms of converts from Mohammedanism, and five infant baptisms. The contributions of the Native Church have been Rs. 114. This fund is managed entirely by the Native Christian Committee, and is applied to the relief of Christian poor and Church expenses. There is also a circulating library of about 200 volumes (Vernacular and English) for the use of the Native congregation. The Evangelistic operations of the Mission consist of bazaar preaching, itinerations in the district, conversations at the Mission house, and the distribution of Christian books. The bazaar preaching is carried on by the Rev. Imam Shah and his Affghan assistant, and is such as to put to the severest test even the patience of our most patient Native clergymen. There is, however, a marked improvement in the behaviour of the people, and very often attentive audiences are secured. Several of the chiefs have not only received the Missionary with hospitality, but have given him opportunities of holding discussions with the Maulavis; and not unfrequently he has been taken by the leading chief of the village to the Mosque for the purpose of religious inquiry and discussion. The conversations at the Mission house with our numerous Affghan visitors and guests are among the most interesting and encouraging features of our work, for it is then that the clouds of ignorance and prejudice which overshadow the mind of the stranger are speedily removed by the warmth of social intercourse. We have seen the most bigoted opponents of our preaching in the bazaar become the attentive listeners to the Gospel plan of salvation when set before them by the Missionary in his study or within the walls of the Mission library. May the Spirit of power and grace grant His blessing upon the words spoken in much weakness! The Mission Schools are five in number. The number of pupils on the rolls is 526, including 100 girls. The Girls' Schools and the Zenana classes are under the management of Miss Hughes, who is assisted by six Native Christian female teachers. In the schools and Zenana classes instruction is given in the Holy Scriptures in Persian and Urdu, reading and writing, the simple rules of arithmetic, the elements of geography, and in sewing and embroidery, the latter being the usual employment of Native ladies in the city of Peshâwar. In the Boys' Schools, which are superintended by Mr. Jukes, 586 rupees have been collected in fees, which is an increase on former years. Two of the pupils have passed the Calcutta University entrance examination. The Scriptural instruction is imparted by Christian teachers only.—The cheapness of lithographic printing, whilst it has enabled the Missionary to publish Christian works with facility, has also placed an immense power in the hands of our religious opponents. Anti-Christian works are widely circulated.

In a written communication Mr. Hughes observes:—

There is an increasing desire on the part of English authors to present Islamism to the literary world in fairer proportions than has been usual amongst Christian polemical writers. This view has already been made the most of by Mohammedan writers such as Syud Ahmad Khan and his son; and it has somewhat shifted the point of attack. Syud Ahmad is trying by means of his English publications to raise what must be called a Broad Church School of Mohammedanism, which no more represents Islamism than the Broad Church School of thought does orthodox Christianity. But as English education increases amongst Mohammedans, we must expect that "popular Mohammedanism" will assume this new character. How far such a movement will be a gain to our side of the controversy remains to be seen. I have been surprised to see that many learned writers at home regard this "advanced school of thought" amongst Moslems as synonymous with Wahabyism; Wahabyism being a revival of the literal teaching of the Koran and the traditions of Mohammed, whilst the school of thought, which is led by Syud Ahmad, and Syud Amîr Ali, is an attempt to adapt the teaching of Mohammed to the spirit of the age. I believe, however, that Islamism was too indelibly stereotyped by its Founder to admit of this adaptation; and the character of the attempt is but too evident in the "Life of Mohammed" by Syud Amîr Ali, when he endeavours to prove that "slavery is abhorrent to Islam."

New phase of Mohammedanism.

KASHMIR.

Dr. Maxwell, successor to the late lamented Dr. Elmslie, reached Srinagar on the 1st of May, accompanied by Mr. Clark, of Amritsar. On the journey from Amritsar, at Jamu (Jummoo), they visited the Maharajah, who received them courteously. Permission to obtain a house suitable as a winter residence not having been obtained, Dr. Maxwell left Srinagar on the 18th of September. The total number of patients attended to was 1924; to all of whom the Gospel was preached. Dr. Maxwell writes:—

Before commencing the work of the day the patients were addressed by one of the Catechists, and occasionally by Mr. Clark. These addresses were usually in Kashmiri, but sometimes in Hindustani, some of the patients understanding one or other language only, while a fair number are acquainted with both. Women come nearly in as great numbers as men. Towards the end of the season I generally saw from 130 to 160 in a morning. I was able to rent part of a native hut close by as a hospital. No opposition was raised to my medical proceedings on the part of the authorities, and I was on good terms with the Maharajah's doctor, a Bengali, who readily admitted that there need be no opposition between us, as there would be plenty of work for both. Several of my patients, Kashmiris and Dogras, were in the habit of coming to the good old Catechist, whose tent was close to the dispensary one, and listening to his reading and expounding, while they were waiting their turns to see me. One of my servants, a Panjabi, was at his urgent request baptized by Mr. Clark, of Srinagar. The Mission Chaprassi (messenger) Prabhu Dyal, who was baptized in Amritsar last March, after having been an inquirer for twelve years, and being finally decided to come out boldly by a sermon of Mr. French's, is a most hopeful Christian, and I trust will be of great use in Kashmir.

MADRAS AND SOUTH-INDIA MISSION.

I. Madras, commenced 1814; II. Travancore and Cochin, 1816; III. Tinnevelly, 1817; IV. Telugu Mission, 1841.

THE statistical returns for South India show an increase from 11,641 to 12,540 in the Communicants, and from 59,291 baptized and Catechumens to 61,432.

I. Madras.

Native Church.

The Madras Native Church Council (which represents two pastorates in that city, designated respectively as the Southern and the Northern) has just drawn up its Seventh Report. From 1868 to 1874 the baptized have increased from 561 to 788, and the Communicants from 259 to 370. The Native contributions for 1874 amounted to upwards of 1270 rupees; while the grant from the Society was 1800 rupees, being just half of what it was seven years ago.

The Southern Pastorate (Rev. W. T. Satthianâdan) has been graciously prospered during the year. Its statistics are as follows:—baptized, 297; unbaptized, 8; Communicants, 131; adult baptisms during the year, 16; pecuniary contributions, Rs. 873: 7: 6. In his work among the heathen, which consists of open-air preaching, conversations in private houses, and lectures for the educated classes, Mr. Satthianâdan receives much help from the lay members of his congregation.—In the Northern Pastorate (Rev. V. Simeon) the Native Christians number 491; the Communicants are 239; and the adult baptisms have been twelve.

ITINERANCY OR PALÂVERAM DISTRICT.

The Rev. W. P. Schaffter is assisted in the charge of this work by a Native clergyman, the Rev. J. Cornelius. It contains two pastorates, Eastern and Western, each being looked after by a Head Catechist. The Eastern Pastorate comprises two congregations, and the Western three. The Native Christians number 569, of whom 246 are Communicants. A Native Church Committee has been formed, which seems likely to work well. The following extracts from Mr. Schaffter's Annual Letter will be read with interest:—

Progress in the Madras Itinerancy.

After some years of labour and patient waiting, there have been accessions from heathenism in this district in three places where Christianity had no footing at all till within the last two years. After much obstacle and great opposition I managed to settle a Catechist at Nukkampaliam. The result has been that in that neighbourhood, through the blessing of God, three adults and three children have become Christians. Of these, two have been baptized, but one has since died a happy death. There is another family who are expressing a desire to embrace Christianity, but have not as yet done so. Last Christmas twelvemonth I baptized the first Christian in Mílchíry. He had to encounter such cruel and continued opposition from his relatives that he was obliged to leave the place, and only returned to it after an absence of a year. His wife, who had been his greatest enemy, has lately come forward asking that she and her children might be baptized. In Sithikadu the Catechist laboured for more than two years without seeing any fruit of his labours. He began to feel disheartened; but at last to our great joy an old man was awakened to the reception of the truths of the Gospel, and though scoffed at and jeered by his relatives, was publicly baptized in Sithikadu itself. During the last six weeks the heart of the good Catechist has been again cheered by the son of the old man coming to him one day, and asking him to instruct him and his wife in the Gospel as they wished to be baptized also. The married daughter of the old man, and also her husband, who live in an adjoining village, are now showing a desire to become Christians.

From next year it is my intention to restrict my work entirely to those places where I have Catechists stationed. I shall, God willing, visit them in turn at their head quarters, pitch my tent in their village, and spend a week or a fortnight with them visiting all the villages which lie within a distance of four or five miles. By doing this I shall be able to get more intimately acquainted with the heathen, and to influence them more for God. But what is to become of the remainder of the heathen population in this collectorate I know not, unless the Committee send out additional labourers to preach to them.

Educational and Colportage.

The Rev. R. C. Macdonald, who labours in this department, reports as follows:—

We have in our Madras and Ootacamund Missions 34 schools, containing 1715 children, of whom 704 are girls. These children are taught by 77 teachers, 64 of them being Christians. About one fourth are under the direct management of the Rev. W. T. Satthianâdan. The remaining schools are under my entire supervision; 25 are in Madras, and number 1175 pupils. I am thankful to be able to report marked progress, both as regards numbers and efficiency. I am encouraged also in a spiritual point of view, having had the great pleasure two Sundays ago of baptizing in Mr. Satthianâdan's church a senior boy, aged eighteen. He owed all his religious impressions to the instruction he had received in the Royapetta school, in which he had risen from the lowest to the highest class. He was baptized by the name of Isaac. I am thankful to add that two more youths in the same school are now inquirers; and two who were Unitarians regularly attend our church. I hope soon to baptize, in Mr. Simeon's church, a boy belonging to the Kondetope school, who has been a pupil for some years. It is interesting to note that this is the youth of whom I often spoke when in England as a very naughty boy. Much prayer has been offered in his behalf, and I trust that he will prove a good soldier of the Church Militant. His sister, the good girl of whom I also spoke, was deprived of the rite of baptism, although she was seeking it, owing to her sudden death. I believe that she died looking to the Saviour, and I doubt not she has joined the ranks of the Church triumphant. Thus God is causing some droppings to descend that we may be encouraged and cheered in our labours.—I have had an interesting Bible class on Sunday afternoons, composed of the young men from Travancore and Tinnevelly, who are holders of Newton and C.M.S. Scholarships, and are studying for the First Arts examination at the Free Church Institution. One of these youths has obtained this year the first prize of Rs. 150 for the higher class Peter Cator (Scriptural) Examination. He had previously received sound religious instruction at the Cottayam College.—The Vernacular Education Society has placed under my supervision its three Madras Colporteurs. During the year these men had sold 22,000 tracts and books, of which more than 700 were Scripture portions. I have had much interesting work as Secretary of the Tract and Bible Societies. The circulation has been the largest on record, amounting to 521,000 copies. The receipts from sales amounted to Rs. 2000.

Baptisms in connexion with Vernacular Schools.

Mr. W. Cruickshanks, who in younger days was a laborious and successful schoolmaster in the Tinnevelly Mission, and was there blessed to the conversion of several of his pupils, is now at Madras, and spends the evening of his life in such work of teaching and conversation as his diminished strength admits of. Among other incidents, some of them painfully interesting, he mentions the following:—

In March, 1874, a Hindu from Tinnevelly, named M——, paid me a visit, accompanied by his son. I asked him if he still retained the Bible which he read in my school, and if he ever looked into it after leaving school? He said he had the Bible, but never opened it, a reply which he returned with evident hesitation. I took this opportunity of recommending the inspired volume both to father and son. "It is," I said, "the book of immortality, because it shows us how to secure that inestimable blessing through Jesus Christ, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life." Shortly after this he took his leave, and returned to Tinnevelly without repeating his visit.

The person who thus visited Mr. Cruickshanks, is the same as the rich landlord mentioned in the following extract from the Report by Mr. Honiss of his evangelistic work in the Surandei and Nallur districts:—

A rich landowner of Parapenkudi, who had learnt under Mr. Cruickshanks (I cannot pass by the good old blind schoolmaster, without offering him a tribute of respect; his memory and his teaching is enshrined in the hearts of many whom I continually meet with among the high castes) stood by the Catechist, who was addressing the rich man's dependents.

The Harris School, it will be remembered, was originally opened only for the Mohammedans, and up to the present time continues to be carried on on that principle. (It constitutes, in fact, what is termed in the List of Stations THE HINDUSTANI MISSION, TRIPLICANE.) The number of students is 128; and a small class has been opened of candidates for matriculation. The pupils are all made acquainted with the great facts of the Gospel; but the Missionary, the Rev. E. Sell, is often much grieved by the absence of spiritual fruit. The poverty of the Mohammedan population is such, and so increasing, as to render the future of the school uncertain. The matter is receiving the serious attention of the Madras Committee. Mr. Sell is also engaged in translating the Psalms and the Book of Proverbs into the dialect of Hindustani spoken by the class for whom he labours.

Mrs. Vickers has continued her Zenana work during the year, but nothing of special interest is reported. Mrs. Satthianâdan, the wife of the Native Pastor, is similarly employed.

The congregation at this European Sanatorium is naturally fluctuating, as many of its members are of migratory employment, being domestic servants in European families. It is satisfactory, however, that while its numbers have decreased during the year from 247 to 230, the Communicants have increased from 88 to 95. The Rev. Antony James, the Native Minister of the place, left it in the summer of 1874, having been sorely tried by domestic bereavement. His successor, Mr. Samuel Paul, formerly Inspecting Schoolmaster at Madras, was ordained Deacon in the following October. Some of the Native Christians have been overcome by intemperance, but Mr. James reported improvement generally in the Christian character of his flock. Members of the congregation conducted Divine service during his temporary absence, and one of them is in the habit of preaching to the heathen in the open air on Sunday. As it has not been found convenient to connect the Native Minister of Ootacamund with any Church Council, Mr. James was, and Mr. Paul is, under the superintendence of Mr. Macdonald of Madras.

General.

The advance of the Tinnevelly Church has been already referred to in the General Review for India, p. 63. Some remarks on the progress of Protestant Missions in South India, in the Official Report of the Sanitary Commissioner of Madras, have special reference to the Tinnevelly Mission. They are as follows:—

Reference to the Tinnevelly Mission in an Official Report.

The Protestant Missions . . . . have made rapid strides of recent years in the conversion of the inhabitants to Christianity. . . . . There can be no doubt that Christian knowledge and doctrine are meeting with increased acceptance amongst the people of the Tinnevelly district, while an immense amount of good work has been done by the zealous and earnest agents of these Missionary Societies in the education of the people. Already the Native Christian community of the district is contributing largely to the support of its own churches and pastors. These Protestant churches really date back only to a period of about fifty years ago, and their progress during these years has not been unsuccessful. The influence of Christian teaching and example is not limited to the number of persons entered in the census returns as Christians. A large number of Hindus have received their education in Mission schools ; and, most important of all, the Christian Missionaries have been the first to attempt the education of the women of the country, and already the fruits of their labours are beginning to appear. . . . . The Protestant Missions have been specially successful with the Shanars, who are by profession cultivators of the various species of palm-tree, and with some agricultural castes, fishermen, and Pariahs. Under native rule the Shanars, who claim to be the original lords of the soil, were a down-trodden race; under Christian teaching and enlightenment their social position is vastly improved, and many of them have, by their Christian training, become educated, and now hold positions of influence and respectability. In times prior to British rule the whole of the Pariah community, without exception, were the slaves of the superior castes. . . . . They still remain in the lowest depths of social degradation. In public passenger boats a Pariah dare not show his face ; and in Government schools, or schools helped with public money, it is pretty much the same. The Christian Missionaries, to their undying honour be it said, have, as a rule, persevered in breaking through the time-honoured custom of treating the Pariah as dirt, and have admitted him to equal rights and privileges in their schools and churches ; and whatever may be the present position of the Pariah community in regard to education, intelligence, and ability to hold a place for themselves, they owe it almost wholly to the Christian men and women who have given up their lives to win souls for their great Master. . . . . It seems probable that another half-century will see very decided changes in regard to the religious development of the people of Tinnevelly. In no district has so much been done by Mission effort for the education of the people, and especially in the matter of female education. The good seed sown will by-and-by bring forth fruit ; and future Census returns will mark the progress made, and encourage the workers in the Mission field to greater efforts in the vast work they have undertaken. . . . . It will be observed that this is one of the few districts where a large percentage of the population is classed as educated (8·2 per cent.). . . . . It is worthy of note that in this district, where the Protestant Missions are numerous, the Native Christians occupy a high place in the list of instructed.

To this may be added the testimony of Archdeacon Hobbs, who recently visited Tinnevelly, after an absence of twenty years, to obtain Evangelists who might labour among the Tamil coolies in the Mauritius. He writes under date 3rd March, 1875:—

Testimony of Archdeacon Hobbs as to progress in Tinnevelly.

I had the indescribable pleasure of spending last Sunday at my old station, Sattbankullam, and preaching in the church which I was privileged to erect. Both there and at a near village where I went in the evening the congregations were strikingly larger than at the time I left, and their orderly and intelligent appearance was to me a proof that they had profited by the care constantly bestowed upon them. Altogether my one impression of the Church in this region is that the blessing of the Lord has rested richly upon it. Not only has it greatly increased, but it has marvellously progressed. As to its future, we are, I think, in no danger of raising our expectations too high. What the Lord has done and is doing is a pledge of the greater things. Hitherto I believe it has not suffered from the reduction of the number of European clergy; but it seems to me the present number is a sort of minimum, and that they could not be further reduced for a long time without danger of injury.

The addition to the Native Pastorate by the ordination of six more Native Ministers, has been already referred to. One of the six was ordained for Ootacamund, as already stated; his predecessor at Ootacamund (Rev. A. James) being transferred to a pastorate in the Surandei district. The ordination took place at Trichinopoly on the 11th of October.

There has been during the year a further development of the Committee's policy for the Tinnevelly Mission. Dividing the superintendence of the Tinnevelly Native Christians into the two provinces of secular and spiritual, according to the principles laid down in the Appendix to the Thirty-ninth Report, the former of these two kinds of oversight has been hitherto carried on by the Committee through the agency of the European Missionaries. This is now in gradual transference to the Native Church Councils, the Committee still assisting these Councils not only by money grants, but also for the present by appointing some experienced Missionary as the chairman of each Council, one such Missionary sometimes presiding over two or three Councils. Meanwhile the other European Missionaries will devote themselves almost exclusively to the evangelization of the heathen. This latter branch of the work has now assumed a distinctive character, being specially directed to the upper classes. The evangelization of the other classes is not regarded by the Committee as one whit less important, but it can be more easily attempted by the Native Church Agency as distinguished from that of the Mission. The chief and foremost place among the Missionaries who watch over the organization of the Native Church has been with universal consent assigned to Dr. Sargent. He is Chairman of Council for the five districts of PALAMCOTTA, DOHNAVUR, PANNIKULAM, PANNEIVILEI, and NALLAMMALPURAM, as well as (at present) for that of NALLUR. The statistics of these districts reckon up nearly 18,000 Native Christians, 3216 Communicants, and 185 adult baptisms during the year. The Native Pastors of the same districts number eighteen, five having been added at the ordination of the 11th of October. Dr. Sargent's remarks on the introduction of new plans and on the state of the district generally are important. He writes :—

Introduction of new plans into the Tinnevelly Mission.

Old plans, if somewhat successful, seem to challenge the character and claim of necessity ; and changes in reference to such plans naturally at first produce concern and anxiety in proportion to the importance of the results at stake. Let me say, however, that this concern is not of that anxious character which associates itself with despair, but of that cautious character which convinces a man of his own insufficiency, directs the mind to the higher source of strength, and which looks forward hopefully to a successful issue, though it may be through temporary disappointments and partial failures. These thoughts have chiefly occupied my mind when I have been visiting the several stations. Most of these stations I have never visited before, without being greeted on arrival by resident Missionaries. How pleasing the recollection of their kind welcome ! The compound and its surroundings like an oasis in the wilderness ! The Missionary family in each case the centre of civilization to the neighbourhood ! The people had thus brought before them in daily life the influence of order, cleanliness, morality, and religion. We know what power example has. The Missionary was also more or less a silent magistrate ; his very presence to some extent precluding crime, and inducing some conformity to what is becoming and praiseworthy. He was also the centre around which the several classes moved—the element of cohesion, without which men of various castes find it so difficult to meet. There were all these advantages included in the fact of a resident Missionary, and for many years our several stations have been so far benefited. But the question naturally arises with a Society entrusted with funds for the spread of the Gospel, whether such a system must be carried on perpetually; whether the time has not yet arrived for the gradual introduction of a new system, when the Missionary may be removed, and the Native Agency allowed free action; when the Mission child, so long nourished and cherished, shall be taught to walk by itself. Apart from all preconceived notions, I say the gradual introduction of the plan is a wise step. Let us go forward in the name of the Lord. If, however, our Station Missionaries are reduced in number, I think our staff for preaching to the heathen should be greatly strengthened, and a more systematic effort brought into action. I have confidence in the fact that from the first the seed sown in this province was the true seed of the Word of God; that from Rhenius and Pettitt and Thomas and Tucker to the present day, the whole brotherhood of Missionaries sent out by the Society to deal with these people, have ministered none other than the faithful doctrine of Christ; that while among the people there are many like the mixed multitude who went up with Israel from Egypt, there are nevertheless many also who have received the truth in love thereof. That we have much weakness of character to deal with, much selfishness, much caste feeling, is true; but if there is any reality in what has been accomplished, the work cannot fail; and if in some places results do not come up to the full measure of our expectations, in other places they will, to the praise of Him who has called them out of darkness into the marvellous light of His own dear Son. And I have a growing confidence also in the integrity and capabilities of our Native ordained men. If some of them have behaved unwisely and done foolishly, that is no reason why we should disparage the whole body. How would matters stand if the pen were put into their hands and they were allowed to criticize us? With all the advantages we have inherited from long time of Christian culture and influence, could they find nothing to say in the way of blame? and how should we feel if the failings of some were made a stigma affecting us all?

Provincial Council.

The Third Annual Meeting of the Tinnevelly Provincial Council was held at Palamcotta, on the 10th of December, 1874. The powers of this body being not yet definitely fixed, its functions were regarded, for the time being, as simply deliberative, though not on that account unimportant or without influence. Five European Missionaries were present. In the discussions that took place, the Native Brethren, lay and clerical, thirty in number, expressed their belief that Christian knowledge was increasing in the Tinnevelly Church; and also that the Mission Schools were doing good spiritual work, although their connexion with Government (unless carefully watched) tended to diminish the amount of Scriptural instruction given in them. But the most interesting feature of the meeting was a Resolution passed unanimously, recommending that Easter Day should be a "Missionary Sunday," in every village of Tinnevelly, when collections should be made in aid of Missionary work among the heathen, and sent for that purpose to one of the Evangelistic Missionaries.

"Missionary Sunday" in Tinnevelly.

This is a new heading; and the Rev. N. Honiss gives the following details of his entrance on the work:—

Plans for bringing the Gospel before Native gentry.

Various plans have been adopted in striving to bring the Gospel before the Native gentry. Sometimes I take up my position in a rest house or the porch of a temple, and enter into conversation with any one that will condescend to come to me. A better plan I have found in visiting from house to house, having first intimated my intention by writing a polite note. But the most encouraging plan that has yet presented itself is in giving lectures, of which due notice has been previously given. Anglo-Vernacular schools or rest houses have generally furnished suitable places for the meeting; and in some cases heathen friends have kindly given up their houses or courtyards for the occasion. In the latter case we have the additional advantage of addressing the females, who always congregate in some side-room where they can hear without being seen. Our meeting last Sunday affords a favourable illustration of these kind of meetings, and the style of address. Sunday was selected for Tinnevelly, as it is the only day in which the numerous educated classes who hold Government offices are at liberty to attend. On my right sat the temple manager, whose influence is very much the same as that of a mayor in an English town. The Sharistadar and others of importance were present, numbering altogether about 130. The subject of my address was, "What is the best religion calculated to promote the welfare and happiness of a nation?" Max Müller's translations are on these occasions invaluable, for all educated Hindoos have the most profound respect for the Rig Veda, while not one man in a thousand knows anything about it. The teaching of the Bible with reference to sin and its expiation; its pure, simple, humbling doctrines; its tendency to promote brotherly love, gratitude, and courteous manners; its efficacy in advancing the arts and sciences, and in moulding the best form of government; was favourably contrasted with the teaching of Hinduism. An opposition meeting was being carried on by a Guru of the Sivites, which I am inclined to regard as rather an advantage to us than otherwise.

The Rev. V. Harcourt, of Suvisêshapuram, is also employed in this branch. He thus sketches the plan he proposes to adopt:—

1. I propose to form the large towns into groups. 2. To choose a central town in a group, and hire or build a small house in its caste portion. 3. To establish a shop or "Tract, Book, and Stationery depôt" in this house under the care of an ordinary intelligent Christian, who again shall be connected with and directed by a colporteur paid by the Tract Society. The colporteur is to visit the circle of villages. 4. To appoint a superior Catechist to each such centre, as men are available, who shall himself be of caste descent. His pay should be 15 Rs. monthly, including batta. He itinerates in his group of towns. 5. To establish, when the people greatly desire it and a Government grant is available, an Anglo-Vernacular School in each centre. 6. The Missionary's part of the work is, to visit these central stations regularly, pitch his tent and work with the Catechist of the place, receive visitors, examine the school and the Catechist's Journal, and keep the colporteur at work. 7. He will meet his Agents periodically, and read with them books, such for instance as those written by Butler and Paley, on the Evidences of Christianity.

New efforts for the large towns of Tinnevelly.

It will be well known to many readers of this Report that the Rev. Sholto Douglas, of All Saints, Derby, visited India lately on an evangelistic tour. Though his main object was the spiritual benefit of the unconverted amongst British residents, he did not refuse to labour, when occasion offered, for the Natives of the country. Dr. Sargent relates the following interesting incidents of his visit to Tinnevelly:—

Mr. Douglas arrived on Saturday, 27th February, and on Sunday evening preached to the English congregation. On Monday there were most of our Native agents present from all the districts under my supervision; viz. 19 Native Pastors, and about 200 Catechists and Schoolmasters. This address, intended chiefly for agents, was exceedingly interesting; he felt so full of his subject, and his audience were so eager for information. His design was chiefly to show them, as men engaged in winning souls to Christ, how to deal with them so as to gain their attention and excite an earnest desire after salvation, and, if possible, to lead them to an immediate appropriation of the blessings of Christ. In the evening I took him to Tinnevelly, where he delivered an address in English to Hindu gentlemen who met in our school there to hear him. The Native Judge, Acting Tahsildar, and other officials were present, and at the conclusion expressed their thanks for the interest he had shown in their welfare, and the interesting addresses he had delivered; the chief spokesman intimating the pleasure he felt at having the wise sayings of some of their own ancient teachers confirmed! . . . . .

Baptism at Palamcotta.

On Friday, the 5th of March, I had service in the church, when a convert from among the Vellâlar community was baptized by Mr. Douglas, he having before had conversation with him, and being satisfied with the evidence he gave of intelligence and sincerity. The case of this young man is interesting. While I was in England, the other converts here were the means of his becoming interested in the Gospel. In order to establish him in the knowledge of the truth, it was thought advisable to get him to some place where he would be free from the violence and solicitations of relations. He accordingly went to Ediengudy [Dr. Caldwell's station in connexion with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel]; but after a few weeks his relations, watching the opportunity, went there in Dr. Caldwell's absence, and carried him off. Subsequently he conducted an Anglo-Vernacular school in Alvar, Tinnevelly; but as he still showed a determination to become a Christian, they removed his wife from him, and obliged him to come back to his home at Palamcotta. Latterly he placed himself in communication with the Christians, and leaving his own house came to me and took up his abode with the other converts. He knows English very fairly, and is a young man of good ability. The service was in Tamil, but Mr. Douglas in the part he performed of administering baptism spoke English. "Edward Sholto" was voluntarily selected by the young man as his Christian name.

Education.

The PRÆPARANDI INSTITUTION was, in May, 1874, divided into two parts; the THEOLOGICAL CLASS, which was transferred to Mengnânaparam, and placed under the care of the Rev. A. Dibb, and the Vernacular Training Classes, which were incorporated with the ENGLISH INSTITUTION.

The Rev. A. Dibb writes as follows:—

Theological Class for Tinnevelly.

The THEOLOGICAL CLASS consists of twelve Catechists of proved character and efficiency, whom it is designed in due time to advance to Holy Orders. My work is to read with them in theology, which I generally do for four hours a day. All our study is in the Vernacular, and well indeed it is that it can be so. We have a very excellent Tamil version of the Holy Scriptures, and a translation (equally excellent) of the Book of Common Prayer and of the Thirty-nine Articles of the Church of England; and in these we have the Divine source and the human expression of the purest and best theology. As for the rest, we have compendiums and abbreviations in Tamil of good English authors, which we supplement by oral instruction. The students are not able to read theological works in English, nor (which is a far greater disadvantage) to read the New Testament in the original Greek. Mr. Meadows has published a Tamil Greek Grammar, but we still want a Lexicon; and even if we had both, they would have to be studied before beginning to read for Orders. Still, the knowledge which the students can obtain by means of the Vernacular is immeasurably more important than that of which for want of Greek and English they are deprived; and we may hope and believe that the former is amply sufficient to make them thoroughly useful and able pastors in the Church of Tinnevelly in its present stage of progress. I am happy to give the fullest testimony to the diligence of the members of the class in their studies, and to acknowledge their confidential but uniformly respectful bearing towards myself. I have every hope that the blessing of God will rest on this effort to promote the efficiency of the ministry of the Native Church.

In the lamented absence of the Rev. T. Spratt, arising from Mrs. Spratt's serious illness, Mr. T. Kember has been in sole charge of the ENGLISH INSTITUTION. The number of students in the Institution is 178, besides 105 in the Practising School attached to it. Seventy of the students are Boarders, all of whom are Native Christians. During the year seven students have been appointed teachers in Tinnevelly and Ceylon. Eleven students passed a successful examination for matriculation at the Madras University. The highest of these was a Hindu youth, who was exceedingly regular in his attendance at the Scriptural instruction given on Sunday. Mr. Kember writes:—

Throughout the year we have given primary importance to the religious instruction and moral training of all our students. In theology, the matriculation class had as one subject of study Bushnell's "Character of Jesus;" and a more exalted or elevating theme could scarcely have engaged their attention. The tendency of our general Scripture teaching is to dispel from the minds of Hindu youths all veneration for or confidence in their so-called deities; and, by presenting to their minds for contemplation a character so transcendently pure and so absolutely perfect as that of Christ, we supply them with the noblest "ideal" that mortal man can ever have to admire and to imitate. We feel that the study of the book has been of great benefit to all who read it; and our earnest prayer is that it may prove the means of leading many a sin-polluted soul to the feet of the holy Saviour, and cause them to regard Him as "the chief among ten thousand," and the "altogether lovely."

Mr. Lash's illness early in 1874, and his subsequent return to England, threw the main care of the SARAH TUCKER FEMALE INSTITUTION on Mr. Kember, in addition to the charge of the English Institution. Notwithstanding this and other hindrances, there were still 71 students resident at the end of the year. Ten have taken employment during the year. In the Branch Schools, Miss Bourne, of the Indian Female Instruction Society, has rendered valuable temporary assistance. They are 34 in number, containing 821 pupils, of whom upwards of 500 are heathen.

The Districts.

The Christians in PALAMCOTTA have increased in number by 276. These are mostly from the same divisions of the population as those to which the Tinnevelly Christians generally belong. Now and then, however, instances occur of conversion among the other classes. One such case may be mentioned. A Native gentleman, whose son was baptized eight years ago, and who from that date had ceased all friendly intercourse with him, recently had occasion to visit the residence of a Native Christian. The mother of the family there read to him from her Tamil Bible the account of our Lord's sufferings. This impressed him so much, and so far softened his prejudices, that, having shortly afterwards to obtain his son's signature to a legal document, he consented to stay one or two days in his house. The consistency and uprightness of his son's private life convinced him of the excellency of the Gospel; he began the diligent study of GOD'S Word, and in a very short time asked for and received Christian baptism.

Conversion of the father of a Native Christian.

This district has now been without a resident Missionary for six years. The printed returns for the district at the end of 1868 compared with the returns now sent are as follows:—

| | 1868 | 1874 |
|---|---|---|
| Total under Christian Instruction . . | 2826 | 3637 |
| Communicants . . . . . | 290 | 382 |
| Children attending School . . . . | 570 | 736 |

Contributions in support of their own teachers, Rs. 319 14 9, Rs. 994 10 10.

There is in this district a very large field for labour among the higher classes of Hindus. The valley of the Tambiravarni is thickly populated with such people, in villages containing from 10,000 to 20,000 each, among whom as yet the Gospel has scarcely gained an entrance. I rejoice to think that one of the European brethren in these parts has been set apart for systematic effort among these villages, with whom will be associated a body of Native helpers. With the increase of two pastors for the district we may hope for increase among the number of communicants. Hitherto there has been some difficulty in this matter, owing to the distance people had to travel in order to attend a place where the Communion was administered.

Of NALLUR Dr. Sargent writes as follows :—

This is another district that has been without a resident Missionary for six years. In 1868 the returns were as follows compared with those of the present year :—

|---|---|---|
| Total under Christian Instruction . . | 3000 | 2897 |
| Communicants . . . . . | 438 | 502 |
| Children attending School . . . . | 982 | 1234 |
| Contributions in support of their own Teachers . . . . . | Rs. 384 0 0 | Rs. 809 13 7 |

The Boarding Schools are still maintained at the Station ; and it speaks well for the judicious choice of the agents employed here that the work in these schools is carried on so satisfactorily. Even in that department in which it might be supposed that a complete failure would have followed in the absence of a resident Missionary family, the girls do remarkably well. I refer to their orderly behaviour and their needlework. The proceedings of the Church Council at their periodical meetings have been duly forwarded to the Committee at Madras. Since my return to Tinnevelly I have been holding this district only as locum tenens, till Mr. Spratt should be able to resume his labours among us.

Dr. Sargent reports of PANNIKULLAM :—

This district has been only three years without a resident Missionary. On comparing statistics there does not seem to be any indication of a falling off.

| | 1871 | 1874 |
|---|---|---|
| Total under Instruction . . . . . | 1474 | 2660 |
| Communicants . . . . . | 520 | 624 |
| Children attending School . . . . | 602 | 912 |
| Contributions . . . . . | | Rs. 565 6 7 |

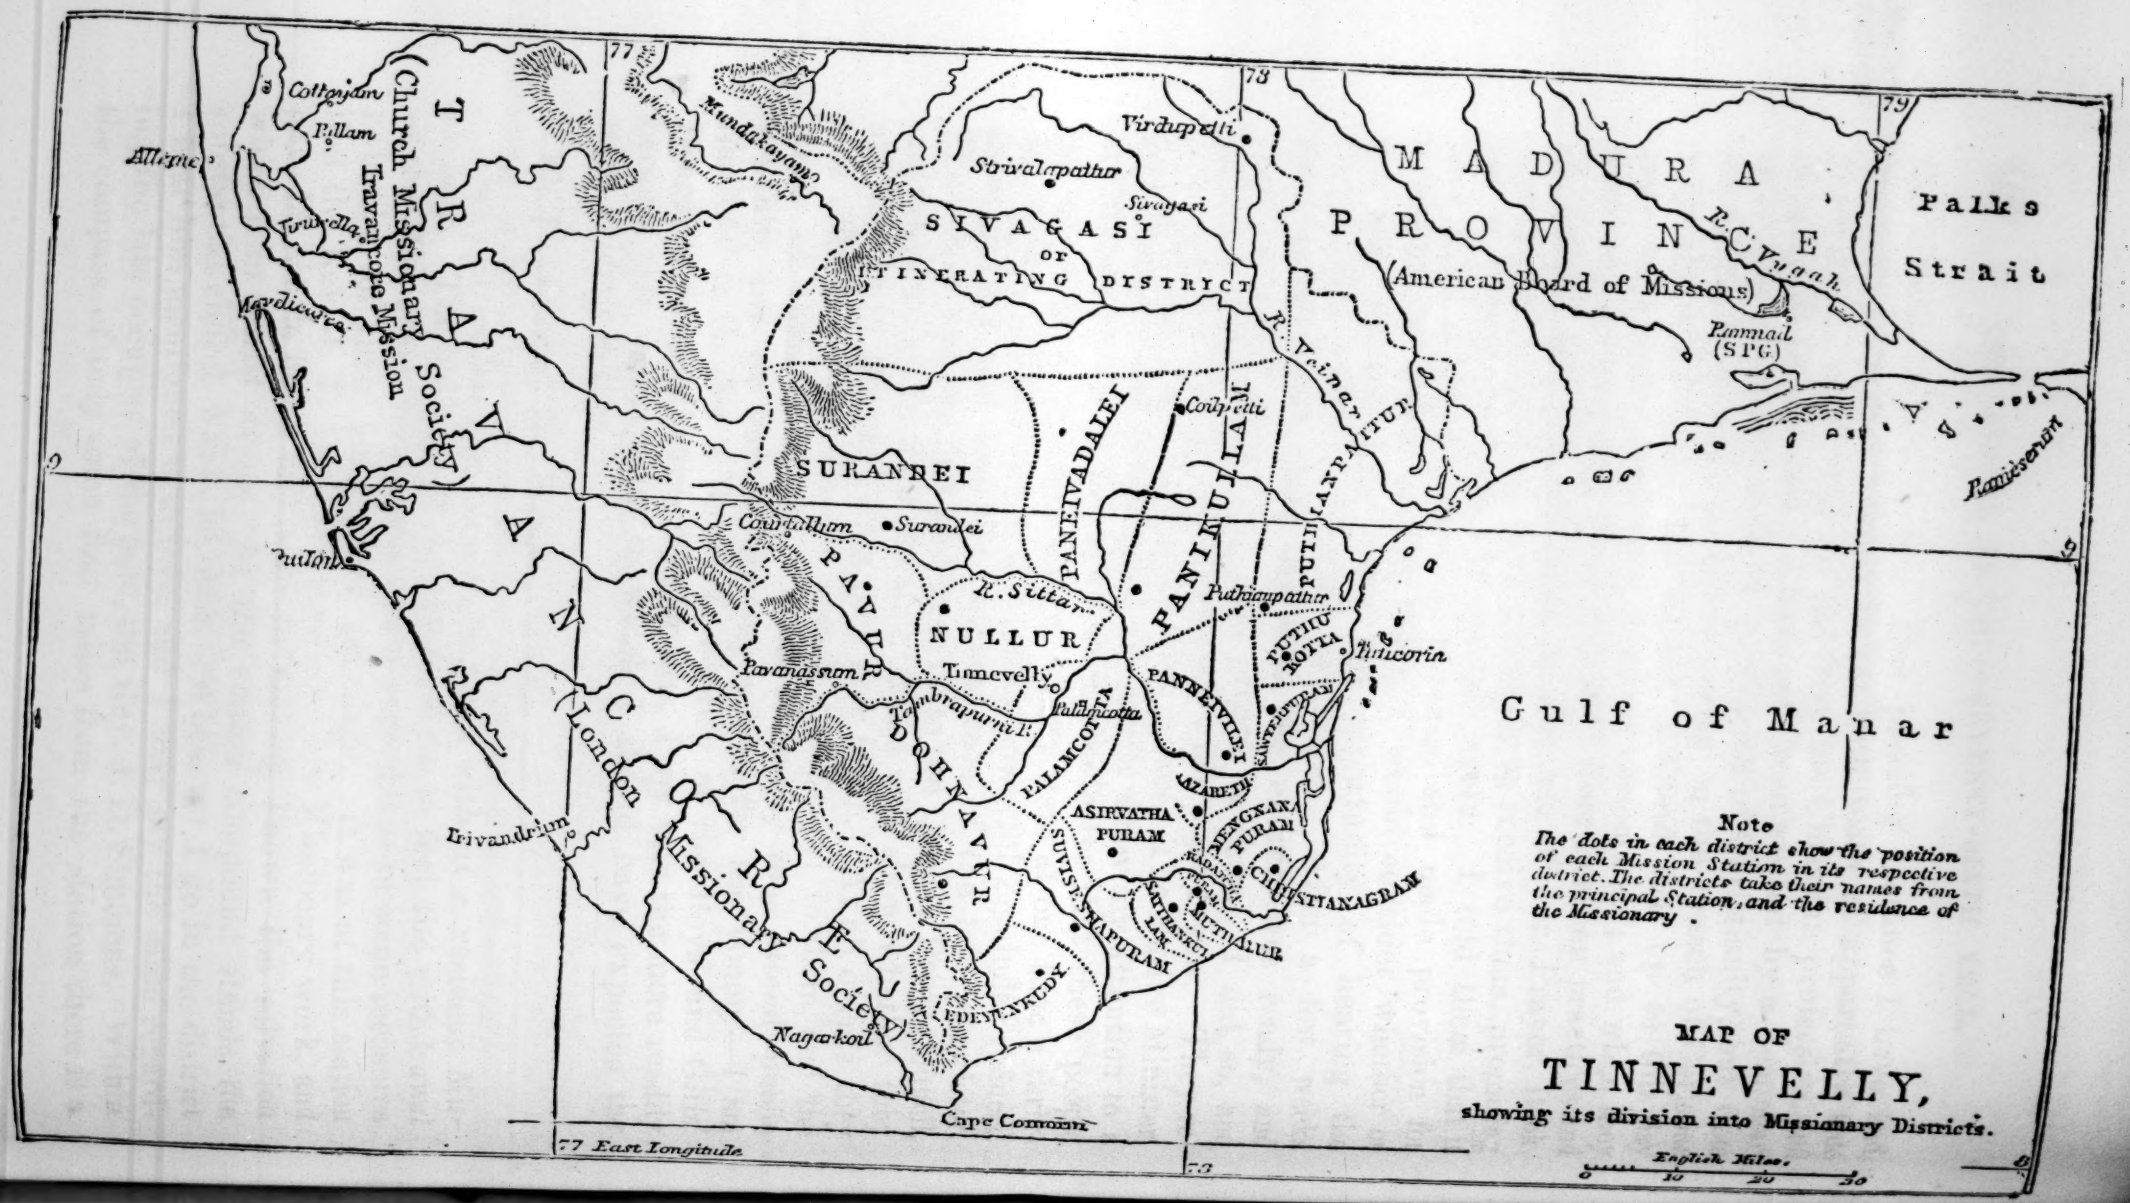

Compared with other districts the people here seem to be in a less prosperous condition temporally. Only a few of them have land of their own, the rest are chiefly day labourers. The failure of rain during the last monsoon has told more upon this part of the province than any other, for here almost all the tanks are rain-fed tanks ; and yet it is a matter for thankful remark that none of the people have come to me to complain of their worldly troubles and expect help from me. One pleasing instance I have had, however, of a man coming to me with tears of apparently true repentance; confessing his fall from his Christian profession, and begging to be restored. I have also been visited by a Zemindar, who some years ago made a profession of Christianity, but from whom the Missionary withdrew owing to the breach of Christian rules about marriage. On inquiry I found that up to this day they have never performed heathen ceremonies; and when they have had a burial they have abstained from heathen practices and performed the rite according to the use of our Prayer Book. The party pressed me very earnestly to receive them, promising not to transgress in the like manner again. I told them that if they built a proper place of worship, and made provision for a teacher to reside among them, I would consider whether or not they should again have the opportunity of hearing the Gospel and enjoying Church privileges. After a few weeks they called again, told me that the church was ready, and hoped I would come there and preach to them. I did so, and must say I was very much pleased with what I saw. They received me into what they called their palace. The Native Minister, who resides about seven miles off, gently drew my attention to a few things which to his mind were conclusive that these people had never gone back to idolatry. They were at one time a thriving family, but disputes with another powerful Zemindar reduced them greatly, and also the extravagance of the late proprietor. Their case was one that had gone up to the Queen's Privy Council, and was decided in their favour. Time will show whether they are sincere in the profession they now make. At all events they now offer us an open door to preach the Gospel to them and the circle of their domestics. Their females, too, attend public worship, and we have a thriving school for the young.—I am thankful to be able to report favourably of the Boys' and Girls' Boarding Schools in this district also. I say this the more readily because this is the point in which I should have expected the most evident failure.

Of Paneivilei Dr. Sargent writes:—

This district has also been three years without a resident Missionary. The old men of the station seem to feel the withdrawal of the Missionary very much, and to regard it as in some measurea reduction of their honour and privilege. It was at this station that the Rev. J. T. Tucker commenced his Missionary work, and gave his whole heart and soul to making known the salvation which is in Christ Jesus. In the station compound stands the substantial church which he built. Whenever I go in the district I hear him mentioned with love, and I may say the same regarding the late occupier of the field, the Rev. J. D. Simmons. Within the compass of only some four miles from the station there is a showing its division into Missionary Districts.

Christian population of above 1500 souls. The district is divided among four Pastors. A comparison of statistics from the time the station was left open, with the returns for the year now closing, is as follows :—

| | 1871. | 1874. |
|---|---|---|
| Total under Christian Instruction . | 2282 | 2616 |
| Communicants . . . . . | 457 | 474 |
| Children attending School . . . . | 812 | 912 |
| Contributions in support of their own Teachers . . . . . | Rs. 810 12 7 | Rs. 1058 4 7 |

There are in this district some men of substance, who do a good deal towards the support of the Native Church ; but the chief of them is very Conservative, and looks with no little suspicion on the new order of things. In the immediate neighbourhood of Paneivilei is a body of seceders who have long been a trouble to the peace and quiet of the rest. Latterly the leader has assumed a more peaceful attitude ; and if he and the rest could be gained over to the cause of Christian love and unity, I hardly know a larger and more convenient field for a Native Pastor in which to carry on his work and relieve the Society of all expense.

MENGNÂNAPURAM.

The Rev. A. Dibb, besides conducting the Theological Class, is Chairman of the Mengnânapuram Church Council, and as such watches over the development and administration of the Native Church. During the year, the number under instruction advanced from 13,206 to 13,659 ; and there were no less than 127 adult baptisms. The increase in the number of Communicants, however, is only from 2451 to 2492.—The following remarks illustrate and justify the anxious care with which this able and devoted Missionary conducts his firm and resolute advance in the direction of Native Church independence. With respect to "leaving the Native Church to itself," there are doubtless good men to be found who would advocate such a course. But such is not the policy of the Committee, nor, as it will be seen, is it that of Mr. Dibb. Mr. Dibb writes :—

> The instructions I received at being put in charge of this important district were of no uncertain sound, and the injunctions they contained to press forward the independence of the Native Church were particularly clear and express. I have accordingly endeavoured conscientiously to fulfil them ; and to this end I have endeavoured to keep my hands as clear as possible from all dealings with the secular affairs of the people. I am constantly teaching that as Tamil people never give clothes to a potter for washing, nor go to a goldsmith for joiner's work, nor ask a grama Munsiff to teach their children to read, so they should never expect a Catechist to settle their disputes or recover their debts. I try to show that the attempt in a Catechist's work to combine such secular work with his own spoils both; and I sometimes point to Rome for an illustration of what I say, for there is a clever man there who has long tried to figure as Rajah and Guru combined, while the effect has been that of all the Rajahs he proved least efficient, and of all the Gurus he is most heretical. I have also abstained from interfering with the work of Native Teachers. I have especially endeavoured to give as much liberty of action as possible to the Native Clergy. I have, however, thought it right to interfere with neglect of work, and to look after Native teachers who engage in other work incompatible with their own. In this way teaching and preaching have been my principal business, and the work of superintendence has been a secondary and additional occupation. . . A Catechist begged me to interfere with a landlord and tenant case in his village, because if I did not the probability was that there would be first a disturbance in the village, and next a schism in the congregation. After explaining my motives, and telling the people what I thought they ought to do, I firmly refused to do anything myself. Patience, firmness, wisdom, and love (oh that we had more of these qualities!) are needed in the administration of the affairs of the Native Church in such a crisis as the present. I say "crisis," for crisis it is, and "administration," for administration is necessary. I am more and more convinced that the shortest way to ruin the Native Church, and to throw away all the labour that has been bestowed upon it, would be to leave it to itself.

SUVISÊSHAPURAM.

The original Suvisêshapuram district is now divided into two; each having its own Church Council. The Western half is still under the Chairmanship of its former Missionary, Mr. Harcourt; while the Eastern Council (NALLAMMALPURAM) is presided over by Dr. Sargent. It will be remembered that Mr. Harcourt is also engaged in the newly undertaken special evangelistic efforts among the upper classes of the heathen. In the diminished district with which Mr. Harcourt is now connected there was in the years 1871-2 a large falling off, which caused the Missionary much distress. By the mercy of GOD this state of things has, to a certain extent, passed away. During the past year the numbers under instruction have increased by 85, the present number being 2033. The deserters feel that they have gained nothing by return to devil-worship; and one after another presents himself at the Catechist's house seeking admission. There have been, however, only three adult baptisms. The Communicants number 384.

The other half, watched over by Dr. Sargent, is now termed NALLAMMALPURAM. It is thus reported of by Dr. Sargent:—

Here are above 1556 souls under the care of a Native Pastor, who studied under me for Holy Orders from 1848 to 1851. I went to the district some time ago and visited six of the chief places. They were all familiar to me as forming part of the field where the early years of my Missionary career were spent. It was twenty-four years ago that I was last time among them. I was therefore able to compare the present condition of the people with the state of things then. I may truly say that I found improvement in everything, in worldly matters as well as in greater things. The people have been almost altogether left to the care of the Native Pastor for the last year; but the inspecting schoolmaster from Suvisêshapuram still looks after the schools, and the report of the Government Inspector, as indicated by the results he has granted, shows that, with only two exceptions, the Schoolmasters have done their work in a most efficient manner. It was pleasing to find, in Nallammalpuram itself, the sons of the Head man whom I had long known and loved, maintaining a Christian character, contributing of their substance cheerfully to the Church Fund, and living peaceably with each other. It was their father who, in dear old Mr. Schaffter's time, presented the Suvisêshapuram Church with an immense brass candlestick with seven branches, after the supposed fashion of that in the Temple of Jerusalem, larger certainly in dimensions than that depicted on the triumphal arch of Titus at Rome.

SURANDEI.

The Native Church Council of this district has for its Chairman the Rev. N. Honiss. The Native Pastors are three in number, the Native Christians 2460, and the Communicants 507. These numbers are virtually the same as those of the previous year. Seven adults only were baptized during the year. The Reports of the Schoolmasters are for the most part hopeful. Mr. Honiss gives the following instances:—

One pleasing feature referred to in some of the Reports is that the heathen children in our schools manifest a growing indifference towards idolatry, while in several cases a desire is shown for Christianity. One master says it is a common thing for children to speak lightly of their idols; and two others say that rubbing ashes, which used to be a universal custom, has been given up entirely. In one case a mother insisted upon the observance of the custom; but the child was thought peculiar, and was laughed at by the other boys. Several agents speak very encouragingly of the good done by night schools.

The Rev. S. Swâmidâsan, who is the Pastor for Surandei and fourteen neighbouring villages, has written an interesting Annual Letter in which he certainly extenuates nothing. This is one of those Tinnevelly districts where large numbers have at different times put themselves under Christian instruction, in the hope partly of those temporal blessings which Christian profession almost necessarily brings with it, and partly of other advantages which they had less reason to expect. "Almost all the heathen in the immediate neighbourhood," says Mr. Sâwmidâsan, "are backslidden Christians or their descendants." Those that still retain their profession resemble, alas! other Christian Churches, in that a minority only exhibit decided indications of the converting grace of God. Not a few of them discredit the name they bear. Yet Mr. Swâmidâsan is able to write:—

Nature and circumstances of a Native Clergyman's work.

I am glad to say that almost all the people know all the fundamental doctrines of the Gospel. Most of the young men and women know several of the Scripture stories. Some have family prayers in their houses. With a few exceptions, they carefully observe the Lord's Day. Many people come to the church neatly dressed and with books in their hands. They are glad to send their children to the school. The women seem to be more pious than the men. I have lately begun to hold a prayer-meeting on every Saturday evening. Before administering the Lord's Supper, I assemble the people and give them some admonition to help them to receive it with faith. Lately, the inspecting schoolmaster of the place wished me to open a meeting for sacred song, which is attended both by adults and children. The object is, to instil Gospel truths into the minds of the people through Tamil lyrics. The two well-trained Boarding-school masters sing with a sweet voice. The boys and girls help them; the School Inspector adds explanations. The people will willingly listen for two hours to preaching of this kind. I have found these meetings very encouraging.—Almost all, men, women and children, are able to read the Gospel. Most of them join in singing, and say the responses during the service.

SIVAGÂSI.

The Native Church Council that superintends this district has for its Chairman the Rev. R. R. Meadows. The Native Christians have increased during the year from 3774 to 4050; the Communicants are 577, nearly the same number as before. The Adult Baptisms have numbered 26. Notwithstanding a partial failure of the harvest, the contributions have been nearly as good as usual. Of one of the leading laymen in the Native Christian community, Mr. Meadows reports as follows :—

A Native Christian Magistrate.

At Ettiapuram, the Tasildar, a Christian of long standing, continues to maintain an honourable and upright position as a magistrate, and also does his best to propagate the faith. At the Sunday services he invites his Brahmin subordinates to attend and listen to the preaching of the faithful Catechist of an adjoining village. He subscribed Rs. 50 this year to our Native Church Fund, and encouraged his three daughters to work for the Mission. These nice children in their walks in the morning pick up the cotton which falls from carts carrying it to Tuticorin. They have also a garden which they plant and water themselves. The produce of these their efforts they gave to me, which amounted to Rs. 3. 0. 9. A young man under the Tasildar, a Vellâlan, was baptized by me some months ago. As he is the first of his family that has become a Christian, and the head of his house, I expect great results from this baptism.

While Mr. Meadows expresses his belief that some in every congregation adorn their Christian profession, he deplores the existence amongst many of an unwillingness to give of their substance to the Lord's service, the still remaining strength of caste feeling, and the want of punctilious integrity in money matters. This last deficiency is of course a great hindrance to the attainment of Native independence. As a rule, Mr. Meadows observes, there is less life in those who have joined the Christian Church in large bodies than in cases of individual conversion. Accessions of the latter description have been more frequent in past years.

Vageikulam.

This sub-district is under the pastoral care of Mr. Vêdanayagam, a Native Clergyman connected with the Sivagâsi Church Council. It contains 1680 Christians, of whom 166 are Communicants. Eighteen adults were baptized during the year. The Rev. V. Vêdanayagam is assisted by twenty-five Native Christian helpers. The contributions of the Christians have been paid with unusual regularity, but are less in amount than in the previous year, owing to the failure of the rice crop. The following very interesting passages are extracted from Mr. Vêdanayagam's Annual Letter :—

Some of the adults whom I have had the privilege of baptizing this year deserve particular notice.—One of them is a Vellala Chetti belonging to this place, who has been reading the New Testament for a year; the effect of which, combined with the earnest entreaties of his neighbour (a Marava Christian, the fruit of Mr. Meadows' efforts at his last visit to this place before going to England in 1869), brought him to church all on a sudden with his two little bright sons, as also his friend the carpenter of this place. It ought to be remarked here that until Visuvasam the Marava Christian came to church, the Christians of this place came from but one caste, while the others were backward to send their children to be taught in the Mission School, much less to come to church themselves to worship God with their Pallam neighbours. The distinction is no more regarded now; these three men from three different castes having joined us with their wives and children with all readiness and cheerfulness.—Of the other newly baptized persons, one is a goldsmith, and the rest are Naiks, three males and three females; all belong to Pulcanpatti, the village of a good old Christian, named Permba Naik. One of these new comers is Permba Naik's younger brother, who though he had known for the last eight years that his eldest brother was pursuing the right course, had not the courage, till now, to face the difficulties which he feared would be the consequence if he came forward for baptism. The Naiks are, for the most part, very much influenced by their wives. At length this man could no longer resist his conscience, and boldly came forward for baptism, which he received last April at his own village in his brother's house. A continued volley of abuse and troubles immediately followed him from his own wife and children, who at last went so far as to beat him and drive him out of the house. He is a man well to do in the world, and the stay of his family, and yet he bears it all patiently for Christ, and is always cheerful and happy, "rejoicing in the Lord." The Christian influence of Permba Naik has great weight in the village; and his desire for the salvation of his friends is very strong. I said that one of the newly baptized was a goldsmith. He is a man of about thirty, very intelligent and well versed in Hindu Shastras. Hence he has been challenging the old Naik and our schoolmaster there to prove that our religion was better than his, and trying for the last two years to prove the superiority of Hinduism. But what were all his arguments? Mere bubbles against the Rock of Ages, which has at last overcome him, and brought him over to confess that the Lord Jesus is the Saviour of all men. He is now like a gentle lamb, eagerly feeding upon the green pastures, and drinking the still water of the ever-blessed Gospel. He has a wife and two children besides his old father living with him. These are all opposed to his new step.

Conversions at Vageikulum.

Preaching to the heathen has been steadily kept up. Our efforts seem to have made little or no impression on the bulk of the people. This is not, however, the case with the more intelligent and respectable class. A good many of them own the superiority of our religion to theirs: it is only the fear of the world and caste prejudice that keep them back from seeking for baptism. I have recently bought a good supply of Tamil New Testaments from Miss Owen's Fund at my disposal, to distribute among my acquaintance. I generally visit them, talk to them on the subject, and secure their promise that they will read them with the view of finding whether they contain the things which may satisfy the cravings of their souls, and then send the books to them with their names written in them. In order that this and other efforts may prove effectual to the salvation of the poor heathen, we have devoted one day (Wednesday) in a week, in which prayers are offered by all the Mission Agents, to our prayer-hearing God, for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

The Revival Movement.

Though the excitement of this movement seems to be gradually subsiding, good fruit remains in the largely-increased circulation of God's Word—the sales of Scriptures in the Cottayam Depôt having risen from 1119 in 1873 to 3034 in 1874—and in the relinquishment by many among the Syrian Christians of several of their superstitious practices. The fullest recent accounts on this subject are found in a journal by the Rev. R. Speechly of a tour taken by him in the month of September, from which extracts are here subjoined:—

Chenganur [a Syrian congregation], September 11th. I was received very kindly by a Syrian Deacon. I was very much pleased with what I saw afterwards of this young man. I asked to have family prayer, and he conducted it. He read John iii.; then a hymn was sung; after which he offered up a long prayer, a distinguishing feature of which was our great sinfulness. After the Lord's Prayer, he started another hymn or lyric, which all sang kneeling, the females in the adjacent room joining. Then followed the benediction.—Puvatur [a C. M. S. congregation], September 4*th*. I am now amongst a simple people who show me not a little kindness. We have a small congregation here, and yesterday (Sunday) at the request of Mr. Caley, in whose mission district it is, I administered Holy Communion in the little church belonging to it. All this neighbourhood has been quickened into renewed earnestness after divine things. Prayer-meetings have been held in churches and prayer-houses for some months past. Suitable buildings for prayer have been erected, and in some of them daily prayer meetings are held. I attended one on Saturday evening. It had commenced before I arrived. After my arrival one sang a Tamil lyric, then he read a chapter from the Old Testament. Then we knelt, and they sang kneeling another favourite lyric.—In this neighbourhood there is on the other side of the beautiful Rani river, which flows hard by, a famous Hindu temple dedicated to Arjunam. Once a year there are some famed boat races held in honour of the god. The Syrians here had been accustomed to join with the Hindus in repairing the boats or making new ones. They rowed too in the races. This year of their own accord they ceased doing so, considering it inconsistent with their Christian profession. This is one result of this revival movement amongst others.—Sept. 15*th*. Maranama [Syrian]. This evening there was service in the church, which partook more of the character of a prayer meeting. Two young Katanars (Syrian clergymen) took part in it, and asked me to preach. One of the young Katanars offered up a beautiful prayer. In this church, Abraham Malpan once prayed and preached. How he would rejoice to witness the present quickening and earnestness amongst the people in these parts, and the light which has shone in reforming churches and abolishing superstitious observances and ceremonies! He stood comparatively alone: now if he were alive, he would have a goodly band of faithful men to rally around him in pressing onward and in urging salutary measures needed to sustain the advances made.—Sept. 18*th*. Ayirur [Syrian]. The senior priest of this church is Vicar-General. He told me that thirty years ago there were only three southern churches in which reform had taken place. Now there are twenty-four churches which have largely reformed, and besides these, in others some reform has taken place.—Whilst on this tour, and visiting the Syrian churches, I thought how insignificant our work outwardly seemed, compared with the much larger numbers of Syrian people, their church revenues, their substantial buildings, and their metrans and clergy. But though comparatively "feeble folk," still we have accomplished something; and the labours of our faithful brethren, European and Native, in the past, and the work going on in the present, have largely tended, under the Divine blessing, to bring about this hopeful state of things in the Syrian Church.

Visit of the Rev. Sholto Douglas.

Of this visit the Rev. J. H. Bishop, of the Society's College at Cottayam, writes as follows:—

Mr. Sholto Douglas at Cottayam.

Mr. Douglas arrived in Cottayam in company with the Rev. V. W. Harcourt, on Thursday morning, March 11th. It was not known till a day or two before his arrival that he would be able to visit Cottayam, consequently there was not much previous preparation for his coming. A special service was however, held, on Thursday evening in the College Chapel; and in spite of a very heavy thunderstorm, there was a very good attendance. All the European residents, and many English-speaking natives, besides the students of the College and many of the students of the Cambridge Nicholson Institution, were present. The Native Clergymen residing in the immediate neighbourhood also came; and last, though not least, Mar Athanasius and Mar Thoma (the Syrian Metran and one of his Suffragans), and some English-speaking Katanars, The chapel was thus unusually crowded. The earnest and solemn manner of the preacher, his powerful appeals and striking anecdotes, produced a marked impression on the audience. Mr. Douglas was probably well understood by at least two-thirds of the audience. The younger students would only be able to form a general idea of the subject. On the following evening a Syrian Christian, who does not know a word of English, but is an earnest follower and preacher of Christ, went to hear him. When I subsequently happened to ask him why he was present, he replied that he could infer to a considerable extent what the preacher meant by his "bhávam," i. e., outward manner and gesture. There is no doubt whatever that his intense earnestness of manner was calculated to make a deep impression upon the native mind. The two Metrans and European Clergy afterwards came into the College bungalow and stayed to tea. Before leaving, the Metran invited Mr. Douglas to visit their College on the following morning. Accordingly we drove over early on Friday morning, and found Mar Athanasius and his two suffragans in their robes waiting to receive us. Mar Athanasius then conducted us to a large room in the College, where some Katanars, the students (25 in number, all Syrian Deacons), and some outsiders were assembled. The Metran requested Mr. Douglas to address the Deacons, and he himself would act as his interpreter. After prayer had been offered in Malaylam by the Metran, Mr. Douglas proceeded to address the students; the Metran interpreting sentence by sentence. The passage selected was Coloss. i. 28, the subject, "The work and object of the Christian Ministry." Mr. Douglas dwelt on the importance of individual teaching and warning, and spoke very solemnly of the necessity of the Minister being himself prepared by the Holy Ghost, and told his hearers what a solemn question was publicly asked each candidate for Deacon's orders in the English Church by the Bishops, viz., "Do you trust that you are inwardly moved by the Holy Ghost to take upon you this office and ministration?" Some of the answers of the Deacons were very intelligent and satisfactory. The Metran concluded with prayer and the benediction.

Cottayam.

Thirty students are here receiving instruction in the Cambridge Nicholson Institution, under the care of the Rev. J. M. Speechly, with the view of becoming Agents of the Society or of the Native Church.

The Cottayam College is under the charge of the Rev. J. H. Bishop, who is assisted by the Rev. W. Richards. It contained, at the close of 1874, 64 pupils in the upper department and 78 in the lower. Of the former, 48 are boarders and of course Native Christians. (Caste customs in India prevent the existence of Mission boarding-schools for heathen children.) Out of the whole number of students 18 are Hindus; the rest Christians, Protestant or Syrian. The education given here, while thoroughly Christian, is not professional, to train young men as Mission agents, but general. The Society has many such Colleges in India, but this is the only one amongst them that has so large a boarding-house connected with it; Travancore being at present the only district in India where the number of well-to-do Native Christians is sufficient to require and maintain such an Institution.

Mr. Richards writes as follows:—

It has been a great pleasure to me to work with the Principal, the Rev. J. H. Bishop. Our connexion has been most harmonious; and so far as he is concerned the past three years have been among the happiest of my life. Permit me to say a few words relative to the keeping up of the Cottayam College. It is my firm opinion that there ought not to be less than two ordained Europeans in charge and resident. The demands of the Madras University are fairly high, and there is, as you are aware, a decided danger of sacrificing the moral and religious training on the altar of Secularism. Then the College is a boarding establishment, and this entails a good deal of business and anxiety. Again, if contingencies arise (as they are certain to do), unless some one can at once take up the work it will too rapidly decline, and long years must elapse before the Natives would again begin to look on the place in a favourable light. If the College is to be successful as a Missionary agency it must be popular. To be popular it must be more or less successful in the University Matriculation Examinations. Popularity will bring a number of pay-boarders from the influential classes; and then there will be a fair field for the application of a sound Christian education, broader than that required for the University Matriculation Examination, and based upon the unerring "Word of truth."

The Cottayam College surpassed all others at the "Peter Cator" Scripture Examinations. It also received a discriminating, but on the whole decidedly favourable, Report from Mr. Garthwaite, a British Government Inspector, who kindly examined the School as he would have done a similar institution in British territory. Several of the students voluntarily take part in Evangelistic work. Mr. Richards writes:—

Preaching to the heathen, &c., has gone on as usual, with this exception, that we have divided the preaching volunteers into two parties of ten each, who accompany us every Wednesday half-holiday to the Bazaar, to one or other of the Courts, or to some temple entrance. A list of places is drawn up to be visited by Mr. Bishop's party in a certain rotation and by mine in another. Our plan is as follows:—We choose a certain subject, to which all the addresses of the evening converge; suppose it to be the "Value of Salvation," and that the parable of the "Pearl of great price" is to form the basis of our teaching. We have also a picture, prettily coloured (by the R. T. S. or S. P. C. K.), and nails, &c., for affixing it in a moment to some tree or convenient post. Having arrived at our destination, the attention of loungers and passers-by is speedily arrested by a hymn, in native metre and with native music. They crowd round to see the picture, which has been already in position some time, and then Mr. Bishop, or myself, as the case may be, preaches on the chosen subject. The address is no sooner concluded and explained in company with the picture, than the singers begin another hymn, to be followed also by an address, and so one after another the senior students give each an address. We generally can keep an audience of from 20 to 30 till sunset, when it is time to sell books and tracts, and distribute handbills on some heathen error or eternal Christian truth. I have sold in this way recently from 30 to 35 Gospels, at the average price of one penny each ; I have also sold some tracts ranging in price from the twelfth of a penny to twopence each. If paid for, they are valued and read by the buyers. We always have attentive and patient hearers, even the half-dozen Mohammedans often present in some of our preaching stations being well behaved. Last year we experienced some rudeness, such as the tearing up of handbills, and the uttering of offensive remarks. This year I do not recollect any such.—The above is one way of making the College a Mission agency directly. There is another —the selling of Christian Scriptures and other Christian books in the vacations. This which was in working on my first coming to the College has been steadily carried on. In the years 1873 and 1874 the students disposed of books worth £7 15*s*. This is quite voluntary on the part of the students.—The senior boys are exempted from Sunday school, and they themselves become teachers, going two and two to schools, private houses, and other places, where they have classes of children and adults.

Death of a Christian Student at the Cottayam College.

One of the boys, who had been particularly useful in selling books, took typhus fever while in College. As soon as he seemed a little better and more fit to be moved, his friends came and took him away; and we were exceedingly sorry, a short time after, to know that we should never see him again at College, nor at our open-air preachings where he was the chief singer. He always seemed a remarkably good boy and a true believer in Christ, but his death showed it very plainly. His friends had prayer by his bedside, consoling him by their sympathy. In reply to a remark from some of his friends, he said that he was not going back to the College again, but to heaven, for which he held his certificate. He said also that he was glad to go and "be with Jesus."

The following passage from Mr. Richards' Letter is also interesting :—

Old pupils of the Cottayam College.

In a tour which Mr. Bishop and I took through British Malabar, visiting especially the Bâsle Evangelical Mission and the various Girls' Schools, we found many of our old pupils holding remunerative posts as teachers in the Missions, Anglo-Vernacular Schools, and Training Institutions. Being all Christians they are very acceptable as Agents in Malabar, where as a rule nearly all the passed matriculates are heathen. Some we found doing good even in their leisure hours ; one had made friends with the European soldiers in the Cantonment, and was teaching some of them writing, &c., and had also persuaded some to join the Temperance Association under the Chaplain and to attend the prayer-meetings.

Pastorates and Mission.

The Rev. Henry Baker is Chairman of the Cottayam District Council. In this capacity, and as Missionary in some districts where the organization of the Native Church is less advanced, he watches over about 9000 Native Christians. The baptisms, of which he gives so deeply interesting a description, took place subsequent to the drawing up of the yearly statistics. Mr. Baker writes :—

The Church Councils, both that of the northern division under my supervision, and the General Council, are I think working well; and almost all the Native clergy are exerting themselves fairly to establish and carry out the plan. The reduction of the Society's grants to our funds has compelled us to diminish the number of paid Agents; and while the more efficient are only retained, unpaid agency and a much larger body of helpers have been called out.—In our congregations after the one day for Missions, we felt we had certain other objects of primary importance. These were a deeper sorrow for sin and devotion to Christ ; utter negation of caste ; making our lives examples to others ; every one speaking a word in season with all forbearance. [To seek for these blessings] prayer-meetings were held in all my Pastorates and Mission congregations, almost daily. This was a great point gained. Hitherto Sundays only had been the days on which larger meetings could be gathered ; but now there were deeply earnest assemblies, with laymen (not Agents) everywhere taking leading parts. A deeper sense of horror at living in known sin, the deadness of the soul arising from allowing smaller evil habits to cling to everyday life, and then the brighter prospects opening as Christ reigns in the soul, were the points kept in view. I then fixed upon central spots where all the Communicants of each division could meet ; and where we could also assemble those among the candidates for baptism, who could give good account of their faith and acquirements of Scriptural knowledge, had lived more than two years under the observation of the Teachers and Pastors, and were well reported of by the members of their Churches. We met at ten, had an address and the Litany ; then a public examination of the Catechumens, a short time for prayer and thought ; and then the Pastor and I baptized them alternately in parties. Then at two, we met again after a short interval : addresses were given by myself to the Communicants, with time for private prayer, and then we had the Holy Communion. Men and women of every deserted caste kneeled together. In some congregations till now this had never before occurred. We had eight of these larger assemblies ; and nearly 600 souls, out of 1500 learning, were baptized ; and I do believe more of a firm Evangelical faith was manifested by people and Teachers than I ever before witnessed.—Of the Arrians, two new villages have come under instruction ; there have been seventy-six baptisms in the Melkavu group, and a few at Kutical.—Our village schools are not what as a whole I wish. The children don't stay long enough. The Usborne Class, and Girls' Boarding and Day School are very prosperous; 139 on the list. Only twelve children are supported by the Mission. With this exception, Miss Usborne and other friends take the entire support of children, teachers, &c.—We are now having daily meetings of the Malayalim Revision Bible Committee in my house. Basle Missionaries, London Missionaries, Syrian and our own clergy are in perfect unison.

Longing after more spiritual life.

The Rev. K. Koshi, one of the Pastors in this district, has written an Annual Letter, interesting in itself, as well as for being the production of a Native brother. One extract is subjoined below. His pastorate contains 1154 Native Christians; of whom, however, a large proportion are as yet very imperfectly instructed. The Communicants number 86. There were five adult baptisms. Mr. Koshi writes:—

Voluntary Efforts of Travancore Native Christians.

A few young men belonging to the Bible class have become very earnest, and are trying to make themselves useful to others. One of them interests himself deeply in the welfare of the Chogan converts living in his village, having made it his practice for some months past to collect them at his house on Sunday morning for reading, instruction, and prayer. These Chogan converts form a good proportion of the Pallam congregation, but as a class they are ignorant and careless. It was hard work at first for this dear brother to persuade them to meet, but by loving words and earnestness of manner he won them over. He often had to leave home at daybreak and visit every house, in order to get them collected early. Then after spending the hours before the public service in teaching and exhorting them, he comes to church followed by his band of disciples, men and women, young and old. Another young man, a matriculated student of the Cottayam College, has lately, with the aid of a friend, opened a Sunday school for the children. This he has done of his own accord, and his unostentatious manner in expressing to me his wish to begin this work of love was quite pleasing. There are a few others who while engaged in their daily occupations at home, quietly speak to their heathen neighbours about the Saviour.

MÂVELIKARA.

The Rev. J. Caley, Chairman of the Mâvelikera Church Council, writes as follows:—

You will be glad to hear that the work in connexion with the Native Church Council still progresses. The Church does not rise rapidly towards self support; but still the progress is real. At present there are six substantial stone churches in the course of erection in Mâvelikara district, some of which are nearly completed, and some only just commenced. As these are built entirely by the people without any help from the Society, it makes their contributions towards the salaries of their teachers look somewhat small at present. While the Pastors and people are busily engaged in raising the material buildings it is satisfactory to know that the spiritual is not neglected. At our last district Council the last subject we considered was, "How can we best bring the Gospel home to the heathen?" It was quite natural that there should be difference of opinion as to the best mode; but there was no difference with regard to the necessity of making real and earnest efforts. The subject too was interesting in another way—it showed that real efforts had been and were being made to reach the heathen.

ALLEPPIE.

The Rev. W. Johnson is the Missionary at this station. The Native Christians connected with it number 707, of whom 169 are Communicants. Ten adults were baptized during the year. It has not yet been found possible to obtain a suitable Native Pastor for the Christian congregation of the town; but, in ministering to them and to the Christians of the out-stations, as well as in his efforts to evangelize the heathen, Mr. Johnson is assisted by six Native Catechists and Readers. Alleppie is a commercial town, of which the trade is not unimportant. There have been, however, one or two mercantile failures during the year, by which the pecuniary condition of the Native Christians has been unfavourably affected. Mr. Johnson has not a high opinion of the spiritual strength of his flock, though he remarks that peace and harmony have been preserved amongst them. In what is more strictly speaking Missionary work, Mr. Johnson's efforts have been of various kinds. He has succeeded in inducing several boys of the (Native) Government Anglo-Vernacular School to attend a course of lectures, and he has great hopes of receiving into the Christian Church one of the students in the first class. With the same view the Missionary has started a debating club for the use of the judges and pleaders in the Zillah Court. This has given him opportunities of upholding Christian truth, and of pressing the offers of salvation, in private converse with acquaintance thus made who otherwise perhaps would never have heard of the Gospel. Mr. Johnson is able to report well of his Native Evangelists engaged in Missionary work. Fresh ground has been opened in two directions; and there are several inquirers.

One very interesting baptism which took place on Sunday, October 11th, 1874, is thus described by Mr. Johnson:—

First Baptism from among a peculiar sect near Alleppie.

Quinomalla, the late heathen, now bears the name of Paul. He is the headman of a clan or class called Cunnar Pulayans. Their religious ideas are Manichæan, somewhat resembling those of the ancient Persians. They have their author of good whom they reverence, and the author of evil, whom they constantly strive to appease by offerings of poultry. They understand Malayalim, but speak a peculiar dialect of their own. They are a happy and cheerful-looking set of persons, and though socially low and barbaric in their dress are proud of their peculiar position. They live six miles north of Alleppie. My attention was first drawn to them by the fact of thirty-three of their number having joined the Church of Rome. The way was opened for my reception by a pious old woman, who lived two miles from their rude huts and used to visit them for the purposes of trade. My first appearance among them caused a fearful alarm. However, I employed a son of the pious old lady as their schoolmaster; and the school was upon the whole well attended. The first fruits of work was the baptism of Paul. I had appointed that he should visit me on the day previous for the purpose of being examined. He came late in the afternoon, accompanied by his uncle, an aged man, who earnestly begged me not to baptize his nephew until he had performed his part of closing his aged eyes after death. I told my old friend that before that time I hoped he would follow his nephew's example.

The Rev. W. Smith was Missionary of TRICHUR until his death on the 21st of August, 1874. No report has been received of the work here during the year

KUNNANKULAM.

The Rev. F. Bower has been in charge of the work at this station throughout the year, though, in consequence of Mr. Smith's death, he has recently resided at Trichur. The Native Christians number 285, of whom 131 are Communicants. The quarrelsome spirit of former years seems to have passed away, and the attendance at Sunday services is satisfactory. It is, however, an unfavourable symptom as regards their zeal and vitality that only one adult heathen has, during the year, testified his conversion by receiving baptism. Small-pox has raged fearfully in the neighbourhood. Several of the Native Christians attached to the Mission have died, and (it is supposed) no less than 800 of the Syrians. The Syrians were so terrified that they were often in their churches till midnight imploring GOD to have mercy on them. In his notice of preaching to the heathen Mr. Bower's Annual Letter contains the following deeply interesting passage:—

Preaching to the heathen has been carried on as usual. The everlasting Gospel has, I rejoice to say, been listened to by all classes amongst the Hindus with much attention; and Christian books and tracts have been purchased not only by Nairs and Chogans, but also by Brahmins. During the year more than 1000 have been sold by myself and the Reader, and many handbills have been distributed. The Mohammedans are still bigoted, and seldom give us a good hearing; but our work amongst the heathen is decidedly encouraging, nor are signs wanting to show that our labour is not in vain in the Lord. One remarkable conversion took place during the year. It is as follows:—A very respectable, intelligent Chogan, about thirty years of age, well acquainted with the Shasters and Purânas, came one day to a village school to hear me preach. I observed that he seemed to be impressed, but had no idea that he was then about to decide for Christ. He went home and spoke to some of his companions seriously about what he had heard, and resolved from that very evening to become a Christian. He accordingly gave up idolatry, which he had loved, and boldly declared his belief in Christianity. The Scriptures from that day were read by him night and morning with prayer. No sooner did this man believe in Christ than he began to preach as well as he could to his relatives and friends, which very soon exposed him to persecution. His friends immediately became his enemies, and his relatives cast him off. His wife also forsook him, and did all she possibly could to prevent him from embracing our religion. This was a most bitter trial to him; but he bore all like a martyr with manly courage and a true Christian spirit. Being educated, and so zealous in Christ's cause, he promised to become very useful in the Lord's vineyard; but it pleased God to take him to Himself. He died of small-pox, only a short time after placing himself under Christian instruction. During his illness he was calm and resigned, and frequently spoke of the love of Jesus to those who came to see him as he lay on his bed. When his wife heard that he was at the point of death, she with his mother came to visit him, and was greatly surprised to find him so happy at the prospect of death. An aunt of his knelt beside him, and apparently with much earnestness began to repeat "Ram, Ram," (the name of one of their gods) requesting him to do the same. But though very weak he immediately raised his hand and said, "Stop, you must not repeat that name to me, for I have done with Hinduism, I am a Christian, though not yet baptized. I believe in Jesus Christ only." Just before expiring he made his wife promise to embrace the Christian religion, and earnestly requested her to train up his children in the fear of the true God. He died full of joy and peace in believing, to the great astonishment of his heathen relatives and friends.

MASULIPATAM.

Education.

It is a source of much sorrow to the Committee that they have not been able to supply Mr. Sharp, the devoted Principal of the Noble High School, with a coadjutor who might fill the vacant post of the Rugby Fox Mastership. There is one, and only one, cause of their not having done so; and that is, that they have looked in vain to the Churches of England and Ireland to supply them with labourers at once suitable and willing to undertake the duties of this and similar posts. It is a matter for devout thanksgiving to God that Mr. Sharp's health has been restored after the serious accident mentioned in the previous Report. Mr. Clayton, who assisted Mr. Sharp during the year 1874, though since compelled to return, wrote in January, 1875, as follows:—

I have enjoyed my work very much indeed during the past year, and only regret that none of those whom I have taught have come forward and professed Christ. There are some of whom I am very hopeful. They have listened to, and apparently received, the engrafted Word with meekness; their Scripture lessons have always been well prepared, and they have shown that they have understood the meaning of them. Of course there are many who do not like the Bible at all, and who only come to the Noble School for the sake of their English, or because they can get a scholarship there, or for some other similar reason.

On another subject, Mr. Clayton wrote, in the same letter :—

You will be glad to hear that Mrs. Clayton's Girls' Schools for the higher classes of Hindus now number 150 children. When she took charge of them a day or two after her landing, in 1871, there were only about seventy. The schools began the year in debt to me. As soon as that was cleared off and we had a little balance in hand, we were encouraged to open another school in a different part of the town, which has about twenty attending it. The Government grant last year on the result system was larger than before. A few of the girls passed the third standard. The Bible is daily taught to each class for an hour, and the school opened with prayer and reading. The following is an extract from a Native publication after our last prize-giving :—"Our people consider that all the business was almost to their entire satisfaction, but remark that the girls are learning more about Christ and the Cross than anything else of what was taught. However, we are thankful to the Missionaries for teaching our countrymen by example that our daughters must be educated as well as our sons."

Comment by a Native newspaper on a Mission Girls' School.

Since October, 1874, the VERNACULAR TRAINING INSTITUTION has been under the care of the Rev. J. E. Padfield. Mr. Padfield's Annual Letter was written just afterwards, in December. There are twenty-eight students, of whom twenty-one are boarders. During the eight years ending with 1874 it had sent out fifty-seven Teachers into the Telugu Mission field.

The District.

In the Masulipatam DISTRICT there are 1400 Native Christians and 129 Communicants ; 122 adults have been baptized during the year. The Rev. W. Ellington, who has charge of the work, reports that Christians or inquirers are to be found in about forty villages, that there are rather over thirty Native Agents, twenty-five village day schools, and altogether somewhat more than 1400 persons under instruction. This is an increase of nearly 400 since the date of the Statistical Returns for 1873. A portion of the Masulipatam district is under the care of a Native brother, the Rev. A. Bhushanam, who, in the absence of a properly constituted Native Church Council, is subordinated to Mr. Ellington. Mr. Bhushanam writes :—

Mâla Christians steadfast under persecution.

We might add many more villages to our number, if we had only the means of providing teachers or preachers to them all. All our Christian people are of Mâla caste. A few of them are independent cultivators ; but nearly all the rest are miserably poor, and entirely dependent for their livelihood on the will and pleasure of their caste superiors. Their caste lords, or influential heathen caste neighbours, often bring them into great trouble, in order to make them give up the new religion which they have professed. But where the opposition is greatest, there the Christians seem to show most spiritual life. Sometimes they are prevented by their caste neighbours from gathering firewood even on Government waste lands, and their cattle are often sent to the pound under the pretence of trespass; and at other times they are not permitted to dig a pit in the bed of a tank to get good water during the hot weather. . . . We require them to observe the Lord's Day as a day of rest. This is often a hard matter with them, as all of them lose very considerably by it during the transplantation and reaping time. . . . When cholera was prevailing in one of our villages, the "Devil driver," who had come in to prevent it by his charms, used many means to make the Christians either follow him or to eat the food offered to the devil. But none of his threats or entreaties could move them from their resolution in following Christ, and Him alone. . . . A young man in a village was persecuted by his father for being an inquirer, and for attending the daily prayers conducted by a Christian teacher. The poor old man tried all in his power to prevent his son embracing the truth, but finding all useless bade him go out of his house, and never come back to him. The son left the house, and as nobody in the village would receive him, came and took shelter for a fortnight in the schoolhouse, cooking his rice daily, and working in the fields as before. His steady adherence to his religious observances put the father to shame, and made him take his son back into his house and treat him with great kindness.

BEZWARA.

Mr. Harrison writes with much thankfulness to the Lord of the harvest for success graciously vouchsafed. The following are extracts from his Annual Letter :—

I am glad to say this (like last) year has been one of progress. The number of baptized in last Report was 85, and now they are 143. The total number of baptized and Catechumens has increased from 531 last year to 603 this year. I explained last year that the small number of baptized persons as compared with the number of Catechumens, arises simply from my having no

Catechist to help me. During the last four years more than 500 heathen have come over to Christianity; and being scattered over seventeen villages, I do not see how it is possible for me to teach them without one or two Catechists to help me. In order to obtain good Agents it is necessary to train them; and I have eleven boys, whose ages vary from ten to eighteen, in the boarding-school; but I must wait many years before I can expect great things from them. The training of these boys is a matter in which I take the deepest interest. They are taught in the Anglo-Vernacular School, and keep their place well with the caste boys. They board and lodge in a house I have built close to mine, and come to me for prayers and instruction at night.—The Caste Girls' School is more satisfactory than it has ever been since it broke up, which you remember was caused by the conversion of two Brahmins in the Anglo-Vernacular School, after it had existed just one year. The average attendance during the last quarter was forty, and the number on the rolls fifty-four. The girls in the highest class can read well, write well, and in arithmetic do the compound rules. They also learn geography and Scripture stories. Their reading-books (Christian Vernacular educational series) are full of Christianity. This is a great step in advance. I believe the girls' schools are more important than the boys'. The homes of the higher castes are almost inaccessible, and it is there that superstition lurks most. When a young man wishes to become a Christian it is the mother who stands most in the way. With the men—to a large extent—there is no belief in Hinduism, but this is not the case with the women. In the Telugu country vast numbers of the men have received their education in the Mission Schools; and now the Girls' Schools, I hope, will do the same for the women. The school was commenced November 1, 1870, and already 149 girls have received more or less education in it.

The Anglo-Vernacular School, now under the care of the Rev. M. Ratnam, a Native clergyman, has had to contend with many difficulties. The conversions that took place in a previous year, and some offence given to caste prejudices, combined to reduce the numbers. There has, however, been again an advance; and about 100 pupils are now under instruction.

RAGHAPURAM.

In this district the Native Christians by the last returns numbered 691. Of these, 225 were Communicants; and there were 28 Adult Baptisms in the course of the year. The Rev. T. Y. Darling, who had charge of the district during 1874, has been graciously permitted to report many signs of God's presence and blessing. He writes:—

The movement towards Christianity among the Malas is by no means stationary. We have as yet only touched the surface, so to speak, of this class, and so it is also with the Madigas. I believe that as devoted spiritually-minded men from this class increase to recommend the Gospel by word and example, in such proportion will Christianity spread among them. At present the attitude is that of waiting to know more. Great poverty and ignorance prevail everywhere, and these (coupled with the fact that the poor are in subjection to the richer and higher castes, owing in a great measure to their dependence upon them for their daily bread) keep many from taking a step which would certainly bring immediate trouble. Everywhere, where the Gospel has been preached, Christianity is admired, even by those who as yet reject it. Many of all castes approve of it. Many have said to me that "it is very good, blameless, the very best religion, and that it is their misfortune which keeps them from its benefits." Pantheistic ideas possess the mass of the people from the Brahmin downwards, deadening every sense of sin; and Rationalistic error, derived from the writings of European Freethinkers and Secularists, is seizing hold of many of the English-reading youths, and corrupting them more and more.

Christianity admired, but rejected.

I am spending my Christmas season with our poor Christians of Garkipad. This village is in the Nizam's country, on the borders of British territory to the north of Raghapuram. It was the first village of the Nizam's where we got an entrance by the conversion to Christianity of a Mala ryot and his family in 1867. Since then Job, for that is the name of the headman, has been a shining light to all his neighbours. I decided to come here because there is an increasing work going on in several villages around. On Christmas Day I had the privilege of baptizing two households, numbering six souls, from Tellagaram, consisting of two men, their wives, and an infant each; and there are more inquirers from the same place, as well as other villages where are some preparing for baptism. Our prayer-house here is a thatched shed about twelve feet long by eight feet wide. I supplied the materials, and Job and the other Christians put it up by their own labour close by my tent. On this occasion, as the prayer-house could not accommodate all the congregation, the shelter of the tent made up for the deficiency. Picture a congregation of some forty people all seated on the ground. I sit opposite them on a low wooden stool. Our service begins with a hymn which I start, giving the tune on my violin. Every one tries to join in, at least in the chorus, for every Telugu tune has a chorus. Next I read a portion of Holy Scripture, and then selecting one verse, teach it to the people. They all repeat together after me a great many times, and when I think this has been done sufficiently long, I make each one repeat the verse separately. This occupies a little time, but it secures a lesson learned. The text is then committed to memory. I begin now to explain it. On this occasion the text was, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." Whilst I go on explaining, I ask questions regarding what I have already said, to be satisfied that I am understood, and to see that the people are listening. If the person addressed fails to give an immediate reply some one else is sure to give it, if he happens to know. Sometimes, while I am explaining, an old member of the congregation will put in his remarks also. This is not considered any interruption. I allow it, for it helps to keep up attention, and draws out the people. Once more, after the sermon, a few are selected to say the text. Then we kneel to pray, and when we rise all repeat after me the Apostles' Creed. We then break up.—The Mission district of Raghapuram is very large, and it increases every year. In my last statistics I entered forty-three villages where we have Christians or Catechumens. In this year's Report you will find fifty-two villages.

DUMAGUDIEM.

The Rev. J. Cain is the Missionary of this Station. The Christians here number 289, and the Communicants 64. There were seven adult baptisms during the year. Dumagudiem is the head-quarters of the efforts among the aboriginal tribe named Kois; but what proportion of the Christians mentioned above are Kois does not appear from Mr. Cain's letter. Mr. Cain, who is assisted by a Native brother, the Rev. J. V. Razu, writes as follows:—

The past year has been one full of encouragement mingled with discouragement. Some of the Christians here have caused us intense pain. Several have gone back altogether and appear to care only for the present life. On the other hand we can speak of more regular attendance at Divine worship, an increase in the number of Communicants, and a hearty desire on the part of some at least to know more of Christ. One poor woman who lives a long way off frequently starts on the Saturday, lest the weather or weariness on the Sunday morning should hinder her from coming to church. Another poor woman in the same village, some time ago heard the truth, received it, and by her meek and quiet spirit, when suffering much wrong at the hands of her husband, was the means of winning him too. One Koi who had long resisted the truth was baptized last Christmas tide.—The country here is so jungly and the villages so small, that the European Missionary must expect to do most by indirect influence, and lay himself out to work chiefly through his Agents; and as there has been no resident Missionary here since 1867, a great deal of my time has been taken up in instructing the Agents.—The Badrachellum festival was visited by the Rev. J. V. Razu and two teachers.

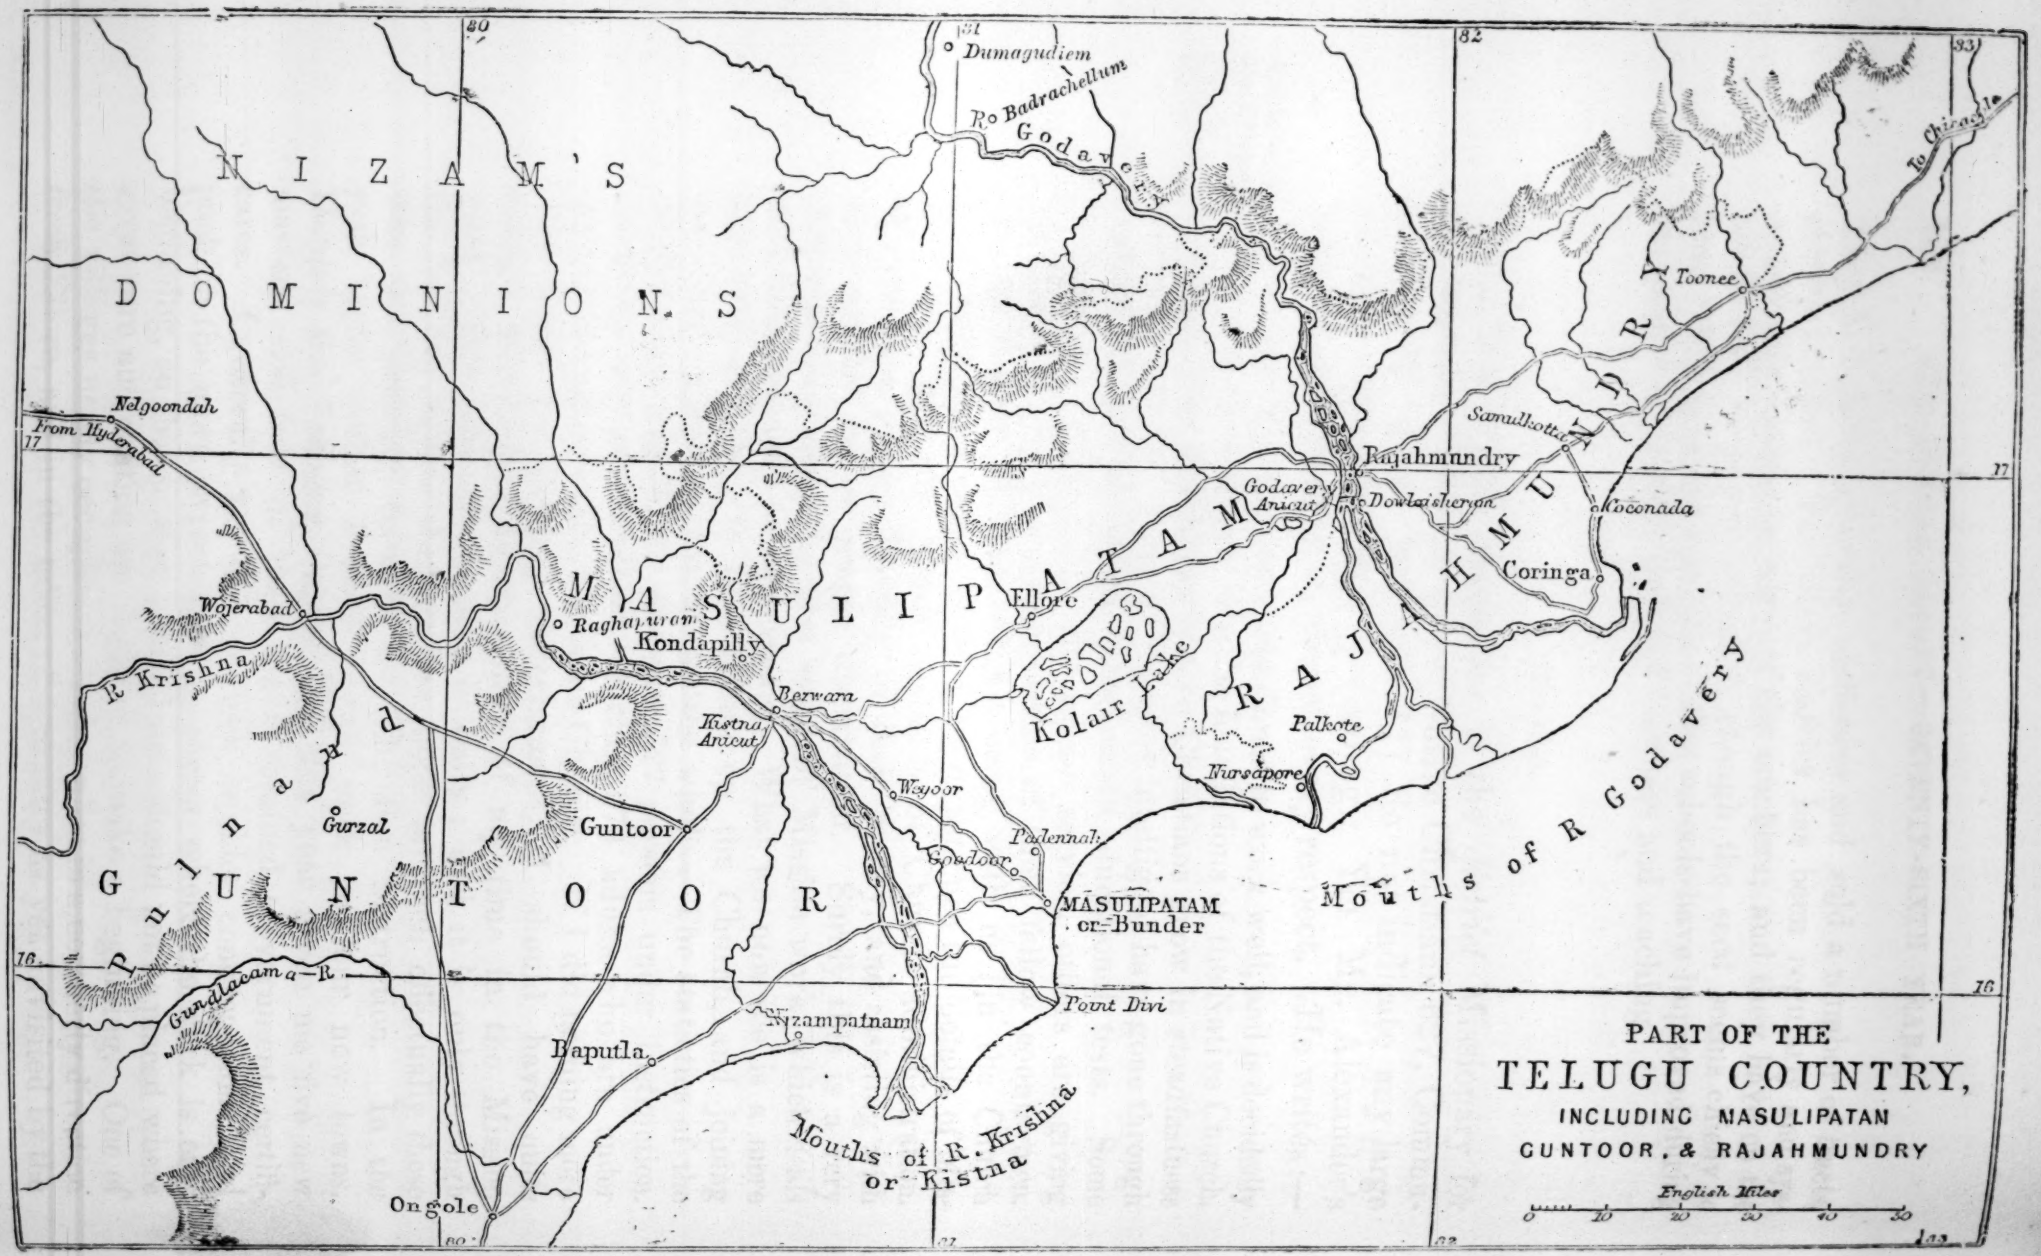

They had fairly attentive audiences and sold a number of tracts, chiefly poetical. The whole district has been regularly and systematically visited by some of the teachers; and they have on the whole been very well received, though the seed seems chiefly to have fallen upon the wayside.—The schools have improved during the past year, both in point of numbers and teaching.

ELLORE.

The Rev. F. N. Alexander is the district Missionary for the Station. The statistics (Native Christians 627, Communicants 63, Adult Baptisms 11) do not indicate any large increase over the year preceding. Yet Mr. Alexander's letter is encouraging in almost every respect. He writes:—

Advance of the Ellore Native Christians.

Our Church [Committee] continues to work well, and is decidedly striking its roots deeper into the foundations of the Native Church. It is gratifying also to see Native Christians grow in steadfastness and in knowledge. Some of the more intelligent have gone through our schools and passed the Government educational tests. Some of them are employed in the public service, others are giving invaluable aid for the evangelization of their fellow countrymen. We have some of them sitting along with us [in the Church Committee], and there, learning by experience the details of Mission work and the proper methods of Church administration. We see them giving liberally of their money, and assisting with their counsel for its proper distribution. Surely this is a very different thing from the first stage of Mission work, which deals with believers only as individuals. What we now see is a more advanced process; it is building up the Church, and joining individual members into one united whole.—The statistics of the district show that there are now 627 persons under instruction. Of these, 353 are baptized, leaving 274 adults who are under preparation to enter the Christian Church. If I did nothing more than teach the existing Catechumens, I should have quite enough to occupy the remainder of my time in the Mission work. But more are coming in daily; and it is only through the Native Agents that we can hope to reach effectually those who are pressing forward for Christian instruction. In the year under review I have begun work in four new towns. Happily the Training School has this year given me five new masters, and four of these have obtained Government certificates. I generally put the new men in older congregations, and push on the more experienced to places where the work is only beginning, so that new or untried men should not be placed where great care and caution are required to make a beginning. One of the villages newly occupied is sixteen miles in a northerly direction from Ellore, and in the midst of a country as yet unvisited by the feet of the evangelist. It will be thus a completely new centre from which the light of the Gospel will spread both to caste people and to Malas in all the country round. The other newly-occupied villages are in the vicinity of places already under instruction, and they can be readily looked after by the existing agency. To my mind it is ever an increasing subject of anxiety as to how those scattered communities are to receive proper ministerial services. It takes me more than two months to get round my district, when nothing interferes to stop my progress; but the incidents of extra-ordinary duties or a necessary journey out of my district now and then make the intervals of visitation sometimes much longer, and as villages increase this will become more and more extended. It is true that a Catechist is always posted at an easy distance of each centre, but this does not answer the purposes of an ordained minister, who could preach and administer the Sacraments with all authority. I consider that two ordained men at the least are wanted to make my work efficient, and I think I could very soon supply them.

In connexion with this Station there are three Agents supported by the Walter Jones Fund, who are all breaking up new ground in the neighbourhood. All are working faithfully, and of the labours of one of them Mr. Alexander writes as follows :—

G. P. has worked well in his own village, and has also extended his visits to the towns in his near neighbourhood. In Yemulapilli there are 34 inquirers. There are a good many more who more or less attend religious instruction ; but the above are regularly enrolled inquirers, and G. P. has won their confidence and respect. G. P. has been joined by his brother, who is now an inquirer ; they belong to the priestly caste amongst the Malas, and this gives them great influence among the members of that caste. While his brother attends to the school, G. P. has worked among the neighbouring villages, and I am glad to say success has already attended his labours. In several villages people have asked for religious instruction ; and in one, called Pragadaram, twelve men have given me their names as candidates for Baptism. I regard this as a most hopeful opening.

The schools in the town of Ellore were under the charge of Rev. J. E. Padfield, until October, 1874, when he left for Masulipatam. In reporting his work Mr. Padfield insists that the Missionary in a school can and does there preach Christ just as faithfully as one who preaches to adult heathen in the open air, and that schools are generally speaking, in the Telugu country, the only practicable mode of finding access to the upper classes. Mr. Padfield also urges that all the masters in the schools should be Christians, even if such a plan sacrifices some little scholastic efficiency. One half of the boys under Mr. Padfield's instruction were Mohammedans. In reference to this subject he writes as follows :—

Mental condition of South Indian Mohammedans.

I have been reading the long article on "Mohammed and Mohammedanism" in the Church Missionary Intelligencer for August; and I can fully bear out the testimony there given by Mr. Townsend and others as to the effect of that creed on its followers. With very few exceptions I have found the Mohammedans lacking in energy and perseverance; their doctrine of fatalism, or some other cause, seems to have such an apathetic influence upon them, that they always contrast badly with the Hindus. Mr. Kershaw, Government Inspector of Schools in a late report of our schools, writes thus on this point : "This school (the Mohammedan branch) did not do so well generally as the Hindu School, an observation which I invariably have to make when Mohammedan classes are contrasted with corresponding Hindu classes : the only explanation that I can conceive is that the Mohammedan intellect is less acute than that of the Hindu, and that Mohammedans as a race are by nature less industrious and plodding than Hindus."

Mr. Padfield thus refers to the caste difficulty which so injured the Ellore Anglo-Vernacular School in the year 1873 :—

Battle with caste in an Anglo-Vernacular School.

You are aware that during the past year the Anglo-Vernacular School has been in a very low state as regards numbers. It is now quite a year since we admitted the two Christian boys of Pariah origin, when the whole of the Hindu boys left as a body. We have had a very trying time of it since then, for unless one has experienced it you have no idea how disheartening it is to teach comparatively empty benches. I am, however, glad to say that the school is again lifting up its head, and our benches begin to present somewhat of their former appearance. The first few weeks after the obnoxious innovation brought us back some twenty Hindu pupils, but for nearly the whole year we did not average thirty on the rolls. Of course we always have our Mohammedan branch, for that did not suffer at all. This month has brought us a large accession promoted from our two preparatory schools. We have now on the rolls ninety-four, of whom forty-six are Hindus; so that, although the new rival Hindu School is still in existence, I think we may fairly say that we have got back our footing, and that things bid fair for our soon getting back our former numbers and efficiency. The late troubles have been a severe blow to the school; but I can only repeat what I have said before, that I feel we were perfectly right in doing what we did ; that it would have sadly compromised us as Christians if we had done otherwise; and that even now, if we had our time to go over again, I for my part should advise the same course to be taken.

There are two Preparatory Schools. In one of these the caste difficulty seems to be entirely overcome, Christians of Pariah origin sitting side by side with Brahmins, Sudras, Mohammedans, and Pariah heathen. The attendance at the Caste Girls' School, under the care of Mrs. Padfield, had risen to fifty-four at the time when she left Ellore with her husband.

CEYLON MISSION.

(Commenced 1817.)

I. Colombo and Cotta. II. Baddegama. III. Kandy. IV. Jaffna.

General.

The European staff on this Mission, which has been lately reinforced, was numerically weak during the greater part of 1874. But the blessing of God was not withheld; one hundred and twelve adults were baptized, and the candidates for baptism number about a hundred and fifty. The amount of subscriptions, &c., raised in the island was greater than in any former year. Excluding all school-fees, grants in aid, and similar sums, and taking those strictly devoted to religious purposes, it reached the large sum of 36,262 rupees. Of this amount it is gratifying to observe that 12,834 rupees have been contributed by natives.

COLOMBO.

The English-speaking congregation, assembling in Christ Church, is ministered to by the Rev. W. Clark. It has subscribed during the year for religious purposes upwards of 4000 rupees, and has been a source of strength to the Mission in other ways. Some of its members show much zeal in the service of their Heavenly Master.

Singhalese Congregation.

This congregation is still under the care of the Rev. C. Jayasingha. As the Singhalese in the vicinity of the church belong mostly to the humbler classes of society, this congregation must not be compared for intelligence and social position with those of Kandy or Madras. Many of its members follow migratory employments, which, if they do not impede their spiritual growth, render it less visible. Mr. Jayasingha, however, observes with thankfulness a gradual accession from the permanent inhabitants of the neighbourhood. He has been troubled at the same town by the spiritual aberration of some that had been most regular attendants, but who have lately adopted the notion that they have been divinely directed to absent themselves from church, and to meet at another place. The congregation supports a Scripture Reader. Mr. Jayasingha's flock numbers 116 persons, of whom 27 are Communicants. Four adults were baptized during the year, and there are six candidates. One of these baptisms was an interesting case, and is thus described by Mr. Jayasingha :—

> The young man above mentioned belongs to a rich and respectable family of the Mahabaedda (cinnamon-peeler) class, and has been known to me from a child. The truths constantly brought before him during his course of studies in the school opened his mind to see the superiority of Christianity over Buddhism ; but for a long time he did not allow his convictions to assume a practical form through fear of offending his heathen parents. He came to me for advice and guidance; and the Lord enabled him to become a decided Christian, and to make public profession of it by baptism. But when his parents were consulted to obtain their consent, they said, "We are very sorry that he has embraced a false religion; but if he believes that Christianity is true, we make no objection to his being baptized." He was accordingly admitted into the Church by baptism on 3rd May last. He is a well-educated young man and of sound principles, and I hope that the grace of God will be vouchsafed to him to become an instrument in His hands to lead many to Christ. Everybody here knows that he expects no worldly advantage whatever in becoming a Christian.

Conversion of a Buddhist near Colombo.

Tamil Mission.

The number of Native Christians connected with this Mission has risen from 731 to 847, and the Communicants from 125 to 145. This increase has taken place among the affiliated congregations. In the central congregation of Christ Church there has been much dissension and party spirit, which has led to a falling off in many respects. But here also there are again signs of improvement. Seven adults have been baptized. Mr. Rowlands writes:—

As to other things which lie deeper than either attendance on means of grace or the collecting of money, I feel more and more every day that nothing can correct the evils which are so apparent but a mighty outpouring of the Spirit of God. Without this we may organize and preach to any extent, but all in vain. We must therefore betake ourselves more earnestly and importunately to prayer; and when we read of the showers of blessing that are descending upon our beloved country and upon Scotland and Ireland, surely we have every reason to take courage in the belief that the prayer of faith will call down like blessings upon ourselves.—But while the Slave Island and Marandahn congregations have both, more or less, suffered from the painful circumstances already detailed, those at Haltsdorp and Mutwal have improved, especially the former. There is now a nice little congregation of Christians at Haltsdorp, still meeting in the store of the large mills there; but Mr. Leechman and his brother, the owners of the store, have expressed their wish to procure a site for a small church to be built in that locality; and I trust by the end of another year I may be able to tell you that something has been done in the matter. We have long felt the need of a better place of worship, and one more conveniently situated for the Mutwal and Mattakkuly congregation; and I am thankful to say I have just succeeded in purchasing a piece of land at Mutwal (for £115), which will afford a most suitable site whenever we have the means of erecting a church upon it. Very praiseworthy efforts had been made by the Native Christians themselves towards raising funds for building a church in Marandahn; and during the past year those funds have been added to, by European and Native subscriptions, to the extent of 347 rupees. I have thus before me the pleasant hope that (if spared to remain here a little longer) I may see three small churches for Tamil congregations spring up in different parts of the town.

The Girls' (Tamil) Boarding School has suffered from various unavoidable causes. It now contains thirteen pupils. A Boys' Boarding School has also been established, for which an excellent master has been generously supplied from Tinnevelly by Mr. Dibb of Mengnânapuram.

COTTA.

The Rev. R. T. Dowbiggin is the Chairman of the Native Church Council for this district. In addition to this, he has charge of the schools of the district, and superintends various Native Evangelists, both in the Cotta district and in Colombo. (He has also supervised the work at Baddegama.) Mr. Dowbiggin writes:—

The Pastoral work has been earnestly and systematically carried on by the ordained Pastors and Catechist. I observe a zealous care over the congregations, and a healthy rivalry as to who shall produce most money for the Church fund. The Missionary meetings and bazaars are, I think, productive of good in various ways besides the amount of money which we realize by them. The people are brought to mix more freely together; ideas are exchanged; they are able to look on the things of others; and strangers and Buddhists will often stand and listen to the addresses at such meetings, when they would not attend a regular service.—The Catechist in charge of the Talangama district reports the happy death of an aged Christian, who was one of the first converts from Buddhism in that district; and he only of several who at that time professed Christianity continued faithful unto the end. When he was dying his poor old wife said to him, "Alas, alas! now what shall I do?" and his last words to her were, "I am going to the Lord; I have also committed you to Him. To the place to which I am going, you come also."—A sum of Rs. 1176. 17½ has been collected in the district for Pastoral work and Evangelistic purposes. The total of moneys from Native sources received (including school fees, &c.) has been Rs. 4347. 69½.—The Church Council has been a source of strength to myself, to the Pastors, and to the district generally.

Happy death of an aged convert from Buddhism.

The effects of the new marriage ordinance, which took away certain real or supposed advantages attached to Christian marriage, are still making themselves felt. It is disappointing, doubtless, to see those who, from whatever motive, formerly accepted Christian instruction, now turning away in indifference; but on the whole the change is probably for the better.

As regards Evangelistic work: "The spirit of inquiry after the truth," says the Native Pastor of Nugégoda, "is increasing;" and in addition to the constant work going on among the heathen of the villages comprised in the Pastorate, systematic efforts have now been commenced both by the Mission and the Native Church, to diffuse the light of the Gospel in the adjoining districts. A little Native Missionary Society had an agent at work during the year 1874, in a sparsely-peopled tract to the east of the Cotta Pastorate; and similar aggression is to be made at the expense of the Walter Jones Fund, or of the general funds of the Society, in a more populous part lying to the northward nearer Colombo. The Native Association now receives a grant-in-aid from the Henry Venn Native Church Fund. On Saturday, the 19th of December, 1874, a meeting was held at Liyanwela, twenty miles from Colombo and about seventeen from Cotta, in the Hêwâgam Korle, for the purpose of publicly inaugurating the work. Mr. Dowbiggin refers to it as follows:—

At this meeting, which was attended by about seventy adults and eighty children, the chair was taken by myself, and addresses delivered by the Chairman, the Rev. H. de Silva, and Messrs. Charles Alwis and Bastian Perera. A Report of the work in the district was read by the Catechist, H. Wijisingha, from which it appears that although his weekdays are employed in itinerations; on Sundays at 7 a.m. he has a Bible-class, at 11, Sunday schools, and at 12.30, the regular services, at Liyanwela. There are two schools at Liyanwela, one at Makumbara, and others at Magammana, at Arukwatta in the Hêwâgam Korle, and at Kindelpitiya in the Rayagam Korle. During the year 1874 four new schools have been commenced, and at least two or three will be opened, God willing, during the year 1875. In this way we hope gradually to compass the whole of this wide and hitherto neglected district.

A Teacher sent in answer to prayer.

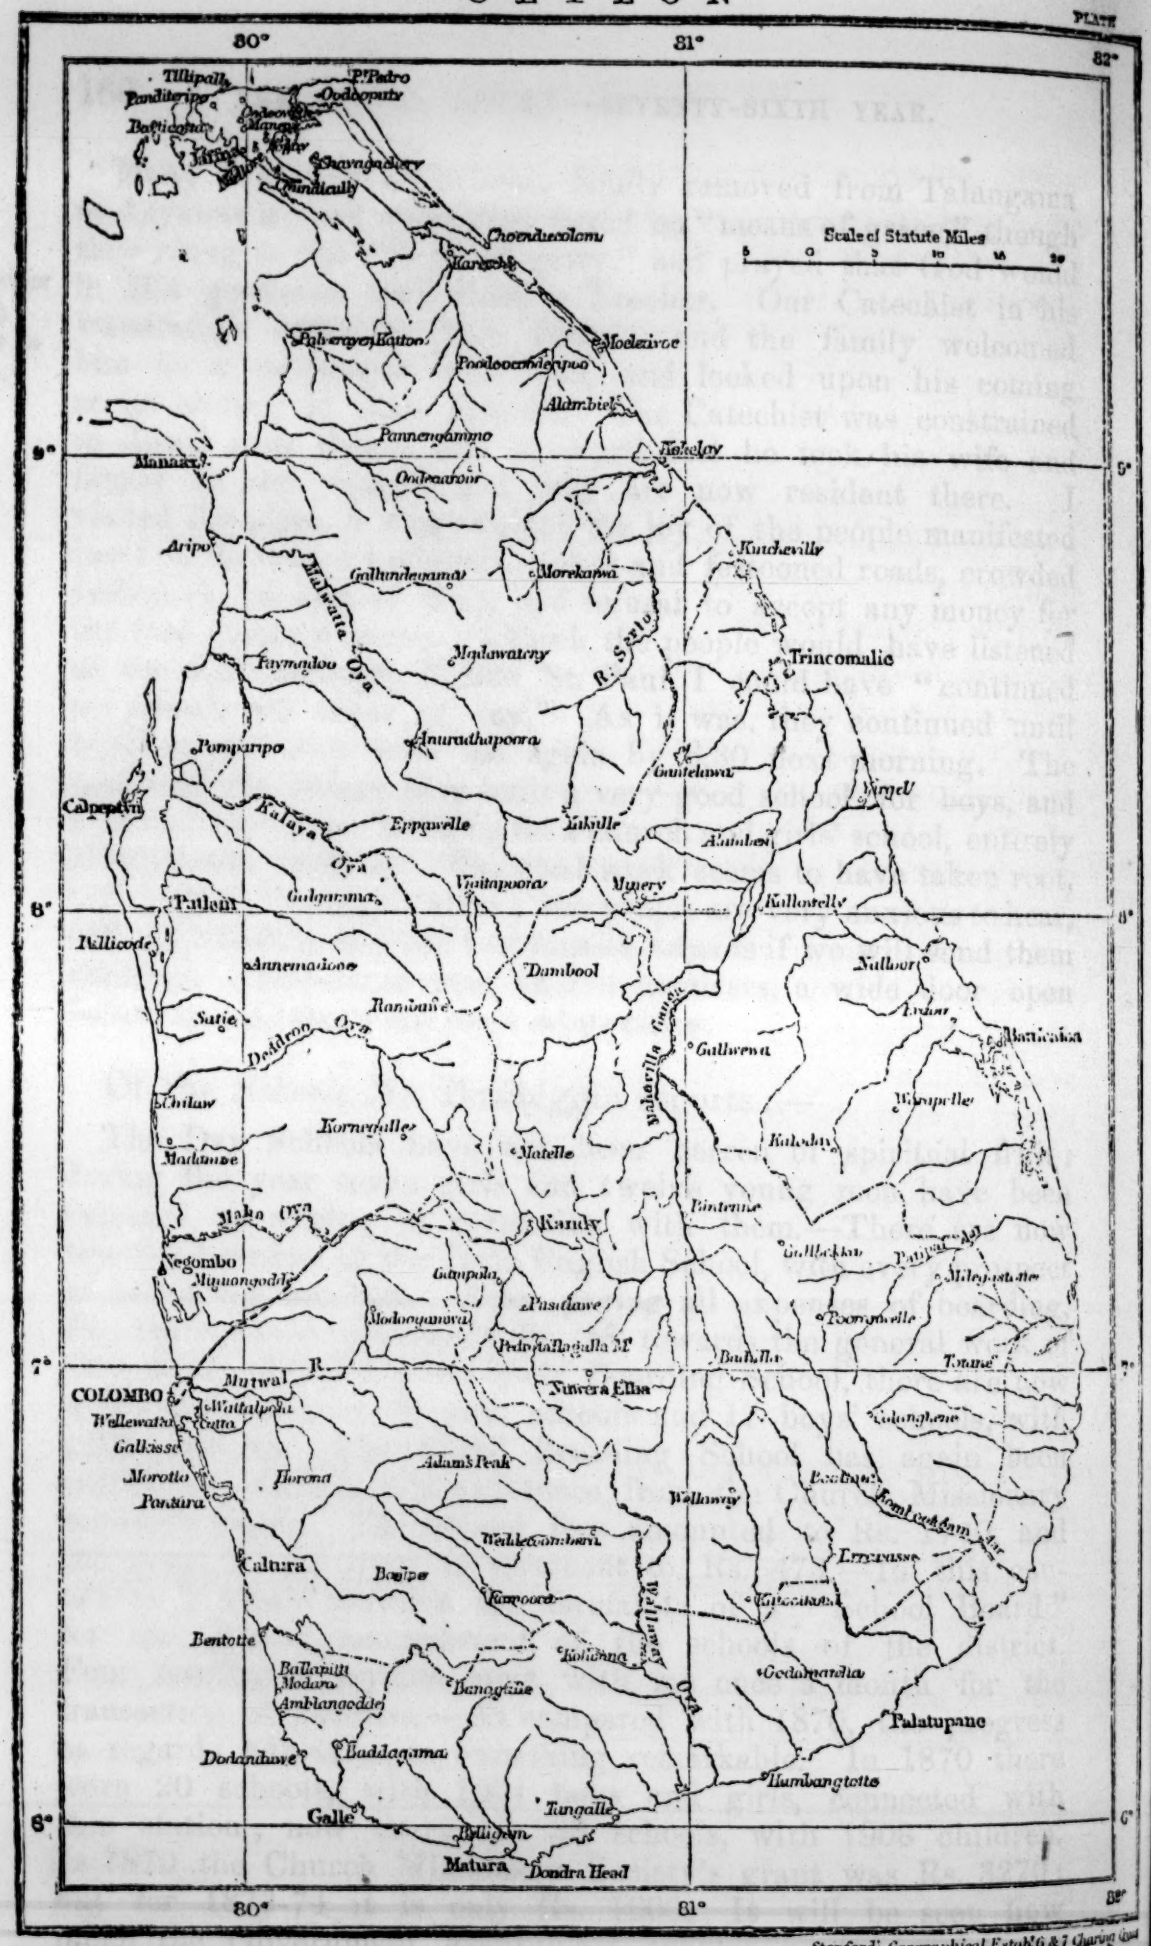

Many years ago a Christian family removed from Talangama to Liyanwela; and there they found no "means of grace," though they clung to the "hope of glory," and prayed that God would in His goodness send them a Teacher. Our Catechist in his wanderings came to their village; and the family welcomed him as a messenger from God, and looked upon his coming as an answer to their prayers. The Catechist was constrained to dwell with them; and in April last he took his wife and family to the village, and they are now resident there. I visited the place in August; and the joy of the people manifested itself in decorated buildings, arches and festooned roads, crowded audiences, presents of fruit, and refusal to accept any money for the food supplied to me. I think the people would have listened all the night through, if, like St. Paul, I could have "continued my speech till break of day." As it was, they continued until bedtime, and were with me again by 6.30 next morning. The people of the village here built a very good school for boys, and a second and larger building for a church and girls' school, entirely at their own expense. The good work seems to have taken root, and is spreading on all sides; the people are very anxious to hear, and very willing to build and furnish schools if we will send them teachers. There are now twelve inquirers, a wide door open before us, and there are some adversaries.

Of the Schools Mr. Dowbiggin reports:—

The Day Schools have not been barren of spiritual fruit: during the year seven girls and twelve young men have been baptized as adults, in connexion with them.—There are now thirteen boarders at the Cotta English School, with every prospect of increasing numbers. After paying all expenses of boarding, &c., there was a balance of Rs. 88 towards the general work of the school.—Including the Girls' Boarding School, there are now in the Cotta district 19 girls' schools and 17 boys' schools, with 1908 children. The Girls' Boarding School has again been carried on without any assistance from the Church Missionary Society's funds. The school fees amounted to Rs. 1740, and the grant in aid from Government to Rs. 473.—In this connexion I would mention the formation of a "School Board" for the general management of the schools of the district. Four intelligent laymen meet with me once a month for the transaction of business.—As compared with 1870, the progress as regards education is something remarkable. In 1870 there were 20 schools, with 1004 boys and girls, connected with this station; now there are 36 schools, with 1908 children. In 1870 the Church Missionary Society's grant was Rs. 3270; but for 1873-74 it is only Rs. 1600. It will be seen how much the Government grant-in-aid enables us to extend our school operations. We are compelled thus to extend if we would keep the district in our own hands. The demand for education is very general; and if we cannot meet it, the Government will step in and do the work, leaving out the religious instruction of the children. I must say that whenever we have asked to hold services on Sundays in the Government Schools, the Director of Public Instruction has always most kindly given his permission.

A Christian Union Association.

There has lately been established in the district an association of a number of young men under the name of the "Union Association." They meet together once in two weeks for the purpose of reading the Scriptures and delivering lectures on religious subjects. The object of this meeting is to improve themselves in religious knowledge before they carry it to others who are ignorant of it. In addition they subscribe each a penny; with this money they have established a library, and supply tickets and other necessaries to the Sunday school. In time I hope, through God's blessing, a useful set of Sunday school teachers and lay preachers will be supplied, a want greatly felt at present.

There are now 15 Students in the Præparandi Institution. The seniors among them accompany one or two of the more experienced Native Agents in street-preaching, and also conduct services on Sundays. The younger Students attend the various Sunday schools.

II. Baddegama.

Baddêgama, commenced, 1819; Bentotte, 1861.

Rev. John Allcock (m), 1864: at home.
Rev. Gerard Francis Unwin, 1873.

The Rev. G. F. Unwin is the Missionary residing at Baddêgama. But as he had not passed his examination in Singhalese at the time of writing the Annual Letter, the work of the district was superintended by Mr. Dowbiggin from Cotta, who visited Baddêgama for that purpose once in three months. Fifteen adults have been baptized during the year. The Native Christians number 325, of whom 104 are Communicants. The district includes a small strip of land on the western coast, in which are situated the town of Bentotte and the villages of Balapitiya and Dodanduwa. Mr. Dowbiggin had had charge of this district for some months during the year 1868-9. He writes:—

The Catechists of Baddêgama and Bentotte do not report favourably of the Christians generally under their charge. Bentotte and Balapitiya seem to me in much the same dead, lifeless condition as they were five years ago. The man "Frederic" of a village near Balapitiya, baptized by Mr. Allcock in 1872 [See Annual Report 1872-3, p. 137], was very earnest and zealous in preaching the Gospel to his friends and neighbours, so far as he was able; and they were so angry with him that, as is generally believed and as some now confess, they brought a false charge against him. He was sent to prison for three months. I am hoping that the imprisonment, which will afford him time for thought, may to some extent tone down a naturally wild and turbulent spirit, and make him a more useful messenger of peace to his heathen countrymen. Already a feeling is beginning to grow in the minds of the people that he is an injured man; and much to my wonder and astonishment, on my way from Baddegama at the end of October, I was petitioned to open a school in that very village. I suppose that no village in Ceylon bears a worse character. We can but pray that Frederic may be the means under God of regenerating his village, and turning the people from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God.—Of Dodanduwa the Catechist says: "I thankfully report improvement in the spiritual condition of the flock committed to my charge. In gifts they are without covetousness: some, though weak in faith, are sincere and without guile." In August I saw Anagihâmi, a young girl of this village, who professed her faith in Jesus in 1869 [see Church Missionary Gleaner, February 1870, and Annual Report, 1869-70, p. 196], and who has ever since witnessed a good confession although much opposed and persecuted by her Buddhist relatives. I went to her father's house and saw her in the presence of her parents, and found her still unshaken in her determination to follow Jesus. I then asked her father and mother if they had any fault to find with Anagihâmi as to her general obedience and household duties; and they both acknowledged that in everything save religion she was everything they could wish. I consider that such a testimony is a strong proof of Anagihâmi's sincerity; and she has thus been enabled to commend the doctrine of God her Saviour in all things.—The amount of subscriptions for religious purposes was Rs. 1095, which is Rs. 90 more than last year. The schools, taking them collectively, are satisfactory; many of them compare favourably with those in the Cotta district. Some of the Teachers show a good deal of earnestness, exerting a good influence over the school children and taking an active part in Sunday services. Eight young people, boys and girls, were baptized out of the schools during the year.

Steadfastness and consistent conduct of a young Christian under persecution.

From its proximity to Galle, the Baddêgama Station has sometimes attracted the notice of English residents or passers-by, and has frequently received support and sympathy from the Galle Chaplains. Among these may be mentioned the late Archdeacon Mooyaart, who showed great kindness to the faithful Native Pastor Abraham Gunasêkara in 1862 on his dying bed, and who has himself been recently removed to his heavenly rest.

III. Kandy.

Rev. William Oakley, 1835, Secretary of the Mission.
Rev. Richard Collins (m), M.A., to South India, 1854; to Ceylon, 1871.
Rev. John Ireland Jones, M.A. (m), 1857.
Rev. Stephen Coles (m), 1860.
Rev. Edward Moule Griffith (m), 1867.
Rev. Anthony Ramsden Cavalier, 1874.
Mr. Thomas Dunn (m), 1874.

Singhalese Branch.

The Singhalese Congregations of Kandy and its neighbourhood are connected with a Church Council, of which, since June, 1872, the Rev. S. Coles has been the Chairman. The efforts, however, of Mr. Coles and his predecessors, Mr. Jones and Mr. Allcock, have been so successful in calling out the energies of the Singhalese Christians, that the Committee have taken another step in the direction of Native Church independence, by appointing a Native clergyman, the Rev. H. Gunasêkara (son of the Rev. Abraham Gunasêkara mentioned above), Chairman of the Kandy Native Church Council.

The congregation under Mr. Gunasêkara's pastoral care is not large, containing on its lists not more than 163 persons, of whom 33 are Communicants. Some of its members, however, are men of considerable social influence; and the subscriptions of the congregation to the ordinary Church Fund during the year amounted to no less a sum than Rs. 3444. Upwards of Rs. 3500 have also been raised by them during the same period, partly by their own gifts, and partly by soliciting contributions from friends, for the erection of a Parsonage.—Two adults have been baptized, and two more are under instruction.—A "Kandy Protestant Young Men's Religious Improvement Society," has been spontaneously formed by some of the younger members. They meet every Sunday evening, when two hours are spent in reading, and conversing on, a portion of Scripture in Singhalese, and in reading and commenting upon a short essay written by one of themselves. Mr. Gunasêkara is their Chairman.—Preaching in the streets has been continued as in former years. On more than one occasion some of the hearers have followed the preachers to their own houses to converse on what they have heard. In the gaol, where Mr. Gunasêkara proclaims the Gospel message every Sunday morning, he often finds an attentive audience, and two of the prisoners have professed their faith in Jesus. Mr. Gunasêkara is voluntarily assisted in this work by two Native Christians, formerly members of his Bible class.

Kandy Young Men's Society.

The Rev. B. P. Wîrasinha, who is also connected with the Kandy Church Council, has under his care three small congregations in the immediate neighbourhood of Kandy, where he conducts work very similar to that of Mr. Gunasêkara, and with similar results. The Native Christians connected with these congregations amount to 148, of whom 24 are Communicants.

Further accounts of Singhalese congregations connected with the Society in the Kandian country are found in the following extracts from Mr. Coles's Annual Letter :—

The stations of Gampola and Nâwalapitiya are under the charge of one Catechist, who is most diligent and persevering in his labours among the people. He is greatly esteemed by Europeans and Natives, and his labours are successful. Several baptisms have taken place, and much has been done to win souls to Christ and build up the Christians in faith and holiness. At Nawalapitiya a large substantial building has been erected to be used as a school house and place of worship, until a church can be built. The Catechist has also visited the districts of Dimbula and Dikoya, to look after the welfare of Native Christians, who go there for a time to obtain employment on coffee estates but are without regular means of grace.—Services have been held as formerly at Peradiniya and Kaduganâwa, where we have no salaried Agents; and considerable sums have been subscribed to assist us in our Mission operations in other districts.—At Kaegalla the services have been fairly attended during the year, and there have been several baptisms. The Catechist preaches in the court-house and prison to large crowds of heathens, but they appear to care but little for such matters. The members of the congregation have, however, liberally contributed of their means; amongst other gifts, one has given a Communion Service for the Church, another a large bell, and another, furniture for the vestry. At Walagama six miles from Kaegalla, a good work has been commenced under promising aspects. A Native of the place has built and furnished a school, and has undertaken to pay the salary of the Teacher. The school is prospering, and a Service is held there on the Sabbath. We look and pray for a great blessing here.—At Kurunægala we have met with encouragements and discouragements. The Catechist has large numbers of heathen hearers to address, and unlimited opportunities of preaching and teaching. The Christians of the station sympathize with and support him in his labours, and liberally contribute for the support of the Mission. There were nine baptisms here.—The five Churches in the Talampitiya district afford cause for earnest prayer and effort, and also for thankfulness. Several meetings of their Church Council have been held, at one of which I was present, and was much gratified to see the earnest and practical manner in which subjects were discussed and modes of operation adopted. One or two offenders amongst the Christians have been suspended until they show signs of amendment. Five persons were baptized at Talampitiya. The Christians at Korigamana have erected a place of worship for themselves, and one of their number holds the service when the Catechist, who visits them once a fortnight or three weeks, is not present. I have baptized six persons here. Jâkaduwa, the latest formed of the five congregations, is at present the most interesting on account of its vigorous growth and action. In the month of January last I baptized there seventeen persons, mostly adults, in the presence of a numerous assembly of heathens and Christians, who had assembled to witness such a large number of their neighbours forsake the religion of their forefathers for faith in Christ Jesus.

At Anurâdhapura, the ancient historic capital of Ceylon, our work has been carried on under many discouragements. A scarcity of food almost approaching famine has long prevailed there, and induced a state of despondency and listlessness in the people. Our Catechist there, with every member of his family, was totally incapacitated for work, and I was obliged to hurry down and remove them. The school in the town has not prospered. I have been at Anurâdhapura twice during the year, and have baptized six persons there. It is most difficult to find Agents who are capable and willing to labour where they have so many privations to endure; but I trust and pray that He who has enabled us to commence will help us to continue.

We had unlimited opportunities of preaching to the people. Although I hear that the knowledge derived from our discourses is very indistinct and imperfect, yet the people generally listen most attentively and in many cases appear to understand the way of salvation. At one village in particular we were much pleased to notice the all-absorbing interest excited in our audience while we preached about sin, righteousness, and judgment, so much so that the women could hardly refrain from crying, and all seemed to be most earnestly impressed with the truth of what we uttered, and desired us to visit them again. But perhaps the most pleasing incident of our tour was the offer made by an English gentleman who has charge of some tanks under the Government, that we should send a married Catechist to his district, he undertaking to provide his salary, house and garden. I most thankfully accepted his offer, and have at last succeeded in persuading one of our married Agents to go. This was no easy task, as some of our Agents are more afraid of going there than most Englishmen would be of proceeding to the wildest countries under the sun. I look for a great blessing on this new opening, as the generous donor is a man in whom is the mind of Christ, and who feels that his first duty and privilege is to assist in the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom. His influence over the natives seems to be unlimited, and they love and trust in him as a father. O that all Englishmen in this country would thus strive for the good of souls!

The number of Native Christians (including children and Catechumens) connected with the Singhalese Mission at Kandy, is reckoned by Mr. Coles at 700. (This is independent of the congregations under the care of Mr. Gunasêkara and Mr. Wîrasinha.) Of these 700, those living in the districts of Talampitiya, &c., are Native Kandyans; those of Gampola, Nâwalapitiya, Kurunægala, &c., are chiefly Low Country Singhalese settled in the interior for the purposes of trade. The number of Communicants is 71.

Tamil Cooly Mission.

The present staff of this Mission consists of two European Missionaries (the Rev. E. M. Griffith, and the Rev. A. R. Cavalier, the latter of whom is still learning the language), a Native Assistant Missionary, a Native Pastor, twenty-three Catechists and Readers, fifteen School Teachers, and twenty unpaid Native Lay assistants. The aggregate income of the Cooly Mission and of the Tamil Church connected with it (not including a grant of Rs. 975 to the latter from the general funds of the Society, and Rs. 964 a school grant from the Government) amounted in 1874 to Rs. 17,265, of which upwards of Rs. 4000 came from Native sources. There are also thirty-five schools, which are under the superintendence of the Mission, though supported from other sources. The cost of these is Rs. 8370. The number of estates subscribing to the Mission has risen from 95 in 1873 to 194 at the commencement of the present year. The Native Christians number 936, of whom 242 are Communicants; and there were 24 adult baptisms during the year. A Native Missionary Association was established among the Christian coolies in May, 1874. Its design is to assist the Catechists in their Evangelistic operations by means of Readers sent forth by the Native Church. It supported, at the close of 1874, two Readers; and, as it has subsequently received a grant-in-aid from the Henry Venn Fund, the number of its Agents has doubtless been increased.

Besides the regular work of any Mission it is often found desirable to have special efforts varying from time to time, in order to rouse the heathen from the apathetic indifference with which they are too often apt to regard the preaching of the Gospel when it ceases to be a "new thing." With this view Mr. Griffith, with the aid of some of his Native fellow-labourers, conducted during the year three "Mission weeks." The first of these was held in the district of Dimbula, the second in districts near Pussellâwa, and the third in the united districts of Nilemba and Hantâna. Mr. Griffith thus summarizes the nature and the results of this effort:—

Mission weeks among the Coolies on the Ceylon Coffee Estates.

The efforts of the Catechists consisted of special addresses on important subjects, with sometimes the singing of a lyric at morning and evening muster in the Lines, or by the roadside, or in bazaars. They generally slept in the Lines with the people, which gave them an opportunity of carrying on long conversations. They also sold books and tracts. Each Catechist had a circular from myself to the European manager of the estate requesting his assistance. Central places were chosen in the districts for Divine Service on the Sunday, where all Christians for miles round, together with the heathen, were invited to assemble. Six Tamil and three English services were held on the Sundays of these Mission weeks, followed by Holy Communion after two of the services. One service was attended by nearly 500 heathens, and the interest shown was very marked. One infant and two adult baptisms took place. One of the adults, a head Kangâny (overseer) of twelve years' standing, was first inclined to Gospel truth through the advice given him by his European master. Yet this gentleman, writing to me the other day, said, "It is to their (the Catechists.) teaching more than to anything I may have been able to explain to him that his conversion is due." In one place a young European planter holds Tamil evening prayer with his servants regularly; in another the European joins the Catechist and the servants in their evening devotions. Five new schools have been commenced and are now flourishing, besides three others which have been handed over to the Mission. Each school represents an outlay of from Rs. 240 to Rs. 360 per annum, which is defrayed either by the proprietor of the estates and the coolies combining, or by the resident manager. Through God's blessing on the efforts put forth during these Mission weeks, forty-eight inquirers have come forward and are now under instruction preparatory to baptism. We preached to about 35,500 people. Another effect has been an increased interest in the Mission on the part of the planters. They have in some cases allowed their coolies to leave off work earlier, and given permission to the Catechist to preach even in the midst of crop time when every hour is precious. It is clear, too, that there has been a shaking among the dry bones of heathenism. The Kanganies and principal men among the heathen are almost everywhere favourable to the Catechists, and in many places are themselves moving towards the "Wicket Gate." These weeks have been the means also of stirring up backsliders, and quickening the spiritual life of Christians.

Kandy Collegiate School.

The Rev. R. Collins is now ably assisted by Mr. Dunn, who reached Ceylon in November, 1874. Eighty students are on the rolls. Some of these are of European descent. Mr. Collins writes:—

Mr. Dunn is a great help; but another graduate of our Universities is almost as much needed as ever. On my shoulders alone rests the responsibility of preparing young men for the F.A. degree and the entrance examination of the Calcutta University, as well as the care of the upper school, and many additional matters. This and St. Thomas's College (attached to the cathedral in Colombo) are the only Schools in the island that are affiliated to the Calcutta University; we must, therefore, run in the same groove. Between four Europeans there in orders is divided the work that falls singly on me. This scarcely gives me a fair chance. One of my students (who is also a tutor in the school) has just passed successfully his F.A. examination. He is the only F.A. in the island this year. . . . The boys are of most respectable parents. . . . Our fees are a good deal higher than even at St. Thomas's College. . . . The Roman Catholics have also set up a school close by, in which six resident monks are the tutors. . . . . The religious aspect of the school is, I trust, promising; and the discipline is improved on that of times past. I have good reasons for hoping that several of our young men will one day be ordained as Missionaries or ministers. But all is in higher hands than ours, and the day will declare it.

In a later communication, Mr. Collins mentions that the school has been enlarged to accommodate boarders as well as an increased number of day scholars. Efforts are also making to call the attention of the Kandyan chiefs to the school, and to induce them to send their sons. Some successes, recently gained at the British and Indian Universities by present and former pupils, will, it is believed, have a favourable influence in this respect.

IV. Jaffna District.

Rev. David Wood (m), 1867.
Rev. Jonathan D. Simmons (m), to South India, 1860 ; to Ceylon, 1875.

The Rev. J. D. Simmons, formerly of Tinnevelly, whose appointment to this Mission was announced in the last Report, thus reports his actual arrival and first impressions, writing under date Jan. 12, 1875 :—

We received great kindness from Mr. Twynam, the Government Agent. He has proved a true friend to the Mission and the Native Christians, during the absence of a European Missionary. I have been learning all I can of the condition of the Mission and its wants. Of course, my impressions and opinions are formed from a very short acquaintance. But I came with the advantage of having had much conversation with Mr. Rowlands, who worked incessantly here for three weeks and obtained a good general knowledge of the Mission. I must say there is good reason to be thankful, and to praise God for His grace given to the pastors and Christians here during the absence of the Missionaries. I have not a doubt that if this church had been circumstanced as the church of Abeokuta was, it would have stood the trial by God's grace ; and we may hope it would have come out of the fire strengthened and purified.

Mr. Hensman, one of the Native Pastors, writing during the absence of the European Missionary under date Nov. 1874, made the following remarks :—

A Native Church in the absence of European Missionaries.

We have to thank our heavenly Father for upholding and directing the great work which we handled with much fear and trembling, being left alone during the past year without a single European Missionary for counsel and advice. We felt God's presence in our midst; and there was progress in all the departments of the Mission work here. Measures were in continual operation for the growth of piety in the Church, for the spread of the Gospel among the heathen, and for enlarging the resources of the Church. The Churches in this district have contributed for Pastoral and other religious objects about Rs. 600, being an increase of about Rs. 100 on that of the previous year. The Christians on the cocoa-nut estates are making a start to put up a church for themselves, and have subscribed about Rs. 250. The leading members of our Church take greater interest in its affairs, and feel more than ever the necessity of exertion towards self-support. The Meetings of the Church Council and the Educational Committee were regularly carried on.

In a more recent communication dated April 22nd, Mr. Simmonds writes :—

The Christians require pressing to do more for the Church Fund. I think they might entirely support three Pastors if they give liberally. The Americans require the congregations to pay one-half or two-thirds of the whole. I may mention that we are just now making united efforts to secure a larger blessing from God. The missionaries of the three societies are of one mind and heart in the matter. Besides prayer-meetings that we hold monthly amongst ourselves, we have had special ones for prayer and consultation. On the 6th inst. we all met together, with all the Pastors and some of the Catechists. Papers were read on the "Present state of the Churches," "The means of reviving them," and on revivals in England and America, followed by prayers and general discussion. The tone of the meeting was very good. The Pastors seem sensible of their need, and, I think, are generally prepared to seek with earnestness an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. We are now working from house to house and have frequent gatherings for prayer in our respective spheres. On the 11th of May we are to hold the first of three united general meetings. Deputations from each Mission will attend as speakers and to conduct prayer. The other meetings are to be on the 18th and 25th of May. I am sure you will remember us and strive with us for a blessing. Some of the chief obstacles in the Church seem to be caste, worldliness in conformity to its customs and prejudices, and compromise with heathenism. The weapons we are using are mighty through God.

Evangelistic work among the heathen has been carried on not only as in former years in the Jaffna peninsula, but also southwards on the mainland of Ceylon. The effort was begun by the Native Church while still without any European leader. Mr. Hensman writes of it under date Nov. 1874:—

Aggressive effort of the Jaffna Native Church.

Our Mission has lately extended Evangelistic operations to the extensive jungle districts of Vannie, that lie between Jaffna and the Kandian Province. Two important Stations have been opened where two Catechists are stationed about 100 miles apart from each other. During the year a deputation has itinerated into these districts for nearly 230 miles, and came across people of different classes, faith and habits, such as the Sivites, Mohammedans, Buddhists, and Papists. They found the latter as ignorant as the heathens in their notions about God, soul, heaven, &c. People that could read are scarce; and wherever they went the villagers with one accord applied for the opening of schools, and for the introduction of Christian education among them. In all these districts the deputation visited the people from house to house, and held meetings. In several places, the people were interested and pleased with the Gospel message, and desired very much to have permanent Missionary work carried on among them.

Mr. Simmonds has followed up this movement, and proposes to transfer to it Rs. 600 of the grant formerly made from the Society's funds for the support of the Pastoral Agency of the Native Church.

MAURITIUS MISSION.

(Commenced in 1856.)

Division of the Mission: 1. Tamil-speaking Coolies. 2. Bengali and Hindustani-speaking Coolies.

European Mission Establishment:

Ven. Archdeacon Stephen Hobbs (m), to South India, 1839; to Mauritius, 1856: Secretary of the Mission.
Rev. Frederick Schurr (m), to Bengal, 1845; to Mauritius, 1874.
Rev. Paul Ansorgé (m), to Bengal, 1845; to Mauritius, 1857.
Rev. Henry Dison Buswell (m), to Ceylon, 1862; to Mauritius, 1866.
Rev. Thomas Campbell (m), to Madagascar, 1863; to Mauritius, 1874.
Rev. William Bartlett Chancellor (m) to East Africa, 1873; to Seychelles, 1874.

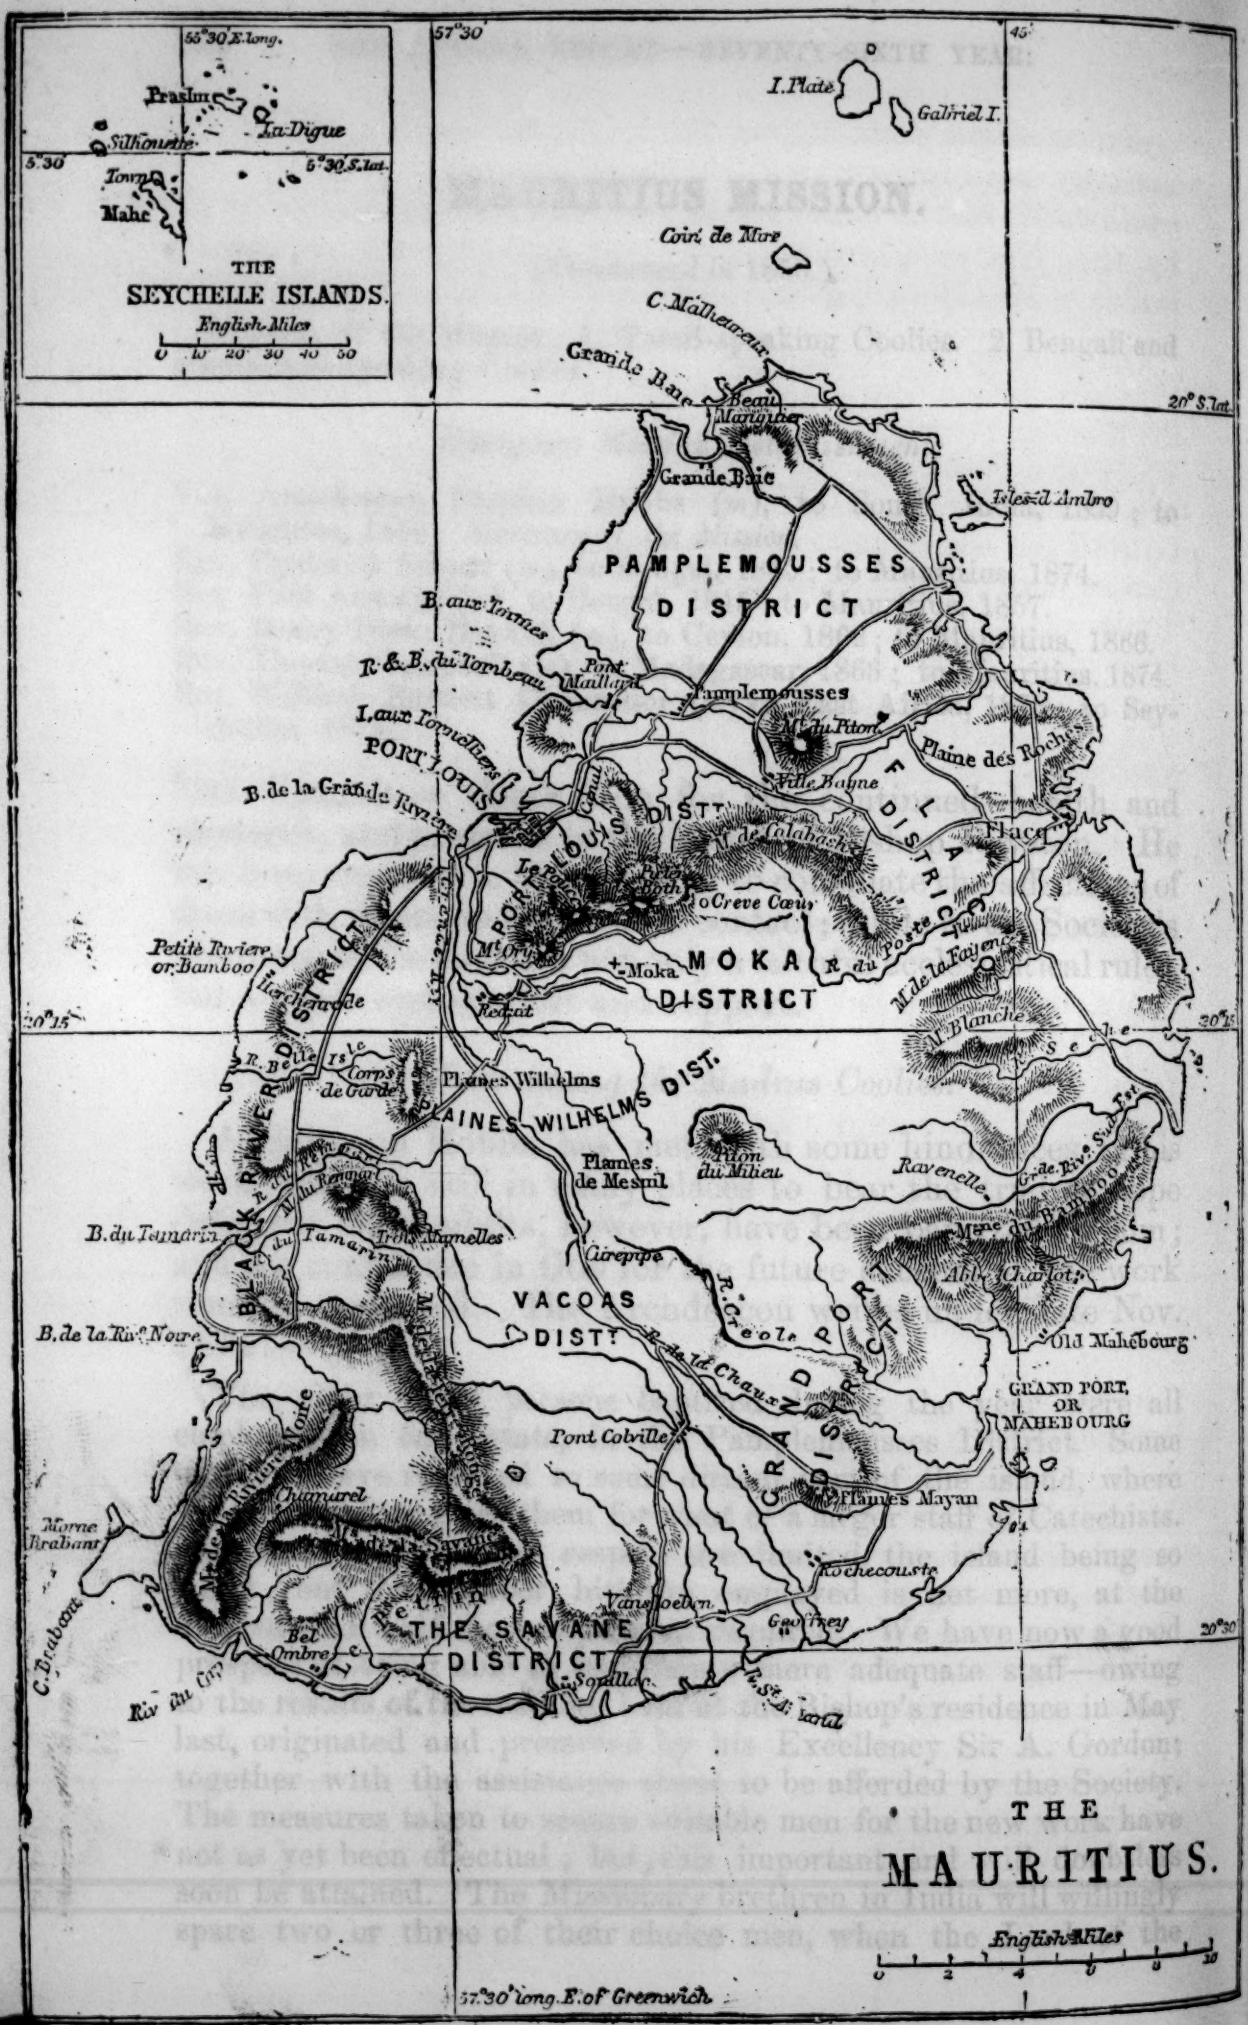

THE Committee thank GOD for the continued health and strength, and presence in the island, of Bishop Royston. He has been enabled in GOD's mercy to conciliate the affections of those with whom he has come in contact; while to the Society's Missionaries he has been not only a faithful ecclesiastical ruler, but a guide and comfort and support.

Work among the Madras Coolies.

Archdeacon Hobbs has met with some hindrances in his work, and has still in many places to bear the trial of hope deferred; eight adults, however, have been baptized by him; and his confidence in GOD for the future success of the work remains unabated. The Archdeacon writes under date Nov. 1874:—

The eight adult persons baptized during the year were all employed on one estate, in the Pamplemousses District. Some of these have removed to some distant part of the island, where we are unable to trace them for want of a larger staff of Catechists. Our real wants in this respect are limited, the island being so small; but the number hitherto employed is not more, at the utmost, than half the complement required. We have now a good prospect of being able to maintain a more adequate staff—owing to the results of the meeting held at the Bishop's residence in May last, originated and promoted by his Excellency Sir A. Gordon; together with the assistance about to be afforded by the Society. The measures taken to secure suitable men for the new work have not as yet been effectual; but this important end will doubtless soon be attained. The Missionary brethren in India will willingly spare two or three of their choice men, when the Lord of the harvest has inclined the hearts of that number of Native brethren to leave home and kindred for the Gospel's sake.—We are greatly encouraged and assisted in our work by the unvarying sympathy of our beloved Bishop. He is unhappily still straitened in the spiritual work of the Diocese for want of a sufficient number of clergy. We wait upon the Lord, knowing that He cares for His own work, although He suffers it to lack for a season what He alone can supply, to the end that His needy servants may learn more and more to rely upon Him and "continue instant in prayer."

Archdeacon Hobbs visited India early in 1875 for the purpose of obtaining the agents that were needed. He was self-denyingly and generously aided by the Missionaries in Tinnevelly, and succeeded in persuading five (apparently well-qualified) men connected with that Mission to offer themselves for work in Mauritius. (See p. 119.)

In the districts connected with PLAINES WILHELMS, where the Rev. H. D. Buswell superintends the work, there have been forty-eight adult baptisms. But the number of those who have returned to India, or removed to other parts of the island, is still larger; so that the number now under Mr. Buswell's care (207) is less than in the year previous.

The Præparandi class, also under Mr. Buswell's care, numbers five students. Two were stationed out as Catechists during the year, and two fresh students took their places. When the elementary schools of the colony are improved, suitable candidates for the Præparandi class may be expected in larger numbers.

Work among the Calcutta Coolies.

The willingness of the coolies from North India to listen to the Gospel, the comparatively large number of those who receive baptism, and the warmth of feeling among those already admitted to the Church, still present a remarkable contrast to what is reported by Missionaries labouring among the same class of people in their own country. The number of Christians on the books is 784. (This would be very much greater were it not for the constant reflux of coolies to India.) Of these, 110 are Communicants. The adult baptisms last year were 62. It will be remembered that the Rev. F. Schurr, formerly of Bengal, hastened out from this country, before his legitimate furlough was expired, to fill the vacancy occasioned by Mr. Ansorgé's absence. Mr. Schurr arrived on the 1st of July, 1874, and was welcomed by a tea-meeting of 450 persons, presided over by the Bishop, the expense of which was entirely provided by Indian Christians. The removal by death of Mr. Schurr's daughter, in February, 1875, after having recently arrived from Bengal, was not only a painful affliction to her bereaved parents, but also a great loss to the Mission, where she had already begun to render valuable assistance, and had gained the affections of all the Native Christians that had come under her influence. Two devoted North Indian Catechists have also died; while, on the other hand, an additional Catechist has lately joined the Mission from Bengal.

The Rev. W. B. Chancellor, formerly of the East Africa Mission, has been recommended by the Committee for the Chaplaincy of Seychelles. While holding this post it is understood that he will superintend Native Agents of the Society, who will be employed in instructing liberated African children landed at Seychelles by British cruisers. Mr. Chancellor reached Seychelles early in the present year, and has met with much courtesy from the resident Commissioner of the British Government. There is good reason to believe that a considerable number of children will soon be placed under Mr. Chancellor's care.

GENERAL.

To their great grief the Committee have only been able to send one additional European labourer to this vast and deeply interesting field—a field in which, as in India, those who desire to put the talents of their life to the best account for their Heavenly Master would find the fullest employment for every gift, and abundant reward for every sacrifice. The Reports of the work, however, are on the whole very encouraging. Last year the Committee thanked GOD for the appointment of Dr. Burdon to the Bishopric of Victoria. They can now report his safe arrival at Hong Kong; and it is their earnest and hopeful prayer that the Society's Missions in South China may derive much benefit from GOD's blessing on Dr. Burdon's long experience and well-known ability. The peaceful termination of the dispute between China and Japan is matter for much thankfulness. Had war broken out, Missionaries, and foreigners in general, who were supposed to side with the Japanese, might have been placed in personal danger, especially in the inland towns.

HONG KONG.

Bishop Burdon was installed at St. John's Cathedral, Hong Kong, on the 13th of December. In the course of a sermon preached on the occasion, the Bishop called attention to the fact that the endowment of the See was from funds originally solicited and given for a Missionary Bishopric. The Report of the Committee of the Colonial Bishopric's Fund, issued in the year 1849, spoke of the Bishopric of Victoria as deriving "its great interest and importance not chiefly from its relation to the few mercantile establishments on the coast of the Chinese Empire," but from "its bearing on the heathen population of that great empire, which has so long attracted the curiosity of Europeans, and yet has been almost closed against them."

The Rev. A. B. Hutchinson has again occasion to thank GOD for some advance at this difficult post. Four adults have been baptized during the year. One of these died shortly after his admission to the Church. The increase in the numbers of Native Christians and Communicants, from 51 to 71 and from 22 to 28 respectively, has arisen partly from the return to the colony of Native Christians from other places. One of these had been originally brought to confession of faith in Christ through the instrumentality of the Rev. Lo Sam Yuen, while in Australia. After landing at Hong Kong he proceeded in a small vessel to visit his parents; the boat was overturned; and he and his little girl were wonderfully preserved with a few others. These two, as he himself remarks, were the only passengers that called for help on the true GOD; the little child being loud and earnest in her simple prayers. It is now hoped that he will be sent to labour as a Catechist under Bishop Royston among the Chinese coolies in Mauritius.—The inquirer for whom Mr. Hutchinson especially asked prayer last year disappointed him, proving himself to be a very unworthy character.

Further details of the work in Hong Kong are thus given by Mr. Hutchinson:—

I have had the happiness of administering Holy Communion on nine different occasions to an average attendance of twenty-two. These times are regarded and delighted in as seasons in the highest sense of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.—Turning to the question of inquirers, I have to lament the fact that they are very few, singularly few in contrast with the large numbers attending the almost daily preaching. During the year, however, two men have been baptized, who heard the Gospel for the first time in St. Stephen's. One preferred to join the London Missionary Church; but we rejoice over both as proofs that the Lord will not leave us entirely without encouragement. His word shall not return void. At present three are asking for baptism. One is a woman of middle age, who appears to have received the truth in the love of it. She has burnt all her idols and their belongings, and is endeavouring to induce her family also to learn of Jesus. She has attended service regularly for some time past; and as the brethren speak well of her daily walk I purpose soon to baptize her. She first heard of Christ from our energetic Bible woman.—Our Scripture Reader has worked steadily throughout the year. His journal generally is very like that of a City Missionary at home. He finds the same general indifference on the part of the healthy and busy, and the same opposition on the part of the natural man to the doctrines of grace, which try the faith of his English brother worker. Here are a few extracts to show the sort of questions raised in the minds of listeners. "A man asked, 'Why, if Jesus be the Son of God, could the Romans nail Him to the cross?' Answer, 'The Gospels show that He could have punished them, but He loved us sinners, and laid down His life for us.' 'Why have Western men such kind hearts? I wish to enter their doctrine; but Chinese heart is not good enough!' Very few in this street would listen. Preached of sin and its punishment; people very angry—said 'We have Confucius and Buddha, they are enough.' Another objected, 'You say Jesus was born 1800 years ago, and that He was before Creation. How can that be?' I explained, that 'Jesus is the Son of God, one of the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity, eternal; but that to save man He took our flesh of the Virgin Mary.' One said, 'Jesus's doctrine is good, even as others.' I said, 'No, it alone is true, all others are out of men's heads; this is from above, and teaches the way of eternal happiness.' A man inquired, 'What about the devil? Who made him?' I answered, 'The devil is an angel; God made the angels good; some were proud, rebelled, and were expelled from heaven. They tempted man to sin, God sent Jesus Christ His Son to redeem man, and if we believe on Him we shall be admitted to heaven; if not, we shall be punished.' Inquiry, 'Which religion has proofs of its truth—Confucian or Roman Catholic?' Replied, 'The doctrine of Jesus has proofs in the Bible, and especially the Gospels. It agrees with them. God's law (the ten Commandments) forbids worshipping any but God. Romanists worship Mary, therefore they are wrong. Confucius only speaks of this world, Jesus of this and the world to come, and what is before us there.'"

Extracts from the journal of a Chinese Scripture Reader.

Mr. Hutchinson has also taken the important step of opening an out-station on the mainland. He writes:—

On my return from Fuh-Chow, having seen the wondrous results of Native labour, and having inquired particularly into the plans adopted with such success, I determined, after prayerful consideration, to send the Catechist into the country [on the mainland of China], not very far from his own home. I found that a large district is still unoccupied between Canton and Whampoa. He joyfully fell in with the proposal. Accordingly in November last I sent him up to Whampoa, to look round for a suitable locality. He first rented a room at Che-pi, about three miles inland. Here lives one of our people, a stonemason unmarried; still a consistent Christian, though far from the advantages of Christian fellowship. But as the people here were hostile to Christianity, the Catechist afterwards rented a small two-roomed cottage in Whang-pi. This is a market town unwalled, with about 10,000 people and other smaller villages surrounding it. It is about twelve English miles from Missionary extension from Hong Kong to the mainland.

Canton, and the same from Whampoa. The people are agricultural and poor, have a small temple but no resident priest, have heartily welcomed the Catechist, and are friendly to the Gospel at present, but have a great dread of foreigners coming to live amongst them. I see here an opportunity of testing and developing Native work. I propose not visiting Whang-pi for the present; to do so would probably result in our losing the house, as has happened recently in several places to other Missions. The Catechist comes down at intervals to report and to be refreshed by Christian fellowship and Communion, and in due time, with the Divine blessing, I hope to be able to go up myself to meet a little band of brethren in Christ. Meanwhile we may be considered as having a station at Whang-pi, with resident Catechist, and an out-station at Che-pi, having made arrangements with the stonemason to use his house for a preaching centre.

FUH-CHOW.

The Rev. J. R. Wolfe and the Rev. J. E. Mahood were the Missionaries at this Station at the commencement of 1874. But before many weeks had passed, Mr. Mahood's health gave way, andafter being more or less laid aside for severalmonths he at length, by medical advice, left Fuh-chow for England early in 1875. The Committee deeply regret to add that on the voyage this devoted Missionary was removed to his heavenly rest. The Rev. J. H. Sedgwick joined the Mission for the first time on the 13th December, 1874; but at present, of course, he is rather preparing for, than actually engaged in, Missionary work. The Committee are very desirous of strengthening this Mission; and it is a matter of great sorrow that the Church at home has not enabled them to respond more largely to the urgent cries for help from the Missionaries on the spot. Manifest tokens of God's blessing still continue to attend the efforts that are put forth. The adult baptisms during the year numbered 109. The number of candidates is much larger; but among these are many whose motives are very uncertain, and who are extremely ignorant of the doctrines of the Gospel. The number of Communicants has increased from 270 to 322. The Native Christians were reckoned in the previous year at 1017. That number has considerably increased during the year under review; but the exact amount of the increase has not been stated. Some notion of the general condition of the Native Church may be gathered from the following account of an Annual Conference of the Native Agents, given by Mr. Wolfe, on whom, in Mr. Mahood's prostration of health, the undivided superintendence of the Mission had devolved:—

We have just held the Annual Meeting or Conference of all the Catechists and Teachers, and in the result of it I see the greatest cause for encouragement and thankfulness to God. We have had seven days' prayer and conference. The several subjects for discussion were freely and boldly treated by our Native brethren; and many most important ideas put forth, and plans for the more effectual prosecution of our work among the masses propounded, which would have done credit to a clerical meeting of even the Islington clergy at home. The subject of self-support was heartily taken up, and acknowledged by all to be a paramount duty. We may now say that a system of self-support is established throughout the Churches, which is a most important step gained. The result of last year's subscriptions has not come up to my expectations as a whole; but in some of our little congregations I am bound to say the efforts in this direction fully satisfied me. It was decided that for the year 1875 four of the Catechists now employed should be entirely supported by the funds already collected from the Native Churches. The entire sum for the support of these four Catechists amounts to $300, £60. I fully hope that for 1876 there will be a fund sufficient to support six or seven Catechists instead of four. At this Conference it was also agreed that the cruel national custom of binding the feet of female children is contrary to the spirit of Christianity and true humanity, and to be discouraged in every possible way by the members of the Native Church. I rejoice to be able to say that most of the Catechists assembled entered with a whole heart into every plan suggested to them for the success of the Lord's work in the Mission field. This state of things is a great encouragement to those of us who have watched over the Mission from the days of its infancy and feebleness to its present condition of comparative strength.

Conference of Chinese Catechists at Fuh-Chow.

Fifteen Native students were under Mr. Wolfe's care during 1874, in preparation for Missionary work. A spirit of earnestness and true piety has been manifested, he trusts, by all of them. Besides working diligently at their studies, they have carried on a systematic itinerancy in the neighbouring villages. One of the seniors has been lately appointed to the A-Chia Church. Mr. Wolfe hoped that the number of these Præparandi would be increased during the present year to twenty or thirty.

Entering more into particulars, Mr. Wolfe thus speaks of the present condition of the work and its future prospects:—

In the Southern and Northern parts of this prefecture a very interesting, and I would fain believe a real, movement in favour of Christianity, appears to be in progress, chiefly among the poor and the middle-class farmers; and the call for teachers to instruct them, and take advantage of this movement is loud and urgent. I regret deeply to have to add that this Mission has been unable during the year to take a single additional step to answer this momentous call. May the Lord help us during the coming year to do something in this direction! Lo-Nguong, Ning-Taik and Ku-Cheng, three important districts and centres, have, during the year, presented many important features of interest. The spirit of inquiry about Christianity has most decidedly increased in each of these districts, and in many cases has brought forth good fruit. The little places of worship throughout them are generally crowded with anxious hearers, and the accommodation in most places is far too small.—The little chapel at Ning-Taik, for example, which for years seemed the picture of desolation and spiritual barrenness, has at length become too strait by reason of the numbers who flock to it Sabbath after Sabbath from the surrounding country to worship God and learn His precious truth. About twenty adults have been baptized here during the year, and by the grace of God I look forward with much hope to a large ingathering of souls in this place. Stone Town (Sioh Chuo), also within the Ning-Taik District, has, during the year, presented cause for much thankfulness to God. This little Church has grown in grace, and several have been added to it by baptism. The members have, exclusive of their ordinary subscriptions to the Native Church fund, contributed $100 (£20) towards the erection of a decent place of worship for themselves.—The various little congregations in the Lo-Nguong district have also made some progress, whilst in the city of Lo-Nguong about eighteen adults have been this year added to the congregation. The A-Chia Church has put forth laudable efforts. The Christians have nearly completed the substantial church and parsonage. This is the first parsonage house built in the Mission, and that by the Native Christians themselves. The spiritual building, too, has grown during the year. A few have been baptized.—What has been said of Ning-Taik may also be predicated of Ku-Cheng. There, too, the work has become quite interesting and encouraging, and we are looking forward with hope.

In China, even more strikingly than in India, Missionary success is chiefly among the village population; the large towns being comparatively barren. On this subject Mr. Wolfe writes as follows:—

But there is also a dark side to this bright picture. For myself, I often forget the joy for the success that has been given, in contemplating the thick clouds of discouragement which rests over the most important portion of our field. The great city of Fuh-Chow with its two millions, and the important city and district of Lieng Kong with hundreds of thousands, present not a ray of encouragement to cheer the anxious, perhaps too anxious and weary Christian labourers; even the large cities of Lo-Nguong and Ning-Taik, the centres of most encouraging work, show little or no interest in the truth inside the ponderous walls.

Mr. Mahood wrote under date January 2, 1875:—

We are more encouraged with the work in the suburbs of Fuh-Chow than with what has been done in the city. In a village outside the north gate of the city we rented a house last year for a chapel, and this year I had the pleasure of baptizing two adults from that place. One of these has had to endure a good deal of annoyance from his friends on account of his profession of Christianity. At one time his father threatened to drive him from his home if he gave heed to our doctrines; but by the grace of God he has been kept steadfast.—I have been greatly cheered this year in seeing the progress that the Word of God has made amongst the people at the city of Ku-Cheng and the surrounding neighbourhood. Upwards of a hundred persons in that district who were once the slaves of Buddhism have this year cast away their idols, and are making a profession of Christ. In many populous villages in that district, where the preaching of the Gospel was formerly looked upon as something to be dreaded and opposed, we have now representatives of the Christian religion; and many of those who were once our most violent opponents have, by the grace of God, been led to repent them of their sins, and look to the Lord Jesus for salvation, and are now willing to give themselves and all they possess for the furtherance of the Gospel. In most of the larger cities we find that men are so much taken up with the things of this life that it is difficult to persuade them to think of the things eternal; but in Ku-Cheng the greater part of our congregation has been gathered in from the inhabitants of the city, and this has had a beneficial influence on the country around. From the congregation in that city I baptized twenty-eight adults this year, and we have every reason to believe that many of these will become active servants of Christ. Last year we found at Ku-Cheng, that owing to the way in which Christianity was spreading from place to place in that neighbourhood, that it was impossible for the Catechist to visit all the people and instruct them sufficiently in the Word of God. To meet that difficulty we selected from the congregation six of the most devoted and intelligent young men to act as unpaid preachers, who, when they had time, were expected to visit the different villages to instruct the Christians and to exhort others to flee from the wrath to come. We find this year that by this instrumentality many have renounced idolatry, and are now trusting in Jesus. This year, at our Annual Meeting at Ku-Cheng, four more young men were recommended by the congregation for the same work. In a large village about five miles from Ku-Cheng, a man who last year heard the Gospel preached at Ku-Cheng, soon after renounced idolatry and opened his house to us for preaching. We availed ourselves of this privilege, and made an arrangement to send one of the Christians from Ku-Cheng every Sunday to instruct the people in the Holy Scriptures; and I am thankful to say that since then twenty-five persons have embraced Christianity, and I hope we may soon be able to establish a chapel there. Tens of places are opening up to us for the preaching of the Gospel, but our great want is not being able yet to supply them with able teachers.—In Ang-Iong, where we formerly met with much opposition, the people have become most friendly towards us. One of the chief men there who three years ago instigated a mob to pull down our chapel, and urged the people to take our lives, has now humbled himself at the feet of Jesus, and is one of our most zealous Christians. One of our most earnest Christians at Ang-Iong was called this year to his final rest. This young man, about four years ago, by the Holy Spirit's influence, was led, after a hard struggle with conscience, to renounce the idolatrous worship of his forefathers, and having by a godly life given evidence of real repentance and faith in Christ Jesus was baptized the following year. From that time he became most anxious to lead his friends and neighbours to the same fountain in which he had been cleansed from his sins. Whenever he had an opportunity, whether walking by the wayside or labouring in the fields, he bore testimony to the truth of God's Word, and urged others to repent and to look to Christ for salvation. Having had but a poor knowledge of reading, I invited him to our boarding-school at Fuh-Chow, and before long he was able to read the New Testament and some of the Books in the Old Testament. Afterwards, having acquired a better knowledge of the Bible, he returned home, visited many of the neighbouring villages, and exhorted the people to cast away their idols, and to look unto God only for the salvation of their souls. Not long after this he had a severe attack of illness, which left him feeble and emaciated; but even in his weakness he tried to visit the nearest villages, so that he might speak for Christ. Sometimes the heathen people would say to him, "You worship the God of Heaven, but why does He permit you to be sick and feeble?" To this he would answer, "God is holy and just; it is on account of sin that sickness and death have come into the world, but in love God takes His people from this wearisome world to live with Him in glory." The taunts and temptations of the Wicked one were unable to draw him from his Saviour, and a short time before his death he told me that he never felt so happy in his life as he did then, with the expectation of living with the redeemed in glory. In speaking to me he said, "I feel assured that my sins are washed away by Conversion and happy death at Ang-Iong.

Christ's most precious blood; and now that Jesus is about to call me to a happier home, I am satisfied that His will should be done." And when his last moments came he passed away in peace, clinging to Christ with strong faith. The old Christian carpenter at Ang-Iong is still as active as ever in working for Christ. This year he travelled to the most distant parts of this province to tell of redeeming love. He was received by the people very kindly, and when his money was spent they offered him food to supply his wants.—I told you in my last year's letter of the happy death of a dear Christian woman at Puang-Lang, and of the efforts she used to bring others to Christ; and now, having passed away from amongst us, I am happy to say her labour has not been in vain. Before she died her son and grandchild were hardened idolaters. She prayed fervently for their conversion, but before the answer was given she had gone to her heavenly home. Since her death both have been led to embrace Christianity, and are now rejoicing in Christ. I trust that our gracious God will keep them, so that their end may be like that of their mother.—In the village of Siu-Kek we also have been encouraged lately in seeing the progress the Gospel has made. Last year we had only eleven professing Christians there; but now we have twenty-five attending our services, and nine adults have been baptized there this year.—At S——, the work of God seems to be progressing steadily. I have been very pleased lately to see the progress the Christians have made in the knowledge of the Scriptures. The Catechist at that station lives very near the Saviour, and by his walk and conversation he is ever leading the Christians nearer and nearer to the fountain of life. He was one of the first at Ang-Iong who embraced the Gospel, and his whole Christian career has been most consistent. There are now forty-three in that village who profess Christianity, and for zeal and liberality in the support of the Gospel there are none of our Christians who surpass them. A few months ago when I visited that station I was feeling very poorly, and the Catechist noticing me said, "Sir, I hear you are going to leave us for a time on account of ill-health. I am afraid I shall never see you again, as I feel my own strength failing; but thanks be to God we have a glorious hope of immortality, for when this earthly house is dissolved we have a building of God, eternal in the heavens," and with the tears rolling down his cheeks he said, "Sing Sang (teacher), when you are absent from us, pray that God may keep us faithful to the end." I was never more affected than when I bade this Christian man farewell, and I never before so fully realized the state of feeling which the Apostle must have experienced in his farewell address to the early Christians. I do trust that God will keep them to the end.—The wife of our Catechist at Chui-Kan was summoned this year to her heavenly rest. A short time before her death she invited her brother, who was then a bigoted heathen, to visit her, as she had an important matter to tell him. She wanted to persuade him to embrace Christianity. He came according to her request and stopped with her a few days, and during that time her chief topic in conversation was the importance of faith in Christ for the salvation of the soul. She warned and entreated him to repent and turn to the Lord. She told him how happy she was in the hope of everlasting life through Christ, and she exhorted him to come to that Saviour in whom she had found peace. A few days afterwards, full of faith in Christ, and with a sure hope of eternal life, founded upon the promises of God, she bade farewell to earth, to join the blood-washed throng in heaven. A few moments before her departure she told her husband not to be dispirited, for she was sure that Christ was near her. Many have been cheered by the bright testimony she bore to Christ's love to poor sinners in the hour of death. Since her death her brother is much more favourably disposed towards Christianity than he formerly was.

General.

These stations are all in the district in which Bishop Russell exercises his episcopal functions; and they are further united by being connected with a Missionary Conference, in which the Bishop presides. There has been some unexpected and unwelcome (even if unavoidable) delay in the presentation to the Bishop of Native Candidates for ordination, arising from the difficulty of organizing among the Native Christians District Committees and Federal Councils. Rules and regulations having now been agreed upon for these bodies, the ordinations it is hoped will shortly take place. May great grace be bestowed on those that shall be then set apart! On another subject, the Bishop writes as follows:—

In a direct Missionary point of view I am unable to report much apparent progress during the past year. The usual machinery of our Mission has been actively at work as formerly; but, from some cause or other, the blessing of a large increase of converts which we so earnestly long to see has been withheld. We have anxiously and prayerfully thought over this matter amongst ourselves, and discussed it too from time to time with our brethren of other Missions, but without arriving at any very satisfactory solution of the reason of this apparent barrenness. At one of our recent Missionary association meetings, when the Missionaries of all Protestant denominations labouring at this place come together for mutual counsel and prayer, a carefully-prepared paper on this subject was read, in which it was stated with, I believe, more or less of accuracy, that a large proportion of the inhabitants of this city and the surrounding country had already heard the Gospel, and were sufficiently acquainted with it to become the subjects of the converting grace of the Holy Spirit. And then the writer significantly asked, "How it was so few seemed to believe to the saving of their souls? Did the hindrance lie with us, or in our mode of working, or in the unwonted hardness of the people's hearts, or in what?" The discussion which followed was very interesting; but it left us apparently where we were before, unable to give any very satisfactory reply, except our own want of faith and power, and the sovereignty of Almighty God, Who would work how, when, and where He pleaseth; and in Whose Divine hands we must leave the whole matter; labouring on in the hope that "they who sow in tears shall reap in joy."

SHANGHAI.

The Rev. T. McClatchie has continued his labours at this place. There have been no adult baptisms, and there is at present but one inquirer; yet the congregations both at the church in the city, and in a room attached to Mr. McClatchie's house in the foreign settlement, have slightly increased in numbers, and those who attend seem to take an interest in what they hear. After the service in Mr. McClatchie's house, discussions and conversation frequently arise as to the reasonableness of the doctrines of Christianity.

NINGPO.

Though there have been thirty-four adult baptisms during the year in Ningpo and its out-stations, the numbers given, in the recently-returned statistics for Native Christians and Communicants (447 and 235), are nearly the same as in the previous Report. This apparent absence of increase may be owing to some different mode of reckoning; though Mr. Gough mentions that several inquirers have drawn back, some of whom may have been "Catechumens" (or professed candidates for baptism, under regular instruction) and would therefore have been reckoned among the Christians. One cause of secession was, perhaps, the ill feeling prevalent against foreigners and Native Christians at the time of the dispute with Japan.

There has been much sickness at Ningpo both among European residents, including the Mission families, and among the Native population. Through God's mercy, no member of the Mission family has been removed by death; and the sickness has not proved fatal in more than three or four cases among the Native Christians. Several of the Missionaries, however, have been, for a time at least, physically weakened by it, and thus impeded in their work. The death of one Native brother, whose name is known to many in England, is thus referred to by the Rev. A. E. Moule:—

Death of Catechist Bao.

Two of our Christians have passed (we earnestly believe) to their eternal rest. The first, our earliest convert and senior Catechist, Bao, has gone at last. His name is well known to the friends of the C.M.S. in England. Now for nearly a quarter of a century he has been connected with this Mission. An earnest and able Evangelist; an efficient and valued helper at one time; a diligent and prayerful student of the Bible; he yet by faults of temper and defect of charity, gave frequent pain to the Mission; and after two or three grievous falls and acts of inconsistency his old age seemed clouded and sad. At eventide, however, there was, we believe, light. Simple faith in the Saviour, a grasping of His promises, and rest on His word—these marked the closing hours of our aged brother. He died, November 3rd, 1874, in the seventy-fifth year of his age.—The second who has gone was a blind man nearly eighty years of age in Soen-Poh; contented and cheerful in his home of extreme poverty, he is carried now by angels to the home of rest and plenty above.

Instruction of Chinese Catechists.

Mr. A. E. Moule carries on the Instruction of Native Agents in a very systematic manner. The Articles of the Church of England have been taken as the subject of his monthly lectures. Copies in Chinese of the Article to be discussed at the next Meeting, are given to each Catechist on his monthly visit to Ningpo. They are expected to bring on their next visit an exposition of the Article in Chinese, with Scripture proofs, and a short sermon on a text bearing on the subject. At the Meeting, after prayer and reading of Scripture, Missionary intelligence is given relating either to the district of Ningpo or to other Missions. This is followed by a discussion of the Article; and at the close of the session, which lasts for one day, a written exposition of the Article is placed in the hands of each learner. Many of the sermons and expositions show remarkable thoughtfulness and knowledge of the Bible.

The Work in the City has been under the care of Mr. Gough. No special mention is made by Mr. Gough of the condition of the Native Christian Flock; but he is in hopes that their pastoral supervision may before long be devolved on one or more of his Native helpers. Preaching to the heathen has been carried on regularly throughout the year in two or three different places; and Mr. Gough speaks of having sometimes met with "decided encouragement." Sixty-two boys and sixty-five girls are under instruction in schools, in which Mrs. Gough and her daughters take active part.

In the absence of Mr. Bates, and the weakened health of Mr. Gough, the care of the sixteen Out-Stations has devolved on Mr. A. E. Moule. His faithful labours have not been without fruit. Twenty-one adults have been baptized; an advance which, though small in some respects, would gladden the heart of many a labourer in less favoured fields. The Native Christians in these out-stations now amount to 248, of whom no fewer than 141 are Communicants. Mr. Moule gives the following interesting details:—

Interesting Baptisms near Ningpo.

Da-song, a small walled town, a kind of coastguard fortress, containing some 6000 souls, was brought before us as a needy and unevangelized field some time ago by an earnest Christian man, a native of the place, at present our chapel-keeper at So-do-gyiao. Mr. Bates visited the place with this good man in 1873, and was encouraged with the reception given him by the people, and was also much struck by the large population within easy reach of this little city. I went down last May and spent some short time in preaching in the city and in the neighbourhood, and also in a visit to a very hopeful inquirer, a relation of our good brother named above. The hot and strangely unhealthy summer and autumn prevented my revisiting the place till October. Meanwhile the applicant for baptism (a small farmer) had been seized with the prevalent fever, and for a time his life was despaired of. I was informed, however, by the Catechist of his partial recovery and earnest desire for baptism; and as he was too weak to come up to the Chief Station at the lakes (ten miles distant), and as it seemed desirable to baptize the firstfruits of the little town on the spot if possible, I started on October 10, and reached Da-song on the 11th, at 10 a.m. The poor man was carried a mile and a half to the chapel by his son and nephew. He is an earnest man, a true Christian I trust, and, though still ignorant of many things, he has a clear knowledge of the Gospel and an eager desire to learn more. God grant that this may be the firstfruits of a large harvest.—My second visit this autumn was to the Western Hills. Here we have two stations; T'song-tseng, a large town of 6 or 7000 inhabitants, and Da-le of nearly the same population. Near Da-le lies a small village of 300 or 400 souls named Gao-sœn, a place which my brother visited first about eleven years ago, and which since then has received frequent visits from my brother, myself, and from Mr. Bates. We were led thither first by the fact of the home of a Native Christian baptized at Ningpo more than twelve years ago lying in this village. This man heard the Gospel first in the Hospital from the late Dr. William Parker. For seven or eight years he was the solitary Christian amongst those beautiful hills. He cannot read, and is very slow of speech, but he was known everywhere as the "Sabbath keeper." After some years he was joined by his elder brother, and afterwards by a relative (now headman of the little village). Chiefly for the benefit of this little Christian band, and also with the hope that the great town of Da-le itself might be evangelized, I opened a station in Da-le (2½ miles from Gao-sœn), in 1867. Very little fruit followed the effort for some time; but about a year ago Mr. Bates was cheered by some signs of life. Several inquirers appeared, mostly connexions of the men named above; and to baptize these, after nearly a year's probation, I visited the place last month. I reached the place on Saturday night, October 17th. I spent a long evening in the "upper room" of our good Christian brother, a euphemism for a very dark hay-loft, but in reality his best bedroom. Here the applicants for baptism assembled, and I questioned them carefully, and read and prayed with them. Some of the heathen neighbours also were listening. On Sunday morning (a bright and beautiful day through God's mercy) we all rose with the cock, and at 7 a.m. I held service in the little village hall adjoining the Christian house. Four women, two men, and two children were baptized in the early morning. In this little village the headman with his wife, with his younger son, his daughter and son-in-law, are all Christians.

Miss Laurence was compelled by the state of her health to visit the sanatorium at Che-Foo during part of the year. In her absence the Boarding School was kept up by Mrs. Russell. In addition to this work Miss Laurence has superintended a Bible woman in the Lake district, and has occasionally visited that district herself. This district, Miss Laurence observes, is particularly suitable for women's work, as the men are almost all fishermen, who are away for nine months in the year.

SHAOU-HYING.

The Rev. J. D. Valentine is the Society's Missionary at this Station, Mr. Gretton having been compelled by failure of health to return to England. The statistics drawn up for Sept. 30th, 1874, give eight Native Christians and six Communicants. Since that date six adults, all men, have been admitted into the Church. In his Annual Letter for 1874, Mr. Valentine writes:—

Last year I mentioned that we had secured a two-roomed house, much larger and much better situated than our former place, though in the same street. This is the busiest street in the city, upwards of two English miles in length, and, for the most part, lined with shops, on both sides, from end to end. Our preaching-room is situated near the centre of the street, and being raised about two feet above the street-level, is easily discovered by friends or foes. This year has proved, I think, that we were led by the good hand of our God to that spot. It has more than answered my expectations; and the Ngo-ông-Ka (or Goose-market, as that portion of the street is styled) is now often spoken of by the natives far and near as the place where the Gospel of Jesus is preached. Day after day we have people of all sorts and conditions—scholars, shopkeepers, artisans, and country farmers. Small Christian books and tracts have not unfrequently been freely purchased. Very often a vigorous discussion has arisen between some fiery young Confucian scholar and ourselves respecting ancestral worship, divine revelation, or false and true religion; and the interest at such times has been intense, for the Shaou-Hying people, unlike many of the Chinese, are inclined to be disputatious. Buddhist priests have sometimes paid us a visit; and whilst their ignorance of Buddhism, and the contempt with which they are regarded by many respectable Chinamen, prevented any discussion of their creed, they have listened with encouraging attention to my native brother, Mr. Wong, or myself, as we set before them and before all men the teaching of God's Word, on the folly and sinfulness of idol worship, the existence of only one true God, the pardon of sin through our glorious Mediator, and the promise of the blessed influence of the Holy Spirit to all who pray. Six days every week, as a rule, has our room been opened for the proclamation of the One Saving Name: on Saturdays only, except from unavoidable causes, has preaching been suspended.

Street preaching at Shaou-Hying.

Two men belonging to the village of Lôh-kô-fong are indebted, under God, to Mr. Wong for their religious impressions. One of them (an old man), who now is doorkeeper at the preaching-room, did not at the beginning of the year seem like one who could very easily be brought to know anything, but he has wonderfully improved since his first connexion with us. The other, a brass-wire maker, is a man of simple mind and without education. He is about fifty years of age, with a cheerful countenance and retiring disposition. When brought as an applicant for baptism he scarcely knew how to put his feelings or his faith into words, but said bluntly he believed in Jesus the Saviour of sinners, and in the one living and true God, and had for months past abandoned idolatry and idolatrous sacrifices, for he now knew idols to be false gods, and the worship of them to be vain. And he added an account of a dream he had, which made a deep impression on his mind. "Soon after I first heard something of the Christian religion," he said, "I had a severe pain in my side, that prevented me from doing my ordinary work for some time. I used then to go daily to the preaching-room, and listen to the addresses of Mr. Wong. And one day I had a dream. I saw in my dream two persons, glorious in appearance, draw near to me, and one of them touched me and said unto me, 'You have a dreadful pain in your side; I will remove that pain and will heal you, and to-morrow you shall be able to go to your work.' I awoke: it was bright day, my pain was gone, and has never since returned. Who could that have been that spoke to me and healed me but the Lord Jesus, the mighty God, whose name and doctrine I have heard in the preaching-room? So I believe in God and in the Lord Jesus Christ, and offer my prayers every day."

Progress at Shaou-Hying.

On December 20th, the second anniversary of the great day of intercession for Missions, I had the privilege of admitting into the Lord's fold no less than seven persons; six men of ripe years, and a little boy of eight, the son of one of them. Who will say that this happy event was not the result of the past intercession? I cannot but think it was. Two years ago when my brother Palmer was here, and we with our wives met to join our petitions with the prayer-offerers all over the world, there was but one male Christian in connexion with our Church; there was no Catechist, there was no preaching-room, no out-station, no school. Now we have two Catechists, a promising out-station, a boys' day-school, a well-attended preaching-room, and to crown all, we require at last two figures to represent the number of our Christians, and almost feel emboldened to look forward to the time when three figures will be required. One of those baptized was Mr. Vong's second son, who, as I told you last year, was, like his elder brother, restored to his sorrowing parents in answer to prayer after years of wandering with the Taepings. After his return to the family homestead he used to work on his father's little farm; and when his father came to live in the city as an evangelist he was invited to come too, that he might hear the Gospel. "Oh, no," he replied, "you and mother go; you are going to heaven, I shall be left." He is a cheery, humorous, good-natured young fellow, and his merry laugh often announces some happy hit with his companions. He came to stay here at last, and when he came he little thought that grace would find a way to his heart. However, as we were going to Ningpo last October, he said to me the first night we were in the boat, "Mr. Valentine, I should like to speak to you." "Yes," I said, "what is it?" expecting he wished to express his desire to return to his farm-work at home. But to my infinite delight he told me he was seriously desirous of becoming a Christian. "And have you spoken to your father or your father to you about it?" I said. "No," he replied, "it is from my own mind. When I first came to live at your house I didn't care at all to attend worship, now I love the Word. I formerly frequented plays, and was a great admirer of them; now I have no desire whatever to go and see them. Surely it must have been the Holy Spirit that produced this change; and as I believe the Bible to be the true Word of God, and the Lord Jesus to be the only Saviour of sinners, I desire to be a disciple of Jesus." Then we had a long conversation on certain texts of Scripture, and I was surprised to find in so young a disciple such a good acquaintance with the Word of God. We knelt down together in the forepart of the boat, and I prayed for the young man in his seeking for a part in the kingdom of God; and when we rose from our knees, he said, "Thank you for that prayer." It was near midnight when we parted, his heart as full apparently as mine. At his baptism he received the name Kyüôh-en (Perceiving Grace), possibly chosen by himself and sponsor to express what he seems to feel:—

"Oh, to grace how great a debtor Daily I'm constrain'd to be!"

And thus father, mother, and both their sons, their only children, are now members of the Church of Christ. May their "house" long and faithfully "serve the Lord"! The brass-wire maker from Lôh-kô-fong was baptized on the same occasion, and for him his sponsors have chosen the name of Kyi-fæh (Cephas), perhaps from the conviction or the hope that he will be a man firm in the faith.

Mr. Vong, referred to in the above extract, was mentioned in the Report for 1873-4 pp. 193-4, as having received remarkable answers to prayer in the restoration of his sons, who had been carried off by the Tae-pings. He is now placed as Catechist at the out-station of Li-ts, and has several inquirers under instruction.

HANG CHOW.

The European staff here consists of the Rev. G. E. Moule and Dr. Galt; the Rev. A. Elwin having been compelled to return to England through failure of health. The depressing climate of the place is no inconsiderable trial to the labourers employed in it. Including Catechumens the Native Christians number thirty-seven, of whom twenty-one are Communicants. Two adults were baptized during the year. A Native Christian and his wife (the latter being a woman of much energy and mental power) have been placed to act as Evangelists in a village about ten miles from Hang Chow. They have already gathered many inquirers about them. A Native Christian cooper also, residing in a village on the hills to the north-west, has drawn together three Catechumens, who regularly worship with him on the Lord's day. Mr. Moule's time has been much occupied with translating portions of the Liturgy into the Hang Chow dialect. His only (paid) Native Assistant is a Catechist, estimable and competent in many respects, but who is in delicate health, and whose wife is still a bigoted heathen. Mrs. Moule continues her weekly meeting with the Christian women at her own house, and has another weekly gathering at the house of a Native Christian, which is also attended by two or three heathens. In a small boys' school, connected with the Mission, thirteen children receive regular Christian instruction every Lord's day. Dr. Galt continues his labours at the Opium Hospital, attending also to those suffering from ordinary sicknesses, most of whom are out-patients. The success in curing opium-smokers is scanty and uncertain; but the hospital is nevertheless gaining a good name, and the religious instruction daily given to the patients tends to diffuse more widely the knowledge of the Saviour. On the whole there is advance in this Mission; while it still retains its former characteristics of many difficulties, many trials, and much earnest longing on the part of the Missionaries for further manifestations of GOD'S gracious presence and power.

PEKING.

After ten years of faithful, though sometimes necessarily intermitted, labour, the work in this great metropolis has begun to yield fruit. The number of baptized Christians now amounts to thirty-five baptized and twenty-five Communicants at Peking itself, and eleven baptized, all of whom are Communicants, at the out-station of Yûn Tsing. Since the removal of Dr. Burdon on his appointment to the Bishopric of Victoria, Mr. Collins and his devoted wife have been the only European labourers connected with the Society at this Station. But his Report shows that he has not been left alone by the Master. Mr. Collins writes:—

Progress at Peking. Some despise, some receive the message.

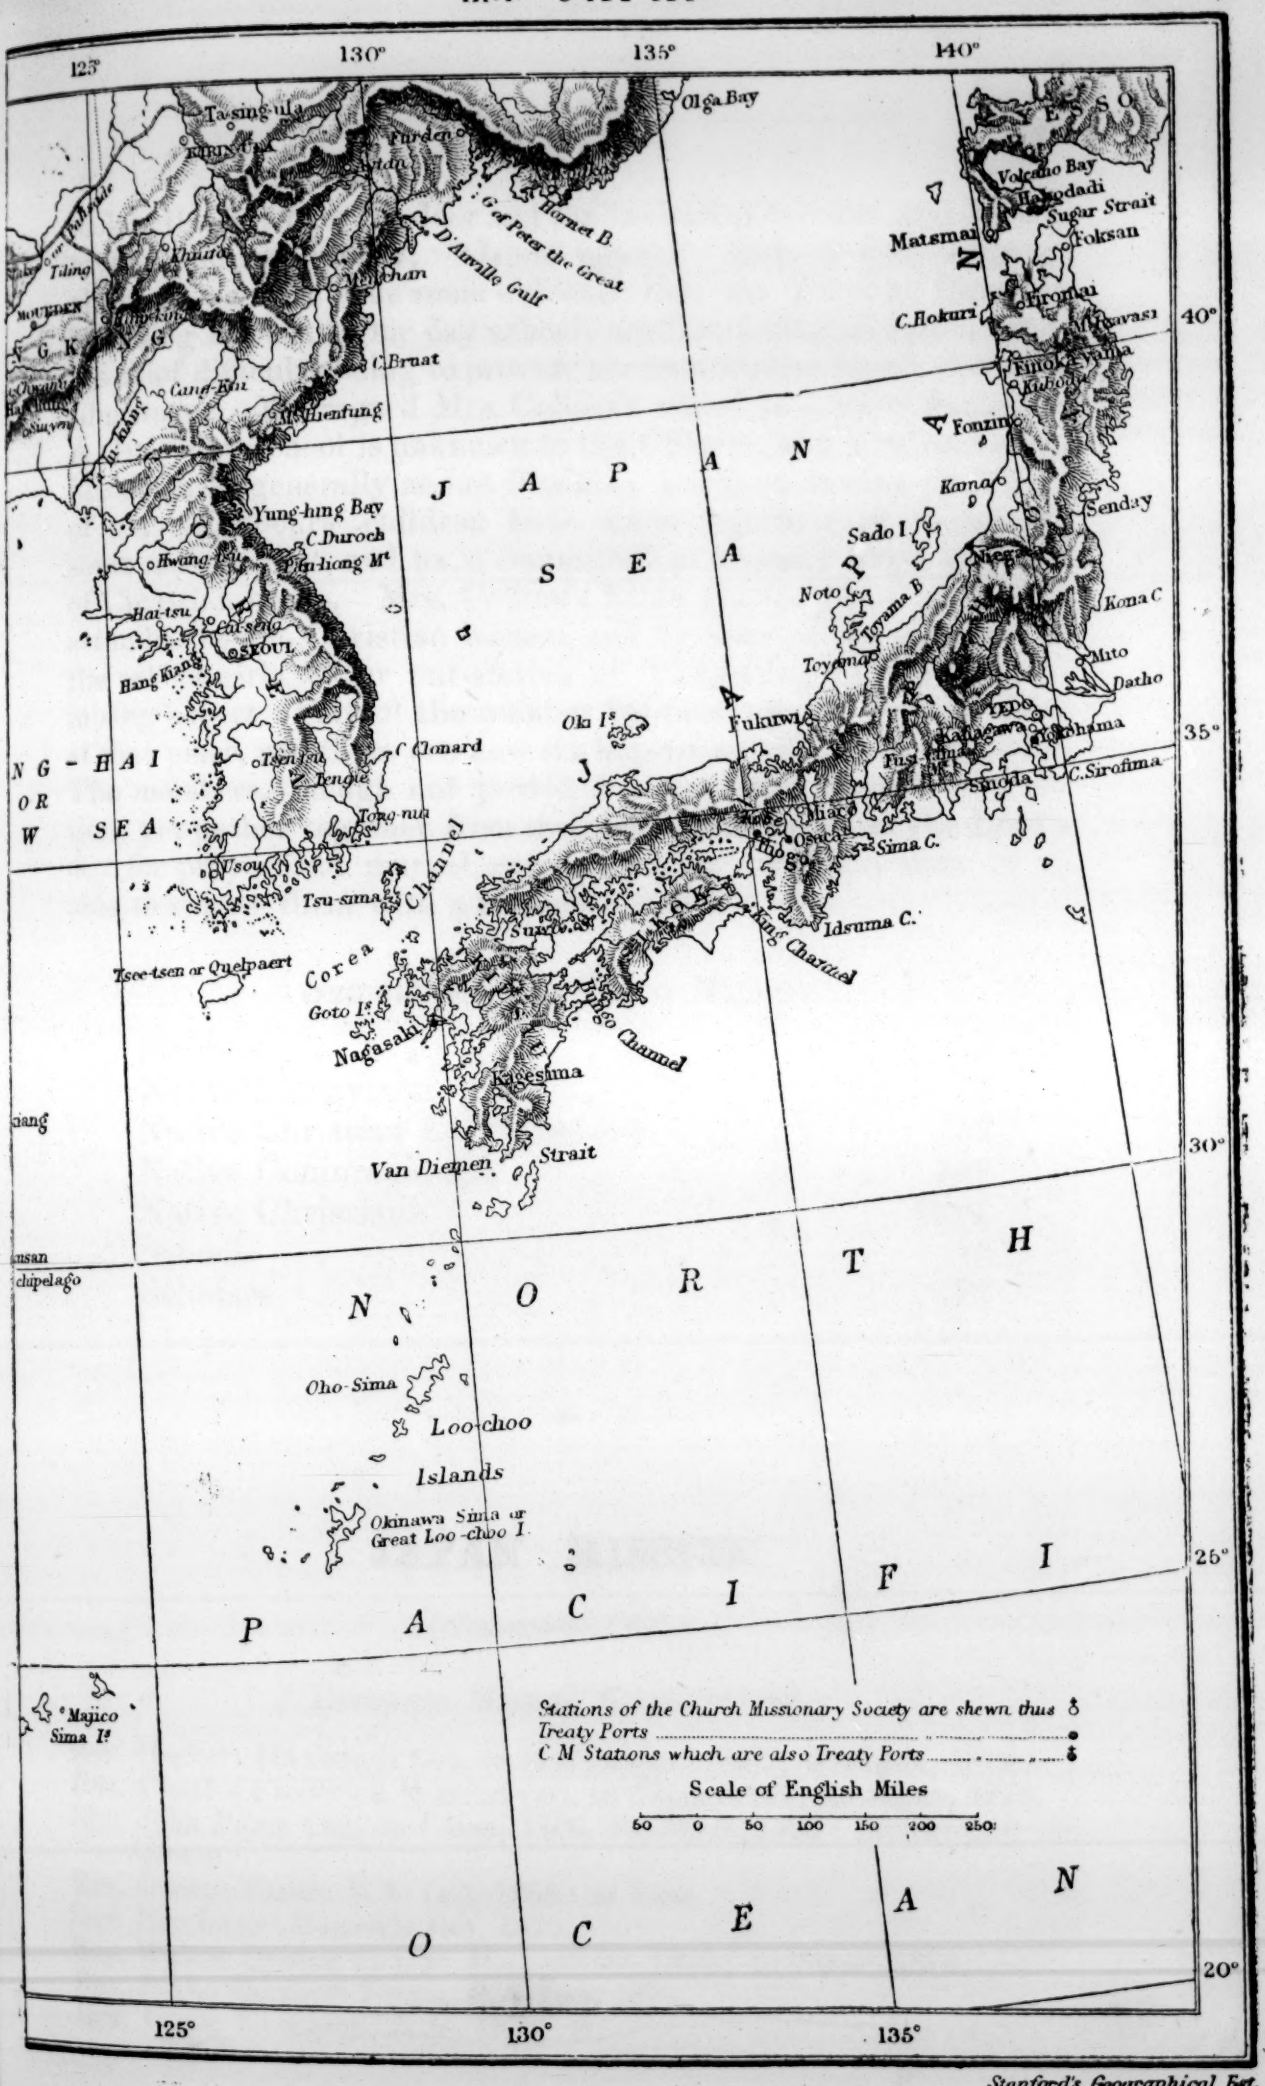

Sixteen adults and four children have been admitted to the outward Church during the year. Some of these are our neighbours, who have been brought to us by means of our schools. One only was attracted by the public preaching, which has been maintained throughout the year; but many more have heard the Word of truth, though the number of hearers has often been very small. Men will look at the sign over the door and the invitation to enter, and depart, saying contemptuously, "Jesus again." This is discouraging, although we have thus some evidence that the precious Name is becoming known. Our day schools are flourishing as to numbers, the chief difficulty being to provide accommodation for all who seek admittance. We regard Mrs. Collins's school as a decided success. A Girls' day school is unknown to the Chinese, and is regarded by Missionaries generally as not feasible; but from twelve to fifteen of our neighbours' children have come regularly to school for some months past, and have committed to memory large portions of Christian books. Mrs. Collins's Bible classes have been well attended by the Christian women, and by some of the relatives of the school-girls.—Our out-station at Yûng-tsing presents a promising aspect. Five of the number baptized are the fruit of work at that place, and there are now six hopeful candidates for baptism. The members, though not provided as yet with regular instruction, yet gather together from their various villages on the Lord's day for prayer and mutual encouragement. I hope soon to be able to supply them with a resident teacher.

JAPAN.

General.

Varied and uncertain prospects in Japan.

As a Mission field, Japan is in many respects in a very uncertain condition. The Government continues its strenuous efforts to introduce European civilization. Railways and electric telegraphs are extending. Upwards of 5000 schools have been established; and it has been stated that nearly 500,000 children are already receiving instruction from certificated teachers. The population generally is of an inquiring turn, especially in the large towns, and not indisposed to adopt foreign customs and practices.—But, except in a very few individual cases, there are no signs of spiritual awakening. The edicts against Christianity, though not enforced to their full extent, are not only not repealed, but have been referred to quite recently by Japanese magistrates as being part of the law of the land. The education given in the Government schools is officially described as purely secular, "so far as is consistent with the fundamental tenets of the Shinto faith;" and no Christian is allowed to teach in them. Moreover, the hostile attitude once assumed by the Government towards Buddhism has been, to a certain extent, abandoned; and Buddhism, as well as Shintoism, has been recognized by some of the local authorities as a national religion. There are indications also that the priests of the two systems have entered into a mutual alliance against Christianity; and they have been subjected in some places to Government examination, with the express view of ascertaining their skill in controverting the arguments of Christian Missionaries.—On the other hand, the past twelve months have not witnessed any direct persecution of Native Christians. Some Japanese have been baptized during the year; and Native Christian congregations meet together in private houses, without concealment or molestation.

The translation of the Bible into the Japanese language is advancing. The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and John, have been published, and the Gospel of St. Luke, and the Epistle to the Romans are expected to be completed in a few months.

The Society has now four stations in Japan, occupied by six Missionaries. At the commencement of 1875, two Missionaries, Messrs. Piper and Fyson, were at YEDO, the capital; two, Messrs. Warren and Evington, at OSÂKA; one, Mr. Burnside, at NAGASÂKI in the south; and one, Mr. Dening, at HAKODÂTI in the northern island. All but one of these (Rev. H. Burnside) are recent arrivals, though three of the number have had Missionary experience in other fields. At present, therefore, the work is for the most part still in its preparatory stage. At Osâka, however, Mr. Warren, formerly of the Hong Kong Mission, commenced his first Japanese service on the first Sunday of the present year. The congregation is but small, averaging thirteen; but some of these appear to the Missionary to be diligently inquiring after the truth. In April of the present year Mr. Burnside was compelled by failure of health to leave Nagasaki and set sail for England. His place was temporarily filled by Mr. Evington from Osâka. Meanwhile the Rev. H. Maundrell, formerly of the Madagascar Mission, had been appointed to Nagasâki, and had left England in May, 1875.

DIVISION OF THE MISSION.

I. Northern Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Auckland.
II. Eastern Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Waiapu.
III. Western Division, comprising chiefly the Diocese of Wellington.

Advance, after decline, in New Zealand.

Though this Mission does not present those indications of spiritual fervour, steady growth, and rapid extension, which characterized it five-and-twenty years ago; yet the Missionaries testify to at least an outward advance during the last twelve months in almost every respect, and in almost every district of the island. This testimony is confirmed by the Society's Calcutta Secretary, Mr. Stuart, who has lately visited the colony. He compares the Mission and Native Church to a tract of land recently submerged. "The flood," he observes, "has swept away much that was fair to look upon and full of promise. Here and there a few favoured spots escaped, and stood out as little islands and places of refuge. And now the flood has rolled back, and fields begin to look green again, and the husbandmen go forth bearing the precious seed with a new alacrity. Yet many a once fertile place has been changed to a bare waste of silt and gravel; and unsightly accumulations of débris meet one on every side." The flood referred to is of course the war that lingered on for so many years between the two races, and which produced such demoralizing effects both on the hostile and the friendly Natives. Peace now prevails, and scarcely any fears are entertained as to its disturbance. The physical condition of the Maoris is certainly improving. They are better clad, and their diet is more nutritious. The decline of the population seems to be arrested; the children, in the more prosperous Mission districts at least, being healthy and fairly numerous. The Native Christians in many places are cultivating the soil with success. Skilful artisans are found amongst them. Some of them are prosperous sheep-farmers; one is mentioned as owning 4000 sheep, and having several European shepherds in his employ. Of the wealth thus obtained, contributions are freely made for the Lord's service. Several churches have lately been built at their expense, costing from £200 to £350 each; and they have raised endowments for the support of their Ministers. Intoxication, though still sadly prevalent, is not only vigorously opposed by Ministers and leading men amongst themselves, but has actually received a decided check; everywhere there is less of it than there was. The Hauhau superstition is waning away; and both at Taupo and in the Waikato country several of its adherents have now openly resumed the profession of Christianity, acknowledging the sin and foolishness of their apostasy. Generally speaking, also, religious ordinances are more sought after; and there is a growing demand for Bibles and Prayer-books. The Church Boards in the North, and in the Waiapu Diocese, are working satisfactorily. The Native Ministers universally bear a very high character, being trusted and esteemed not only by their fellow-countrymen but also by Europeans who come in contact with them. The Maoris expect so high a tone in their spiritual teachers that young men are almost deterred from offering themselves for the Ministry. The deficiency of suitable candidates for Ordination is one of the chief difficulties of the Mission; but superior Mission schools, some already existing and others in contemplation, will, it is hoped, be instruments in GOD'S hands to meet this want. —Two or three of the Society's Missionaries in New Zealand are much enfeebled by age and sickness; but others are labouring with zeal and energy and hopefulness; and Mr. Stuart remarks respecting them, "I am sure that they well represent the spiritual principles of the Society; and though their relations to the Natives, as their friends and protectors, have often exposed them to obloquy and ill-will on the part of their own countrymen, yet they are as a body thoroughly respected and trusted by both races."—Education is not advancing as might be wished. In the Government Schools religious teaching is too often omitted, and from this and other causes the attendance is irregular and uncertain. In some places, however, the exclusion of religious teaching is not rigorously carried out, as regards the Maori Schools. Many of the Teachers give religious instruction regularly in extra hours; and the Native Pastor is allowed to visit the schools for the same purpose. This is further supplemented by Sunday Schools. English only is taught in the Day Schools; but Natives who have learnt to read English will be able at once to read the Maori Bible, as it is printed in the Roman character. There are at present connected with the Mission well-appointed superior schools open to Maori boys, at Auckland (St. Stephen's), at Te Aute, and at Otâki, as well as one of a similar kind for girls at Napier. It is also proposed to rebuild the old Boarding School at Turanga.

The decease of one of the Society's Missionaries is thus referred to in the Auckland Church Gazette:—

Death of an aged Missionary

Another of the old band of Missionary heroes has passed away. The Rev. Charles Baker was buried in St. Stephen's Cemetery, at Auckland, on the 8th of last month. He came to this island at a time when life and property hung on the caprice of any one who wished to attack them, and when there was no other protection than that which people plunged in the depths of barbarism would be pleased to afford him. Forbearance, however, and conciliation proved to be better weapons of defence than guns and powder; and the God of the Gospel watched over those who put their lives in His hand, and sallied forth to do His work. Mr. Baker was aged seventy-one years when he died, and must, therefore, have been twenty-five years of age when he landed in the island. He found here—at the north—some Missionaries already labouring (among them the late Archdeacon H. Williams and his brother the present Bishop of Waiapu). Possessing, as he did, a strong muscular frame (no mean possession in those days), of a temper that was seldom ruffled, orderly and persevering in his habits, diligent in teaching, and very zealous in his work, he soon occupied a leading position in the Missionary circle. The Natives of the East Coast having expressed a desire for Missionaries, the Bishop of Waiapu removed to Turanga, and Mr. Baker soon followed and took up a position at Tolaga Bay. Having laboured there for some years his health failed, and he removed to Auckland. But his heart was in his work, and he devoted all his energies to the sick at the hospital, and the neglected inmates of the Mount Eden Stockade. But the end of his labours was approaching. At length a sudden attack of paralysis laid him low; and after six years' suffering he went to his reward. Mr. Baker's views of evangelical truth were remarkably clear and decided. He delighted to bear his testimony to God's free mercy in Christ, and often spoke with deep sorrow of the spread of Ritualism in the English Church. When he was so reduced that he could barely recognize his friends, he always awoke up as if from a dream at the name of Christ, and strove to express his dependence on Him. One of his sons is a zealous Missionary on the Kaipara.

The Rev. Joseph Matthews and Mr. W. G. Puckey still superintend the Society's work at KAITAIA. The principal event of the year has been a lamentable outbreak of typhoid fever. The deaths among the natives have been numerous; and among those who have been thus removed the Missionaries regret the loss of two of their best teachers. Messrs. Matthews and Puckey speak with great delight of Mr. Stuart's visit to their station, which they found a great comfort and encouragement. The natives in this district are living in peace and harmony with the European population. The forty teachers and monitors (unpaid volunteers) still for the most part render good service; and the Native ministers also give the greatest satisfaction. Three of the young men belonging to the congregation of Messrs. Matthews and Puckey are very promising candidates for Holy Orders, and are receiving instruction for that object. There are three points to which Messrs. Matthews and Puckey refer with regret, (1.) the irreligious tone in some of the Government Schools, (2.) the deficient supply of Maori religious books, and (3.) the laxity of Government in restricting the sale of intoxicating liquors among the Native population. One pleasing incident of Mr. Stuart's visit may be recorded in Mr. Matthews's own words :—

"Living water" for a dying New Zealander.

Mr. Stuart observing a Native woman named Agnes having a book of Common Prayer in her hand, asked her to read the twenty-third Psalm. I then mentioned that her daughter Eleanor when dying asked her father to bring her some living water, and that he, not exactly perceiving what she meant, spoke of the water of the river that flowed by near their house. "Oh," she replied, "the water I mean is that of which Jesus spoke, the living water springing up unto eternal life." Agnes was much interested when Mr. Stuart pointed to the second verse of the Psalm she had just read, saying, "That was the water your daughter asked for."

Lights and shadows at Hauraki.

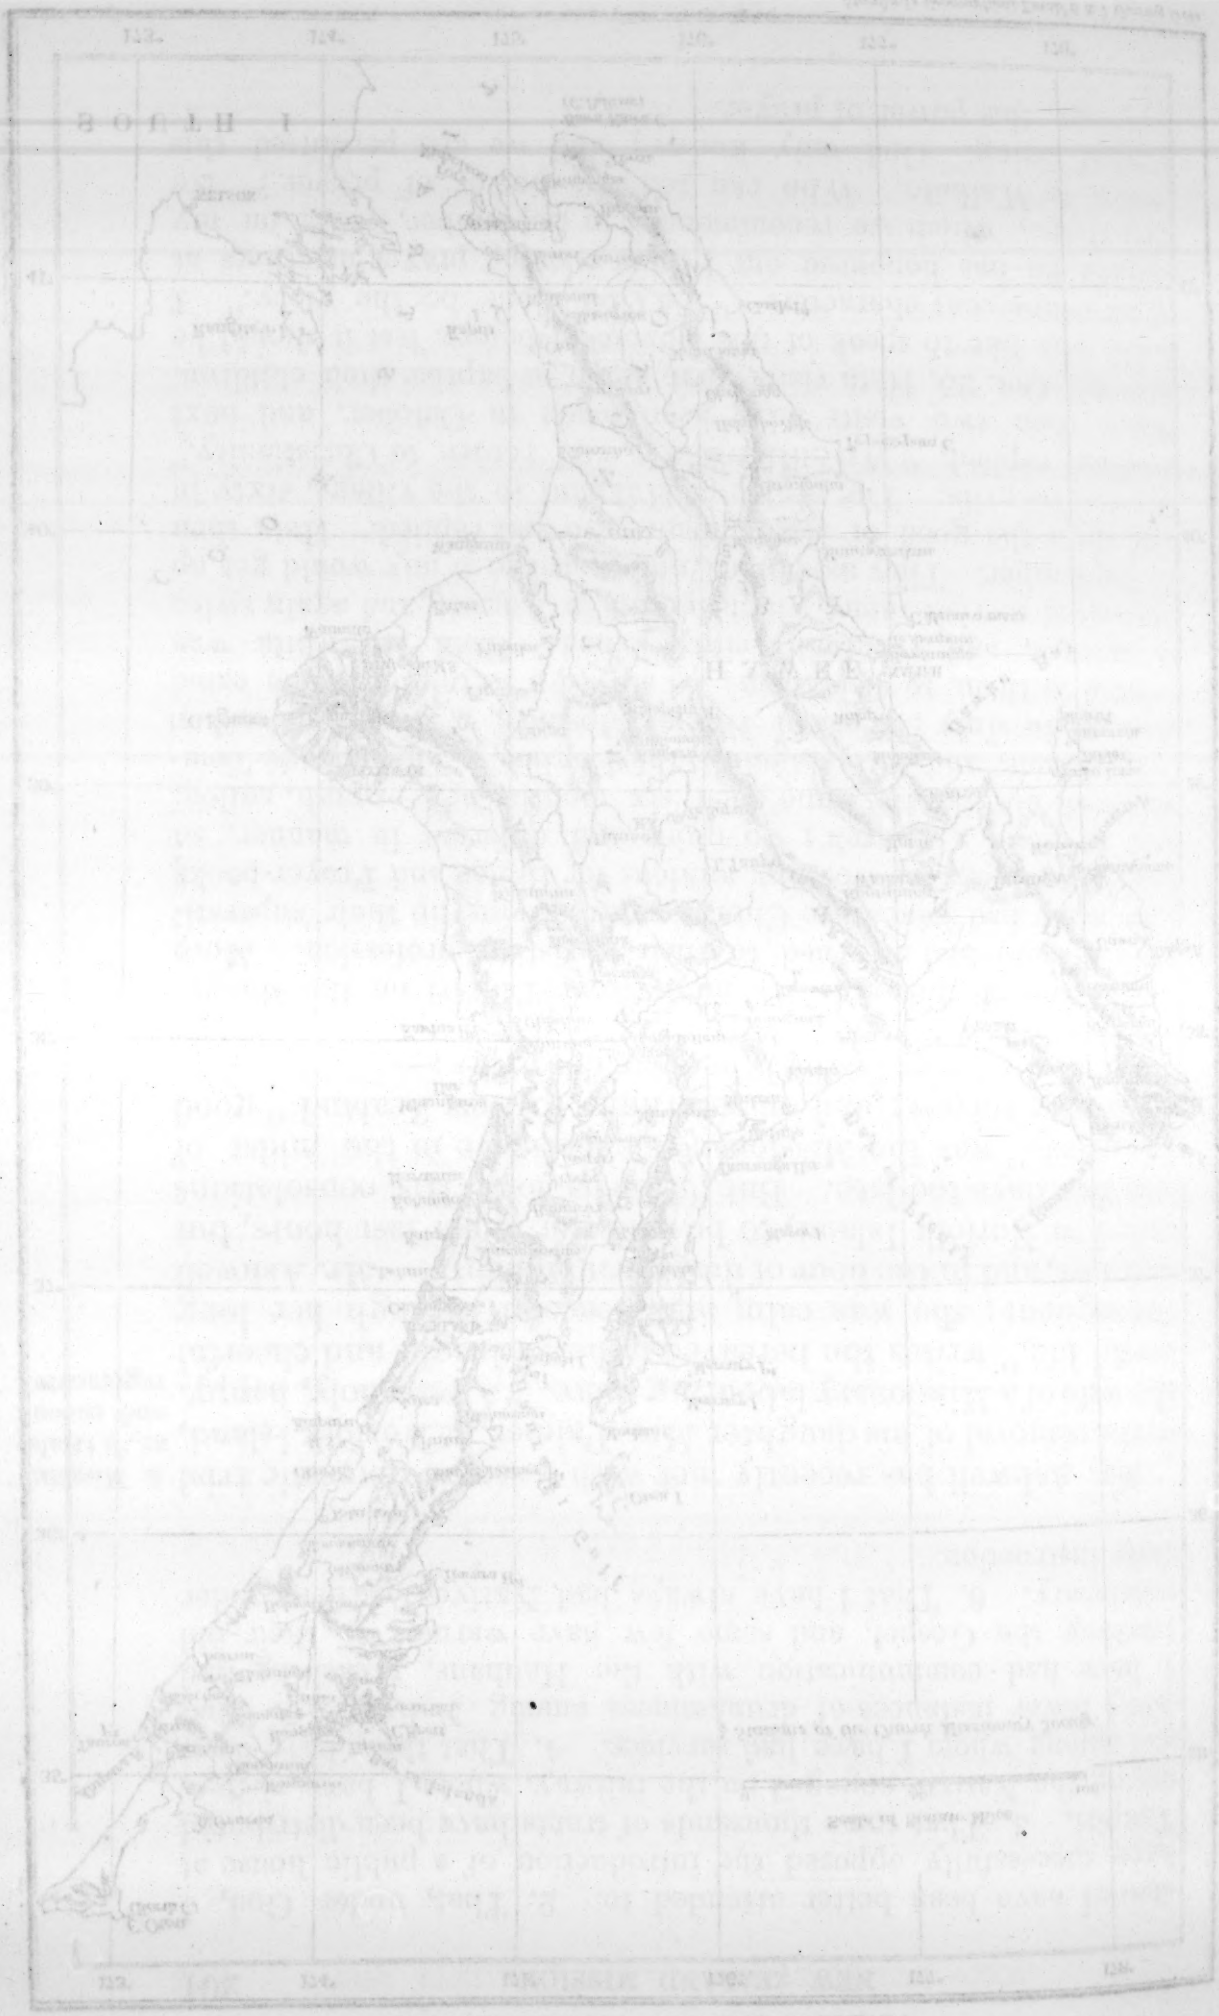

Though there are corners of the district of HAURAKI where deep prejudice and ignorant obstinacy prevent the entrance of truth; and though throughout the district unhappy proofs are ever and anon appearing that the heart of man is deceitful above all things; yet advance characterizes the work in general, and Mr. Maunsell's Annual Letter once again breathes a tone of thankfulness and hope. The number of Christians in connexion with the Native Church has risen from 1000 to 1240, and of Communicants from 88 to 107. Three adults have been baptized, and 56 children. The latter number seems to show a fair natural increase in the Native Christian population. Mr. Maunsell writes :—

On the whole I have much to be thankful for. There has been the same desire for religious instruction, and an equal liberality in money matters. So far as I know, about £350 has been raised for all Church purposes. (Last year I understated the amount so raised by £100, the same may yet prove to be the case this year.) In some of our Churches we have organized arrangements similar to those obtaining in the Colonial Church; e. g. Church committees, parish meetings, weekly offertories, &c., the various agencies discharging their several duties to the best of their abilities. Considerable zeal and energy is shown in some parts in these matters, while in others less subject to our influence they are more backward. The crying vice of drunkenness has, I think, diminished, and many who indulged therein have awoke to a sense of their folly. Some of the young men have proved unstable, and yet have expressed penitence and a desire to return again to what is right. Of the two whom I hoped to see as candidates for the ministry I cannot now report favourably. One has frankly acknowledged that he has been led into sin, which he bitterly regrets, and longs to be reinstated. The other was accused of falling also, but I could not quite determine whether he was guilty. The student from Whangarei is still continuing his studies, and the Bishop hopes to ordain him in six months, if his people have completed their arrangements for his support. They evince a great desire to have him amongst them, and have collections periodically for the purpose of raising an endowment fund for him. It will be a great matter to have a deacon in that district, as at present it receives but rare visits from myself and the Rev. M. Taupaki. The two deacons, Turipona and Pomare, have been admitted to priests' orders, breaking through the long novitiate which was becoming traditionary in this diocese, as they were in deacons' orders only two years. Thus their people will have more frequent opportunities of communicating than heretofore; and I shall be set at liberty to visit the other parts of my district more frequently.—Of the principal events that occurred during the year, the first is the meeting of the Native Church Board. Great interest was evinced on all sides in its proceedings, and some useful discussions took place. At the conclusion of the session, which lasted two days, a general meeting of the people in the neighbourhood was held at the instance of some of the chiefs; and public approval was expressed at the mode in which the proceedings had been conducted and unity of action in all Church matters resolved upon. The next sitting is to be held in the Rev. W. Pomare's district in March, and preparations have already been made by the hosts to give all comers a hearty and friendly reception.—Soon after the last sitting of the Board I accompanied the Bishop to Mercury Bay, to open a neat little church, built by the people at their sole expense, £125. Another church, some five miles from Shortland, was opened on the 30th ult. Mr. Stuart, of Calcutta, was present, and expressed himself much pleased with what he saw. He also gave us an earnest sermon on holding fast to our first love.

The Rev. B. Y. Ashwell, who has charge of WAIKATO, residing in a village called Hopuhopu, writes as follows:—

At Taupiri, where is my Native brother H. Tarawhita, and at Hopuhopu, we are going on as usual. Our Communicants have increased, and also our Native congregations. I think I may humbly say, that God has blessed my return to Waikato from the following facts: 1. Our Friday evening prayer-meetings have been regularly attended by my Native brother minister, Heta Tarawhita, and three Native Teachers; and the outposts of the district have been better attended to. 2. That, under God, I have successfully opposed the introduction of a public house at Taupiri. 3. That some thousands of tracts have been distributed among the Natives engaged on the railway, whom I have visited, and among whom I have had services. 4. That I have had communication with the Hauhaus, preaching and teaching the Gospel, and some few have warmed to their old missionary. 6. That I have always had Native Teachers under daily instruction.

A Missionary's trials and encouragements.

Mr. Ashwell has recently met with a severe domestic trial in the removal of his daughter Mrs. Palmer, at Norfolk Island, the wife of a Missionary labouring there. "After a holy, happy, useful life," writes the bereaved father, "bright and cheerful throughout; she was calm and peaceful through her long sickness, and in the hour of death triumphant." Mr. Ashwell sailed to Norfolk Island, to be with her in her last hours, but was five days too late. But "GOD is love, His consolations are great," was the Missionary's experience in the midst of agonizing sorrow; and on returning to New Zealand "good news awaited him," which he thus describes:—

Hauhaus of Hukanui—ten miles from Taupiri on the Mangawaia River—had returned to their Christian profession. More than sixty had joined the Church again, giving up their superstition, assembling for worship, anxious for Bibles and Prayer-books and to build a church; so quiet and different in manner, so subdued, not like the same men six months ago—rough, sullen, independent, and bitter against the English. The change commenced in July; I asked Hokia (Josiah), a Native Teacher related to them, to visit them; he stayed a fortnight; some came to service, and eventually sixty joined. Heta Tarawhita was requested to visit them, which he did in August, and again twice in September. They assembled, and he asked if any would get up and show the good of Hauhauism. No one replied. Heta then showed its evils. The people of Hukanui in the village, sixty in number, replied, "We all forsake it, and return to Christianity." Since then two visits have been made in October, and next Sunday, Oct. 25, Heta visits them again to baptize their children. I did not like to speak of this movement before, lest it should be of an evanescent character. "To God alone be the glory." I believe he has honoured our Friday evening prayer-meetings at Hopuhopu, which we recommenced in September, 1872, on my return to Waikato. Who can tell the power of prayer? No created being. God only knows; and we are permitted this privilege, this power of prayer.

General.

The Bishop of Waiapu writes:—

Renewed advance in the Waiapu diocese.

Under the policy of our Native Minister, Sir Donald Maclean, we may hope that there will be no recurrence of hostilities. The evil effects of the war will, however, be long felt. Yet there is a wholesome reaction; and many are ready to acknowledge freely, that it was better with them when they were living under the influence of Christian teaching. We feel, therefore, that God's blessing is still with us, and that He will grant an outpouring of His Spirit and revive His work.—In July and August I spent six weeks at Poverty Bay, where the Natives are settling down to a state of quietness, and an improved tone of feeling manifests itself. The district is now becoming thickly peopled with English settlers, which is a state of things, whether for good or evil, which the Maoris have to submit to. However, upon the whole, I think it will be to their advantage, because there is a large number of respectable people among the settlers. On October 28th I left home in the Government steamer, calling at Turanga and Opotiki. The remnant of the Opotiki Natives are settled on the eastern side of the land they formerly occupied, the rest of the district being in the hands of settlers. Before the war they were a hard-working people, and carried much of their produce to Auckland; and now that peace is restored they are settling down into industrious habits. I visited a village, the inhabitants of which had cast aside their religious profession altogether, but have now expressed a desire to come back again. (The chief man had been with the well-known rebel leader, Te Kooti, through the war.) This is a pleasing indication for good. —The school at Te Aute is going on prosperously under our able master, Mr. Reynolds. The boys are making good progress in English; but the Rev. S. Williams, when at home, gives them religious instruction in their own language. A similar school for Maori girls is now in course of erection near to my own house, and will soon be completed. The expense of the building is defrayed from private funds. It is from these schools and from that in Auckland that we hope to obtain, to some extent at least, a supply of a better class of teachers.

Archdeacon Williams gives the subjoined brief account of TURANGA:—

The people throughout the district are becoming more and more settled in the pursuit of various industrial occupations; but this, though favourable in itself to the progress of Christian work among them, involves the disadvantage of their dispersion over the face of the country, so that the ordinary Sunday congregations are in many places smaller than they used to be when the people were more concentrated. Still the statistics do not indicate any falling off. The number of Communicants for the past year is 633, being 275 males and 358 females. The baptisms have been 224 infants and 4 adults. Besides this, confirmations have been held at Whangara and Turanganui, at which 23 were confirmed. One small church, viz. that at Whangara, has been rebuilt—only a raupo building, it is true, but there is a prospect of its being replaced before long by one of a more substantial character.

From TAURANGA the Ven. Archdeacon Brown writes as follows:—

I have continued through another year, "faint yet pursuing," to minister to my scattered sheep. My Sabbath services at the neighbouring Pas, have still been carried out so far as I have been able; and small as has been the number attending public worship, there has yet been a gradual improvement both in the number assembled and in the attention induced. In addition to my Sabbath duties, I have occasionally held services at the Native hostelry, and have had many opportunities of conversing on religious subjects with parties of Natives (many of them from distant tribes) who have visited Tauranga for the purpose of barter. I may notice amongst the causes of hope for the future an increasing desire on the part of the Natives to obtain Prayer-books and Testaments. Their field labour on the Sabbath, introduced when they embraced Hauhauism, has greatly diminished; and some of the influential chiefs have shown great determination in preventing any intoxicating liquors being landed at their Pas.

The work connected with ROTORUA and MAKETU is under the charge of the Rev. S. M. Spencer, who resides at the latter place and is assisted by a resident Native Minister, the Rev. Ihaia Te Ahu. Altogether, Mr. Spencer reckons that there are from 1200 to 1500 Native Christians in the districts in which he is labouring. Mr. Spencer speaks with thankfulness of the cordiality with which he is generally received, and "the remonstrances of well-disposed elderly persons with the turbulent and careless" among his flock. The Native Minister above referred to, reports, however, the prevalence of intemperance amongst the inland tribes, their desecration of the Lord's day, and their general deadness in spiritual matters. These vices principally exist in those districts which have been most exposed to the horrors of war and to the bad example of Europeans.

We have cause to be thankful for the continuation of peace between the two races, with its accompanying blessings, and it is gratifying to see the people settling down to works of industry, and to the improvement of their own condition. The longer this state of affairs is maintained the more difficult will it be to disturb them. The several villages have constantly been visited by me, and I have generally found the people attentive to the means of grace. There is also a growing desire amongst many to have their children better educated, and with this object the Upokoiri tribe, at Omohu, have lately set aside a block of land for educational purposes, which has been let for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of £750.—It is much to be regretted that we have not in this district at present any Native clergyman, for there is plenty of work here for several able men. (We have, however, some very excellent Catechists who conduct the services in their several villages during my absence.) I trust that the Lord of the harvest may lead some of His people to apply themselves to this work.

III. Western Division.

The division was first occupied by Bishop Hadfield in 1839. It now comprises two stations: 1. Wanganui, 1840; 2. Otaki, 1842.

Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Wellington (m), 1838.
Rev. Basil Kirke Taylor, M.A. (m), 1860.
Rev. James McWilliam, joined in the Mission, 1874.

In this diocese the Natives, since the establishment of peace, live in such small and widely-scattered parties that it is very difficult to contrive means for supplying them with proper religious instruction. During the year the Bishop visited the Maories to the north of Wanganui. He here came in contact with some of the few places where fanatical adherents of Hauhauism still exist in any considerable numbers. In almost every place, however, he met with some that had never given up their Christian profession; and there were some settlements, even in this district, where the Christian element still predominates. The chiefs, generally speaking, were friendly; but throughout the diocese there is much bitterness of feeling against Europeans, arising, the Bishop thinks, not so much from the war as from the subsequent confiscation of land. This renders it more urgently desirable to obtain Native clergymen.

General.

It was mentioned in the Report for 1873-4 that the Committee had taken measures for strengthening this Mission. These plans were at that time in so unfinished a state that it was thought well simply to refer to them rather than to attempt any detailed description. They have now been so far completed that it may be as well to summarize some of the changes that have taken place in the staff and working of the Mission during the two years concluding on the 1st June, 1875.—It was at the close of 1872 that the first division of the diocese of Rupert's Land was effected by the consecration of Dr. Horden as Bishop of Moosonee. That division has subsequently been completed, so far as thought necessary for the present, by the consecration, in May, 1874, of Dr. Bompas as Bishop of Athabasca, and of Dr. McLean as Bishop of Saskatchewan. Like Dr. Horden, Dr. Bompas had been previously (as by his own choice he still is) one of the Society's Missionaries, and had laboured for nine years in the Mackenzie River District; while Dr. McLean is not only a warm friend of the Society, but has ably and faithfully laboured at Winnipeg in the training of Native clergy and catechists, most of whom had been, or were to be, the Society's agents.—Another important step in advance is the completion of Bishop Machray's plans for increasing the efficiency of St. John's College at Winnipeg, where Bishop Maclean was formerly engaged (as just stated) in training Native Christian Teachers. The patronage of the Professorship of Exegetical Theology in that College has been vested in the Society; and the Committee have appointed to it the Rev. J. D. O'Meara, the son of an old and esteemed Missionary to the Indians of West Canada. The Rev. J. Grisdale, one of the Society's Secretaries for this Mission, has been appointed to the Professorship of Systematic Theology in the same College, and has therefore resigned the charge of St. Andrew's; his place there being occupied, since the middle of May, 1875, by the Rev. R. Young, B.A., formerly Association Secretary in Yorkshire.—The Rev. R. Phair, returning to the Mission after two years' absence, has opened a new Station at Fort Francis, near Rainy Lake. Messrs. Reader, Shaw, and Hines have also been added to the Mission during the last two years. The two former were ordained at Red River, by the Bishop of Rupert's Land (Dr. Machray), in June, 1874, and have been stationed respectively at TOUCHWOOD HILLS in the SWAN RIVER District, and at FORT CHIPWYAN in the MACKENZIE RIVER District.—Mr. Hines, still a layman, is located for the present at WHITE FISH LAKE (in the SASKATCHEWAN District), north of CARLTON between that post and the Beaver River.—In September, 1874, the Rev. H. Cochrane was transferred from the INDIAN SETTLEMENT to STANLEY, changing place with the Rev. J. Mackay. This arrangement was again disturbed in May of the present year, Mr. Mackay returning to Stanley, Mr. Cochrane being transferred to CUMBERLAND, and the Rev. Gilbert Cook coming in from LANSDOWNE to the Settlement.

Province of Manitoba.

The subjoined extracts from Archdeacon Cowley's letters of Dec. 14th will be read with deep interest, and will call forth earnest prayer for the Indian Christians at this important crisis of their history:—

The year now drawing to its close will form an interesting epoch in the history of our North-west America Mission. The concluding touch in the division of Rupert's Land into four dioceses, and the arrival of all the Bishops in this land, is cause of devout thankfulness to the great Head of the Church. I rejoice in the realization of my fond wishes, and would bless God for granting me to live to see my desire accomplished. I have one other wish, and even this God is beginning to gratify, as I fondly trust,—I long to see the older stations, if not self-supporting, yet making efforts to sustain the worship and service of Almighty God without extraneous aid. The first to set the example is Holy Trinity congregation; it is doing nobly. May the effort excite to holy emulation the other congregations in communion with us, and may God own and bless the attempt! MAPLETON and North ST. ANDREW'S have now an opportunity of showing their appreciation of the Gospel. I thank you for affording them the chance. The day may come when St. Andrew's central and south may be expected to follow suit. [The members of these congregations are mostly of mixed descent.]—ST. PETER'S (the INDIAN SETTLEMENT) is to me a source of much and anxious thought. We succeeded in getting a great portion of what was the Indian reserve of other days secured as such by treaty. Alas! I fear greatly that it cannot long remain sacred to the poor Aborigines. Human nature is corrupt, and the covetousness thereof overpowers all sense of duty and right. The Indian lands on the banks of the Red River are valuable, and no doubt if in the hands of industrious and frugal parties would soon be turned to good account. This is fully appreciated, and speculative men are buying from the Indians large tracts, notwithstanding all opposition. In a few years I fear there may be brought to bear upon Government such influence as cannot be resisted, and that the Reserve will then be thrown open.

The Archdeacon's anticipations of what the result will be, should the Reserve be thrown open, are of the gloomiest possible character, as regards at least the temporal future of the Indian population.

Fort Alexander District.

The Rev. Gilbert Cook, a country-born clergyman, laboured at LANSDOWNE from Midsummer, 1874, till May, 1875. The morning Indian services were well attended while the Indians were in the neighbourhood. The Native Christians here, however, have not yet learnt the lesson of independence and self-supporting industry, but look far too much for temporal assistance to the agents of the Mission. When Mr. Cook first reached the place, the morning congregation, consisting usually of fifty persons, wished to remain in the Mission-house and to be fed at the Missionary's expense, and on the wish not being gratified many of them absented themselves from evening service. There was, however, an improvement in this respect towards the close of the season; and some of the congregation were devout in their attention to religious ordinances and consistent in conduct. Some among the heathen in the neighbourhood are candidates for baptism, though others remain firmly attached to their own superstitions. After passing a very severe winter at Lansdowne, during the course of which a few Indians were baptized, Mr. Cook was transferred in May to the Indian Settlement (St. Peter's) at Red River. Archdeacon Cowley gives the following account of a Confirmation held at Lansdowne in January of the present year:—

The Bishop of Rupert's Land held a Confirmation at Lansdowne Station, on Sunday the 17th of January, when, if I remember rightly, 32 persons were confirmed, among whom were the chief, "Sahshooshoos," or William Pennefather, and some of his principal men. The sight of such a number of elderly persons, not long since heathen, coming forward in the presence of their brethren, the congregation, and before God, to renew, ratify, and confirm their baptismal engagements, was very touching, and calculated to call forth praise to Almighty God, who has called them by His grace into the faith of His dear Son, that, through the blessed Spirit's teaching, they may be partakers of His holiness. The congregation both morning and evening was large and devout.

I think about 20 persons partook of the Holy Communion after morning prayers. The good Bishop addressed the Indians most kindly and suitably on both occasions, and was listened to with reverent attention. There were also some from among the heathen who were ready and desirous to be baptized; but, as the services were long and the day short, I advised that those should be deferred till another Sunday.

Mr. Spence seems to be plodding on quietly and persistently at Islington, and I doubt not God will bless him. I have not heard much of him lately, but have great confidence in him, that he is doing the work of the Lord. He is a good man, and though not bright in an English point of view, yet seen from an Indian standpoint he is as a city set on a hill, a light shining in a dark place. In his own language he is eloquent and impressive.

Swan River District.

In a letter dated July 29th, 1874, the Rev. J. Reader has given an interesting account of his first journey to his appointed station, TOUCHWOOD HILLS. (Extracts from this account have been printed in the Church Missionary Record for February, 1875.) The Indians have been temporarily driven from the neighbourhood by the grasshoppers, but appear desirous of returning as soon as possible. They have also expressed their wish that the Mission Station may not be removed; but "if so," observes Mr. Reader, "it will take some time to clear away the bush before many houses can be built or much ground be cultivated."

Since his arrival at Touchwood Hills, Mr. Reader has met with much encouragement, which in a letter dated Jan. 22, 1875, he thus describes:—

Interesting conversions at Touchwood Hills.

The circumstances connected with the baptism of a woman about thirty years of age are very interesting. Some two years ago she was very ill, so much so that the medicine men gave her up as dead, when they found that their foolish efforts to restore her were of no avail. I know not how it was that her mother allowed such proceedings, for she had already been baptized. The afflicted woman's sister was like herself, still heathen; however, the mother and sister were moved to pray for their dear one's recovery. God heard that prayer and raised her up: so astonished were they that the two sisters resolved to join "the praying people." After examination, and finding that they had faith in Jesus, I had the privilege of admitting these two sisters into the Christian Church. The whole family are now away about fifty miles where they can catch fish, but hope to return next spring. There is another interesting case which I have now on hand; an old Indian, about the oldest I have seen here for some time past, being religiously impressed. He had several times heard the Gospel from Charles Pratt. One Sunday afternoon, as Charles was interpreting my sermon on the second coming of Christ, or rather, I think, preaching another sermon on the same subject, this Indian was very much impressed at what he heard about the burning of this world. He has been inquiring several times, and I have managed to stammer a few words to him in Cree. Yesterday I read to him John iii. 16, from the Syllabic Bible, and the whole conversation between our Lord and Nicodemus, as well as the Creed from the Baptismal Service, and told him in broken Cree that Jesus was his Saviour, my Saviour, and the Saviour of all; and that He was a Saviour from sin. He is asking to be baptized on the coming Sabbath. If I am persuaded that he believes with all his heart, I shall (God willing) comply with his request. There are not many Indians here at present, but I am expecting a goodly number in the spring, who I am told have decided to come with their chief. Do pray for us that the Lord may visit us and grant a mighty outpouring of the Holy Ghost; so shall we have times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

A treaty has been formed between Her Majesty's Government and the Indians of this and the neighbouring districts (called the Qu'Appelle districts), which is thus described in the Times of Oct. 19, 1875:—

By the present treaty the interests and welfare of the Indians are well considered, it not being proposed to banish those who have just given up their rights in the lands to some distant reserve, but to encourage their final settlement in the ceded territory; each family of five is to have one square mile of land allotted to it, and smaller families in the same proportion, thus giving each individual of them a prospective homestead of 160 acres. Those Indians now cultivating the soil, and those who shall hereafter take to cultivating it, are to be supplied with agricultural implements, seed, stock, and other requisites. That Indians may become successful farmers and stock-raisers has been demonstrated in Ontario. The Six Nation Indians, settled in the county of Brant, possess a regularly-organized agricultural society; and they held last week a most successful exhibition of their farm produce. The Qu'Appelle Treaty further concedes the right to hunt over the ceded territory, and confers the customary presents and annuities upon each individual Indian according to rank.

Cumberland District.

No communication has been received, since the date of the last Report, from the Society's faithful and devoted Missionary, the Rev. H. Budd, at DEVON. At CUMBERLAND, the other Station under his charge, he has been assisted since May of the present year by his son-in-law, the Rev. H. Cochrane.

Saskatchewan District.

The Rev. Luke Caldwell, a Native brother in Deacon's orders, watches over the Native flock at NEPOWEWIN. The Christians number ninety-seven, of whom twenty are Communicants. Self-support in Church matters is beginning, though at present it is only a beginning. Two heathens were baptized during the year.

The Bishop of Saskatchewan, in a Journal written during the first quarter of 1875, refers to this Mission as follows:—

Testimony of the Bishop of Saskatchewan to the work at Nepowewin.

The Nepowewin Mission was established by the Church Missionary Society, at a time when large numbers of Indians were accustomed to assemble near the site of the Mission to wait for the boats of the Hon. Hudson's Bay Co.; hence the name of the locality—"Nepowewin," meaning the Standing Place. A change has, however, taken place. The Indians do not assemble there now in any number. About ten families of Indians live near the Mission and attend its services; while about sixteen families of Pagan Indians are regularly engaged in hunting within reach of the Missionary. There is an excellent Mission-house and chapel—the latter very neatly fitted up. The Native Pastor in charge is the Rev. Luke Caldwell, who is favourably known to many of the supporters of the Church Missionary Society in England by his faithful services as a Catechist or Schoolmaster, both under Bishop Anderson and the present Bishop of Rupert's Land. I am sorry to say that I found Mr. Caldwell in very bad health. He had been in that state all the winter, and in consequence had not been able to carry on the work of the Mission with regularity. Yet I was glad to learn that notwithstanding the weak state of his health, Mr. Caldwell had lost no opportunity of crossing the river to Fort La Corne to visit the heathen Indians when they came in to barter their furs. I stayed at the Mission five days, holding various services and arranging for the formation of a Confirmation class. On Sunday morning there were thirty-two persons present at service—thirteen of them partaking of Holy Communion. In the afternoon the Sunday school was re-formed, with twenty-three pupils and five teachers. Although the field of labour at the Nepowewin is at present very much less than formerly, yet I think the Church Missionary Society are acting wisely in not abandoning the Mission. A great change is rapidly coming over the country. The survey of the Canadian Pacific Railway is going on—new settlements are already being formed—civilization is steadily advancing. These causes, combined with the gradual disappearance of the buffalo from the plains, will render it less difficult in the future than it has been in the past to collect the Indians as settlers on reserves; and I think the neighbourhood of Fort La Corne, or the Nepowewin, a very likely place for such settlement.

From WHITE FISH LAKE, Mr. J. Hines writes under date January 4th, 1875, and gives the following account of his entrance on the work:—

Commencement at a new Station. Desire of some for the Gospel; opposition of others.

You will rejoice to hear that the Lord is blessing my labours among the Indians. I have just commenced a class at Sanday Lake (20 miles S.), which I intend to hold once a fortnight. The chief and his wife are the first two to resign their heathen practices and be taught that Word which alone can make them wise unto salvation, "through faith which is in Christ Jesus." He has also given me his youngest son to teach; he has been with me now seven weeks, and is making capital progress. I suppose he had not seen a book before he came to me, and now he can read words of three letters without spelling them. His writing is very good too. I am sorry to inform you that half the children have been baptized by a Roman Catholic Priest. The reason the chief gives for this is because no Protestant Minister was available. His speech at our first meeting was a very touching one. I will quote his own words. He said, "Mostly every year ministers are passing through my country. I always behave kindly to them, and beg of them to stay with me and my people; but 'No,' they say, 'they cannot do this, they were not sent out to me, but to other Indians.' At last I said, 'It is not for me to enjoy the privilege that other Indians enjoy,' and gave up all hope of ever having a minister to teach us to do right. I felt it very much because I love my children, and am anxious they should know more of the God who made them than I their father."—There are a number of Indians living about three miles south and north of White Fish Lake very stubborn indeed. They prevented us from building when we first came, and talked of driving us back again. Certainly it was enough to make one careful in what one said and did, as there were only two of us and there was a large number of them. However in the midst of their speeches I left them, took my axe and commenced to cut down trees. As soon as they saw that I would not listen to them, they went home, but returned the next day to repeat their threats. I treated them as before, and the result was similar. They soon found out that I cared but little for their threats, and they soon ceased; but they still remain enemies to the Word of Light.

In the document above referred to, Bishop McLean thus speaks of Mr. Hines's work:—

A new Mission to the Indians has been recently formed by the Church Missionary Society, about sixty miles north of Carlton House. It is under the charge of Mr. Hines, assisted by Mr. George McKay a native of this country and formerly a student of St. John's College, Manitoba. I travelled as far as Carlton House on the way to visit the Mission, when I was met by Mr. Hines with the intelligence that the Indians were mostly absent from the settlement he is forming; so it was decided to postpone my visit till the autumn. The object aimed at by Mr. Hines is to induce the Indians to take up claims of land and settle down to the steady work of farming. He has drawn up a number of excellent practical rules for the guidance of the settlers. From all that I can learn I think he is very likely to succeed in his efforts. I was told on good authority that he is rapidly gaining influence among the Indians. He is certainly acquiring their language with great rapidity. He had been little more than six months in the country when I saw him; and yet he could read the Cree Prayer-book with ease, and also converse with the Indians with some degree of freedom and a correct pronunciation. He is a candidate for Holy Orders. Mr. McKay has rendered him very efficient aid in the work of his Mission.

Testimony of the Bishop of Saskatchewan to the work at White Fish Lake.

English River District.

No Report has been received of the work in this district for the year under review.

Mackenzie River District.

The Bishop of Athabasca (Dr. Bompas) reached Fort Simpson, on the Mackenzie, on the 24th of September, 1874. No further event of special Missionary interest has been recorded as occurring during the year.

The Rev. A. J. Shaw writes hopefully from Fort Chipewyan. The children in the school are progressing rapidly. He also holds night-classes five times a week, at which the adults attend regularly and show much anxiety to learn and to understand the Scriptures. "Our Sunday services," he adds, "are very encouraging, and we have already seen some fruit of our labours."

The Rev. R. McDonald, aided by his brother, Mr. Kenneth McDonald, is again at work in the Missionary district of which Fort Macpherson is the head quarters. He returned to it indeed on the 23rd of September, 1873; but the tidings of his return did not reach the Society's House in London, till the 18th of August in the year following. Full accounts of the work of these two faithful brothers for 1874 have not yet been received. A little glimpse is, however, given in a letter from Mr. R. McDonald, dated Rampart House, July 2nd, 1874, and addressed to Bishop Bompas. Rampart House (itself in British territory) is near the borders of Alaska, the American territory in the extreme north-west. In that communication Mr. McDonald writes:—

You will be pleased to hear that all the Kun Kutchin Indians came here last month—all but one, who is, I am told, among the Netsi Kutchin; as also, all the Black River and Rat Indians, excepting about half a dozen; in all there were about 300. I was rejoiced at the earnestness and solicitude they evinced to learn more regarding the things which belong to their eternal peace: the work of Divine grace is evidently deepening among them. They were very attentive and very diligent in committing to memory portions of Scripture and hymns. It was pleasing to observe their rapt attention when listening to the exposition of Scripture. The different tribes were equally eager for Christian instruction. The majority of them remained more than two weeks, and I trust they may have grace bestowed upon them to live in conformity to God's Holy Word. I was exceedingly pleased with the greater number of the Kun Kutchin. I baptized twenty-five adults of that tribe, and of children in all fourteen. The Lord's Supper was administered to sixteen communicants; of these two were Kun Kutchin.

Respecting the Indians of Alaska, among whom he laboured before it became American territory, Mr. McDonald writes:—

I have received a pressing invitation from the Indians that annually assemble at the confluence of the Tumma with the Youcon. It is four years this summer since I spent a few days with them, teaching them of Christ. It is a pity that they should be neglected. They received the Word gladly, and committed to memory some prayers and hymns, the Apostles' Creed, &c.; and a Christian leader was appointed from among them. I trust the American Episcopal Church will be induced to send a Missionary to labour on the Youcon, in Alaska. It is a fine field, and the confluence of the Tumma with the Youcon is an excellent position for a Mission station, since it is the general rendezvous of numerous tribes, and possesses great natural advantages. Good fisheries abound in the vicinity, and moose and reindeer are numerous.

York.

The Society's Missionary at York is the Rev. W. W. Kirkby, so well known by the success which it pleased God to give him in interesting many a Missionary Meeting during his last visit to this country. Mr. Kirkby is assisted by a Catechist, who is stationed at Trout Lake, and by three voluntary unpaid Native Readers. The Native Christians connected with York itself and the three out-stations of Churchill, Severn, and Trout Lake, number about 350, of whom 58 are Communicants. Mr. Kirkby's duties are those of the Pastor as well as of the Missionary. In the neighbourhood of York Factory itself all the Indians are professing Christians. Some heathens are still to be found about 150 miles southwards, at Trout Lake, and near Fort Severn. The Native Readers Mr. Kirkby describes as "steadfast, earnest, and very zealous in their efforts for the salvation of their countrymen." In the districts in which Mr. Kirkby labours the climate is too severe for agriculture to be attempted; so that the inhabitants, it seems, must always subsist by hunting and fishing. It pleased GOD to bless them with temporal prosperity during the year under review. Mr. Kirkby was enabled to visit Severn and Trout Lake in the summer of 1874, and baptized some at each place.—At Severn there are fifty adult members of the Church, all of whom can read their Bibles well and have an intelligent knowledge of Christian doctrine, and some of whom at least appear to be living consistently. All have daily devotions in their tents; and two young men have been appointed to hold religious service on the Lord's Day during those parts of the year when the Indians are assembled at the fort.—At Trout Lake there are now 143 baptized members of the Church. A faithful Catechist has laboured here for two years, and has done good work. He had a large number of candidates for baptism under instruction, most of whom were admitted into the visible Church during Mr. Kirkby's last visit. —It is hoped that Severn and Trout Lake may ere long be under the charge of an ordained Native. The Indians at both these places have come forward liberally in contributing to meet church expenses. Their subscriptions were in kind, but amounted in value to about £14. They are also desirous to erect churches for their own use, and have received kind offers of help from the officers and servants of the Hudson's Bay Company.—If a Native Pastor could be located at Trout Lake, the Eskimos and Chipwyans of Churchill might be reached every year by the Missionary at York Factory. During the year now reported of, Churchill was of sad necessity left altogether unvisited.—The following brief extracts from Mr. Kirkby's journals illustrate the nature of his work and the character and circumstances of the Indian Christians:—

to-day, but all here were present at both services. One regrets very much the necessity that exists for the Indians being so long away from the means of grace; but it cannot be helped. The ground cannot possibly be cultivated; there is no good fishing near; so that the greater part of the people must depend upon their hunts for a living, and this takes them from us during the winter months. But all who left during the past week told me that, whether tented near each other or alone, daily morning and evening prayer was observed in their tents, and on Sunday as far as possible the day was given to the service of God. This assurance gives comfort; and though they are not present with us I can only hope that the Saviour may be near to them and manifest His presence in the midst of all their little assemblies.

Circumstances and characteristics of North American Indian Christians.

July 5.—Severn. God has graciously favoured us again with another fine, bright, happy day. Continued the exposition of the Sermon on the Mount at morning service, and finished the 5th of St. Matthew. English service, at eleven o'clock. Preached on the Cities of Refuge. At the afternoon service had the baptisms of which I had given notice. The men replied nicely. The first one said he desired baptism that he "might the more belong to God;" another said, "because it was the Saviour's command;" another that "he might be altogether a praying man." And as I spoke of the necessity of a faithful adherence to the duties which the profession of Christianity demanded, they appeared to wonder that I should so often repeat that. When an Indian is led to renounce heathenism and embrace the Gospel, he does so in all its integrity. He never thinks of neglecting its duties, or of trying to evade them; hence no matter what their difficulties may be, they will never neglect their daily prayer and the reading of God's Holy Word. In some other things they are not so strict; nor do I find that they realize the varied experience of God's people elsewhere. This may arise from temperament, or from their peculiar mode of life. A short service in English at seven o'clock closed the happy duties of this holy day.

James's Bay.

This district, together with that of York, make up the diocese of Moosonee. The Society's Stations in it are Moose and Albany. The former of these is the head-quarters of the Bishop (Dr. Horden), while the latter is occupied by the Rev. T. Vincent, a country-born brother, under the Bishop's superintendence. The Bishop regrets that the preachers are still few. He has sent Mr. Sanders, his late schoolmaster at Moose, to Red River, to be instructed for the ministry, and is searching for other suitable candidates among the Christian Indians. "In a few years' time," he writes, "I trust neither Indian nor Eskimo in the whole diocese will be able to bring the accusation against the Church, 'No man careth for my soul.'" The Bishop has also supplied the Cree portion of his flock with a new hymnal containing 100 hymns. As the Crees of this part speak a dialect not precisely the same as that spoken at Red River, it has been found advisable to attempt a separate translation of the Bible for their use. The Psalms have been already completed. The Ojibbeway (or Soto) portion of the Bishop's flock have a good Hymn Book, the Prayer Book, and a "Bible and Gospel History."

Nothing of special interest has occurred at MOOSE itself. In the summer of 1874 the Bishop visited Rupert's House, East Main, and Fort George. In all these places he was heartily welcomed by the Indians. The following extract from his account of one of these visits will be read with interest:—

The Fort George Indians were as eager to welcome me as those of Rupert's House have been, but they are nothing like so far advanced in knowledge. It is not to be expected. With the same advantages they would have been in all respects equal to them. I was deeply impressed with their conduct in reference to the Lord's Supper. I had much conversation with some of the best of them about approaching the Lord's table, rather urging them to it, but they declined. The principal man said, "Leave us alone this time, when you come again perhaps we shall be fit for it, but not now." The women weeping, said, "Oh! you do not know us as well as we know ourselves. We know we are unfit, wait until you come again." I ceased to urge them, and I pray that their consciences may always remain as sensitive.

Tenderness of conscience in Indian Christians.

In the spring the Bishop was much cheered by a visit from the Flying Post Indians, hitherto altogether indifferent. By GOD'S mercy a marked change has come over them, and they now show great eagerness in learning to read and receiving instruction. Much help has been rendered to the Mission in various ways by the officers of the Hudson's Bay Company.

At ALBANY, Mr. Vincent, as in former years, has carried on his labours with fidelity and perseverance. He writes, under date Sept. 14, 1874:—

The work of the season is over, that is as far as the majority of our people are concerned. They usually leave the station about this time to take part in the Goose hunt; and, after that is over, they proceed to their winter quarters to make their fur-hunts. We are seldom, however, entirely alone. Apart from the people of the establishment, there are others who are never very far away, and from them we receive frequent visits. The last winter was a very favourable one for our people; they had an abundance of food throughout, and also the most of them have been very successful in their fur-hunts. I feel deeply thankful that it has been so; it is very distressing to hear sometimes of the fearful suffering they experience from want and starvation, far away in a wilderness where no help can reach them.—Our seasons of Communion have been very refreshing. Both at Christmas and at Easter we had very good numbers with us; and in June, after our people returned, nearly all of our communicants were present to receive the emblems of a Saviour's love.—About the 10th of June my work for the summer began. I conducted a daily service, kept school for the children, and prepared classes for Confirmation, in anticipation of our good Bishop's arrival at some future time. I spent about a month in this way, constantly engaged, before leaving my charge and setting out for the interior of the Albany River District.—On the 7th July I left Albany, and set out for Osnaburgh. I gave Isaac Hardisty instructions to conduct two or three services for our Indians weekly, full services on each Lord's day, and Sunday school for the children. In this he was assisted by others that were capable of helping in the good work. On my return about the end of August I was glad to find that my instructions had not been neglected, but that everything had gone on well. The voyage to Osnaburgh occupied about thirty days; and I there met with some of our Christian Indians, whom I baptized on a former visit. They gave me a very warm welcome, and I trust that the time I spent among them served to confirm and strengthen their faith and love. There are a large number of Indians connected with the Osnaburgh post, say at least about 250 souls; many were absent at the time, but with those who were then at the post I was almost constantly engaged, teaching and preaching in the name of Jesus, and preparing candidates for baptism. I found some of them very intelligent. They became well acquainted with the leading facts and doctrines of the Gospel, made fair progress in the Syllabic character, and learnt to sing several of our hymns. Before coming away I had 61 baptisms; two at Martin's Falls raised the number to 63; 30 of these were adults.

NORTH-PACIFIC MISSION.

European Mission Establishment:

Mr. William Duncan, 1856.
Rev. Robert Tomlinson, B.A. (m), 1867.
Mr. W. H. Collison (m), 1873.

METLAHKATLAH.

It was with great joy that the Committee were able to strengthen Mr. Duncan's hands by sending to him a fellow-labourer from this country, Mr. W. H. Collison. Mr. Collison reached Metlahkatlah towards the close of 1873, and has by the grace of God been doing good service ever since his arrival. Mr. Duncan, in his Annual Letter for 1874, writes as follows:—

The hand of our God is still upon us for good, and to Him be all the praise and glory. Last summer Chief Justice Begbie (who is now in England), with several other gentlemen from Victoria, called at Metlahkatlah. We had a meeting of the Indians to see them, and speeches were made. The Chief Justice spoke very encouragingly to our people, and complimented them highly on their advancement. He took great interest in our new church (then in course of erection), and after his departure wrote a kind letter to me, with several suggestions about the building. And now it is with deep thankfulness to God that I am able to inform you that our new church was opened for Divine service for the first time on Christmas Day. We had, indeed, a great struggle to finish it by that time,—the tower and spire presenting very difficult and dangerous work for our unskilled hands,—yet, by God's protecting care, we completed the work without a single accident. The building is finished sufficiently to be used, and is very comfortable; but we have work to do at painting and varnishing, &c., which we trust to accomplish during the coming summer. Over seven hundred Indians were present at our opening services. How would the hearts of our dear friends at home have rejoiced to have witnessed what we were privileged to see on that occasion! Could it be that this concourse of well-dressed people, in their new and beautiful church, but a few years ago made up the fiendish assemblies I saw at Fort Simpson! Could it be that these voices, now engaged in solemn prayer and thrilling songs of praise to Almighty God, are the very voices I once heard yelling and whooping at heathen orgies on dismal winter nights! We cannot but exclaim, "God has indeed made bare His arm, and taken the spoil from the enemy." According to previous arrangement, Brother Tomlinson, with about 100 of his people, came from Kincolith, partly to attend the opening of our new church, and partly that together we might examine the catechumens of both stations for baptism. The last week in the old year, and the first week in the new year, we devoted principally to these examinations. The result was, that 78 of the Catechumens of Metlahkatlah, and 22 of the Kincolith Mission, were passed. These, with 33 infants belonging to Metlahkatlah, and 7 infants belonging to Kincolith, were baptized on the two first Sundays in the year, viz., the 3rd and 10th January. I may add, that 140 adult Catechumens still remain on the list at Metlahkatlah. These are postponed, some that we may see more marked signs of stability of Christian character, and others that they may be better instructed in the faith. On New Year's Day we held our General Meeting as usual, on which occasion over 100 souls were entered as [new] settlers. This is the greatest number of settlers that we have had in any one year since we commenced the Mission, and that, too, in the face of opposition, and without our relaxing in the least degree our discipline already established.

Two years ago the same faithful and much-loved brother had the joy to report of a successful effort made by the Native Christians of Metlahkatlah for the evangelization of their countrymen at Fort Simpson. This work has been brought to a sudden and unexpected close by the arrival of a Missionary belonging to the Canadian Methodists from Victoria. Neither Mr. Duncan nor his colleague concur in the wisdom of the step taken by the Canadian Missionaries; and there are circumstances connected with this change in the state of affairs which have caused him very much sorrow. Another source of pain and anxiety to which Mr. Duncan has been subjected, is the policy adopted, or proposed to be adopted, by the Provincial Canadian Government towards the Indian population. He has thought it desirable to proceed personally to Ottawa, to make representations on the subject. It will be remembered that Ottawa is the capital of the Dominion of Canada, with which British Columbia is now federally united.

Mr. Collison has special charge of the schools, which he speaks of as being in a healthy and flourishing state, and which are attended, as in previous years, both by adults and by children.

KINCOLITH.

The Rev. R. Tomlinson's Report from this station is scarcely less encouraging than that of Mr. Duncan from Metlakahtlah. He writes:—

granted to us by our heavenly Father, that I sit down to give you a short sketch of the events of the past year. Never in any previous year have we had so large an increase to our numbers, as you may gather from our statistics (90 Native Christians, 22 adult baptisms), though that does not fully show the increase, as some have joined us too lately to appear in the list. It will also interest you to know, that many of those who joined us last year are from the number of those who regularly attended the preaching of the Word by Brother Doolan, when the Mission at Naas was first started; and though they have held back for many years, they acknowledge that it was hearing the Word spoken by him which first led them to think about their souls' welfare. —With the opening of the year 1874 was set on foot a subscription for a church bell; in this way a sum, amounting to nearly 25*l.*, was raised among our villagers, for they offered willingly: with this sum we purchased a bell, which has since arrived safely, and meets with general approval. Once during the summer the progress of the Mission was threatened, not by tribal quarrels, nor yet by the assaults of heathenism, but by an insidious attempt of a strong party at Naas, who, dissatisfied with their present position, wished indeed to come to Kincolith, but only on condition of being able to change the essentially Christian character of the village. By God's good help we were enabled to baffle this design, and since then the village has steadily progressed.—The worldly concerns of the Mission, also, continue to prosper. The Mission-house is finished, and proves a very convenient and comfortable residence. About seven years ago, the Mission sustained pecuniary loss by the closing of a store, which had been established as a branch to the Metlahkatlah store. This store has been reopened for some time, at the request of the Indians, and has succeeded so well that this year we are enabled to repay more than the half of that loss.—In former years, during the fishing season at Naas, it was only those Indians from the Missions at Metlahkatlah and Kincolith who observed the Sabbath. This year, through the influence of some of the Christians from Kincolith, the great body of the Nishkahs who were camped near them, not only rested on the Sabbath, but attended services regularly held among them by these same Christians.

CONCLUSION.

The Committee would again humbly and joyfully acknowledge the many grounds for thanksgiving with which the Lord of the harvest has graciously favoured them. The liberality of God's people has once more supplied the exchequer of the Society with pecuniary resources fully adequate to the expenditure of the year. And if, among the leading and influential classes in heathen countries, visible conversions have been limited to a few striking individual cases, it is matter for unfeigned rejoicing that many hundreds of those in humbler positions have during the year not only heard the Gospel gladly, but joined themselves to the visible Church, in the face sometimes of violent opposition or cruel persecution. It is also remarkable how, in the scantiness or absence of European helpers and counsellors, the Native Church and Native Christian Agents have been in several places wonderfully endued with wisdom, power, and zeal, and have been enabled to go forward with a strong, if sometimes trembling, faith, which has not been disappointed. Fifteen Native Christians in connexion with the Society have been admitted to deacons' orders during the year.

While God, in His goodness, has thus blessed the Society's labours, bringing more of the heathen under the sound of the Gospel, and extending and consolidating the infant Churches, there are at the same time causes for prayer, humiliation, and solicitude. Among these the deficiency in the supply of fresh candidates from the Universities and from the younger clergy stands especially prominent. There are doubtless parts of the Mission-field where GOD has been graciously pleased to overrule the fewness or absence of European Missionaries to the calling out of greater activity among Native Agents and Native Christian communities. But, speaking generally, experience leads the Committee to regard it as a serious calamity when they are compelled to withdraw European Evangelists from any district where the population is still mainly heathen. And surely the cause that would necessitate such a step would be still more hurtful to the Church at home. Can it be expected that GOD'S blessing will continue to rest on any Christian community which neglects the blessed duty and privilege of being partner with its Divine Head in making known GOD'S way upon earth, His saving health among all nations? A declining Missionary zeal would be a cause, as well as a consequence, of spiritual coldness and darkness.

But the Committee encourage themselves at the same time in the belief that the present scarcity of Missionary candidates from the Universities and from the younger clergy will not be of long continuance. It appears to them that the Spirit of God is evidently at work in the English and Irish Churches, as well as among professing Christians generally in the British Isles; and they believe that those spiritual awakenings which characterize the present day must tend ultimately to supply the need that is now so manifest. Let there be only a deeper feeling of the infinite love of the Lord Jesus in redeeming His people; let there be a fuller reception and a warmer appreciation of "the innumerable benefits which by His precious blood-shedding He hath obtained to us;" and let there be, in consequence, more self-devotion, more desire that Christ may be magnified, more doing the one thing, more pressing towards the mark for the prize of the high calling in Christ Jesus; and the Committee rest assured that men and means will not be wanting; and that many a toil-worn and almost fainting Evangelist in distant lands will be gladdened by the arrival of zealous, loving fellow-helpers to co-operate with him in the work of the blessed Master. Fruit will be gathered unto life eternal, and he that soweth and he that reapeth will rejoice together.

PRAYER USED AT THE ANNUAL MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks for the light of Thy Gospel. Make us more grateful for this Thy mercy, and more zealous for the salvation of all mankind.

Visit in mercy the Church of Christ; enrich it more abundantly with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit; and bless its endeavours to make known Thy Truth. Unite, as one man, all who are truly labouring for Thee. Disappoint the designs of Satan. Let all Christian Societies live in harmony and love; give them wisdom in all their plans; perfect Thy strength in their weakness; and direct their labours to Thy glory!

The Harvest truly is great, but the Labourers are few! O Thou Lord of the Harvest, send forth Labourers into Thy harvest! Fill with Thy Spirit those whom Thou hast sent forth; and enable them faithfully and boldly to preach, among Jews and Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ. Keep them from the snares of the world, the flesh, and the Devil; deliver them from all evil; and make them wise to win souls.

Upon all the Native Converts whom Thou hast gathered to Thyself, through Thy labouring servants throughout the world, pour out Thy Holy Spirit, that, as Thou hast begotten them again unto a lively hope, so they may ever be followers of Thee as dear children. Deliver them from all remaining darkness and ignorance; destroy and abolish in their hearts all that remains of Satan's kingdom; grant that their faith, and hope, and love may grow exceedingly; make them to be ready to every good work, and more especially to exert themselves for the salvation of those around them; that so, by their zeal and faithful testimony, by their holiness and fruitfulness, they may glorify Thy name before their countrymen, and bring in unto Thee, from the midst of them, such as shall be saved.

Have compassion, O Most-merciful Father, on all those who have come under instruction, though they be not yet altogether Christians. Convince them effectually, by Thy Word and Spirit, of their sinful and miserable state; pour upon them the spirit of grace and supplication, and draw them to Jesus.

Take away blindness from the Jews. Let them receive Thee, O Jesus, as their Messiah, and proclaim Thy saving Name among the Gentiles.

Deliver all Mohammedans from the delusions of the False Prophet! O Thou True Prophet of Thy Church, enlighten them by Thy Holy Spirit, and bow them down at the foot of Thy Cross!

Pity blind Idolaters, who are kept in cruel bondage by the god of this world. Turn them from idols, that they may serve the Living and True God.

O Thou Almighty Saviour, who by the right hand of God art exalted, and hast received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, shed forth His light and grace on this dark world!

Cause all Christians, we beseech Thee, to sow bountifully; that they may reap also bountifully. O Thou that lovest a cheerful giver, let all grace abound toward them, that they may minister liberally of their substance to the making known of Thy Name!

With these our humble prayers, we join our praises and thanksgivings for what Thou hast already done in making known Thy salvation: perfect Thy work, O Lord; shortly accomplish the number of Thine elect; and hasten the coming of Thy Kingdom.

Be present with us, O Lord, at this time. Give us all a single eye to Thy glory. May Thy blessing rest upon our meeting; and may all our hearts be this day quickened and encouraged to fresh and persevering efforts in Thy Service.

We ask these mercies for the glory of Thy Name, through the merits and mediation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; and would ascribe to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Three Persons in One God, everlasting praise. Amen!

Our Father which art in Heaven: Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER USED AT THE OPENING OF MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF CORRESPONDENCE.

ALMIGHTY GOD, our Heavenly Father, who hast purchased to Thyself an universal Church, by the precious blood of Thy dear Son, we give Thee hearty thanks that it hath pleased Thee to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee, and to appoint our lot in an age and country, where the true light shineth. We bless Thee that Thou hast awakened us in some measure to feel our responsibilities. We praise Thee for what we have seen and heard of the power of Thy word among the heathen; we adore Thee for Thy many servants who have gone out from amongst us to toil and suffer and die in making known Thy salvation; and we thank Thee that Thou dost allow us, unworthy sinners, to unite together in this work of faith and labour of love.

We humbly confess our past lukewarmness in this Thy service, notwithstanding these Thine inestimable benefits and mercies. For our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us our past negligences, and so endue us with Thy Holy Spirit, that we may more earnestly seek Thy glory in the salvation of souls.

Grant us, we beseech Thee, Thy very present help at these our meetings. We ask, most gracious God and Father, for a constraining sense of the love of the Lord Jesus, and for wisdom to direct us in all our endeavours. Increase upon us the spirit of power and of love and of a sound mind. Give us faith and courage; give us zeal and patience; give us a single eye to Thy glory, and help us to bear and to forbear. The silver and the gold are Thine, O King of kings! Supply us with what is needful for our great work, and make us faithful stewards of Thy bounty, for proclaiming to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ.

We pray also for all who are united with us in the direction of this sacred cause. May Thine especial blessing rest upon our Committees, with their Secretaries, throughout the world. Bestow on them the help that we feel so needful for ourselves. Enable them to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, and ever to find favour in the sight of all with whom they may have to do.

Especially we beseech Thee to look, O most merciful Father, upon our Missionary brethren. Draw out our hearts towards them more and more; and while they are bearing the burden abroad, give us grace to help and succour them by our sympathy and prayers at home. Bless every letter written to them from this house, and all our intercourse with them. We pray for them that they may be filled with Thy Spirit. Grant that the same mind may be in them which was also in Christ Jesus. Let them never lose their first love. Raise them above the cares of this world. Help them to deny themselves and to endure all things for the elects' sake. Give them the tongue of the learned. Clothe them with humility. Teach them to follow peace with each other, and with all men. Support them under spiritual distresses, temptations of the Adversary, bodily sickness, domestic anxieties, and hope deferred. And so confirm Thy word from their lips by the power of the Holy Ghost, that through them multitudes may be turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto Thee, our God.

We most heartily thank Thee, O Lord, for those whom Thou hast already sent forth through this Society; and we pray for a yet larger outpouring of a Missionary spirit on our younger Clergy, on the members of our Universities, on those who are elsewhere preparing for this holy work, on the young men of all ranks and orders throughout our land. And herein do we implore Thy special favour on our Islington Institution, that its numbers may be replenished continually; and that none may go forth thence but such as shall be able ministers of the New Testament, full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost.

We praise Thee, O Thou God of all grace, for the Converts, the Native Catechists, and the Native Clergy, whom Thou hast granted to us in our several Missions. As Thou hast raised the Native Churches thus far, bring them, we pray Thee, to full ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ. Pour out upon them Thy Holy Spirit. Stablish, strengthen, settle them, and so enlarge their liberality, that they may both maintain Thy word among themselves, and may make it known to the regions beyond them, till all the Gentiles hear the glad tidings of Thy love.

And now, O Lord God, be Thou in the midst of us to-day. Give us a constant sense of Thy presence, and may all our undertakings be begun, continued, and ended in Thee, to the honour of Thy great name, for the sake of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

PROPER FORM OF A BENEFACTION TO THE SOCIETY BY WILL.

No. I.—Form of a Bequest of a Common Legacy.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer for the time being of the Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East the sum of Pounds *free of Legacy duty for the general purposes of the said Society to be paid within calendar months next after my death, exclusively out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may be bequeathed for charitable purposes and in priority to all other payments thereout but to be subject to abate proportionably with other Legacies in case my general Personal Estate shall be insufficient for payment of them all in full. And I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society [or each of the said Societies] shall be an effectual discharge for the said Legacy [or Legacies respectively].

No. II.—Form of Bequest of the Residue, or a Share of the Residue.

And in order to give full effect to the bequest hereinafter contained for charitable purposes I direct that my Debts, the expenses of my funeral and of the probate and execution of this my Will and the Legacies bequeathed by this my Will or any Codicil thereto† shall be paid out of such part of my Personal Estate as by the Laws in force at my death may not be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the primary Fund‡ and in case only of the same being insufficient for payment thereof then out of such part of my Personal Estate as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes as the ultimate Fund: and subject as aforesaid, I give and bequeath unto the Treasurer for the time being of The Church Missionary Society for Africa and the East, for the general purposes of the said Society, such part of my Residuary Personal Estate as by the Laws in force may be bequeathed for charitable purposes [or if a share only of the Residue be intended to be given, then, instead of the words in Italics, say, "such sum of money as shall be equal to one fourth or one half, (according to the intention) of my whole Residuary Personal Estate to be paid exclusively out of such part thereof as may be bequeathed for charitable purposes or such less sum as the said last mentioned part of my Personal Estate will extend to pay"]. And I declare that the Receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Society shall be an effectual discharge for the said residue [or sum of money, as the case may be]. And as to the remainder if any of my general Residuary Personal Estate I bequeath the same, &c.§

* If so intended.

‡ If it be intended also to charge the Debts and Legacies on Real Estate, then add, "and in the next place out of my Freehold and Copyhold Estates."

§ The latter Clause to be filled up according to the Testator's wishes; but it must not be for any charitable purpose.

, This mark * denotes that the Sermon was preached at St. Ann's, Blackfriars; this †, that it was preached at St. Bride's, Fleet Street; the Twenty-third was preached at Christ Church, Newgate Street; the Thirty-first at St. Sepulchre's; the Thirty-second at St. Clement Danes; and the Thirty-third at St. Andrew's, Holborn.

The Collections at the Sixteenth and subsequent Anniversaries include the sums contributed at the Annual Meetings.

IV.—SUPPLEMENTARY LIST OF BENEFACTIONS AND LEGACIES OF FORMER YEARS,

FROM APRIL 1, 1872, TO MARCH 31, 1874.

 To save expense of printing, the Lists of Benefactions and Legacies of former years is now revised every three years, instead of every year as formerly. Sums received during the interval of two years will be stated in the following List. At the expiration of that time the contents of the List will merge in the general Lists, as at pp. (3)—(26).

BENEFACTIONS RECEIVED DURING THE TWO YEARS ENDING MARCH 31, 1874.

NOTICE TO TREASURERS AND SECRETARIES OF ASSOCIATIONS.

THE Committee of the Church Missionary Society request the Treasurers or Secretaries of Associations to transmit the proceeds of their respective Associations, together with the Contribution Lists and Accounts, as soon after the close of their Financial Year as possible.

The Society's General Accounts are closed on the 31st of March, and all Moneys belonging to the year must be received at the Society's House by that date, in order to secure the insertion of the Lists in their proper places in the Report.

The Lists and Accounts (written legibly to avoid mistakes in printing, and made up in the manner in which the same are printed in the Parent Society's Report) must, in order to secure insertion among the Association Lists in the Report, be sent in not later than the 31st of March. But both labour and expense may be saved to the Society by sending in the Lists and Accounts as much earlier as is possible. The date at which the Accounts of the Association are closed, and the names of the Local Officers, should be specified. Should no names be given, it will be assumed that they remain the same as in the previous Report, and the List will be so printed. Where the Account or the List is a printed one, two copies should be forwarded.

Where an Association has Branches connected with it, the Accounts of the Branches must be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association some time before the period for forwarding the Accounts of the Association to London. When this is not done within a reasonable time, such Branches should be considered as self-excluded, and the Accounts forwarded without them.

To prevent mistakes, it is requested that Branch Associations will in every case, where practicable, forward their Money and Lists through the Association with which they are connected, and not direct to the Parent Society.

The Committee would also point out, for more universal adoption, the convenience of making remittances on account whenever any considerable proportion of the year's receipts is in the hands of the Local Treasurer. This course would tend to equalize in a greater degree the Income and Expenditure in the earlier months of the Society's Financial Year, and save the Society a considerable yearly sum.

The Committee return their cordial thanks to the Treasurers of Associations, and to those friends who kindly fill the office of Secretary—an office which, they are well aware, draws largely on the time and attention of those who occupy it, but on the efficient discharge of the duties of which the prosperity of an Association chiefly depends.

N.B.—Benefactors of Ten Pounds and upward, whose names have appeared in former Lists of the Associations, will find them in the List of "Benefactions of Former Years."

May 28th, 1875.

† The balance of £5999 8s. standing at the credit of General Mission account is subject to be reduced by £2462 14s. 11d., a debt due by the Jerusalem Church Fund, unless further contributions are received for that object.—A. B., J. S., S. R. C.

Suggested Order of Proceedings at a Meeting Preparatory to the Formation of an Association in Aid of the Church Missionary Society.

1.—Mr. will move, and Mr. will second, a Resolution, "That be requested to take the Chair."

2.—The Chairman will briefly state the object for which the Meeting is assembled, and then call on the Rev. to offer up the usual Prayer to Almighty God, for a blessing on the proceedings of the day.

3.—After Prayer, the Chairman will make such further observations as he may deem necessary, and then call on Mr. to move the first Resolution.

FIRST RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That this Meeting fully recognises the duty incumbent on Christians to employ all suitable means for the propagation of the Gospel throughout the world; and hails, with thankfulness to the Great Head of the Church, the labours of the CHURCH MISSSIONARY SOCIETY in its various Stations in Heathen Lands, and among decayed Christian Churches.

SECOND RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That an Association be now formed, and entitled, "The Church Missionary Association;") and that the following be its Officers and Rules:—

PRESIDENT. VICE-PRESIDENTS.

COMMITTEE:
with power to add to their number.

RULES

I. Annual Members of this Association shall be all persons subscribing annually One Guinea or upward: or if Clergymen, Half a Guinea; and also such persons as shall collect in it behalf One Shilling or upward per week.

II. Life Members shall be Benefactors of Ten Guineas or upward; or if Clergymen, such as shall contribute Congregational Collections to the amount of Twenty Guineas; and Executors paying bequests of Fifty Pounds.

III. Annual Governors shall be Subscribers of Five Guineas per annum.

IV. Life Governors shall be Benefactors of Fifty Pounds.

V. Members will be entitled to receive the Annual Reports of the Parent Society, and to vote at its General Meetings. Subscribers of Ten Shillings per annum will receive a copy of the Annual Sermon and Abstract of Report. Collectors of Sixpence and upward per week will receive a copy of each Monthly Number of the "Church Missionary Record;" and Collectors of Two Shillings and upward per week will receive a copy of the Annual Report in addition to the "Record." Governors will be entitled to receive the Reports; and, if Members of the Established Church, to vote at Committee and General Meetings of both the Association and the Parent Society—Clergymen will have the same privilege as Governors. Contributors of 1*d.* a-week and upward will be entitled to receive the Parent Society's "Quarterly Paper."

VI. The objects of this Association shall be, to call forth the zeal of well-disposed persons, and particularly those of the Established Church, in support of the Church Missionary Society—to recommend proper persons who may offer themselves as Missionaries to the Parent Society—to disperse as widely as possible Missionary information—to promote the formation of Branch Associations—and to procure Collections and other Contributions.

VII. The whole of the funds so obtained, after deducting incidental expenses only, shall be remitted to the Church Missionary Society, in aid of its designs.

VIII. A General Meeting shall be held annually, on such day as shall be fixed by the Committee; when a Report of the Proceedings of the Association shall be read, and an account of its receipts and disbursements presented, duly audited.

THIRD RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the success which, under the Divine Blessing, has attended the Church Missionary ciety in its efforts to make known the Gospel of Christ among the Heathen, is a loud and So vidential call for increased exertions, for devou thanksgiving to Almighty God, and for continual prayer for a more abundant out-pouring of the Holy Spirit to render the means employed successful.

FOURTH RESOLUTION.—Moved by
Seconded by

That the new and enlarged openings for Missionary exertion, in different quarters, demand our best energies to make known the blessed Gospel of Christ to Heathen and Mohammedan Nations.
